PROVISIONALS ARE READY TO FIGHT

They Will Not Tamely Submit to a Turning Down by the United States Minister or Any One Else—The Tension Still High.

Copyright, 1893, by the Associated Press. Honolulu, Nov. 28.—The Hawaiian situation is now in a state of extreme tension. The provisional government is waiting for instructions from the United States minister, Mr. Willis. The minister has been in the islands for some time, but has not yet given any definite answer to the demands of the provisional government. The situation is becoming more and more critical, and it is expected that some serious event will occur in the near future.

DEATH OF THE TORREY BILL

Yesterday's Action of the House Virtually Defeats the Measure.

ITS ADVOCATES TAKEN BY SURPRISE

Strong Opposition Was Developed to it in All Parties—An Analysis of the Vote—Republicans Indulge in a Little Filibustering.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The Torrey bankruptcy bill was defeated today by a vote of 142 to 111. The measure was introduced by Mr. Torrey of New York, and it was intended to provide for a more efficient system of bankruptcy proceedings. However, it met with strong opposition from both Republicans and Democrats. The Republicans, in particular, indulged in a lengthy filibuster, which prevented the bill from coming to a vote until late in the day.

TARIFF REFORMS

Changes Now Made in the Bill and Some That Are Expected.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—There have been many rumors about the capitol today concerning the revised tariff which the majority members of the ways and means committee have about completed and which will soon be printed. There have been a number of changes, relating mainly in the wording of the bill, and it is expected that some further changes will be made before the bill is passed.

WHEN THE HOUSE OPENS

About 100 members were present when the house met. Mr. Talbot, a democrat from South Carolina with populist tendencies, introduced a resolution which would bring in the tariff bill and the banking and currency committee to bring in some financial measures for the relief of the people. The house opened at 10 o'clock, and the session was a busy one.

STATE BANK TAX

Advocates of Its Repeal Have Prepared Bill Looking to That End.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—A bill to repeal the 10 per cent tax on state bank circulation has been framed by the subcommittee on currency and shall be introduced in the house. The bill is intended to relieve the banks of a heavy burden, and it is expected that it will pass the house in the near future.

BOY MURDERERS HANGED

Execution of Two Illinois Youths at Danville, Ill., Dec. 8.—The young murderers, Pate and Stires, were executed at 12:55 today without a hitch. The crime for which Pate and Stires were executed today was committed on August 25 last. Four young men, Harvey Pate, aged 21; Frank Stires, aged 19; Elias McDunkin, aged 18; and Charles Smith, aged 17, were great robbers of flashy literature and had served two years among the cowboys of Texas. The four conceived the idea of holding up Henry Heimick, a wealthy farmer, who was walking to the city with a large sum of money. Pate shot him dead, and the other three were convicted of complicity in the deed and were sentenced to life imprisonment.

WILL DEFINE THE WORD LINE

Effect of Cullom's Proposed Amendment to the Interstate Commerce Law.

FROM POINT OF ORIGIN TO DESTINATION

Shipments Must Be Accepted by Roads from Other Roads at Terminal Stations, the Bill to Be Considered Continuously.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE BEE, 315 FOURTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C. Experts see in the bill which Senator Cullom introduced on Monday for the purpose of amending the interstate commerce law a clause of the greatest possible interest to organized labor as well as shippers and railroad corporations. It may not have been intended by the author to be construed in this way, but it is held that it makes clear the provision in existing law under which United States Circuit Judges Ricks and Taft punished the Ann Arbor strikers at Toledo for refusing to deliver goods to another road at the end of their run on account of an existing strike upon the connecting line. It will be recalled that Judges Ricks and Taft held that it was a part of the strikers' duty under the interstate commerce law to deliver goods to the line at the end of its run which continued the transportation.
