CHANGED THE MAJORITY WITH THE DELAY

Daniel of Virginia Says the Repealers Are Using Obstructive Tactics—Another Day of Pleasure for the Galleries.

Mr. Mills' Earnestness.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The senate resumed its session at 10 o'clock this morning at the expiration of the recess taken yesterday.

Mr. Morgan of Alabama took exception to the motion of Mr. Dolph to amend the journal so as to show the presence of Mr. A. B. in the roll was called at 6:30 o'clock Monday evening, that senator having failed to answer when his name was called.

Mr. Morgan said that while the decision cited yesterday by Mr. Hill from the 144 United States supreme court reports, might be twisted and perverted into a support of his (Mr. Hill's) position as a judicial decision, it could not be placed in that category except by the artfulness of an astute politician.

A fair-minded lawyer could not be expected to do this. The supreme court merely decided that the house of representatives, under the constitution, had the right to make its rules for ascertaining and recording the fact that a quorum was present.

It might suit men of that class to follow the government of national banks could not take an oath of allegiance to the opinions of the supreme court today and change the government of national banks could not take an oath of allegiance to the opinions of the court changed.

Mr. Daniel, democrat of Virginia, remarked that he considered himself the majority on the pending question more responsible for the delays which had occurred in coming to a vote than those whom they designate as the majority.

TOUCHED UP THE POPULISTS

In a Speech at the World's Fair Secretary Morton Pays His Respects to Them.

JUST A LITTLE POLITICS IN HIS TALK

How the Agriculturist Has Been Led Astray by the "Journeyman Farmers" of Today—The Response by Mr. Walsh.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 18.—Secretary of Agriculture Morton had something to say about silver, and he gave the populists a touch in his speech before the National Commission of the World's Columbian exposition today.

"Everything in the civilized career of our race seems to have been massed here, an object lesson from all the centuries, to teach Americans their duties and their possibilities. I observed that the senate has been instructed, underlying all sciences, arts, agriculture, and it has just begun to dawn upon the agricultural mind that it needs individual development and self-reliance in each citizen, rather than gregarious organizations which may be deputed or given power of attorney to think for the farmers.

"But what shall be learned from all this season of disaster? The bankers of the country ought to gather some lessons from it. I am sure some are not as strong in mind as they would have had they kept in mind in times of prosperity the necessity of saving as a preparation for times of adversity."

Mr. Daniel, democrat of Virginia, remarked that he considered himself the majority on the pending question more responsible for the delays which had occurred in coming to a vote than those whom they designate as the majority.

SLASHED THEIR SALARIES

Pacific Express Company Employees Working on Reduced Wages.

Yesterday afternoon the employees of the Pacific Express company of this city were officially notified of a sweeping reduction in salaries.

The order affects every man on the pay rolls of the company in this city, and covers October salaries. The retrenchment, it is announced, applies as follows: All employees receiving $75 per month or more previous to October 1 are reduced 12 1/2 percent on their pay. All employees receiving salaries exceeding $40 per month are cut 10 percent, while those receiving $40 or less are slashed 10 percent.

General consternation at the reduction among the employees, many of whom complained bitterly because the notice of the retrenchment was not given until two weeks after the date upon which the order went into effect.

It is said that the reduction is due to the recent visit of Oliver W. Mink of Boston. Mr. Mink is a prominent director of the company, and has been in the city for several days.
