Magie City Notes.

The license committee of the city council made two reports on the saloon cases that were in the police court a few days ago. The defendants in the cases were Frank Crawford, Dan Cleary, Frank Patelka and Hart & Quinn, the charge being selling liquor on election day. The liceuse committee is composed of Messrs. Schultz, Bulla and Wyman. Messrs. Schultz and Wyman submitted a majority report recommending the revoking of the licenses. Mr. Bulla was of a different opinion and offered a minority report, stating that he could not see the justice in taking the license from these men at this time. He explained that the saloon men in question had been placed under arrest and fined in the police court. This he considered was sufficient punishment. Mr. Wood was in favor of shutting out saloon men who willfully violated the laws. Mr. Wyman was not in favor of letting these four men go simply because others had been guilty of the same offense but not detected. The cases in question were aggravated ones. The men had been repeatedly notified by the police to close and had not only re-fused but had used abusive language to the officers who gave them notice. He was in favor of making an example of these four, as the evidence was conclusive. The vote was 4 to 2 against the minority re-cort. Messrs. Conley and Mully were absent. The majority report was then put to a vote. Mr. Bruce said that forbearance had ceased to be a virtue. He was sorry to do any thing to take away a man's living, but the law must be respected. The majority report was then adopted and the city attor ney was instructed to draft an ordinance re-voking the licenses of the four firms who were fined in the police court.

Mayor Walker returned, with his veto attached, the ordinance controlling the han dling of dead animals. Among other things his honor stated that he believed the ordinauce was conceived by one rendering com-pany to down another; that the ordinance was not drafted by the city attorney, and that he did not consider it to be a fair law in any particular. Mr. Bulla reported favorably on the peti-tion of Mr. Curtis and others to grade a few feet north of the corner of Twenty-first and

Omaha is to have another radroad before the death of another year, if all indications are to be believed. The Chicago Great Western for several years past has had its eye on Omaha, but the financial depression has played havor with railroad building and until next year the metropolis will have to wait for another Chicago outlet with the possibility of a lake connection following closely upon the advent of the "Maple Leaf" into Omaha. W. Lewis Boyles of New York, one of the largest stockholders in the road and ex-vice president of the system, who has just returned from St. Paul, where he went to consuit with the executive officers of the road relative to the business and financial outlook, corroborates the exclusive information published in THE BEE last week regarding the intention of the road. Talking reporter yesterday Mr. Boyles stated that it was the intention of the company to put into definite shape during the summer of 1894 the plans for building a line to Omaha, and to begin the work of construction. In the meantime, Mr. Boyles says the improvements contemplated when the Great Western was reorganized are in active progress. ARGUMENTS REGUN.

the Denver & Gulf Road. DENVER, Nov. 20 .- The suit of ex-Governor John Evans against the Union Pacific, Denver & Gulf Railway company, asking for the appointment of receivers, was called in the United States district court this morning before Judge Hallett soon after the opening of court at 10 o'clock. One feature that at-tracted interest to the case was the expected action that the government might take in applying for a receivership for the Gulf portion of the Union Pacific system. As will be remembered, this case was set for argument on Monday last, but Joel F. Vaile, on behalf of the United States government asked that the proceedings be postponed for one week in order that the government the immigration situation and the relief the Union Pacific desired in the matter.

All the trouble over the immigration question has grown out of a committee report made to the association early in October by Messrs. Sebastian, White and Kniskern recommending that the report be made into an agreement, and suggesting a way in which the business might be divided. This agreement the Union Pacific could not consistently sign, on account of the receivership situation and the general trend of United States courts to light shy of agreements under receivers. It is not asserted that the court would have opposed any objection to the agreement, had the receivers recomnended it, but it has been impossible to ge the receivers to take up the question in the press of more important business.
