

GEN. GRANT'S GRANDCHILD

Colonel Fred's Daughter One of This Season's Debutantes in New York.

WILL BE COURTED AND PETTED BY SOCIETY

Discussion of the American System of Education Young Women—Tentative School for Women—Feminine and Fashion Notes.

Probably none of this season's debutantes in New York society will receive more attention than Miss Julia Grant, the daughter of Colonel Frederick D. Grant, who will be courted and petted quite as much for the sake of her own charming personality and accomplishments as because of her illustrious lineage.

Chicagoan in fact, had just begun to claim her for their very own, when Colonel Grant took a house in New York for the winter and established his family in the metropolis.

Miss Julia was born in the white house during the last year of General Grant's term as president of the United States.

From head to foot, from top to toe, the girl of '93 is a thing of color and life and movement, of picturesque effect and pleasing personality.

It is an interesting fact that in Switzerland, where the same educational advantages are extended to both sexes, and in which the same universities are attended by students from all parts of the world.

In Morrison, Ill., there lives a gentleman by the name of Green. It is now some twenty years since Mr. Green became the delighted father of an infant daughter.

A certain Mr. Horace Plunket made a speech in the English Parliament one day which sent the members off into fits of laughter.

Old records say the law once took a hand in reducing the size of women's sleeves in Venice. That was in 1363, and its effect was soon seen in the extravagant trains women added to their gowns.

There is at Reykjavik, in Iceland, a most interesting school for women, which represents the patriotic love and self-sacrifice of Icelandic women.

Beautiful dancing toilets are made changeable skin brocades, trimmed with lace insertion and edging, with skirts of accordion-pleated organ set to a yoke of the brocade.

and many more at home have received a higher form of education than otherwise would have been possible. Women students are admitted to the medical and theological seminaries, for instruction and literary examinations, and to the Latin school for examination, if they have prepared themselves.

Mrs. Leland Stanford, after her husband's death, assumed the administration of the business affairs of his large estate. No other woman in the country controls so many millions.

At both schools and several other well known business women are to be considered numbers in the coupon departments, and are found better adapted for the work than men.

Some pretty frames for photographs that sold readily at a woman's exchange, says the New York Times, were of course heavy white lace painted with ivory.

It is an interesting fact that in Switzerland, where the same educational advantages are extended to both sexes, and in which the same universities are attended by students from all parts of the world.

In Morrison, Ill., there lives a gentleman by the name of Green. It is now some twenty years since Mr. Green became the delighted father of an infant daughter.

A certain Mr. Horace Plunket made a speech in the English Parliament one day which sent the members off into fits of laughter.

Old records say the law once took a hand in reducing the size of women's sleeves in Venice. That was in 1363, and its effect was soon seen in the extravagant trains women added to their gowns.

There is at Reykjavik, in Iceland, a most interesting school for women, which represents the patriotic love and self-sacrifice of Icelandic women.

Beautiful dancing toilets are made changeable skin brocades, trimmed with lace insertion and edging, with skirts of accordion-pleated organ set to a yoke of the brocade.

changeable skin brocades, trimmed with lace insertion and edging, with skirts of accordion-pleated organ set to a yoke of the brocade.

Crepons are considerably less the rage than they were last season. French crepons, camel's hair, sacking in its varied qualities and effects, serge and vicrome being strong rivals.

Handsome silk-striped wools are being formed into pretty "holiday toilets."

Point d'Angleterre is very fashionable for wedding veils. It is very obnoxious and falls more gracefully than any of the lace used for that purpose.

Milliners are just now showing particular partiality for all the rich brown shades and the different varieties of green, combining them with soft tints of yellow or pink and shades of red.

Maid of honor to Queen Victoria received a salary of $1,500 a year and are in attendance at court thirteen weeks.

English under servants, who are always excluded from the housekeeper's room, refer to this sacred spot as "The Pig's Parlor."

A letter of George Eliot's, in which she complains of the literary criticism of certain persons, was recently sold at auction in London for $25.

Partridges served with stoved peaches is a specialty of a Dresden hotel, according to a European traveler, who found the combination a happy one.

Leon Ingelow appears to be a very hospitable woman. She gives a dinner party three times a week.

In October of this year the authorities of Dublin university, Ireland, announced that hereafter the junior fellowship of the university will be open to students of both sexes on the same conditions.

Barnard College for Women, an annex of Columbia college, now has 105 students and has secured $100,000 for a building fund. It has received $100,000 from the Fawcett society and $20,000 toward an endowment fund of $100,000.

Miss Ethel Arnold, a sister of Mrs. Hammy Ward, is said to be an unusually brilliant and talented woman.

