ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The repertoire for Mm. Rheas' engagement at the Boyd on Tuesday and Wednesday next week has been fixed as follows: Tuesday evening, "Queen of Sheba"; Wednesday matinee, "Camille"; Wednesday evening, "Camille"; Thursday evening, "The Queen of Sheba". This is the play that was written specially for Mm. Rheas by M. Barbusse, the noted French playwright.

"Friends" is the title of the new play which has been exciting so much interest and which will be presented at Boyd's four nights and a Saturday matinee, commencing tonight. The play is by Edward Milton Royle, who also takes one of the principal roles. The young author acted as executive bestow of much deep thought and earnest study, and has shown dramatic skill as well as a little originality in the construction of his story and the evolution of a plot that is coherent, strong and replete with human nature. The company producing "Friends" is a very strong one, comprising such well known people as Selma Peter Royle, who was several years leading support for Stuart Robertson and later in the same company with Alexander Salvini; Edwin Milton Royle, the author of the play; E. D. Lyons, for several years leading character actor with Henry Irving, at the Lyceum theater, London; Lucius Henderson, the actor pianist; Harry Allen, the well known operatic comedian; Henry Bergman, who has for many years with Crane, Carrie Berg, Louise Wakelee, Helene Reed, R. F. Chaudier and others, equally as well known. The sale of seats for the entire engagement opened yesterday.

Mr. Joseph Arthur's very successful play, "The Still Alarm," will be seen at the Fifteenth Street theater for eight nights, opening Sunday next. Mr. Arthur is a playwright who writes entertainingly for the masses, that is, for those who constitute the majority of playgoers. In "The Still Alarm" he has given the public a strong, vigorous comedy drama, simply written, but full of scenes of real dramatic power and with pathos and humor in abundance. No play has been more widely copied or more shamelessly stolen from by imitators whose poverty of ideas and invention have prevented them from producing something of their own. There is a spirit of romance and danger about the life of a fireman in a big city, which makes a story of this kind unusually attractive, and Mr. Arthur in "The Still Alarm," has succeeded in giving a very vivid picture of the life of a fireman.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA.

Why Courtney Didn't Get Gray—Hogan Charged with Perjury.

Deputy Sheriff Courtney was in the city a day or two ago with subpoenas for witnesses in the case against Dewane Gray, who was arrested for incorrigibility. Not being able to locate certain parties, Mr. Courtney failed to return the subpoenas to get some information from Chief Becker. As soon as the case was mentioned the chief said he could not understand what they wanted of witnesses in the case, now as he has been in the reform school at Kearney for the last thirty days. This was news to the deputy and he immediately telephoned up to the county jail and asked Theodore Bennett if the Gray had been in the reform school. Bennett said he was and Courtney went on with his work securing witnesses. Young Hogan has been in the reform school for the last six weeks and his mother has received several letters from him.

Must Comply with the Law.

The druggists of South Omaha have been allowed to sell liquor since June without taking out a permit. Councillman Wyman took a few days ago and the druggists defined a few days ago that they must at once file their applications and take out a permit before the new year. An effort is now being made to allow the druggists to pay in the $10 for a permit and let the money go as an occupation tax, thus avoiding the expense of advertising their applications. This sort of compromise would not be in accordance with the law and it is not likely that the city council will enter into any arrangement so thoroughly illegal. These permits should have been taken out in June, but the city council has let it run along until the present time.

A Traump in Hard Luck.

Tom Dutton is a man out of a job and in hard luck. He walked from Plattsmouth to South Omaha Tuesday and on the way rode both of his cars. One of them swayed over and burst open. The fellow had no other means of support, so he went to a doctor's office. He was taken to Dr. Ernhout and the doctor dressed the bleeding ear and made the man as comfortable as possible.

Burlington's Painful Wound.

Ed Darlington, an ex-policeman from Omaha who has been employed chopping wood out south of the city, met with an accident yesterday that will lay him up for several weeks. His ax slipped and gashed his right foot almost severing it at the instep. The fellow came near bleeding to death before he could get to a doctor's office. Dr. Ernhout dressed the wound.

Stands Charged with Perjury.

The county attorney has endorsed the complaint filed against A. N. Hagan and the case is set for today at 2 o'clock. The charge is perjury.

Magic City Gossip.

John Flynn is looking for the man who stole his red Irish set. Guess he will find a fine 2-year-old colt was stolen from Fritz Schroeder, who lives at Fifteenth and Brown streets.

A costly clock was stolen from the residence of Frank Gerard at Thirty-first and R streets.

Mrs. George Anderson slipped and fell on the pavement at Twenty-fifth and N streets, causing a severe sprain of the ankle.

Justice Hodges fined Burton Logan $100 and costs. Logan was charged with passing a worthless check. Logan took an appeal.

It has been reported to the police that John Daniels and family, living at Twenty-second and L streets, are in a destitute condition.

The trustees of the Associated Charities are to meet Monday at the office of Adams & Bell on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. A full attendance is desired at the meeting.

A Timely Bit of Advice.

