CONNELL COMPROMISE ASKED

Union Pacific Wants it Incorporated in Metropolitan Depot Ordinance.

MATTER REFERRED TO A COMMITTEE

Interest Payment of Two Million Dollars About to Be Made-On What Bonds the Money Will Go-Other Railway News

The incorporators of the Metropolitan Union Depot company held another meeting yesterday at the Merchants National bank to further consider the proposition to build union depot at the foot of Farsam street. There were present at the meeting President Herman Kountze, Secretary Thomas Swobe and Messrs. Hamilton, Murphy, Smith, Rogers, Stone, C. W. Lyman, C. J. Karbach and John Rush.

There has been more or less objection to the ordinance introduced by Councilman Saunders at the meeting of the council Jannary 9. To remove these criticisms as to the position of the city relative to lands which have been in controversy between the city and the Union Pacific company for a number of years, a new ordinance was pre-sented for consideration yesterday, prepared by General Solicitor John M. Thurston. In this new ordinance is embodied what is known as the "Connell compromise," which was up for action in the last council, but which was defeated by that body with little

The new ordinance, which is designed to take the piace of the one now in the hands of the judiciary committee of the council, brought up so many new questions that a committee of five, consisting of Messrs, Kountze, Hamilton, Smith, Lyman and Rush, was appointed to more thoroughly examine into the merits of the ordinance country to be substituted and to report their sought to be substituted and to report their findings at a meeting to be held Monday at

Coupon Obligations: Within a few days the treasury of the Union Pacific railroad company will be depleted to the extent of nearly $2,000,000, which will be paid out to meet the interest falling due January I, on the first mortgage bonds of the various companies included in the great system of rails that extends westward from Omaha.

There are features connected with the payment of this large amount that are novel even in these days of tremendous financial enterprises. Without even so much an asking for receivers' certificates the money will be paid in cold cash from the treasury of the company to the various holders of Union Pacific bonds. Ordinarily with companies in the hands of ordinarily with companies in the names of receivers it is made nacessary by conditions that receivers' certificates be issued, but Judge Thurston stated to The Bre man yesterday that such a course would not be followed in this case, having the money to pay all interest charges falling due on the first

Mr. John Rush, speaking of the conterence held Thursday with President Clark of the Union Pacific by a committee of the incorporators of the Metropolitan Union depot, and also with General Manager Potter of the Omaha Bridge & Terminal company, said to a representative of Tun Bue that since the interview with the centiemen above mentioned he felt willing to make sacrifice in favor of the project. "Wh "While there have been many schemes for the up-building of Omaha suggested in the past i regard this suggestion of a union depot at the foot of Farnam street as being more practical than any of the numerous schemes advanced in many years. It has the element of strength that other ideas have lacked, and if the people of Omaba can only agree upon this matter a depot at the foot of Farnam street will forever fix the bounds of the business interests. of the municipality. Beyond the matter of election the incorporators have little to do toward building the structure but to see that the depot becomes an actuality through other channels capable of carrying out the provisions of the ordinance. For years I have felt that the foet of Farnam street was the proper place for a union depot, but withat examining into the matter closely cought it was a physical impossibility for the railroads to enter the structure. Yesterday, however, in looking at expert plans made by a corps of engineers who have gone over every foot of the ground to be occupied. I was surprised to see how easily my objections were dissipated, consequence I have become more an enthusiast than ever for the depot at the foot of Farmam street, and I believe th great majority of citizens will coincide with me after a full and free discussion of the question that it solves one of the perplexing obloms regarding the rathroad question in

ITS END IS NEAR.

Evidence that the Central Traffic Association Will Soon Dissolve. CINCINNATI, Jan. 12 .- The Enquirer says that the Central Traffic association seems near its end. The roads composing it are considering the advisability of displacing it with a gigantic commission. For years many of the foremost railroad men of the country have considered that the association had outlived its usefulness and that there were no longer any evidences of its utility. Six months ago President Ingalls made a resolve to withdraw, which, if carried out, would be approximately the six of cause a disintegration in the alliance, but he was dissuaded from so doing. The Pennsylvania, which has always been the associsylvania, which has always seen the association's best friend, has ceased to be a believer in its efficiency. The general passenger agents in New Yer will recommend, so the information comes from a reliable source, the creation of a big commission.

VILLEGAGNON AGAIN SHAREN

Another Explosion Within that Stronghold Plays Havoc.

MANY OF ITS DEFENDERS WERE KILLED

Mello Said to Be Preparing a "Forlors Hope"-Nictheroy & Supposed to Be the Objective Point of the Contemptated Attack.

