This morning the sale of seats for the engagement of the Robin Hood Opera that the sale will be large. The company is one selected by Karl, Barnabee and McDonald and most of the principals were taken from the cast of the Bostonians. There is one thing certain, and that is that people who think the Robin Hood Opera company is a secondary affair will be greatly plement of principals, a very large chorus and a full orchestra, and judging from the favorable notices that they have received from the press of the larger cities their performances compare very favorably with the Bostonians. On Thursday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening DeKoven and Smith's opera, "Robin Hood," will be the bill, and on Friday evening "The Knickerbockers," by the same authors.

Found a Dead Baby.
The body of a well-developed infant was found in a vacant lot near Fourteenth and Cass streets last night by a man who hap-pened to go through the lot. The body was wrapped up in a white cloth and encased in a small box. The coroner and police were notified and an investigation begun.

SCHOOL BOARD EXPENSES CONSIDERED

rank Wilber Confesses His Crime-He Led the Iowa Officers a Lively Chase-Judge Fowler Discharges Two "Political" Prisoners-Gossip.

opinion the expenses were entirely too much.

He thought the salaries paid the teachers and janitors were excessive. He also stated that the secretary who preceded Mr. Pear had not yet turned ever some books of the old board. A committee, consisting of Mesars. Anderson, Towle and Ryan, was appointed to investigate this allegation and if found to be true, to ascertain why Mr.

Funston was holding back any of the school board records. An adjournment was the taken until next Tuesday night.

While the school board was being reasted down at the meeting of the Taxpayers league, the members of that honorable body were taking a promenade through the High school building looking for a prospective location for an office for their secretary and the superintendent of the schools. Some of the members favor renting an office down apartments put in shape for its use. It was finally concluded to have the architect figure on the expense of building an office addition to the High school building and also the cost of fitting up a room in the basement for an office. The board is desirous of having some respectable place where the books and papers belonging to it can be kept together with some care and safety

The rooms are at present so crowded that the superintendent has no office quarters.

Detective Mitchell went to the Bluffs and got Frank Wilber at 10 o'clock Monday night. He was placed in the station and at first denied his guilt.

The Council Bluffs officers had quite a chase to get Wilber. He broke and ran and would have escaped had he not fallen over a high embankment and injured himself. While decing from the officers Wilber stopped long enough to hide the money he had stolen. He placed it under an old cleset near the police

About 3 o'clock yesterday morning Captain Austin succeeded in getting a confession from Wilber. He told where he had his the stolen money and agreed to go with the captain and get the roll. Austin then went and got Mr. Linberg and the three drove to the Bluffs, getting there about daylight, Wither led them directly to the place where he had planted the money. Not a cent of it was missing, but if it had been left there until daylight some one would certainly have found it as some of the bills were ex-posed to view. They had been thrown in so hurriedly that the roll opened out.

As soon as the cash was found the prisoner was brought back to South Omeha and again locked up. Wilber has been on a spree for about three weeks. He said to a Bee reporter that he was crinking hard at the time he committed the theft and has little recollection of it. He is now of the opinion that he will get off easy for giving up the cash. When arraigned in the police court yesterday Wilber pleaded not guilty and was bound over to the district court in the

The secret of Walker Whiteside's success in illustrating the various legitamate charac ters that will constitute his repertory lies in the thorough naturalness of his concep-tions. The various writers that have gained fame by their brilliancy owe their success to of the many exponents, of these characters seem to be in a wrong conception. They take for their standpoint the broad age n which the character lived, and low the ideas with noise and rant, therefore insulting the resparch and intelligence of their auditors. All these faults are obviated by Mr. Whitgoide. In moments of gentleness, the rich missical cadence of his voice appeals to the refined hearer as the voice appeals to the refined hearer as the music of the rippling stream. Yet in outbursts of passion he rises to the occasion in a perfectly natural majner. He never violates the dictates of nature: By adhering to that method the searet of his success becomes obvious. Mr. Whiteside makes his initial appearance in Omaha at Boyd's theater on Sunday evening next in the tragedy of "Othello." On Monday evening the bill will be "Hamlet."

V. J. Travin was arrested last night on the charge of forgery. He is accused of having forged and passed several checks. In this instance L. W. The com-plaining witnesses are owners of a tinware factory at Twentieth and Pierce streets and Travin is an artist who had become familiar with their affairs.

DEPOSED FROM THE MINISTRY.