In these times of grip and pneumonia it is of great importance that we should know where to look for a safe and sure remedy. A slight cold may become a serious one, the scarcely noticeable pain in the chest is too often the forerunner of pneumonia. The first cough may lead to consumption, a cough is often dangerous. Never neglect a cold or cough for even one day, but get at once, as a safe and sure remedy, Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure, which is recommended on all sides. It should be kept in the household, regularly to avoid delay when needed. It is sold at all drug stores.

TIME CHANGES.

The Northwestern Line.
The castwood local, No. 8, now leaves Omaha daily at 11:05 a. m. The "Chicago Limited," No. 6, leaves at 4:05 p. m., arriving at Chicago 8:15 a. m., and the "Eastern Flyer," No. 2, leaves at 6:30 p. m. and arrives at Chicago 9:30 p. m.—by all this the most convenient train from Omaha to Chicago. The equipment remains unchanged, because people expect something "above the average" on "Northwestern" trains. City ticket office 1401 Farnam street.

SHORT ON CASH.

Federal Court Cases to Be Postponed Until Witnesses Are Secured.

There is no possibility that the number of the criminal cases now pending in federal court will have to go over until another term on account of a lack of money with which to pay witness fees. There is only about $400 left in the fund, and this would only be sufficient to try one or two cases where witnesses have to come a long distance. A urgent request for more money has been wired to Washington, but whether the desired funds will be forthcoming or not is still uncertain.

Among the cases set for trial at the present term are the Frank Dorsey cases and a number of postoffice and larceny cases. Some time ago Dorsey's attorneys filed a motion for a continuance as the next term of court. This was supplemented by affidavits which represented that the defendant was at Hot Springs, Ark., and that the sick wife is not likely to return to the city, thus avoiding the jury. Under the circumstances it was quite likely that the continuance would be granted until recently, but the court has ruled in favor of Baker was informed that Dorsey had left Hot Springs and had gone to Sioux City.

It was surmised that Dorsey might just as well have traveled to Omaha as Sioux City, and Mr. Baker will protest against any further continuance unless evidence should be produced to show that the affidavit was in good faith.

Improving Elmwood Park.

Elmwood park, containing 215 acres, fifty-five acres of which was donated to the city, is the largest park belonging to the city. Omaha and will eventually be made the principal park of the system. The 160 acres purchased cost the city $135,110.10. The amount expended on this park for improvement is $26,817.4.

The boulevard, 300 feet wide, connecting Elmwood park with Hausson park is now being constructed. The boulevard will later be extended north from Elmwood toward the other parks by a continuous boulevard.

Contagious Ephemera.

A well developed case of diphtheria was taken to the police station Tuesday. The victim of the disease is John Kennedy, and he was taken to the station for what is called another place where a case of contagious disease can be taken. Kennedy has been working for a few weeks on the Odd Fellows building at Fourteenth and Dege streets and has stopped at a lodging house on Sixteenth between Cass and Chicago. By being taken to the police court a large number of people were exposed to the disease.

Yesterday Dr. Towne visited Kennedy and pronounced the case of a decided type. The city has no place in which to confine a person afflicted with contagious disease. A place was made for the county to take Kennedy, but the county officials refused, as they are in the same fix as the city. In the meantime Kennedy is suffering from the malady and is occupying "Haskell's hospital," a small room off the police court. He will be kept there until the city government can move to transfer and a place be provided. It requires a meeting and action of the Board of Health to designate a place for a contagious disease patient.

In the afternoon Dr. Towne, after consultation with Mayor Bemis and the city attorney, secured the old church building at Thirtieth and Dege streets which will be fitted up for emergency cases. Kennedy was removed there and will be given proper care at the city's expense.

SUAGGLERS PLACED ON TRIAL.

Beginning of What Promises to Be a Sensational Case at Portland, Ore.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 13.—The trial of twenty persons charged with conspiracy to smuggle Chinese laborers, began yesterday. The case promises to be very interesting in consequence of the prominence of some of the defendants and also because of the large number of persons implicated.

The grand jury found a blanket indictment against twenty-seven persons, but only twenty persons were named in the indictment. They are James Lotter, ex-collector of customs of Portland; Thomas Jordan, ex-captain of inspectors of customs; C. M. Mullike, Inspector of Customs; Colonel Vincent Weickesser, assistant adjutant general, Indiana; Aides-de-camp: Colonel J. J. Arnold, New York; Colonel M. T. Burke, New Hampshire; Major D. L. Donnell, Ohio; Major Andrew W. Weidman, Kentucky; Major C. J. Williams, Florida; Major C. T. Wood, Maryland; Major N. J. Moutier, Iowa; Major C. H. Quilley, Georgia; Major A. H. In Financial Difficulties.

DES MOINES, Dec. 13.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE].—A chattel mortgage on the Des Moines Leader newspaper property for $5,900 was filed yesterday in favor of State Senator T. J. Caldwell. The Leader is the oldest newspaper in the city and has been in financial difficulties for many years. It is hinted that the mortgage will turn up in the hands of the Iowa Homestead newspaper company, which is talking of establishing a daily morning paper here.
