Price of Puts and Calls Regulated the Wheat Fluctuations.

CHANGE OF FEELING IN THE CORN TRADE

Cut in Missouri River Rates Was the Chief Bear Influence-In Oats There Was a Moderate Business.

Curcago, Jan. 26.-The wheat market today swung like the pendulum of an oidfashioned clock within a very narrow range and the swing was regulated by the price of "puts" and "calls." Compared with the price of the previous day the price is bec lower. Corn declined from 14c to 16c. Provisions opened firm and closed weak.

Wheat continues in the same rut it has occupied for several days, price changes being narrow, the whole fluctuation today covering a range of only 140. Cables were coloriess, business abroad is almost at a standstill and the local board featureless. Wheat has some friends, of course, but in view of the past experiences of present conditions they lack the courage to make purchases. On the other hand, prices are so far below all former records that even bears hesitate to sell short. May opened at 6314c, advanced to 6394c, declined and closed steady at opening prices.

There was a change of feeling in the corn trade from yesterday. The movement is picking up again, the exports dropped off and the cables came easier. The leaders in the trade, with a scalping profit from the advance, turned sellers and the crowd fellowed. The cut in Missouri river rates was the chief bear influence. It was thought the cut in rates inaugurated by one road will become general and that Chicago may get very large receipts of corn. May sold at 38% and 38% c. closing at 38% c.

In oats there was a moderate trade and a weaker feeling in May, p. ices declining Page and closing at about the bottom, with a net There was more disposition to sell and not so many buying, so the market was without buying support.

The volume of trading in pork was very light. The market opened 5c easier, eased of to that extent on a little selling, and then advanced 754c on two or three orders filed. As soon as this was done prices declined to yesterday's closing figures. Later on the weakness became pronounced, prices suffer-ing a further decline of 10c in the absence of boyers and the weakness in corn, and then reacted 5c shortly before the end of the session, but sold off again to the inside prices of the day. At the close the market was 714c lower than at the same time yesterday. the lard market very little was done in the deferred futures. May opened 21gc lower, then recovered slightly, declined and closed at $7.57\square\(\square\). Ribs were dull, closing 10e lower in sympathy with pork.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 60 cars; corn, 155 cars; oats, 50 cars; hogs, The leading futures ranged as follows:

STOCKS AND BONDS. Speculation Was Unsettled and the Security

Market Dull. New York, Jan. 26.—The stock market was dull again today and speculation was unsettled. At the opening a strong tone prevailed, and the first prices made were a small fraction higher than the closing figures of yesterday. The firmness of this market was partly due to improvement in American securities in London and to purchases for the foreign account. The room traders were bullish during the early dealings, but on an occasional reatizing sale the market made a fractional reaction. Still the trend of speculation was toward higher values and before noon an advance had been recorded of 14 to 216 per cent. Although London was a buyer of St. Paul that stock did not gain more than 1/4 per cent. and the greatest advance in any other of the grangers was I per cent in Northwestern on purchases for the account of insiders. Missouri Pacific rose 11/6 per cent, and the point was given out that earnings of the road are beginning to show signs of an improvement. While at no time during the earlier hours was the market active the speculation lapsed into duliness before poon, becoming stagnant and making no important movement except in one or two of the specialties until about 2 o'clock.

At this time Washington advices were received announcing that the judiciary committee of the house had reached a resolution questioning the right of the secretary of the treasury to issue bonds, as proposed by his recent circular. As the loan was accepted as a factor toward increasing speculative values, the suggestion coming from this quarter that the government would exceed its powers in making the issue was made the basis for a drive at the market, which gave way all along the line, certain of the specialties leading the downward movement. The decline in the active list ranged from 14 to 15% per cent. During the final dealings there was a partial recovery of a small fraction, but many stocks remained at the lowest point touched, and th market remained unsettled.

The Post says: There was an advance in the stock market price at the morning's opening, in spite of yesterday's depressing close. The recovery was, as usual, due to the efforts of a professional clique operating first through London. It was based ostensibly on the theory that since the in come tax has been incorporated with the tariff bill the tariff measure as a whole is icad. This is a somewhat hasty inference, and indeed the market was "worked" in ac cordance chiefly with the personal views of the chief manipulators. Whatever may be said of the basis for the early advance, its character was not very spirited, and the last half of the day was marked by concessions in prices. This reaction came in connection with the news that the house judiciary committee had reported a resolu tion questioning the administration's right to issue bonds. A final move by congress to block the secretary's efforts at restoration of the government's credit would have very tee's report is not final. This was well understood in Wall street, where the down ward movement in prices fizzled out as ward movement in prices fizzled out as quickly as the early rise.

The market became heavy and the active list declined from 1, to 1/2 per cent. Western Union was sold quite heavily. Cotton oil fell off 2/2 per cent and preferred 1 per cent, and Great Northern preferred 1 per cent. Evansville & Terre Haute rose 1 per cent. In the final dealines a slight raily cent. In the final dealings a slight rally was made, but the market closed unsetted. The following are the closing quotations on the leading stocks on the New York ex-145 Northwestern 145 to pref d. 140 N. OMARA LIVE STOCK MARKETS. Cattle Trade in Bad Shape-Hogs Active at Steady Prices.

