WHAT THE SWELLS DO

Entertainments that Have Illuminated the Past Seven Days.

BRILLIANT SUCCESS OF THE CRECHE BALL

Miss McKell Makes Her Debut as a Society Star—Functions Where the Gay World Held Sway—Events of Minor Character.

The week has been fairly interesting to the social world of Omaha, although the absence of large entertainments, barring the ball at the Millard for the benefit of the Creche, has been remarked. The near approach of Lent will put a quietus to the goings-on in the swell set, and the debutantes who have owned the season will have an opportunity to rest from their arduous duties.

Monday of the present week Mrs. Sam T. Cushing will give a reception from 4 to 6, Mrs. Myron Learned also receives from 3 to 5, while a musicale will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Meyer for the benefit of the Creche.

Tuesday will occur the marriage of Miss Valeta Ambrose and Mr. B. E. Griffiths at All Saints, 8 o'clock. Mrs. J. L. Webster will give an evening party, Mrs. C. B. Keller receives from 3 to 5, Mrs. F. B. Johnson entertains from 2 to 5.

Wednesday will be given over to Mrs. J. F. Coad's card party, Mrs. B. S. Baker's luncheon, and Miss Mackay's card party.

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Yates entertain for Trinity parish, Mrs. C. A. Wilson and Mme. Wilson a reception, 3 to 6. Beyond this nothing has been indicated.

For the Creche.

Notwithstanding the intense cold of Wednesday, a great many of the swell set braved the storm to assist the noble women who have made the Creche one of the notable charities of the city and who made the ball given in honor of the nursery one of the pleasant events of the season. Viewed from a social standpoint the ball was a pronounced success, although a larger attendance was deserved. The guests were received by Mesdames Richardson, Thomas Kilpatrick, Ezra Millard, James McKenna, Henry Yates, Guy C. Burton, George E. Pritchett, Thomas Swobe, James C. Ayers, Charles W. Lyman, and the floor managers were Messrs. Charles T. Kountze, Netherton Hall, Harry S. Lyman, James Dean, Charles H. Wilson, Arthur P. Guiou, John E. Patrick and Earl Gannett. The ladies who had the affair in charge desire to return their thanks to Colonel Thomas Swobe for his generosity in giving free use of the ball room of the Millard hotel for the occasion. Also to Chase & Sanborn of Chicago for their generous and liberal donation of coffee. The supper was donated by the following ladies: Mesdames Ayres, Bache, Brooke, Barton, Colpetzer, Cowin, Clarkson, Cushing, Doane, Dewey, Hoagland, Holdrege, Hanscom, Horbach, Kimball, Kirkendall, Kilpatrick, Morseman, Morris, Ezra Millard, J. W. Millard, Adolph Meyer, Pratt, Patrick, Pritchett, Webster, Wessels, Wheeler, Woolworth, Wakeley, Wood, Yates and Yost and Miss Kountze.

The printing and envelopes were furnished by the Burkley Printing company without charge. To the commanding officer of Fort Omaha for the music furnished by the Second Infantry band, to the Krug Brewing company for their generous donation; also to the Omaha Tent and Awning company for furnishing canvas for the floor of the ball room, and to W. R. Bennett and William Fleming for contributions of groceries are thanks due.

Among those in attendance were noticed: General and Mrs. Brooke, Captain and Mrs. Ayres, Mrs. Dandy, Mrs. Wooster, Mrs. Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wood, Mrs. Hornbach, Mr. and Mrs. Garneau, Mr. and Mrs. McShane, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Swobe, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Meyer, Mrs. Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. McCormack, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hall; Miss Kountze, Miss Nash, Miss Yates, Miss Bessie Yates, Miss Jentie Yates, Miss Danly, Miss Webster, Miss Hughes, Miss Woolworth, Miss Curtiss, Miss Morse, Miss Barnard, Miss Wakeley, Miss Hamble, ton, Miss Himebaugh, Miss Cady, Miss Colpetzer, Miss McKenna, Miss Anna Millard-Miss Helen Millard, Miss Turner of Chicago, Miss Thomas, Mr. Hall, Mr. Kountze, Mr. Gannett, Dr. Summers, Mr. Baldrige, Captain Crowder, Lieutenant Pena, Lieutenant Prince, Lieutenant Dean, Mr. Doane, Mr. Guion, Mr. Pierre Garneau, Mr. Horbach, Dr. Gifford, Lieutenant Hines, Mr. Heth, Dr. McElderry, Mr. Harry Lyman, Mr. John Patrick, Lieuteanant Quay, Mr. Will Wakeley, Mr. Wilson, Mr. W. F. Smith, Mr. Walter Smith, Mr. Al Patrick, Mr. Bulkley, Mr. Hones, Mr. Zug, Mr. John Cudahy and Mr. Cook.