Rev. Tothero Found Guilty of the Charges Preferred Against Him.
Cuicago, Nov. 14.—After six hours' discussion the Chicago presbytery deposed Rev. W. W. Tothero from the ministry of the Presbyterian church. He denied that he was guilty of the offense charged against him, viz., that of sustaining improper relations with Mrs. Hattie R. Hamilton. Several witnesses testified that they had seen Mr. Tothero and Mrs. Hamilton to-gether in the Ashley house and the follow-ing confession, signed by Mr. Tothero, was read:

I hereby confess that I have been with Mrs. Hattie Hamilton for the past two years; that Mr. Inglis and Mr. J. M. Harker have been justified in making all charges that they have made: that Mrs. Hamilton was with me on the trip to Portland, Ore.; that I wrote her name as Mrs. H. R. Clark on the Grand Pacific hotel register at Tacoma, Wash.; that I was with her at the Ashley hotel in Chicago and occupled room 3 on November 8, T893; that I rented a room at 2815 state street and occupled it with Mrs. Hattie R. Hamilton in March, April, May and June, 1893. W. W. TOTHERO.

Dr. Totseroh's suplicity. Омана, Nov. 14.—To the Editor of THE BEE: In last night's issue of THE BEE there appeared under the heading "Totheroh Hasn't Confessed," an article which may be misleading to friends of Totheroh in this city. As Dr. Totheroh was discovered by members of his church last Wednesday evening, November 8, at the Ashley house corner Van Buren and State streets, Chiergo, in company with Mrs. Hattie R. Hamilton and "in flagrante delicto," a confession under such circumstances was hardly neces-sary; and as, however, the doctor made a confession, that confession embodying an acknowledgement of his guilt and an ad-mission of all the charges of immorality which have been made against him for the past year and a half, his action yesterday before the Chicago presbytery in defending himself shows that he was shrewd enough to fight until he was kicked out, as he drew his $3,500 salary until then. Dr. Totherch. over a year ago, was charged with immorality, and it has now been proven beyond the shadow of a doubt and to the satisfaction of the presbytery that, while posing as a paragon of virtue and the victim of malicious persecution, he has all the time been laugh ing in his sleeve at the manner in which be has duped a congregation which stood by now having shown his hand is deserving of all the publicity possible.

while returning from a hunting trip near McMahon was an old resident of Columbus and was also well known in this city, where ne was for a time the proprietor of the "Drum" saloon. He was an ex-chief of police of Columbus and has recently been employed as a detective by the B. & M. raitroad. He is the man who was singged and robbed on the Eleventh street viaduct some time ago. On the day of his death he was returning from his hunt in company with two friends. His gun was accidentally discharged, the entire charge striking him on the side of the head. The whole face was blown away, leaving nothing

He had a $10,000 policy in amount in the Northwestern and also a heavy policy holder in eral accident companies. It is now claimed that the insurance companies will contest the payment of the policies on the ground that McMahon committed suicide to defraud the insurers.

Mr. Hackett was seen yesterday but was unwilling to talk of the case beyond stating that it was not what brought him to Omaha. He expected, however, to go out and investigate the facts in the case before he returned. He knew nothing of the facts at present as he had not yet received his instructions from the company. VOTARIES OF LABOR MEET

Fifth Annual Convention of the Knights of Labor at Philadelphia.

POWDERLY MAKES AN EMPHATIC DENIAL

He Denounces as False the Story that the Order is on the Verge of Dissotution-What Was Done Yesterday.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 14.—Nearly all of the ninety delegates to the general assembly of the Knights of Labor were in attendance when the assembly met this morning at Industrial hall, this city. All of the proliminary work, with the exception of the common credentials, was concluded last night The secretary says nearly three score of proposed amendments will be acted upon. The chief topic of conversation among the delegates is the conflict between Powderly and Hayes. Hayes is a candidate for re-election and claims he is entitled to vindi-

Prior to the opening of the assembly this morning, Mr. Powderly took occasion to emphatically deny a story that this would be the last convention of the order and that there was a scheme to disrupt the organization for which purpose it was alleged Pow-derly and two or three members of the executive board were in conspiracy, their ob ect being to gain control of its property in cluding the $70,000 at headquarters, $130,000 worth of coal lands in indiana and $150,030 worth of real estate in New York.