Special Brazilian Cable-Copyrighted, 1804, by the Associated Press RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 12.—The explosion which took place at Fort Villegazuon is much more serious than was at first supposed. First report had it that a gun had exploded and that several people had been injured. It now appears that fifteen men were killed by the explosion. Exact details as to the cause of the explosion are not known in Rio. One version of the affair has it that the loss of life was caused by the explosion of a gun, and another account says the disaster was the result of the explosion of one of the magazines. In any case, the blow is a severe one to Fort Villegagnon. which is already much damaged by the frequent storms of shot and shell which have visited it during the past few months.

It also appears that the explosion on board of Admiral de Gama's flagship, the Tamandre, was more serious than at first announced. Later reports say that six men were killed and eight wounded by the explosion. These disasters to the rebels have had the effect of considerably disbeartening them, and it is reported that they may cause a decided turn of tide in favor of President Peixoto.

Usual Sensational Rumors.

The usual sensational rumors have been circulated in regard to these two explosions, among them being the report that the explosion at Fort Villegagnon was the work of an agent of President Peixoto, who managed to obtain admission to the rebel fort and who blew up the powder magazine in one portion of the island's fortifications. Friends of the insurgents ashore, however, deny this and say that the disaster was the result of an accident and that it is impossible for an agent of the Peixoto government to set foot inside of Fort Villegagnon.

Reports received here from Pernambuco confirm the statement that the trouble on board the dynamite cruiser Nietheroy continues. It was at first reported that the crew of the Nictheroy refused to put to sea unless they were paid arrears of wages which were said to be due to them. The correct version of the affair seems to be that the crew insists upon the payment of a considerable sum in advance and that they will not sail southward until this money is paid. The government officials here deny this and say that the Nietheroy America, Aurora and the vessels from Montevideo and other places will sail for Rio de Janeiro so soon as the entire fleet is gatherea at Pernambuco.

The most conflicting reports are in circulation as to the contemplated movements of the rebels. It is still announced that the rebels are preparing for an attack with their full force upon the city of Nictheroy and that they expect, if it is successful, to make a determined attack upon the city of Rio de Janeiro itself. If this is the case the rebels are sure of meeting with a warm reception, as President Peixoto has been long aware o their reported intentions and has taken steps to defend Nictheroy in the most thorough manner, and in view of the brilliant re-sistance which that town has so long made against the rebel fleet it is balleyed here that the government troops will be able to repulse any attack made by the rebel forces.

Admirat Mello's Health. regarding the health of Admiral de Mello there are two versions in circulation. Ac-cording to one story he is suffering from complaints which render him unfit to take operations. Accord ing to another story the rebel commander is enjoying the most robust health and will personally conduct the attack on Rio de

The health of all on board the United States men-of-war was excellent.

A correspondent in Rio also reports that on January 4 all the ministers of foreign powers having warships in the bay informed President Peixoto and Salduba they would suspend all efforts at infervention between the contestants and that both sides might go ahead and bompard each other to their hearts' content, but the foreign warships did not move from their anchorage and the rebel vessels still remain enscouced behind the islands safe from Peixoto's guns.

News has just reached Rio of a small mutiny on the Nictheroy at Pernambuco which forced Captain Baker to shoot one of two of the crew. Is is believed by some in Rio that the New Yorkers were really afraid to take the Nictheroy into a fight.

CAN'T FIND A CHAIRMAN.

Statement that the British Miners' Arbitration Board Will Fall Through. LONDON, Jan. 12.-The St. James' Gazette asserts that the arbitration board which was arranged at the meeting of coal mine owners and representatives of their omployes, held at the Foreign office in London last November under the presidency of Lord Rosebery, is tikely to prove a failure. At this meeting it was decided that the men should go back to work at the old wages until January 31, and that a board consisting of fourteen representatives should be chosen to decide the scale of wages to be paid from February 1. This board was to choose its own chairman, who was to be some public man not connected in any way with the coal trade. It was hoped that either Lord Rosebery or Speaker Peel of the House of Commons would consent to preside at the conference.

If this allegation of the St. James' is well founded there is every possibility that the big strike of miners will be resumed in the near future, for the mine owners are said to be firmly determined not to continue the resent wage rate any longer than their promise binds them to. IN BAD FAVOR.

