Wheat Fluctuated Considerably Yesterday Within a Range of One Cent.

THAT CEREAL FINALLY CLOSED LOWER

Corn Was Steady and Dull—Prices Kept Within One-Fourth Cent of the Closing Quotation of Wednesday.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—The choppiest of the market was the feature of wheat today, the price slipping about in a highly confusing manner, with a range of 5/8c, and finally closing from 1/4c to lower than Wednesday. Corn, oats and provisions were steady.

The Cincinnati Price Current estimated the winter wheat at 100,000 bu. less than a year ago, and increasing apprehension of impairment to growing wheat from drought and recent hard froosting was reported. The recent financial trouble in Europe and reports from London that wheat from Russia was being sold at almost any price, also affected the market.

The buying of 100,000 bu. by Walker & Wrenn was the only feature of the oats market. Opening at 31 3/4c, they closed Wednesday 1/4c in the market and 1/4c in the bottom figure, 31 1/4c.

Provisions began the day at a slight advance on a reported increase of from 5c to 10c in prices at the market, but later the advance was lost. Compared with the close Wednesday January, pork, lard and ribs are each 25c higher.

On the Produce Exchange today the butter market was quiet; creameries, 21 1/2c; eggs, 18c; chickens, 12c; turkeys, 15c; geese, 10c; ducks, 10c.

New York, Dec. 1.—Wheat—Receipts 49,000 bushels; exports 10,000 bushels; stock 1,200,000 bushels. Corn—Receipts 1,000,000 bushels; exports 500,000 bushels; stock 2,500,000 bushels.
