Mr. Dorman was one of the most broadly educated of men. He had a fine literary sense, and was a patron of art as well as music. For several years he was the presi-dent of the Apollo club of this city and the present high standing of that organization toward its upbuilding of that organization is directly traceable to the efforts he gave toward its upbuilding. The functal, it is understood, will take place on Saturday, and will be attended by officials, not only of the Burlington, but the Santa Fe as well, Vice President D. B. Robinson of the latter road being a common of the decreased road being a cousin of the deceased.

A telegram to THE BEE from Burlington says Mr. Dorman will be buried in Aspen Grove cemetery in that city tomorrow. Par-ticulars of the funeral will be published as soon as arranged.

Very old monarchies, according to tradition have indulged in frivolous amusements when the wellbeing of a state was in danger, but it is a long time since the world has seen anything so fantastic in the history of democratic people, as the contrast between the poverty and financial disaster at home and the first foundations of a maritime empire, as proposed by Mr. Holman's resolution, regarding the establish-ment by the United States of a protectorate over the Hawaiian islands.