Brazillans Do Not Take Kindly to the Americans on the Nictheroy. Burnos Ayres, Jan. 12 .- Advices from Rio de Janeiro state that the bombardment of the city has recommenced. There is much feeling among the inhabitants both of the city of Rio de Janiero and of the provinces against President Peixoto. This has been owing to the action of Peixoto in enrolling many foreigners for service under the Brazilian government. Men from the Nictheroy have been engaged in a serious disturbance at Pernambuco. They were ashere at that place and after a heavy drinking bout proceeded to make themselves obnoxious. Vigorous measures were resorted to to overpower them and in the struggle two of the Nictheroy's men were killed. The other men of the party will be dealt with rigor-ously by the Nictheroy's commander. It is reported from Rio Grande do Sul that the government troops have defeated the in-

SHERIFF'S MEN DOUBTFUL.

They Declare it Cannot Have Been Evans and Morrel Who Raided Fowler. FRESNO, Cal., Jan. 12.-The sheriff's officers give no credence to the supposition that Evans and Morrel committed the robbery at Fowler Wednesday evening. Evans is believed to be still in the mountains and one of the sheriff's men returned from the foot hills last evening with a letter found in a rancher's house. Evans broke in during the rancher's absence and exchanged his own rifle for a lighter one and took the rancher's field glass. The bandit left a note saying his own rifle was too heavy for his one arm and that he would pay for the rifle and glass at the first opportunity. There is no doubt about Evans' handwriting. The sheriff's men are mystified, however, about the raid at Fowler.

Another Long Game in Which the Young Napoleon Was Blessed by a Scratch to Start a Run that Won tor Him.

Cuicago, Jan. 12.-Ives and Slosson met for the second time in the bala-line billiard tournament tonight, this time under conditions more favorable to the New Yorker. who was completely snowed under last Tuesday night by Ives' big run of 487, made almost entirely with the "anchor nurse." Tonight the anchor was barred and Slosson felt that he had a living chance at the allaround game. Stosson having won the bank and missed the lay off shot Ives cornered the balls on his first shot and started off at a rattling pace, but soon tost his hold and sat down at nineteen on an easy spread. He let go on the same kind of a shot at his next opening, while in his third inning he got sewed up on a bad line break with his own ball lawed. Slosson started off with unusual slowness even for him. For his first four innings he had plenty of opportunities, but could hardly make a shot to suit him. His fifth inning showed some improvement, his run of thirty-nine being well played. He had now taken the load, 50 to 42, and as lives let go easily, he got another chance in the sixth and put in another good run, though it was chiefly of the sledge hammer style, his miss at thirty-eight being a very hard round-the-table shot. In the seventh ne had every chance in the world for bil-liards, but stopped at twelve on an easy masse. Score: Slosson, 100; Ives, 42.

Poor Work for Ives.

Ives began his eighth with a perfect setup in the lower right-hand corner, but let go at seven on a shot a beginner would make. The balls were left very safe, however, and the young Napoleon got another benefit in the shape of a good leave, and he now set to work to do something with it. At seventy be had the anchor, but did not use half his allowance. He now struck a smoother gait and was trotting very fast. His 100 was passed with the balls well in hand, but a freeze and bank split them at 121, and at 124 after a very poor drive he missed a hard cushion shot. Score: Ives, 181; Slosson,

In his twelfth inning Slosson did some In his twelfth inning Slosson did some very neat balk line nursing for forty-four and seemed likely to make an important run, but unaccountably slipped up on the easiest possible carom. Ives for his half inning gave a fine exhibition of nursing, halting on a slow follow for lack of force. The run of fifty-nine carried him to 241; Slosson, 154.

Slosson's Best Showing. Slosson found the balls ready bunched and showed his appreciation of the fact by doing his very best work thus far. His run was sixty-seven, and the score now stood: Ives, 241; Slosson, 221. In his fifteenth Slosson stepped to the front for the first time leading off with a magnificent long shot around the table for position, which he got to perfection. His fortieth shot was a long and extra hazardous large within he would have hazardous bank, which he would have missed but his kiss went into a count. His devout thankfulness for this prize-taking was exhibited by some superb playing, in which he showed a perfect stroke and rare judgment. As he reached 100, his best run for the tournament, the audience cheered heartily. On he went with close position work and accurate use of the short drive and never stopped until, at 144, a hard double cushion play for position downed him. He had now gained a strong lead, having a score of 365 to 242 in his favor. Hard breaks stopped his sixtcenth inning at eight, his ninth being a kiss which decrived him of count.

