THEY WON'T FIGHT.

Union Pacific Treats the Canadian Line with Silent Contempt.

That allen corporation north of the states known as the Canadian Pacific is engaged in the pleasant pustime of making monkeys of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, to say nothing of the trouble it is causing other Denver lines. The "Capuck" road with a sublime disregard of the equities has cut eastbound cates frightfully from San Francisco to St. Paul and Minneapolis, and by adding the locals is landing passengers in Chicago cheaper by $15 than any of its competitors. By the use of the Pacific Steamship company's boats it hauls passengers from 'Frisco to Vancouver and Puget Sound points, thence cast over its own line to St. Paul, making a rate of $30 first-class and $20 second-class which, added to the Chicago rate of $11.50, lands a passenger in the World's fair city for $41.50 first-class and $31.50 second-class. The rates on the other transcontinental lines from 'Frisco to the Missouri river are $50 first class, and $40 second class, the rate from San Francisco to Chicago being $57 first class, and $52.50 sec-ond class, a differential in favor of the Canadian Pacific of $15.50 on first-class business, and $21 or second class.

Although this cut rate has been in effect for upward of a fortnight, both the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific have seemingly gone on the theory that the roundabout na-ture of the haul would drive business away from the alien rival on the north. The facts in the case are that the Pacific Steamship company's boat hist Saturday was loaded to the guards with passengers for the east via the Canadian Pacific.

Through Burlington Glasses.

Mr. Francis of the Burlington, in dis-cussing the situation, said that it would seem as if the Union Pacific ought to protect its interests even if it was found necessary to use its own boats from San Francisco to sound points. "The Union Pacific has the largest interest of any line east of Ogden, and good judgment, irrespective of every other consideration, seems to warrant some exists." some action on the part of Mr. Lomax to protect his own. I think I understand the sition taken by Mr. Lomax that the boat line could never be popular, and rather than rates he would lose a passenger two to the Canadian Pacific. But the situation is growing serious, business is being lost, and, if my information is true, regarding the condition of affairs on the coast I really cannot see why the Union Pacific, even if it is under some agreement with the Southern Pacific, cannot dominate the situation and force the Canadian Pa-cific to terms. It's all very well for a lawyer to say you cannot put a man in jail for a mis-demeanor, but what are you going to say when he is in jail? Certainly the route is a wery circuitous one and naturally would not command any attention whatever, all things being equal. The Canadian Pacific has a differential in its favor and it's play-ing a part in the transportation of passen-

when Mr. Lomax was seen, he had nothing to sayabout the matter, although he intimated to say about the matter, although he intimated that the weather would soon put a stop to the Canadian Pacific's hauling passengers for the rates now in effect. "Going from San Francisco to Chicago via the Canadian Pacific," said Mr. Lomax, "is like going via Duluth and the lakes to New York, considerable of a way 'round. The demoralization is not far-reaching and will expend itself very soon."

REPOSED THE KATE.

Augusta Merchants Angry at the Action of Two Southern Roads.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 14 .- At noon today the largest meeting of merchants ever held in this city was called to order at the Cotton exchange to take action against the Richmond & Danville and South Carolina railroads for their refusal to carry out the order of Commissioner Stahleman, granting 1 cent a mile rate two days in the week during the exposition and state fair in that dity, which opened today. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

In view of the interstate magnitude of the Augusta exposition and the Georgia state fair, and the Widespread interest shown by all the people in this region, it was all-important that every facility should be given the public to visit the great exposition. After diligent and every facility should be given the public to visit the great exposition. After diligent and industrious efforts, the committee appointed to obtain low railroad rates from the constituted authority, was successful and permission was given to various lines of southern railroads and steamship associations allowing the rates asked for. We learn at this late hour that two of the lines at Augusta refuse to abide by the decision of the commissioner. This refusal will work great injury to the exposition and the material interests of the business of the city.

