We are making money-losing prices in order to reduce stock, as we must have room, for in a few days we shall open the largest and best selected stock of holiday goods ever displayed under any roof. Our buyers have returned from the foreign markets, where they have been searching for the latest novelties and the most useful articles for young and old, and we will give you a display which will eclipse all previous holiday displays. Our experience in the past has aided us in gathering this immense stock, besides, we have the floorage and the only house in this city which has the space to handle such a variety as we shall put on exhibition.

WILL GET THE REWARD.

Jaller Bennett Returns from Keokuk After Landing Anderson Behind the Bars.

Jailer Bennett returned yesterday morning from Keokuk, Ia., where he went with Alfred Anderson, who is wanted at that place for the murder of Hermann Antelman some time during the past summer. Andersome time during the past summer. Ander-son was arrested in Sarpy county for com-mitting a burghary and was brought to the Douglas county juil for safekeeping until he could be tried. While he was in juil Bennett recognized him from a description furnished by the sheriff from Keekuk and notified the lowa officer that he thought he had the right man. The identification was complete on the arrival of the Hawkeye sheriff and Anderson was taken back to the scene of his crime. He was recognized by the men who had charge of him when he committed the murder. murder.

When the prisoner and officers arrived in Keokuk they were met by a large crowd of farmers, who wanted to deal out summary farmers, who wanted to deal out summary instice on the spot, but they were prevented by the police. Anderson was taken to Fort Madison for safekeeping, and he told the officers that he was willing to plead guilty to manslaughter, but when he was ar-raigned be had secured legal advice and his attorney pleaded not guilty. The trial is set for the near future. There was a re-ward of $500 offered for Anderson, and this amount will be paid to Deputy Bennett.

COUNTY ROAD PAVING.

Commissioners Looking to the Improvement of Three Thoroughtares.

From present indications the Board of County Commissioners will early next year take steps looking to the paving of three of the country roads leading from the city limits west into the interior of the county. On June 16, 1892, at a special election, the voters of Douglas county, by their ballots, authorized the commissioners to issue $150,-000 of twenty-year, 414 per cent bonds, the proceeds to be used in paving or macadamizing country roads. These bonds were to bear date of July 1, 1892, and were to be sold for not less than par and accrued interest. Immediately after it was known that the bonds had carried the commissioners commenced the preliminary work looking to the improvement of the roads. They decided that it was advisable to roads. They decided that it was advisable to improve three roads, one to the northwest, one to the west and the third to the south-west. After looking the territory over they decided that the Military road was the thor-oughfare to be paved to the northwest, the continuation of Dodge street to the west and the continuation of Center street to the southwest. Conter street prove west southwest. Center street runs west fron

Hanscom park. This having been settled the bonds were offered for sale, but as the canje in the money centers of the east cam long about that time there were few bidders for the bonds. In the meantime the commissioners were getting ready for the work and had plans and specifications prepared for the pave-ment. They had plans for sandstone, ma-cadam and vitrified brick and were almost ready to let the contracts when the financial flurry overtook them. The commissioners then decided to do nothing more until next Year. At this time the commissioners express the opinion that during the next few weeks the money market will ease up and then the bonds can be sold at a premium. Taking this view of the case the commissioners have decided that within the next few weeks they will again offer the bonds for vale and will version sak for hids for store sale and will again ask for bids for stone, brick and macadam, the intention being that if the bonds find a market to begin the work if the boads find a market to begin the work of paving the three roads as soon vs the weather will permit next spring. In making their figures the commissioners estimate that the proceeds of the $150,000 of bonds will pay for about nine miles of macadam, six miles of brick or three miles of stone. The commissioners will select the material to be used and whichever material may be designated it will be accult divided may be designated it will be equally divided between the three roads to be paved.

ing Mayor Bemis will name a cousin, Christ Elsasser, for the vacancy. The mayor has not agreed to do anything of this kind and for the present Peter will be kept guessing as to just what course he will pursue in the matter.

Yesterday morning Register of Deeds-Elect Peter E. Elsasser filed his official bond in Peter E. Elsasser med his official dond in the office of the county clerk. The document is in the penal sum of $10,000, and Hans Bock and W. T. Lorenzen sign as securities. All day long, and way into the hours of the night the newly elected register of deeds is besieged with men who want to act in the capacity of deputy, but right on the quiet, Elsasser is going to fool them all, for he is going to name his brother Fred for this position. There are a few of the true and tried democrats who know of this plan, and they are tearing their hair in their wrath, declaring that the whole Elsasser family was not elected to the one office, and that the patronage should go to the party instead of to the family from which the official came. Samosets and Jacksonians are in the same frame of sets and Jacksonians are in the same frame of mind and are out for blood, but Elsasser simply gives them the laugh and tells them that he will run the office. His reason for being independent is owing to the fact that he claims that he does not owe his election to the democrats, but to the republicans who deserted their party candidates and placed aoother man in newer another man in power.
