Frank P. Hastings, secretary of the Hawaiian legation, declines to express an opinion, as he had received no official notification of any change between the two governments. If instructions have been given to Minister Willis to depose the government he represents he points out that there is nothing in Secretary Gresham's letter to show the fact.

United States Vessels at flonolulu.

The United Statos is now represented in Honolulu by the flagship Philadelphia and the corvette Kearsarge. They are regarded as sufficient to enforce any contention of this government. So far as known no steps have been taken by the Navy department to reinforce them in anticipation of trouble following the execution of the new policy of the United States. In case more ships are needed, which is regarded by some people as a strong probability, the Yorktown is at Callao, the Alliance at La Libertad and the Monterey, Mohican and Ranger at San Francisco, all of which vessels could be concentrated at Honolulu in from two to four weeks time. As already said, however, the authorities do not seem to think it necessary to increase our fight. ing strength at Honolulu. All told, the force of blue jackets and marines, with commissioned, noncommissioned and warrant officers, numbers 568 men. The Philadelphia has forty-eight officers, 310 men and forty marines; the Adams thirteen officers, 139 men and eighteen marines. For active land operations it is understood that not more than 300 officers and men would be available, but this number, with accessions from the royalist ranks, would certainly be more than ample to cope with the present small force of the provisional government.

OPINIONS ON GRESHAM'S LETTER.

Prominent Domocrats and Republicans Express Themselves.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.-Expressions of opinion by public men now in Washington upon Secretary Gresham's letter in the Hawaiian affair are varied and numerous. Some emphatically approve the sentiment expressed in the already famous episode and others denounce it with great vehemence.

Sonator Morgan Not Pleased.

Senator Morgan, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, is not at all well pleased at the turn affairs have taken in the Hawaiian situation. At a banquet given in honor of Secretary Carlisle by the United States senators, shortly after the treaty with the provisional government had been sent to the senate by President Harrison, Senator Morgan made a speech in which he commended the action and expressed hopes of great things of the United States government in its new acquisition, which at that time seemed as good as made. He was then on the eve of his departure to Paris as one of the Bering sea arbitrators. He expressed the nope that when he returned the Hawaiian matter would be settled and the American flag would be floating over a most valuable acquisition. Today, he said, this government could not restore the queen. Two administrations had recognized the provisional government and accepted its represcutatives and it could not restore the former condition. Mr. Morgan said he had his views on the question, but it was not for a senator and member of the committee on foreign relations to say anything about the action the government had taken or the course it would pursue in the future.

Congressman Hit.'s Opinion. Congressman Hitt of Illinois, who was nection with the Hawaiian affair. Representative Cobb of Missouri said he was opposed to annexation, but that he did not think we ought to interfere to restore the queen. Representative Boatner of Louisiana said he did not think this government had any right to interfere in the former government of Hawaii and that if the queen was deposed with the assistance of this government we should do everything in our power to correct the wrong.

Disagrees with the Secretary.

James Hyde Pratt of Albany is in the city. There is a family relationship between President Cleveland and Mr. Pratt, Mr. Cleveland's grandfather having been a brother to Mr. Pratt's mother. Mr. Pratt has family relationship in the Hawaiian islands and feels much exercised at the policy toward the islands enunciated in Secretary Gresham's letter. He drove out to Woodley this afternoon and had a halfhour talk with the president on the subject. He learned that Mr. Cleveland approves thoroughly and wholly of Secretary Gresham's letter and all that is contained in t. Mr. Pratt has lived much in the islands and does not at all agree with Secretary Gresham's ideas or with his belief as to the facts of the case. He stated to the president that Mr. Gresham's letter read to him like a special plea of an advocate for his case. His statement that the deposition of the queen was accomplished by aliens was sufficient to discredit the whole letter, to his mind, for he had knowledge that the most of the leaders of the revolution were Hawaiians born and the parents of many of them were Hawaiian born, though of foreign parents. He urged, also, that the best natives approved of the present government and only the disorderly element desired its overthrow. He stated to the president his belief that in order to re-establish the queen upon the throne it would be necessary to disarm every white man in the islands. He did not believe the queen could be maintained on the throne a day without the influence of the armed forces or authority of the United States. Minister Stevens and Captain Wiltz did no more, he asserted, than had been authorized. by the instructions of Secretary Bayard to Minister Merrill in July, 1887, for guidance in a similar period of disorder.