Their First Reception.

The first annual reception of the Young Men's Institute was held at their hall on Wednesday evening, January 24. The rooms were beautifully decorated with evergreens and tastily draped with the national colors, presenting a welcome appearance to those who attended. The reception was a great success, the attendance being large, and the dances well chosen and arranged. The grand march, lead by F. P. Rooney and Miss May Fitzpatrick, was exceedingly pretty, arousing the spirit of the young people. The committee in charge made preparations also for the entertainment of those who disliked dancing, a card party being held on the second floor and many of the older folks availed themselves of this form of amusement.

Among those present were:

Misses Sullivan, Kelley, Gorman, M. Kiley, O'Brien, Fitzpatrick of Council Bluffs, Reiley, Rooney, McGavock, Dunigan, Castle, Malone, Gleason, Baker, Whiteside, Whiteside, Kelley, Vears, A. Murphy of South Omaha, Staples, Crawley, McDonagh, E. A. Murphy, Duckworth of South Omaha.

Masquerade at the Shriner.

At the Shriner, on Twenty-sixth street, there is a very lively party this winter and the evenings are made to pass all too fast. New Year's day was celebrated with an impromptu entertainment, in which songs and dances played an important part, and several similar events have been held since.

Tuesday of the past week had been set apart a few days before for a masquerade ball, and about two dozen of the members of the house party, and a few neighbors, appeared in costumes more or less elaborate. Among those present were: Hamlet, the Lady in Red, the Country School Girl, the Roman god Janus, the Black Lady, the Clown, Yum-Yum, and several whose identity was disguised with sheets and pillow cases without any attempt to represent special characters.

After the fun had been going on for a while the baby was brought in. "Our Darling" was not more than six feet tall, hardly that, indeed, but he was of broad build, and his hands and feet were developed in true proportion. The scarlet bows he wore on his little shoes were an object of special admiration, and as he sat on the floor and munched at a giant doughnut or made aggravating efforts to seat his little stuffed cat in his toy wagon the Shakespearian and historical celebrities crowded round and smiled to themselves behind their masks.

After about an hour of marching about the floor, shaking of hands and general mute congratulations and recognitions, the ladies were lined up on one side of the room and the gentlemen on the other, and the word given to unmask. Then the Virginia reel was danced, and other dances, including Miss Ruby Williams' "newsboys' dance," kept up the interest until nearly midnight.

Thurston Rifles.

The regular drill last Monday night was devoted to "setting up" exercises, "facings" and a few of the foot movements. The result of the roll call showed an attendance of fifty-four officers and men and six recruits, a total of sixty, the largest number paraded since the organization of the "Rifles."

Messrs. Abbott Bros., the company tailors, took the measurements of the noncommissioned officers for their new fatigue uniforms, which are to be made to order, and will include the chevrons and stripes of the respective grades. These measurements have been forwarded to Lincoln and it is expected the uniforms will arrive in about thirty days.

The following men have applied for membership in the recruit class: Frank A. Neal, John A. Shaw, Archie H. Short, Fred J. Wearne and Tobie Jensen.

Sergeant Lee Forby has been appointed instructor of recruits and will drill the men on Saturday evenings from 8 until 10 o'clock.

Hon. John M. Thurston has been invited to preside at the regular meeting of the company, which occurs on February 5, on which occasion the articles of incorporation will be acted upon by the company.

First Lieutenant William J. Foye, Second Lieutenant J. H. Johnson and First Sergeant W. E. Stockham have been appointed members of the company court of discipline.

Corporal H. E. Nason has been confined to his house by sickness for the past week.

First Lieutenant William J. Foye has been granted four days leave, expiring January 31, for the purpose of visiting some towns in the state on business connected with his firm.

Bids for supplying the company stationery have been received and will be opened on Monday evening after drill.

