ORDER ISSUED BY JUDGE FOX VIOLATED

Deputy Marshat Fowler and the Satoon Man Placed Under Arrest for Contempt of Court-William Bohning's Connection with the Case.

The last chapter in the thrilling romance entitled "How Mittnacht Got His Jag Juice Bacs," does not seem to have been reached yet. Yesterday William Bohning went to Justice Fox's office and told the court that it had been held in contempt by Deputy Marshal Fowler and Fred Mittnacht, As near as can be learned the contempt consists in the seizure on a writ of replevin of barrels, bottles and jugs that were held under an order of Justice Fox's court. Bonning backed up his assertion by an affidavit, and on the strength of this affidavit both Fowler and Mittnacht of this affidavit both Fowler and Mittnacht were placed under arrest and summoned into the presence of the court. They will have a hearing next Monday afternoon at 2 o clock. Mittnacht will also have a hearing on the charge of keeping a place for the sale of intoxicating liquors, an information making such a charge having also been filed by the same party yesterday. Attogether Behning shows but little inclination to lie down, in spite of the promise the authorities make that they will have ise the authorities make that they will have him in a hot box before a week has rolled around. The case is waxing as interesting as only a whisky case can, when it is tried under the laws of lowa.

Christian Church Report.

Rev. E. W. Allen, pastor of the Christian church, has prepared a statement of the progress made by the organization with he is connected, and has furnished THE BEE. a copy. The progress shown is certainly a matter of congratulation to both paster and members. The total cash receipts for the year ending January 7, 1824, was $5,722.60, divided as follows among the various suborganizations: Treasurer of the church, $2,606; Sunday school, $304; aid society, $368; Society of Christian Endeavor, $64; Kings Daughters, $250, total of $1850, total child $2,850, total c $282; the lot, $1,850; furnishings, $255. The disbursements, $5,650.

There have been 170 additions to the church, which now has a membership of 307. The Sunday school has a membership of 250, an increase of 175. The aid society has grown to forty three, an increase of nine teeu. The Young Peoples Society of Chris tian Endeavor has received sixty ad-ditions, and now numbers eighty-eight. Membership of Kings Daughters, forty-five Membership of Junior Christian Endeagor, forty-eight. Euroli-ment of Mission Sunday school, eighty-nine Enrollment of night school, thirty-eight. The Bureau of Public Comfort has helped thirty-eight families, including 120 persons The greatest cause for thankfulness is th fact of the erection of the new building at the corner of Scott and Mynster streets, the combined cost of the house and l $5,000. In concluding the report Mr. Allen says:

"During the year a host of friends have shown their kindly interest in our welfare by many courtesies. We are not lacking in appreciation. First of all we would mention the daily papers, THE BEE, the World-Herald, the Nonparell and the Globe. They have invariably given us every courtes, known to the art of the newspaper man both in publishing our notices and commend ing almost nustintedly our every enterprise. "To the Woman's club of Council Bluff we are indebted for our beautiful World's fair window. To a multitude of both known and unknown friends, who have contributed both money and taient, we acknowledge our inachtedness and express the trust that we may continue worthy of the constant esteem and confidence of every class." Chambers' Dancing Practice.

Ask your grocer for Domestic soap. Mucci Gets Damages.

The supreme court has just handed down decision in the case of I. C. Mucci against Dr. F. W. Houghton, in which the plaintiff sought to recover $5,000 from Houghton tor alleged malpractice in setting a broken arm. The arm had to be broken and reset. Dr. Houghton's defense was that the arm was properly set in the first place and that Mucci would have had trouble with it had he obeyed physician's instructions and not insisted upon going to work before it had had time to get well. Upon trial a ury in the Pottawattamie county urt gave Mucci a verdict of $500 and Houghton appealed the case. Yesterday's telegraphic dispatches contained the information that the decision of the lower cours was affirmed.