Ives, in his sixteenth, played for the anchor and got it, but froze at twenty and missed on an out and in masse. Slosson again found the balls in a heap, but could only get twenty-two out of them. In his eighteenth he failed on an easy masse to the cushion and quit at seven when the outlook was most promising.

Ives Goes to Work.

Ives had five rather barren innings, while osson was reaping his harvest, and in his half of the eighteenth set to work in dead earnest. He found the balls in easy shape and held them for a long time in the upper right-hand corner. He was playing balk line bifflards at its very best, and stood to make a big run, but strangely decided to smash his position out of all shape when there was not the slightest need of it, and so fell down at 106. Score: Slosson, 402; Ives,

Then followed two blanks on either side due to effective safety play, but in his twenty-first Ives broke the deadlock with a screaming long bank shot, but let up at seven on an easy draw. Both men were letting go on rather slight provocation just now, as both seemingly felt the stage was a critical one. Ives in his twenty-fourth got a nice break in the lower left-hand corner and worked it for eighteen before changing to the opposite side, but in getting out of balk he scattered the balls and quit at twentyseven. Slosson's failure on an casy masse cut him off at five.

Scratched and Won Out.

A rank scratch on his second shot saved Ives' life in the twenty-fifth, which he began with 415, against 456 for Slosson. Ives now resumed the lead with a well-played run of 104, which ended with a freeze and a missed bank. Score: Ives, 519; Slosson, 456.

There was poor play and easy falldowns or both sides for the next few finnings, until it the thirtieth Ives ran fifty-six and was now within sixteen points of game, while Slosson lacked 110. He managed to gather up twenty six in his thirty-first, but ended by leaving a set-up, and Ives set for sixteen and game but was kissed off at nine. Slosson opened the thirty-second with half a dozen hard shots and then had the balls in good nursing shape, but falled at forty-six on an easy draw, leaving Ives seven to go, which he made at midnight. Duval Club Takes Out the License Provided for by Local Ordinance. Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 12.—The Daval Athletic club has gone one step further in ts efforts to bring off the Corpett-Mitchell contest by securing a license for a boxing natch, which the city is obliged to issue under the new ordinance passed several days ago. The license is taken out by Henry

Mason, president of the Duval club, and reads as follows:

Mason, president of the Daval club, and reads as follows:

To Whom It May Concern: Whereas, Harry, Mason, on behalf of J. J. Corbett of California and Charles Mitchell of England, and as required by an ordinance to regulate exhibitions of skill of boxing or glove contests, published January 1, 1894, has given twenty four hours notice of the purpose to hold and have a glove contest or exhibition of skill in boxing, with the sain James J. Corbett and Charles Mitchell as contestants, said contest or boxing match to take place at the fair grounds hullding in Fairfield, a suburb of Janksonville, on Thursday, January 23, 1894, and the Reense tax of $25, provided by law as one of the conditions upon which permission for such glove contest or boxing match shall take place, having been paid to the city treaspier, as is evidenced by the latter's receipt here on file in this office:

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority and injunction embraced in provisions of the ordinance ubove cited, permission is hereby granted to Janues J. Corbett of Chilfornia and have a glove contest or exhibition of skill in boxing at the full grounds buildings at Farfield, a suburb of Jacksonville, on Thursday, January 25, 1894; provided, always, that all other coordinance universities of the ordinance regulating exhibitions of skill in boxing and embraced in the provisions of the ordinance regulating exhibitions of skill in boxing and regulating exhibitions of skill in boxing and glove contests, shall be complied with in all | ROSCOE PARKER LYNCHED respects.

Given under my hand and the corporate scal of the city of Jacksonville this 12th day of January, A. D. 1894. WILLIAM C. WEST, Recorder.

The license for the boxing match between the middleweights, Harris and Watkins, which will take place next Monday night, was also issued to George Siler, the Chicago sporting writer. In interviews tonight the officials of the club say that they are unshaken in their belief that the contest will come off as adver-tised. Today has been the biggest in the sale of seats since the sale opened. Militiamen Refuse Their Aid.

New York, Jan. 12.-The Herald's special from Jacksonville says: The adjutant general of Fiornia held a conference with the officers of the local militia at the Everette house has night to ascertain what would be their action if called upon to step the prize fight. The meeting lasted thirtythe prize fight. The meeting lasted thirty-five minutes and when it was over General Houston felt so crestfallen that he refused to talk. He was informed by the gentlemen named that they had canvassed the whole question and had decided to pay no atten that to the covernor should be proclaim martial law in Daval county and order them out. They said that knowing of no law to warrant the governor in preclaiming warrant the governor in proclaiming martial law to prevent boxing contests, they would not recognize him in the matter. They declared they were still loyal to the state and would hope to remain good militinmen, but they would not allow the governor to arrogats to himself powers he did not possess under the statutes and use them to injure their relatives and friends. It was pointed out in a mild way that they were laying themselves liable to arrest. They answered that they had canvassed the whole matter and had decided to act as they had indicated.