Invitations have been received from the Dodge Light guard of Council Bluffs to attend the first of a series of parties to be given at their armory Friday evening, February 3.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Doty Entertain.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mr. J. F. Doty entertained in a very pleasant manner a number of their friends at their residence, 2308 Izard street. The principal feature on this occasion was the ever popular game of progressive high five, which was attended with much interest.

Mrs. G. H. Crager received a very unique gift, a miniature balloon, for the ladies' first prize. Mr. William L. Crager was awarded a handsome thermometer, being the gentlemen's first prize. Miss Hattie Gunnell was presented with a small drum, bearing the inscription, "Try and Beat This," as a consolation; Mrs. W. J. Doty also receiving a neat momento of the occasion in a small deck of cards, with an earnest desire that Dame Fortune might smile sweetly and she might receive a first prize at some future time.

After the prizes were delivered a number of choice musical selections were rendered and dancing indulged in by some of the guests.

A delicious supper was served, while several impromptu musical numbers were played by Miss Hattie Gunnell.

Those present were: William L. Crager, Mrs. W. L. Crager, Colonel G. H. Crager, Mrs. G. H. Crager, Miss Hattie Gunnell, Miss Gertie Gunnell, Mrs. W. J. Doty, Miss F. E. Doty, Mr. W. J. Doty, Mrs. James W. Bouk, Mrs. Nellie Fisher, W. C. Bouk.

A Tea that Didn't Come Off.

There is one society woman in Omaha who has recently learned a lesson which she will not soon forget. She had been invited out to receptions and kensingtons and other social affairs and finally came to the conclusion that it would be no more than proper for her to reciprocate the favors of a few of her lady friends by herself giving an afternoon tea. It did not take long to act upon the idea. The invitation list was made out, the various necessary knick-knacks ordered, and every preparation made to make the affair a success. One of her most intimate friends was urgently requested to come early and assist in receiving the guests. On the appointed day the woman in question, before retiring to dress, thought she would take a last look to make certain that all was in readiness. She found everything just as she would have it and one thing more. There, in the study, lay all the invitations which she had neglected to mail. Just at that moment the telephone rang, and her intimate friend's voice came through the 'phone: "I'm so sorry, but I won't be able to come over this afternoon. And say! Isn't it strange that I haven't received my invitation yet?" "Nothing strange about it! Neither has any one else," came the reply. The invitations will be sent out first the next time this woman entertains.

A Pleasant Surprise.

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Bouk tendered them a surprise party last Thursday evening, which proved a complete and successful affair in every particular, the entertainment being very cleverly planned and executed. Without a word of warning the guests appeared in a body much to the surprise of Mr. and Mrs. Bouk, who had been invited out for a brief time, only to find upon their return their home filled with a jolly crowd. Progressive high five occupied the fore part of the evening, followed by an impromptu musical program.

Mr. E. C. Fell won the gentlemen's first prize, Mrs. C. Schierstein receiving the ladies' first prize; Mrs. Nellie Fisher and Mr. C. Schierstein receiving handsome souvenirs as consolation gifts, all the prizes being very neat as well as useful.

Miss Marie Parker, Dr. G. W. Williamson and others rendered some entertaining musical selections.

There were present: Dr. and Mrs. Searls, Dr. and Mrs. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Schierstein, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. White, Miss Addie Burnett, Miss Marie Parker, Mrs. Nellie Fisher, Mrs. Porter, Mr. E. C. Fell, Mr. Craddock and Master Mark Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. Connor Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Connor, assisted by Miss Kinsler, entertained a number of their friends very pleasantly at cards at their home, 2420 Cass street, Thursday evening. The parlors were tastefully decorated with palms and cut flowers. At 11 refreshments were served. Four prizes were awarded. The ladies' first prize, a royal Worcester plate, was won by Mrs. J. G. Gilmore; second prize, Japanese bonbon dish by Miss Haskell; the gentleman's first prize, a gold and garnet scarf pin, by Mr. Coit; second, ivory paper knife, Mr. Beach.

Among the invited were: Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Garner, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Madden, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kinsler, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cooley, Dr. and Mrs. Connell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Phillipi, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Christian, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Pinto, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rhul, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bace, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Hay of Lincoln, Messrs. J. E. North, E. W. North, Wier, Coit, Hastings, Beach Palmatier, Misses T. Hayden, M. Hayden, M. Magruden, B. Higgins, C. Gacamin, Fowler, Van Court and Gacamin.