"The story is absolutely false," said Mr. Powderly, "there will certainly be a motion to adjourn without a day for a future meet-ing, but not with a view to the disruption of the order. Other orders, notably the American Federation of Labor, which meets. December 26, will take a similar action. I will then confer with the leaders of those other orders and agree upon a common day and place for a meeting of all three orders The order will have its individual meetings and retain its autonomy, but meetings at a common place and date the delegates of the various orders will rub against each other and learning that their aims and eads are similar, the result will be unanimous action in many things where we now disagree."

Increase in Membership.

Mr. Powderly has further said: "We have a larger membership than we had a year ago by several thousand members and the sentiment is a great deal healthier than it has ever been in the history of the or-ganization. There is evidently a great desire to close all breaches and differences, not only between members of the organization, but between members of other industrial organizations and ours. There is one party in Philadelphia who is always preaching new blood in the Knights of Labor, and he fancies his anatomy contains the alleged blood, and whenever he is sober enough to talk he gets off his ravings."

Nothing but routine business was transacted during the morning session. Dr. A. H. No. 1. Philadelphia, delivered an address of welcome. To this Mr. Powderly responded briefly, manifesting his pleasure at being re-ceived by the local head of the order, referring pleasantly to Philadelphia as the the organization of the Knights

The committee on credentials then re-ported and discussion on the matters brought up by them consumed the entire morning. There was some difference of oniaion about the acceptance of the credentials of a half dozen from isolated districts made up of local unions, but all were finally favorably passed upon. When the credentials were disposed of the assembly got ready for business.

Afternoon Session. The afternoon session was devoted to hearing a report of General Master Workman Powderly. Two hours were consumed in read-ing the document and at its conclusion Mr. Powderly received applause. The report denied that the order was retrogading and asserted that the order was in possession of statistics to show that the organization was prosperous. It desied emphatically that the Knights of Labor or its chiefs were conchurch in this country to subvert the na-tional government. It extols Pope Leo XIII and says that even who belong to no church wi who belong to no church will that no better friend to humanity occupied the papal chair; it characterized the State National guard as a standing army and says that the militia is a drain upon the workmen and a friend of the capitalist in time of trouble. It also urges that the movement to establish colonies in the south be pushed forward. Mr. Powderly says very little upon the subject of immigration except to deplore the settlement of new comers in the large cities of the east. The report favors the trinity of money, gold, silver and paper, and is in favor of silver coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1. It conat the ratio of 16 to 1. It con-cludes with the statement that there is no doubt but that the action of the Knights of Labor in demanding the repeal of the Sherman act had great influence. There was nothing in the proceedings to indicate the convention will be marked by any bitter personalities. Columbus, O., Nov. 14.—Secretary Mo-Bride of the United Mine Workers of the United States says it is probable that the representatives of the coal miners will Pike a prominent part in the proceedings of the Knights of Labor at Philadelphia, the idea being to bring these two bodies into closer relationship. It is known that P. J. Maguire, president of the Carpenters Brotherhood and vice president of the American Federation of Labor, and A. W. Wright of the Knights of Labor Journal and suitation upon the subject. President Mc-Bride has for years advocated such a step. It is deemed significant that Mr. Powderly has been appointed to the important position VINTON, Ia., Nov. 14. Sheriff Hathbun of this county received today the petition of member of the executive board of the Kuights of Labor, have already been in con-

Flegel, members of the grand executive committee of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, filed in the Council Bioffs district court; also the order from Judge Smith restraining the defendants from transacting any business of the order prejudicial to the plaintiffs. Owing to the absence of Messrs. Ramsey, Thurston and Flegel from the city, the sheriff was unable to serve them and has asked the court for instructions. The petition charges Ramsey and Thurston with misappropriation of funds, general malfeasance in office; also immoral conduct on the part of Ramsey. The petition is returnable in ten days.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 14.—Manufacturers feel very much encouraged over the prospects of a settlement of the trouble between them and the Amalgamated association soon reached. President Garland of the asso-ciation said today: "It can be safely said that the $4.75 rate for puddling will be considered by the convention. All Pittsburg manufacturers, it is thought, will be satisfied with the $4.75 rate, and this rate will be paid for puddling at nonunion as well as union mills if accepted by the association. It is not so certain, however, that the $4.75 rate will satisfy the Youngstown manufac-turers, as they are still for $4.50."

Hilinois Federation of Labor, Galesaurg, ill., Nov. 14.—The Hilinois State Federation of Labor met here today with fifty-six delegates, representing 100,000 members.
