POLICE PATROLS.

Several Arrests Made Yesterday for Various Violations of the Law.

W. E. Procter was arrested yesterday afternoon on the charge of having slugged and robbed George Bailey, a farmer from Iowa, a few nights ago. Bailey came over to Omaha to see a metropolis, and while taking in the "district" was knocked down and robbed of $50. Procter was captured in Council Bluffs and brought here by Iowa officers early in the evening.

J. W. Ryder was arrested yesterday after-soon while trying to work Sam Bowen of Burt county, who was drunk. The drunken man was held as a witness. "Chuck" McNamara and Frank McFarland were arrested yesterday on the charge of larceny. The men hired an expressman of larceny. The men lired an expressman to go to Metz' brewery and get two kegs of beer, which they sold to Fred Koch at greatly reduced rates. They claimed that the beer had been ordered by Henry Bolln for prospective voters. The police are of the opinion that these are the fellows who have been working the various candidates for office on bogus orders during the past couple of weeks.

John Begley, the man who is alleged to have robbed John Ryan, is in jail and Ryan is held as a witness. The robbery took place Tuesday night at the Travelers Home and Ryan lost $50 in the deal.

A few weeks ago Robert Donahue was ar rested on the charge of assaulting Joe Hines, elevator boy in the Ware block, one night on Twenty-second and Cuming streets. He was tried, found guilty and fined. His mother, who lives at Fourteenth and Jackson streets, put up a cash bond for his ap-pearance and then, when the fine was im-posed, she asked a stay in the execution, would bring the guilty party to justice. The stay was granted and yesterday Officer Keysor went to Rising City and arrested Homer Caul on the charge of assaulting young Hines. When brought before Judge Berka, Caul pleaded guilty and was fined $20 and costs.

HIS DEAD BABY.

A Bereaved Father Works a Smypathetic Undertaker for Cash. Wednesday evening a man who gave his name as James Tiernan entered the undertaking rooms of H. L. Burket, on Cuming street, and represented that one of his little daughters had just died of diphtheria and that he wanted to buy a coffin,

Mr. Burket showed the stranger his stock and a coffin costing $14 was picked out.

The stranger said he would call for the coffin in the morning, and remarked that possibly he might need another casket, as is youngest daughter was not expected to Tiernan then gave the undertaker check for $26. Burket could not make the change, but gave the supposed purchaser $3 in cash on account.

The check proved to be worthless and the undertaker is out just $3. As yet the police have no clew to the swindler.

Arrested for Assault. Officer Keysor returned yesterday afternoon from Rising City, Neb., where he went yesterday to arrest Homer Caul, who is wanted here for assault and battery. The crime for which Caul is wanted was comitted some three weeks ago and consisted of an assault upon W. Haynes, an elevator boy employed at the Weir block.

Immediately after the assault the police arrested Bop Donahue for the offense and he was fined $20 and costs. A little investigation proved Donahue innocent and a warrant for Caul was made out.

The prisoner confessed and will plead guilty when his case is called in police court.

PERSONAL DISCOMFORT.

Officers and Prisoners at the City Jail Make Complaints. The officers and prisoners at the city jail are having a hard time of it during these cold nights, and they positively suffer from a lack of heat. When the nights began to get cool this fall no provision was made for steam in the fail until THE BEE called attention to the fact that the owner of the building enjoyed an all-around snap in his contract with the city. The steam was finally turned on, but Tuesday night one of the rust-covered pipes bursted, and as cold as it was

Wednesday night there was not enough heat in the building to keep a cockroach warm. Captain Cormick said to a reporter early yesterday morning: 'This is a shame. have asked for steam repeatedly and it has been promised, but every cold night we have to suffer. The officers who are on duty can keep warm by walking about, but the poor fellows whom we have arrested have to sit and shiver all night. The stone floor and iron bars are not very hot at any time, and it is a shame that even a violator of the law should be made to suffer in this hole, which is not fit for any one to stay in under such circumstances. Two or three of our men have lost their health in this place and nearly all of us have caught severe colds during the past few nights. The city pays out enough for rent for this place that we should have better accommodations."

THE TERRIBLE TIMES

What Both Men and Women Can Do If They are Unly Thoughtful and Careful.

"These are times that try men's souls.

The speaker was one of the leading professors in a New York medical colege and he was addressing an audience of ladies and gentlemen who had assembled to listen to his wisdom.

"The bank failures, the mercantile failures, the scarceness of money, the duliness of business, the anxiety connected with it, all bring a fearful pres-sure on men and women all the time. It is no wonder we hear of suicides and other desperate deeds at such times as times. Men are under a terrible strain and women naturally suffer by sympathy."

"All these things are to be expected, but so far as persons feelings and health are concerned, they should all be easily overcome. I do not mean by running away from duty or by resorting to stimulants; I will tell you what I mean.

Some people hoped that 1,000,000 persons would go through the gates the last day, which will be next Monday, but the crush of Chicago day, with something over 716,000, scarce people a trifle. It was that fear that kept the figures for Manhattan day "For a number of years among all the discoveries and inventions of science, one thing has stood pre-eminent and prominent.
