Executors of the Great Estate in Omaha Looking Over Property. Messrs. Oliver W. Mink, Oliver Ames second, and Samuel Carr, executors of the estate of the late Frederick L. The business which brings these gentle-men to the city at this time is generally well known to be a desire on the part of the representatives of Mr. Ames to inspect the properties which the late multi-millionaire left in trust for the benefit of the Ames After a short rest Mr. Mink Mr. Amer and Mr. Carr were shown about the city by Mr. Will Millard and their attention called to the different prices of real estate and business property which the late director of the Union Pacific had acquired here. Mr. Mink has been Mr. Ames' railroad repmeasure grown up under the guidance of New England's richest and well known citizen. Familiar with all the ramifications of Mr Ames' railroad holdings and being one of After rainford notifings and being one of the shrewdest financial lights in Boston, the selection of Mr. Mink gives general satisfac-tion, for it shows, as one well known Omahan said yesterday, that there is to be little change in the affairs of Mr. Ames, though ha has passed away he has passed away.

GOVERNOR BOYD'S RETURN. He Talks of California Crops and Nebraska

Politics. Yesterday morning ex-Governor James E Boyd returned from a four weeks pleasure trip to California and the Pacific coast, looking much improved in health. The governor said that from what he could judge, based on conversations had with representative men on the coast, both California and Oregon were in favor of the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman act.

Questioned as to the state of business upon the Pacific slope, the governor said : "Busithe radius slope, the governor said: "Busi-ness in all branches appeared to me to be very dull and quiet. This was particularly noticeable in the hotels by the absence of guests. Such hotels as the Portland in Portland, Ore., capable of accommodating 1.000 guests, did not have 150, and the Palace notel in San Francisco, which cor-tanny is the largest and finest hotel in Palace notel in San Francisco, which cor-tainly is the largest and finest hotel in America, had even a loss number. I visited the New California and Baidwin theaters in San Francisco, and neither was a quarter full. San Francisco is expecting big things from the Midwinter fair, but I saw what was being done in Goiden Gate park last Monday, and it looked as if they had hardly made a beginning yet. In my ominion more made a beginning yet. In my opinion more people will be attracted to the Pacific coast this winter by the low rates of railroad travel than by the fair. "California is certainly a great country and one of the greatest fruit-raising sections of the world; but it is so far from the mar-ket that after deducting the charges and ket that after deducting the charges and loss in transportation the producer has little or nothing left. At Fresno, which is in the San Joaquin valley, probably the richest grape-producing part of California, I heard of large quantities of the finest quality of grapes selling for 1 cent per pound, and the producers counted themselves lucky to get that. The newspapers of California want every visitor to speak moraise of their state, but I could not help standing up for Ne-braska? and while I admitted the justness of their claims, 1 told them that after all the part of this country which raised the corn to part of this country which raised the corn to fatten the cattle and hogs with which to feed the millions of the carth, was and Governor Boyd was then asked what he thought of the present city campaign, and he replied as follows: "I think the nomination of Mr. Jefferson Bedford as candidate for the mayoralty of Omaha is an excellent one. He is a man of good business sense and experience, and is one of our most respected citizens. There is no question as to his ability to discharge the duties of the office to the entire satisfaction of our people. Mr. Bedford ought to be, and I think will be, elected for the reason that Omaha is and has been for some time a dem-ocratic city. If he is defeated there can be but one reason assigned for it, and that will be that the men who have forced themselves into the control and management of the dem-Into the control and management of the dem-ocratic party in this city and county lack the ability to properly manage a campaign. Their management of both state and county campaigns heretofore has been such a notori-ous failure that the rank and file of the democratic party have lost confidence in them, and have become discusted. The democratic party have can have become for democratic party here can hardly hope for success as long as the control remains in the hands of such men. Omaha needs a business man for mayor, and as I said before, I believe Mr. Bedford will be elected. I shall do everything in my power to accomplish that end."

The ex-governor, being asked why he refused the candidacy, said: "While the position is an honorable one, I had that honor thrust upon me on two pre-vious occasions, and served the people of Omaha as faithfully as I could, to the neglect of my own business. I know what the position of mayor of Omaha means, and I know thoroughly its duties and require-ments. It is full of wavefilms and means ances, and under the circumstances I could not screw my courage up sufficiently to take it for a third time. So, when I received a dispatch in Colfax, Cal. last Monday, stating that the democratic city convention would be largely in my favor, I immediately replied as follows: 'Have not been and am not a candidate, and under no circumstances will I accept the nomination for mayor."

He Wept A Bandana Full,

he muttered some beautiful and rare words, abused the wisdom of the extra session of our congress, kicked a bunlon off his left foot, poked his fist through a fire extinguisher and swore life is a source of pleasure, all because he was forced to accept eighty odd thousand dollars for an invoice of two hundred thousand dollars' worth of overcoats. Our generous buyer's been weeping since out of respect to the mourner.

It'll make us weep if you clean us out of overcoats during this week's feast-we so generously arranged for those who prefer an overcoat to a doctor's bill. We placed on sale overcoats that are in demand just now. Medium weights, not too heavy, nor too light. Heavy enough for some for thorough winter, light enough for others for spring and fall wear. SEVEN SEVENTY FIVE is the price we quote for a garment which, upon oath before any magistrate, we positively value it at $15.00because-an all wool black cheviot garment, lined with fine Italiene, honestly made and systematically cut into a straight sack, like ours, cost from $10.00 to $12.00 to manufacture. Now add profit.

Next in order we'll brag on our NINE-DOLLAR beauties. We show 3 different overcoats. Here is the steel gray, trable silk stitched edge, ornamental finish-Korsey-California woo! lining-silk serge sleeve-regulation cut. Another, a hadsome light brown shade of Kersey -Haliene lined-mohair sleeve linings-silk plush collar-also sack cut. Still another, a popular slate shade-Kersey-silk serge lining-double and treble stitched on edges-soft roll fronts. The real value of this apparel is none of our funeral-but we'll stake the reputation of the Nebraska against a popcorn ball that you'd consider it a good purchase had you paid double the $9.00.

High art overcoats-well, we should say yes. We haven't exactly the space of a county tax collector in this paper. otherwise we could describe a few. If you take few minutes-if only to see our $12.50, $11.50 and $16.50 custom made garments—you might reap a benefit lesson upon "How to avoid paying fancy prices to tailors."