FRIDAY, Jan. 26. Receipts are still running comparatively light, the shortage so far this week compared with last being about 1,500 cattle and 4,500 hogs. There has been a slight increase

The cattle market went all to pieces. Supplies were not at all heavy, but with bad reports from eastern markets, no shipping or speculative demand, and an insignificant inquiry from local dressed beef men, sellers could do little more than as gracefully as possible take their medicine, which, in this case, came in the shape of a decline of fully 10c and 15c from Thursday's prices. The general quality of the offerings was common, but the 1,340-lb, beeves that brought $4 were pretty nearly good enough to be called choice. Fair to very good 1,000 to 1,250-lb, steers sold largely at from $3.30 to $3.60. Trade was slow and the feeling weak It was the same way with the market for butchers' and canners' stock. There were all of forty loads on sale and they changed hands rather slowly and at prices all of 10c and 15c lower than Thursday. Good to choice cows and helfers brought from $2.65 to $3.10, while cannors went at from $1.65 to $2.10. The bulk of the fair to good butchers' cows sold at from $2.15 to $2.60. Calves at from $2 to $5.50, were quotably firm, but rough stock of all kinds was slow sale and lower, poor to choice buils, oxen and stags selling at from $1.50 to $3.25.

In stockers and feeders trade was rather quiet. Supplies were light and the country demand limited. Regular dealers were practically the only traders, and prices, as a rule, were firmly held. Good to choice feeders are quoted at from $3 to $3.70; fair to good at from $2.70 to $3 and lighter, com moner grades at from $2.70 down. Repre

Lots of good, smooth, finished hogs are com-ing and really common stock is scarce. It looked for a time as if the market was going to be stronger on account of the higher markets east. Early sales were a shade higher.

but as there was no shipping demand and bad reports came in from the cast, the marhet weakened and so closed. Quality was the main consideration and weight cut very little figure. The range of prices was the same as on Thursday, from $5.22, to $5.324, and the bulk of the hogs sold at practically the same prices, $5.25 and $5.30, aithough the ge eral average of prices paid was about 1 cent higher. Chicago Live Stock Marker.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—The demand for cattle came from nearly all classes of layers with the dealers in the best fat steers for shipment more willing to look at the stock than either yesterday or the day before, but there was no improvement. The big falling off in the run and the light receipts elsewhere, it would seem, ought to stimulate prices, but the tendency has rather been downward than otherwise on the best bacf steers. Butchers's stock and coarse beaf steers are about the only classes that can be disposed of at satisfactory prices. Yard speculators and sorters of stockers and feeders report a very dull trade, with a large number to be carried over for next week. There was a boom in the hog market and an advance of 10e over the closing prices of yesterday, the great bulk of the same going over the scales at that advance. Yet toward the close there was a sudden collapse, the later sales showing that the advance had been lost, so that in a general way the market closed much the same as yesterday. During the boom packers sold at from $5.30 to $5.50 to $5.625 and prime light $5.50.

The sheep market was slow and unsettled, yet when the sales were collected it was found that there was considerable business transacted, in a small way, however, but the odds and ends and undesirable stock were sold out somewhat closer than for any day this week, but prices underwent little or no change as compared with yesterday. The following are about the current prices: Thin and common ewes, from $2 to $2.65; semething better, $2.50 to $3.10; fair to good mixed lots of ewes and wethers, $3.25 to $3.65; western ewes, $2.10 $2.85; western wethers, $3.25 to $3.75; thin and common lambs, $2.50 to $2.85; others, $3.25 to $3.75. One big band of Mexican sheep sold during the week at $4.05; native, $4.05 to $4.75; a few extra mad; $4.85.

TOILERS FAVOR IT.

Plan for a Market House on Jefferson Square Warmly Endorsed. The action of the Central Labor union in calling a mass meeting next Sunday at Exposition hall for the purpose of discussing the market house proposition has been favorably received by all the labor organizations in the city. This question is now the principal topic of discussion among the tollers as well as among the business men, who see in the measure substantial benefit to the working and business interests. Mr. Frank E. Heacock of the Machine Wood Workers union said to a reporter for Tus Bre yesterday: "I hope to see a large crowd turn out Sunday and declare itself in favor of this proposition, I consider this the most practical of anything that has so far been offered. It will give work to the architects. In the contract give work to the architects, to the contractors, dirt movers, pricelayers, plasterers, paper hangers, carpenters, plumbers, etc., and anytone must know that the expenditure of $200,000 at this time, mostly for labor, would go a long way toward tiding Omaha over the depression.

"I think all the labor organizations should turn out in full force next Sunday and show to the public that we are in carnest. I also think the business men should give us all the help they can to further this movement. It will be of as much help to the business men as to the workingmen, for if the people who earn money for work they cannot spend much with the merchants." Several others have expressed themselves in a like manner, and the indications are that labor will be well represented at the Sunday meeting.