Resolved, by the merchants of Augusta, That we earnestly protest against any departure by any railway line terminating at Augusta from rates granted us by the association at a recent meeting in Atlanta and confirmed by the official order of Commissioner Stahleman, and we append to all these roads by all the common interest between us, that they conform to the rates they themselves promised us at Atlanta and already widely published.

RAILBOADS WILL TAKE A PART

They Propose to Take an Active Part in Chicago's City Election. CHICAGO, Nov. 14 .- The railway companies are alleged to have raised a large campaign fund with the view of resisting the election of any man as mayor pledged to support the track elevation movement. The question of elevating railroad tracks in this city is prominent now, because of the circumstances attending the death of Mayor Harrison. He maintained a policy apparently in opposition to the movement and Prendergast, the murderer, gave this as his motive for killing the mayor. Attorney Trude, who is prominently mentioned as a candidate for mayor, is reported today to be preparing an article presenting a theory as to Prender-gast's responsibility for his act when he asssinated Carter Harrison.

Mr. Trude's theory is that Prendergast was sane when he committed the deed. The cleverness with which Prendergast sought to insuce his own safety after the deed was committed, is related as probable proof of his appreciation of what he was doing.

NOT A SUCCESS.

Canadian Pacific Not Gaining Much Business by Its Recent Cut.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.-The cheap rates put on eastbound California traffic by the Canadian Pacific are not proving a source of much revenue to that line. Its steamers have, in some instances, carried only a few passengers, and the outlook for heavier business is not promising. There is yet no positive knowledge as to whether the road intends to apply its rates westbound. There will be no trouble unless it intends to do this, but if it should put the rates on westbound business there is bound to be the liveliest kind of a flurry in passenger rates.

Managers of western roads are considering a proposition for faster train service. The proposition for take an hour off the time between Chicago and St. Paul, Chicago and Omaha and western gateways. TAKING OFF THE FLYERS.

Eastern Lines Compelled to Abandon the Limited Trains.

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.-The splendidly equipped exposition flyer, the twenty-fourour train on the New York Central & Lake Shore, between New York and Chicago, will be discontinued because it does not pay expenses. It is also said that the Columbian and Keystone fast express trains on the Fort Wayne road will be taken off in a few days. At the same time general managers of western roads are considering a proposition for faster train service, with good prospects of its adoption. They propose to take as hour and a haif off the time of all frecuph trains between Chicago and St. Past. Dusha, Kansas City and other important points.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

Fifty-Year Franchise Granted to the Omaha Gas Company.

HASCALL FLAPS THE WINGS OF PURITY

Gambiers and Gas, Electric Lights and Dark Ways Receive the Attention of the Council-Mayor Bemts' Vetoes -Work of a Lively Session,

At the meeting of the city council last evening the ordinance granting a franchise to the Omaha Gas Manufacturing company for a term of fifty years was passed. Mr. Munro made a fight to have it go over for a week, but he was alone and the ordinance. was passed by a vote of 15 to 1. Isaac S. Hascall (intecandidate for mayor) as a leader of an anti-vice crusade, held the boards at the city council last night. His appearance in such a role was a general surprise. The listeners in the council and lobby were compelled to rub their eyes and stick large sized pins into their anatomies to convince themselves that they were not in the land of dreams.

Mr. Hascall had an elongated resolution, brimming over with whereases and re solves, in which he cited that the statutes of Nebraska and ordinances of the city prohibited gambling and make of the same a high offense. "Therefore it was resolved that the council call on, direct and require the mayor and Board of Fire and Police Commissioners to enforce the laws and ordipances to the strict letter."

In support of his resolution Mr. Hascall said that the laws should be enforced to the letter. He was informed that the chief of police had taken steps to enforce the Slocumb law. He said that the law recognized the saloon and made gambling a felony. For his part he could not see why the discrimination was made.

Conneilmante Sentiment.

Mr. Howell considered that the action would be a little hasty and he thought the resolution should go to a committee. He favored regulating the evil in the best manner possible and had supposted the position of Mayor Bemis in the past on the question.