Jolly Sixteen.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoag entertained the Jolly Sixteen at cards last Wednesday evening. Mr. Max Reichenberg and Miss Laura Schwab were the lucky winners of prizes. Messrs. Hoag, Pul and Windheim gave a comical recitation which was much enjoyed by those present.

The guests were: Messrs. Hoag, Pul, Meinicke, M. and L. Reichenberg, Heninger, Windheim and Fruehauf; Misses Tebbins, Theressa Jann, Clara Jahn, Fruehauf and Schwab, and Mesdames Hoag and Pul.

In Honor of Dr. and Mrs. Mutro.

Tuesday evening a select card party was given at the Dellone hotel by Mr. and Mrs. James Casey and Miss Kinsler in honor of Dr. and Mrs. James Mutro, a newly made bride and groom, who were married in Pittsburg a week ago last Thursday. Mrs. Mutro was attired in her wedding gown of white satin, trimmed in blue velvet, with duchess lace. Sweet harp music entertained the guests while the tables were being placed, twenty-one in number, high five being the amusement. The ladies' first and second prizes, a white satin pillow and a handsome card case, were won by Miss Brown of Council Bluffs and Miss Giacomini. The gentlemen's prizes, a five-pound box of Huyler's and a cigar case filled with cigars, were taken by Mr. Thomas and Mr. Short. Later supper was served in the dining room, the tables being in the form of an "M" in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Mutro.

For Sweet Charity.

Mrs. J. N. Cornish gave a most pleasant social, musical and literary entertainment at her handsome home last Thursday evening. The social was given under the auspices of the Women's auxiliary of Trinity Episcopal church, and the proceeds thus realized will be devoted to missionary work by this society. A splendid program was carried out, but, owing to unavoidable circumstances, and much to the regret of those assembled, Mrs. J. W. Cotton was unable to be present. Among those who did take part were: Misses Hetzel and Collins of Brownell hall, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Matheson and Mrs. Macnab. A number of charades were enacted, after which elegant refreshments were served. A most enjoyable evening was passed by the large number of guests. These socials are of such a character that the friends of the auxiliary look forward with pleasure for the announcement of each succeeding one.

Huntzinger—Kriebs.

St. Mary Magdalene church was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon, when, with the impressive ceremony of the Catholic church, Rev. Father Glauber united in marriage Mr. Charles F. Huntzinger and Miss Fannie L. Kriebs. The wedding was a quiet one, none but immediate relatives and friends being present. A bountiful supper was served at the residence of the bride's mother, 1521 North Twenty-first street, at whose hospitable home gathered the many friends of the happy couple. The bride is one of the most popular of North Omaha girls, possessed of those qualities of mind and heart that instinctively attract. The groom is one of South Omaha's young business men and has hosts of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Huntzinger will be at home to their friends at 2209 South Fourteenth street after February 1.

Cards in Kountze Place.

The Kountze Place "H. T." club met last week at the residence of Judge and Mrs. Bradley and passed an enjoyable evening in progressive high five and dancing. The rooms were tastefully decorated with hot house plants and potted flowers. Mr. E. V. Lewis and Mrs. C. C. Chase won the first prizes and the booby prize was awarded to Dr. Edminston.

The members present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. B. McAlister, Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Parks, Rev. and Mrs. J. P. D. Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Race, Mr. Brisbin and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chase. Invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Van Court, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowe, Dr. and Mrs. Edminston, Madame Powell, Miss Frost and Mr. Rosenweig.

For Miss Turner.

One of the pretty affairs of the week was the reception given by Miss Webster Thursday afternoon for Miss Turner, who was, to the great regret of the many friends she has made in Omaha, unable to be present at the affair in her honor. Miss Dandy assisted Miss Webster in entertaining. There was a large number of the leading society people present, among them being Mrs. Remington, Mrs. McCormick, Misses Chambers, Yates, Bessie Yates, Chase, Wallace, Barnard, Doane, Hoyt, McKenna, Mrs. Redick, Mrs. Meikle, Mrs. Lehman, Miss Baum, Miss Hartman. Miss Cushing, Miss Smith, Miss Hambleton, Miss Palmer, Miss Burns and Miss Jentie Yates also assisted the fair hostess throughout the prettily decorated rooms.

Another Bud Launched.

