The Repeal of the Silver Bill.

Freighted with brightest hopes of future prosperity, came just a trifle too late to take the chill out of the hearts of the wholesale dealers, importers and manufacturers of silks and velvets, in whose hands large quantities of silks remain unsold. "Give us cash and take the lot!" greeted us from so many quarters and told the story of such a terrible smash in prices, that in all our history we have never been such heavy buyers on such advantageous terms as during the past few weeks. This advertisement tells the story of a few--only a few--of the many unapproachable bargains to be found in our silk department. No matter what you may wish in silks you can be almost certain of finding it here, and at prices which defy competition.