Mr. Prince believed the present system of regulation was the best and pointed out what he considered its advantages. He thought Mr. Hascall had more sense than to father such a resolution, and was surprised

Monro smote Mr. Hascall hip and thigh. He alleged that it was an after-election reform of the gentleman from the First, who was "sore." He reiterated statements of Mr. Hascall that the city should be fenced up and turned into a country village, if it was proposed to do such things. He noved to by the resolution on the table. Mr. Hascall secured the floor before the motion was seconded. He pleaded for the families of the laboringmen and deplored that gambling has been permitted to be carried on openly. He believed in enforcing the laws upon this question.

Panched the Tiger in the Ribs.

Mr. Wheeler was in favor of the adoption of the resolution. He said that it was a dis-grace to permit the gambling houses to run openly, and thought each member of the council who had voted for the license or-dinance would be ashamed to show his face in decent society. He threatened that if the resolution was tabled one would be presented similar in character every Tuesday night until the council did take action. He said that "if the mayor and Board of Fire and Police Commissioners did not enforce the laws, I, as a citizen and member of this council would favor impeaching those

Mr. Elsasser believed that the present system was the best and compared the former one with it, pointing out what he considered the advantages of the one now in

Mr. Munro contended that it was wrong to introduce such a resolution at this time. He said that Mayor Bemis' position had been endorsed on this question, and that on that issue he had been overwhelmingly re-elected over Mr. Hascall and another citizen of Omaha, with that as one of the issues. this way he believed that the mayor had been sustained by the best people of the city. The motion to lay on the table was lost by a vote of 9 to 7. The resolution was referred to the committee on judiciary by the follow-

ng vote: Yeas-Back, Bruner, Elsasser, Howell, McAndrews, Munro, Prince, Nays - Edwards, Hascall, McLearie, Parker, Saunders, Thomas, Wheeler-7.

Those opposing the referring of the resoution desired its adoption. Electric Light Bills Paid. The New Omaha Thomson-Houston Electric Light company, by kind permission of thirteen members of the city council, in-serted its hand into the taxpayers' pockets and abstracted the sum of $7,699.14. This financial transaction took place at the meeting, although Mayor Bemis gave due warning and the members of the council were fully appraised of the light-fingered movement of the lighting concern.

As a usual thing Mr. Wiley seldom glides about the city building. He was there during the session and he came early. Not a member of the body, excepting Munro and Elsasser, escaped him. He cordially shook the hand of each, held hurried consultations and did a vast amount of button-holing. and abstracted the sum of $7,699.14. This

Mayor Bemis' veto of the claim of the electric light company, as predicted in The Bee, was forthcoming, as follows: Full Text of the Veto. I respectfully, report that I have vetoed the following items in favor of the Thomson-Houston Electric Light company in the appropriation ordinance recently passed:

No. 5.714, July account $2,551.36
No. 5.968, August account 2,552.41
No. 6.301, September account 2,595.37

Discussing the Veto. Mr. Munro supported the position of Mayor Bemis. He said that an additional reason why the claim should not be allowed was that there is a balance in the lighting fund of but $3,304.58, while the amount claimed was over $7,000. He believed the bills should go through the hands of the electrician, who should determine by cests whether the can-dle power is up to requirements, and the proper deductions should be made, and the matter not left to a committee that never investigates whether the lights are burning or are up to required power.

Mr. Prince believed the company was furnishing good lights, and that the debt was an honest one and should be paid.

Mr. Hascail, who is noted for reciprocity, apheld the company, and turned his sarcasm on the city electrician, the photometer and members of the council who were opposed.

State Underwriters Meet.

The Nebraska State Underwriters asso ciation met in this city yesterday and was in session during the greater part of the day at the Paxton hotel. There were about tourty members in attendance, representing all the larger towns of the state. The business transacted was of a general nature, relative to the insurance business. The fact that the companies had been losing money in Nebraska was discussed at considerable length, but no action looking toward the raising of rates was taken. A number of local insurance men were on hand to look after the interests of Omaha in case any such movement was contemplated, but the meeting adjourned without taking definite action on the matter.