The philosophical faculty of the University of Heidelberg has resolved that women students can be admitted to the degree of doctor there.

It was a German woman, Mme. Emma Seller, who first discovered the mechanism of head notes, the highest tones in the female voice.

At one time during Shannon's incumbency in the office of collector of customs, a scheme to have a number of gondolas placed on the artificial lake in Hanscom park.

Barney was likewise struggling with the question of a new coat, and he had declined to purchase one until he had seen the one that he had in mind.

"Did you dread proposing to me, John?" "Oh, no, I had been told beforehand that you would be a good wife."

"So the young widow is going to marry Mr. Jingles?" "He is a good chap, I sincerely hope so. They say she used to throw roses at a dog when she was a girl."

"A young woman in Indiana, engaged to be married, backed out on the day set for the wedding, giving as an excuse that she had been bitten against the neck by a dog."

"I've noticed one thing about widows' weeds," said his reverence. "What's that?" asked his honor. "They rarely interfere with the growth of orange blossoms on the wedding cake."

The wedding of Mrs. Jennie Cecil Lyon, daughter of the late George Cecil, of New York City, and William G. Morse, a son of Wm. W. Morse, the inventor of the telegraph, took place in New York last week.

Prince Peter Traubitzki, the Russian nobleman who is painting an illustrious portrait, is engaged to be married to a young

LOCAL NEWS OF COLOR

The car was nearly full when a mobility dressed young man, loaded with an egg-bag and general air of fastidious, carefully gathered up his elegant hat tails and settled himself in the corner seat.

"I'm not a passenger," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

"I have your ticket, and I am going to the office," he said, "I have your ticket, and I am going to the office."

The Evening Lamp during the winter nights which now come on apace will shed its mellow radiance over

The Family Circle in many happy households. There will be home-chat and music and games, and, best of all,

The Art Portfolios OF THE World's Fair Views

COMPRISING 256 SUPERB ART REPRODUCTIONS 256 FROM Official U. S. Government Photographs.

PHOTOS OF EXHIBITS OF JACKSON PARK AND MIDWAY PLAISANCE WITH MANY SCENES OF SUPREME NATURAL BEAUTY AND INTEREST IN

HOW TO SECURE THIS VALUABLE EDUCATIONAL SERIES. THE BEE POINTS THE WAY:

CLIP 10 Art Portfolio Coupons of different dates from page 2 of this paper, and send or bring them with 10 cents in coin to Art Portfolio Department, THE OMAHA BEE, Omaha, Neb., and one portfolio, containing 10 pictures...

Art Portfolio Department, THE OMAHA BEE, Omaha, Neb.

ART A HOSPE JR MUSIC 1513 DOUGLAS STREET NEW KIMBALL PIANO

Palace Office Building OF OMAHA.

ABSOLUTELY FIRE PROOF. NOT A DARK OFFICE IN THE BUILDING. INCANDESCENT ELECTRIC LIGHTS. PERFECT VENTILATION. NIGHT AND DAY ELEVATOR SERVICE.

68 VAULTS. THE BEE BUILDING. DIRECTORY OF OCCUPANTS:

- BASEMENT FLOOR: FIDELITY TRUST COMPANY, Mortgage Loans, REAL ESTATE WORKS COMPANY, FRANCIS L. REEVE & CO., Contractors, REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE. SECOND FLOOR: MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., ELIOTT & FISH, Law Offices, DR. CHARLES ROSEWATER, CHRISTIAN SCIENCE READING ROOM, GEO. E. WASHINGTON, Attorney-at-Law. THIRD FLOOR: BEE BUSINESS OFFICE, UNITED STATES LIFE INSURANCE CO., ANGLICAN AMERICAN MORTGAGE & TRUST COMPANY, MASSACHUSETTS MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., W. A. WEBSTER, Real Estate, BERKSHIRE LIFE & FIRE Insurance, HARTMAN & ROBBINS, J. L. BLACK, Civil Engineer, STANDARD ACCIDENT INSURANCE CO., OMAHA REAL ESTATE AND TRUST CO., OMAHA VALLEY INVESTMENT CO., W. C. CROOKS, Nervous, Stomach and Heart. FIFTH FLOOR: ARMY HEADQUARTERS, DEPARTMENT OF THE PLATE. SIXTH FLOOR: BEE EDITORIAL ROOMS, BEE PUBLISHING ROOM, U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE. SEVENTH FLOOR: ROYAL ARCANUM LODGE ROOMS.

A few more elegant office rooms may be had by applying R. W. Baker, Superintendent, office on counting room floor.