Nowadays the successful entrance of a young girl into the ranks of society involves much tact and an artistic appreciation of the eternal fitness of things. And such knowledge is possessed by Mrs. J. C. McKell, as evidenced by the brilliant debut of Miss Margaret McKell on Thursday afternoon of the past week. Tropical plants filled every nook and niche, contrasting with the red floral decorations in a beautiful manner. A charming picture did Miss McKell form in a simple gown of white chiffon, embellished with white roses.

Mrs. and Miss McKell were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Coutant, Mrs. Lake, Miss Brown, Miss Burns, Miss Cook, Miss Colpetzer, Miss Cady, Miss Jentie Yates, Miss Barker, Miss Reed, Miss Alexander, Miss Tukey, Mrs. Howard Smith.

Wolcott, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Trap, Mr. and Mrs. Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Maguire and Mr. James Murphy.

The reception given by Mrs. Norton at her pretty home on Pacific street, Friday afternoon, was a grand success. The affair was one of the prettiest entertainments of the season. All of the decorations were in pink; even the dresses of many of the receiving party were of the rosy hue. Mrs. Norton was assisted in receiving by Miss Norton, Mrs. Swan of Sioux City, Miss Butts and Miss Cleaver of Council Bluffs, Miss Curtis and Miss Drake.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Potter, 4722 North Twenty-fourth street, was the scene of a pretty high five party Monday evening last in honor of Mrs. A. L. Black of Marinette, Wis. Refreshments were served during the evening. Those invited were: Mrs. Black, Miss Katie Miller, Miss Cora Bell, Miss Bertha Cotton, Miss Laura May, Miss Mae Potter, Mr. S. H. Parson, Mr. J. D. Tracy, Mr. Charles McKenzie, Mr. C. O. Potter, Mr. Frank Derby, Mr. Dave McKenzie, Mr. E. L. Potter, Mr. Ed Shipley, Mr. W. H. Longenhagen and Mr. John Martin of Council Bluffs.

Friday afternoon, at their residence on Twenty-ninth street, Mrs. George Brown Dandy received for Miss Dandy and Miss Turner of Chicago. The house was decorated in red throughout. Mrs. Dandy received in black silk with jet ornaments and diamonds. Miss Turner wore a blue and pink striped satin gown, very becoming to her etherial style of beauty. Miss Dandy, petite and pretty, was lovely in white cloth with satin trimmings. Mrs. Dandy was assisted by Mrs. Brooke, Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Cushing, Mrs. Schwan, Mrs. Webster and the Misses Cushing, Yates, Jentie Yates, Webster, Colpetzer, Cady, Palmer, Hambleton and Burns.

The large card party given by Miss Weaver in honor of Miss McIntyre, Miss Pierson of Hastings and Miss Staughter of Fullerton, on Wednesday, was one of the handsomest of the season. The rooms were beautifully decorated in brilliant hues of pink and yellow, handsomely shaded lamps intermingled with candelabra holding candles of the season's favorite colors, which were displayed in much prominence throughout the brilliantly lighted rooms. The first prize, a dainty pin cushion in pink chiffon and silk embroidered, was won by Miss Georgie Rich. The second prize, won by Miss Marshall of Storm Lake, was a handsomely embroidered and drawn work center piece.

Miss Alice Isaacs, milliner, will shortly notify her customers as to her new location.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Dr. Patterson Still After Young Men—In the Pulpits Today.

Rev. J. M. Patterson feels greatly pleased with the response of the young men to his recent circular letter. He will continue and probably conclude the discussion of the answers Sunday night. He will devote a few evenings to the young women, beginning a week later. Mrs. J. G. Wadsworth of Council Bluffs will sing a solo. Dr. Thomas Marshall will preach Sunday morning.

Till a Pastor Comes.

The First United Presbyterian church, corner of Twenty-first and Emmet streets, is still without a pastor. Rev. L. E. Hawk, the pastor-elect, has accepted the call and will be on the ground in March. An arrangement has been made with Rev. M. B. Lowrie, D.D., to preach regularly in this church until the arrival of the pastor. Services may be expected each Sabbath morning and evening. Dr. Lowrie is a professor in the Presbyterian Theological seminary in this city.

Services Discontinued.

The Southwest Presbyterian church has discontinued preaching services and turned the Sunday school over to the First church. Mr. John L. Kennedy has taken it up and will hold a school every Sunday at 2:30 p. m. All old pupils and those who do not go to Sunday school are invited to come.
