

JOHN DORGAN ON THE RACK

Trial of the Alleged Arlyum Booter in Progress at Lincoln.

ENORMOUS QUANTITIES OF COAL SOLD

How He is Said to Have Defrauded the State Out of Large Sums in This Connection His Influential Friends.

Lincoln, Oct. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The trial of John T. Dorgan, for alleged fraud committed against the state in the matter of furnishing supplies to the State hospital for the insane, commenced in district court before Judge Tibbets this afternoon. The state is represented by County Attorney Woodward, ex-County Attorney Snell and J. R. Gilkerson. The defense will be conducted by C. O. Wheeler, J. E. Marston, L. W. Hillinsley, Walter A. Lease and Captain Murfin, the latter from Superior.

Not since the memorable Irvine trial one year ago has a prisoner at the bar been defended by such an array of legal talent. The strength of the defense may be taken as a fair index of the earnestness with which John Dorgan will endeavor to escape from the punishment which would naturally follow conviction of the serious charges preferred against him by the state.

Wheeler is one of the most successful criminal lawyers in the state, and in Mr. Marston he has an able second. Both gentlemen are attorneys for C. W. Mosher, the National Bank of Commerce, and Captain Hillinsley has been connected with the defense in all of the leading criminal trials in the city for the past ten years.

Charge Against Dorgan.—The charges against Dorgan are of more than usual seriousness. He was indicted last December, and again in June of the present year, on three counts, which charge that he has obtained warrants on false pretenses and by cheating and defrauding the state by collecting more money for coal supplied to the State Hospital for the Insane than he was entitled to.

A brief resume of the operations of Dorgan will not be inappropriate at the present time. In investigating committee appointed by the recent legislature, the charges against Dorgan in the report presented to the house and these charges were embodied in articles of impeachment preferred against the state officials.

In July, 1898, Dorgan, as the representative and manager of the Whitcomb Coal Company of Lincoln, delivered 250,000 pounds of coal to the asylum and charged for 720,000 pounds, for which he received payment.

In August, 1898, he delivered 207,000 pounds of coal and charged and collected for 700,000 pounds.

In September, 1898, he delivered 272,000 pounds of coal and collected pay for 724,000 pounds.

In October, 1898, he delivered 346,000 pounds and charged the state for 400,000 pounds.

In November, 1898, he delivered 642,000 pounds and collected pay for 1,944,000 pounds.

In December, 1898, he delivered 662,000 pounds and the state paid him for 1,480,000 pounds.

In January, 1899, he delivered 378,000 pounds and collected pay for 1,080,000 pounds.

In February, 1899, he delivered 480,000 pounds and presented a claim for 1,480,000 pounds.

In March, 1899, he delivered 470,000 pounds and charged the state for 1,040,000 pounds.

In April, 1899, he delivered 363,000 pounds and collected pay for 882,000 pounds.

In August, 1899, he delivered 301,000 pounds and presented a bill to the state for 983,000 pounds.

In September, 1899, he delivered 308,000 pounds and collected pay for 818,000 pounds.

Trial Will Be a Long One.—There is a fair prospect that the trial will be a long one and that every point will be hotly contested. The evidence taken by the grand jury at its last session was very voluminous and will doubtless be reproduced in detail. The entire day was taken up in the examination of jurors.

Condemned to Commit Suicide.—James Condon was sentenced to the state penitentiary on Friday, and was confined to a cell at the county jail yesterday afternoon. Condon was not taken to the penitentiary, owing to the condition of that institution, and was kept in an isolated cell at the county jail. He kept up a continual yelling, and his strident tones were heard in the corridors of the jail. In time to remove Condon's cell, two men went to the cell and placed it in the hope of meeting death. It was with difficulty that the men were able to restrain Condon in the cell. He says that he is ready to die, but would rather die in Ireland.

From the Police Court.—John D. Frank, James Drake and Ed Harris were each given ten days and costs in the county jail by Judge Waters this morning for disturbing the peace.

J. H. Rooney, arrested last Wednesday, charged with vagrancy, was assessed costs this morning in Judge Waters' court. Not having the necessary funds with which to pay them, he will be out with the county.

J. G. McDonald and Pat Sheehan were given ten days and costs this morning for vagrancy.

Frank Jones, who was arrested last Wednesday, supposed to be one of a gang of five men who were locked in a garret around town for some time, was discharged by Judge Waters this morning and given one hour to leave town.

Lincoln is Relief.—The independent announce a big blowout at the M street tent tomorrow, during which John M. Devine and John M. Hagan will be the speakers. The campaign will be fought on here with a big rally Monday evening, November 6, with G. M. Kinchard and D. B. Carey as the speakers, and to which Senator Stewart of Nevada is expected.

Warden Beemer has introduced a new system of feeding the prisoners at the penitentiary. The men were locked in their cells and before being furnished with food, but under the new regime tables are placed on each side of the corridor outside the cells, and the men marched out and seated at them. This is considered an important sanitary measure.

The twenty-sixth annual session of the Nebraska Baptist state convention, which opened its afternoon at the First Baptist church, corner of Fourteenth and K streets. A large number of delegates are in attendance. The convention promises to be one of the most interesting in the history of the denomination in Nebraska.