Church Business. The First Congregational enurch held its annual meeting Monday night. There were present more than three times as many as usually respond to roll call. The increase in attendance was not due to any expectation of spicy debates on sharp divisions on imof spacy debates on sharp divisions on im-portant questions, but rather to the general increase in interest apparent in all departments of this church home. The early part of the evening was spent at the supper tables which had been temptingly spread by the ladies. After the social session business was proceded with in the expeditions and harsocial session business was pr with in the expeditious and bar manner which has always char acterized these meetings. A very complete and clear statement was made of the finances, showing plainly where all the money had come from and where it has gone. The needs of the future were also set forth and an enthusiastic willingset forth and an enthusiastic willingess to meet these was apparent. The cork reported twenty-eight additions to the church during the year. The Sunday school, Christian Endeavor society. Missionary society, Ladies Aid society, in fact every department made a formal report, and the showing was most encouraging. During the past year Rev. Dr. Askin had been called to the pasterate, and it was evident from the reports that the inspiration of his leadership and the wisdom of his management during these past months had caused a great rallying of past months had caused a great rallying of the forces of the society. Numerous repairs and improvements have been made to the church property, the attendance at the various services has increased greatly and the outlook is conceded to be most hopeful. The election of officers was really a re-election, there eing no changes made.

THROUGH LEADEN HAIL. Two Council Bluffs Bankers Enjoyed the

Sensation of Being Held Up. C. R. Hannan and Augustus Biersneim, two of the well known bankers of Council Bluffs, were passengers on the Kansas City, St. Joe & Council Bluffs train that was held up at an early bour yesterday morning four miles thus side of St. Joseph. Although they passed through the affray without hav-ing a personal encounter with the five masked men who did the job, still the experience was not one that they desire to have re-peated. They were out too much gray mat ter wondering when their turn would come to be haused up before the court of confisca-tion. They give a graphic description of the affair. "If you went to Buffalo Bill" show in Chicago, last summer, said Mr. Hannan, in conversation with a reporter, "you know what it sounded like. The first thing I heard was the explosion of the torpedo that had been hid on the track to bring the train to a standstill. There must have been fifteen or twenty shots fired. Biersheim was asleen or twenty shots fired. Biersheim was asleen across the aisle and when he heard the noise woke up and raised his curtain to see what was the matter. One of the robbers saw him and sent a shot or two in the direc-tion of the open curtain, which speedily convinced him that the best thing that he could do was to lie down and go to sleep. The thing happened on the identical spot where agang of train robbers was killed a short time ago."

The Council Biuffs contingent was not in the comen bains contingent was not in the gore business, and made no attempt to shoot any of the desperadoes, although Mr. Blersheim is one of the crack shots of this vicinity and could undoubtedly have made things interesting for them had he been provided with a snotgun and the inclination to use it. Both of them agree that the worst part of the encounter was the uncertainty as to whether the desperadoes would confine their attention to robbing the express mes-senger or would also declare dividends with the passengers. Mr. Hannan was not at all "rattled," but while the shooting was going on he took what silver he had out of his purse and threw it down on the floor of the car and forgot all about it until he got home and took an ac-count of cash, resulting in the discovery that he was out of silver.

More Editorial Endorsement. A Sentinel reporter, learning of Drs. De-Pew & Sweetland's phenomenal success, made it convenient to interview some of their patients without their knowledge of the object of his mission. Enough was observed by the reporter to convince him that the doctors are performing wonders that are astonishing the medical world."

The annual report for 1893, which was an important part of the business of the meet ing, showed a very gratifying condition of the company, and an increase for the year greater than any previous year. The business for 1893 had increased the company's assets nearly $25,000. This had been done at the lowest cost to the insured in the history of life insurance, and the members, in consequence, are as highly delighted with the net results of the year as the officers of the association. The intention is to push the business with greater energy than ever this year and bring a much greater number of people within the protection of the asso-

SEVERE ROAST FOR ATTORNEY SCANLAN

He Wrote in a Local Paper that the Coughlin Jury Had Been Fixed, and Was Not Allowed Even a Word of Explanation in Court,

CHICAGO, Jan. 18 .- After the introduction of a few minor exhibits, Assistant States Attorney Bottom today formally announced that the prosecution in the Cougnin trial was ready to turn the case over to the defense. Judge Wing for the defendant made several formal motions to exclude objectionable testimony and court adjourned until Monday.