Colonel Montgomery Bryant to Be Placed Upon the Retired List.
CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Colonel Montgomery Bryant, Phirteenth United States infantry, will be placed upon the retired list by order of President Cleveland on March 1 next. Colonel Bryant's application for retirement was recently passed through the head-quarters of the Department of the Missouri, where The Bee correspondent was today informed that in every probability Colonel Bryant would be given a vacancy on the retired list. He is 62 years of age and would not have been retired under the usual order of army affairs until two years more had elapsed. Colonel Bryant had an excellent record for a civilian, he having been appointed from civil life to a second fleutenancy in 1857, and reaching a colonelcy by regular promotion. Lieutenant Colonel Daingerfield Parker will succeed to the command of the Thir-teenth infantry. Among other changes caused by retirement are those of Major Randail of the Fourth infantry, who will become a lieutenant colonel, and Captain Carpenter of the Fourteenth, who becomes a

BOMBS IN NEW YORK.

Front of a Tenement House Blown Off-

Gas Meter as the Medium. New York, Jan. 12.—A dastardly attempt to blow up with two bombs the tenement house at 54 Avenue D was made last night At 10 o'clock there was a terrific explosion and the whole front of the house was blown out. The firemen found that the gas meter had exploded and discovered a trail of kerosene, which led from the meter to the cellar. There they found a quantity of cotton batting soaked in kerosene and a bomb made of lead pipe to which a half-burned fuse was

YOUNG OHIO MURDERER HANGED BY A MOB

Supposed Slayer of Aged Mr. and Mrs. Rhine Taken from Jail and Strung Up by Adams County's Four Hundred-Protested His Innocence, CINCINNATE Jan. 12.-Roscoe Parker, the colored boy who four weeks ago hast Sunday night brutally murdered the aged Mr. Rhine and his wife, was hanged by a mob of the best citizens of Winehester and adjacent points in Adams county, Ohio, at 1 o'clock this morning about four miles from Winchester. The murder was for money, and mly $10 was obtained. Parker, the murderer, was only 16 years old, and had worked for the old couple, and had known of Mr. Rhine receiving money for the sale of some stock. The boy confessed his crime, but implicated Sam Johnson, who easily proved his nnocence. Lynching was threatened and Parker was taken to Portsmouth for safekeeping. Meantime the spirit of revenge did sleep, Secret organization was had, and when it was learned yesterday that Sheriff Duniap, when on his way from Athens, would bring Parker to Adams county for a preliminary hearing and would keep him over night in the West Union jail, messengers were sent out and a band of 400 men met at the Pan Handle crossing and rode to West Union. At the jail they tried the ruse of pretending they had a prisoner, but Sheriff Dunlap, seeing a mask, shut the door and fastened it securely. The mob used force, and, despite the shoriff's manly defense, soon had Parker and was on the way toward Winchester. The colored boy still maintained that Johnson did the murder and finally, when the place of execution was reached and the rope was around his neck, he said he was not at the place of murder that night and could tell nothing whatever about it. He refused to pray and was hanged after one or two efforts by the somewhat unskillful executioners, who left him after firing builets into his body.

"It is fearfully trying to nerves and brain," said a young woman in one of Omaha's stores yesterday, "this being forced to look pleasantall day long when one is ready to drop with fatigue and vexation.' There are thousands of such tired, overworked women behind shop counters and in offices. Nothing so quickly brings nervous irritability and exhaustion, and robs the body of its elasticity and health, as trying to smile and humor the countless peculiarities of the throng of buyers. In addition to the real fatigue from long hours is added this nervous fatigue which is still more wearing. If statistics prove anything they show how surely Paine's celery compound re-cruits the nervous energy of just such weak and overtaxed women. Headaches cease; the tired, anxious expression leaves the face; neuralgia, a sure sign of ill-fed nerves, vanishes, and white cheeks, white lips, white blood gradually gain the color of health if Paine's celery compound is taken with reasonable regularity. From the first taking of celery compound a feeling of hope and encouragement comes over the invalid. This is the universal testimony of thousands. Paine's celery compound sends new, pure blood to the heart and takes away