Vicious house at the corner of Twelfth and Pine streets was fired about 7 o'clock last night. The flames were soon extinguished, and the cause was traced to a gas stove. The fire was discovered when a man was running away from the building, and it is thought that he is the incendiary. The police have his description and are looking for him.

E. L. Woolsey and wife, who have been remaining for the last few months in Wyoming and Montana, returned to their home yesterday at 2805 South Fourteenth street and found that some one had broken into their home and ransacked it from top to bottom. The only things that were missing were a ladies gold watch, some small pieces of gold and some old coins. The thieves effected an entrance by breaking the glass in the kitchen door and unlocking the door, then locked the door on the inside and took the key with them, and going out of the front door, leaving it open.

About 11 o'clock last night the fire department was called to a point between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, where the Burlington railroad bridge was found to be in flames. By the time the department arrived the wheels top of the bridge was in a blaze, but by the quick and efficient work of the chemical fire flames were soon under control. Some of the firemen had to stand in water up to their arms in order to reach the flames on the under side of the bridge. The damage will be small.

A. O. U. W. to Celebrate.—YOUR, Neb., Oct. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the Ancient Order of United Workmen will be celebrated by the local order of this place Wednesday. Lodges from Seward, Aurora and other points will be in attendance. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. Byron Heath, G. S. Simons and J. C. Tals. A parade will be given at 1:30 p. m. led by the York Military band. A program has been prepared for both afternoon and evening.

Mrs. F. Bell died yesterday morning of consumption. Mrs. Bell was the wife of F. O. Bell, the well known banker of this city. She had been ill for several years.

The funeral services of Mrs. F. O. Bell, who died at Fairmont, were held at the Methodist church in this city yesterday afternoon.

The First National bank of this city, which closed its doors August 28, opened for business this morning. Under a new management, the bank is taking place between the old First National and York National. The First National, which had a capital of $1,000,000, was reorganized by the new management, and the depositors accept time for the old bank and the depositors accept time for the new bank, which has a capital of $1,000,000.

Horse Thief Captured.—NEBRASKA CITY, Oct. 23.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Charles Johnson, alias Charles Peck, was arrested here yesterday on the charge of horse stealing. He drove into town yesterday afternoon and was captured by the police. He was offered to sell at such a low price that suspicion was aroused. He was placed in jail and today it developed that the test of the stolen horse was found and officers will arrive here tomorrow. It also developed that Peck is a deserter from the army, having deserted from Fort Omaha April 18.

Mrs. Lease, who was extensively advertised to speak here tonight, failed to materialize. A donation of more than $100 was collected for her, but she failed to appear. Her absence was regretted by her nonappearance.

Enterprising Burglar Captured.—SEWARD, Neb., Oct. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—A burglar named during the ten-month absence of Mrs. A. H. Trotter a tramp entered the house and carried away four rings, a gold chain, a pair of earrings, a scarf, a gold watch, etc., valued at about $200. The burglar was captured by William Hickman and taken away a valuable overcoat. Yesterday Deputy Sheriff Stonecker and Attorney Biggs captured the burglar at Seward. He was found where he had disposed of a portion of the jewelry. He is now in jail awaiting a preliminary hearing. The officers are now out trying to find where he disposed of the balance of the jewelry.

Searching for a Lost Child.—TOMAS, Neb., Oct. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The family of William Pratt of this place was visiting at the farm of Luman Chase, who lives four miles north of town, yesterday. A 3-year-old son of Mr. Pratt wandered away from the house and has not yet been found. Searching parties were out all night and are still out looking for the missing child. The searching parties burned two or three stacks of straw during the night in the hope of driving any wolves or coyotes that might be prowling around the vicinity. The mother is nearly prostrated with grief, but still hopes that the child will yet be recovered.

Lawrence Notes and Personal.—LAWRENCE, Neb., Oct. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—The new priest resident, Father Hanson, has arrived. He held high mass in the new church yesterday. A fine residence has been prepared for his use.

Frank Canara, Matt O'Banion, Thad Arnold and others have gone to Oklahoma to make their home.

Small Blazes at Gretna.—GRETTA, Neb., Oct. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Fire consumed the stable, ten head of horses, about fifty tons of coal and a large quantity of hay, owned by John G. Spethman last night, five miles northeast of this place. The loss amounted to $2,000, with no insurance.

Raided by Burglars.—ELMWOOD, Neb., Oct. 23.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Burglars entered the store of C. L. Bailey & Son last night by smashing a large glass. They took about $100 worth of boots and shoes, canned goods, tobacco, etc.

The store of L. P. Greenlake & Co. was also robbed of $100 worth of dry goods and jewelry.

David City People Alarmed.—DAVID CITY, Oct. 23.—[Special to The Bee.]—Diphtheria is becoming prevalent in this city. One death occurred last night—Susie, the infant daughter of C. W. McCune. The people are becoming indignant at the failure of the Board of Health to take steps to prevent the spread of the disease.

Crippled a Hiresman.—WASHER, Neb., Oct. 23.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Herbert Roemer, a brakeman on the local freight, had his right foot severely injured while coupling cars at this place this evening.