Cleveland is Satisfied.

At this point the president asked Mr. Pratt whether he thought he had as good opportunities of information of the subject as he (the president), after a careful investigation and study of the subject for eight months. Mr. Pratt rejoined he thought he had, since he had been in intimate communication by correspondence and otherwise for thirty years. The president closed the interview by saying he had absolute faith in the accuracy of all conclusions drawn by Secretary Gresham and that minister Stevens and Captain Wiltz had committed an act of usurpation and done a wrong to a helpless power, which it was the duty of the United States government to undo.

A Voice from California. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11 .- The Evening

Bulletin, republican, says: "Are we to make war on the provisional government, which we have recognized? If Mr. Stevens was wrong in putting down a government (provided the fact were really so) in a for eign country, what authority has Mr. Gresham to set up another? President Cleveland has now to accede to the advice of assistant secretary of state in 1881 when his secretary of state or reject it."

Judging from the present indications the approaching session of the Reichstag will he fruitful of animated debates upon the financial proposals of the government and the new commercial treaties which the agrarians intend to seize upon for again ventilating their grievances, and for attacking the government's commercial policy. A salient feature of the Prussian elections is the great number of administrative councilors returned. There have not been so many councilors in the Diet since the notorious chamber of administrative councilors of 1858. Regarding the new taxes bills, it is noted that instead of 60,000,000 marks demanded by ex-Minister Maltzpahny, Herr Miquel demands 100,000,000 marks, the extra 40,000,000 marks demanded being occasioned by the new commercial treaties. In radical circles, however, it is asserted that this extra amount is intended to form a reserve fund to cover alleged projected increases in army and navy expenditures. The Reichsanzeiger publishes an imperial decree which has been promulgated at the request of Dake Ernest of Schleswig-Helstein, whose sister, Princess Augusta Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein is the present empress of Germany, which recognizes the ducal line of Schleswig-Holstein as a former reigning house of the German empire. The decree is important, as it gives that branch of the Schleswig-Holstein family to which Duke Ernest belongs equal rank with the actually reigning German houses and is evidently framed with the idea of facilitating advantageous marriages for the empress' younger sisters, the Princesses Victoria Frederick, Fredonia and Fedora Adelaide. William as a Hunter.

The Tageblatt publishes the alleged circumstances of the emperor's recent boar hunting expedition in Huberstock. The story told is evidently intended to turn the emperor's idea of sport into ridicule. The St. Hubert's day, the Tageblatt declares, was a more court display, which in no way Cuban revolutionary party in this city say vided with six or seven guns, and the artilthey have private advices from that country, lory men have improved greatly in gunnery which state that the rebellion against the since the revolution began. government is already well under way. PARIS, Nov. 11.- A high Spanish police official has arrived here on a special mission connected with the recent dynamite bomb outrage at Barcelona. Several arrests of French anarchists suspected of complicity in the Lyceo theater explosion are expected today, and it is believed that the investigation now in progress will result in disclosures showing that the anarchists of Europe are acting in concert and that all recent dynamite outrages and conspiracies have been carefully planned by a central committee whose headquarters are not yet known.

BARCELONA, Nov. 11. - Aragon, the French anarchist, who is one of the men arrested on suspicion of being connected with the outrage at the Lyceo theater, turns out to have been a friend of Pallas, the anarchist who was executed for attempting the life of General Campos.

The lodgings of the French anarchist were searched shortly after his arrest and photographs of the Chicago anarchists and other anarchistic prints were found. The police also seized documents which led them to believe the bombthrowers were leagued with a gang of thieves, as when the panic stricken audience rushed from the theater on the night of the explosion, numerous attempts to snatch purses, etc., were made. So much alarm has been caused among the theatergoing public by the disester at the Lyceo. that the places of amusement in the city have been almost deserted over since.

This is plainly a reference to the Franco Russian fetes, and it has aroused the ire of the newspaper men of France, causing them to indulge in some bitter remarks regarding the friendship existing between Italy and England. Some go so far as to intimate that Italy may yet regret her display of friendship for England, and that the combined French and Russian squadrons in the Mediterranean are capable of dictating terms to any combination which Italy and England may present in the Mediterranean or else