"I say the conduct of the attorney, if he did write that article, is unprofessional and outrageous.*. Such was the rebuke Judge Tuthiil administered to Associate Prosecuting Attorney Kickham Scantan just before adjournment. Judge Wing, counsel for the defense, had read to the court an article which appeared in a newspaper in which Mr. Scanlan was quoted as saying that he feared the Coughlin jury had been "fixed," and in-timated that officials high in authority were Au affidavit setting forth several published stories assailing the prosecution in addition to the charge of jury bribing was presented and signed by Coughlin and his attorneys, Wing and Donahoe.

Judge Tuthill began a scoring of Scanlan when that attorney interrupted. "No. I don't want to hear from you," returned the court. "Such a communication as yours is an outrage upon the jury. I don't want to hear anything from you unless you want to deny you wrote it. You have done an out-rageous thing, and if you get the opinion of any fair-minded lawyer you will hear the same from him." "But I think..." "Never mind what you think. Your position is absolutely indefensible." Scantan's Explanation.

Attorney Scanlan acknowledged that he had done wrong and repeatedly pologized for his error. "I would like to say," continued the attorney, "that a man connected with the defense has seen if to accuse me of put-ting up the whole scheme of Frank Bardeep's testimony.' Bardeen is the new witness whose testi-mony last week stated that he had turned a search light on Coughlin the night of May 4 that caused a sensation. "Who is that man!" demanded Judge Wing rising from his chair.

"Attorney A. S. Trude," replied Attorney

"I know nothing of A. S. Trude's connec-tion with the case," said the court. "I never saw him in court and have not been notified to that effect."

"Mr. Trude is engaged by the defense on the oatside." repeated Mr. Scanlan. Judge Wing advanced a step and said: "Mr. Trude is a stranger to this case, your honor. Any one who speaks to the contrary is wrong. It is another of their suspicions. They are suspicious of themselves and everybody else. The persons who say any one besides Daniel Donahoe and R. M. wing is conducting this case speaks un-truthfully. This wildly suspicious young man here has created another wild story."
"I don't care for Judge Wing's opinion of me," retorted Attorney Scanlan.

The court had not flaished his rebuke of Attorney Scanlan's action and now took it Attorney Scanlan's action and now took it up again from the side of the jury.

"You have done these men a great wrong." he said. "Now, while they are shut out from the world, to have some one brand them as corrupt is one of the greatest wrongs that could be perpetrated. I can conceive of nothing more uajust."

"I wish it understood that I am not taking back anything I said," put in Attorney Scanlan. "Every word of my interview with the Journal is true, but I am sorry it has become public."

Little pills for great ms: DeWitt's Little WANT A NATIONAL STRIKE.

Something that Will Take In all the Mine Workers in America. Pittsburg, Jan. 18.—National Secretary Patrick McBride of the United Mine Workers union says he expects a coal miners strike in every state in the union within a few months. Mr. McBride said the miners were stimulated by the successs of the big coal mine strike in England last year, and at some day in the near future every miner in the United States would quit work and remain out until they were assured "living" wages. In every mining state in the union dissatisfaction prevails. The officers of the United Mine Workers union have abandoned the idea of securing justice from the employer by fighting in districts, and plans for a general strike, which will involve $280,000 bituminous miners, are now being considered. "Things are in such shape," said Mr. McBride, "that the miners of the whole country must quite work and strike together.". Appealing for a Lower Price.

Massillon, O., Jan. 18 .- Circulars were issued this morning to the "Massillon coal operatives" reciting that the Pennsylvania niners had voluntarily reduced the price to 20 cents a ton and appealing to the Ohio miners to vote a similar reduction. "We ask this," concludes the circular, "with the hope of avoiding, as much as possible distress that must follow the shutting down of the mines in this state should you unjustly refuse to lower the price of mining."
