General Cowin Reviews the St. Louis Situation and Has Something to Say on the Rights of Labor-Judge Riner Passes on Garnishment Cases.

Judge John M. Thurston, general solicitor of the Union Pacific, arrived from St. Louis yesterday and was at his desk in headquarters at an early hour. The worried look which was naturally expected was missing on this particular occasion and the railway lawyer was in excellent humor, notwithstanding the sensational news sent out Thursday from St. Louis regarding Union Pacific matters.

To a reporter for The Bee Mr. Thurston said: "As I read the sensational dispatches concerning the action taken by the circuit judges at St. Louis the real facts are grossly misrepresented and entirely misleading. "Judge Caldwell, in the course of an in formal presentation of the wage schedule matters, stated that he could see no reason why the receivers needed to secure any order or further authority to put in new wage schedules, having obtained an order to that effect from the United States court of Nebraska, which is the court of primary jurisdiction, and the judge expressly refused o interfere with the order made by Judge Dundy, and in personal conversation he authorized me to say to Judge Dundy and the press that he would not think of interfering with Judge Dundy's order.

"Judge Caldwell did, however, suggest hat if the receivers would ask Judge Dundy vacate the order aiready made then both the circuit judges would sit at Omaha on March 26 to hear the entire question of wage schedules for the system. Judge Caldwell stated that if this course of procedure was desired by the receivers the circuit judges would make an order directing the ompany to serve notice on the heads of the labor organizations of the date of hearing, and to give those labor representatives transportation and subsistence, and thus give them an opportunity to have their day in court and be heard before the two circuit judges. The circuit judges, however, expressly declined to enter upon this hearing if the present order of the United States circuit court for Nebraska remains in force on the ground that this court had general jurisdiction over the receivership affairs and that they will not interfere with such orders as this court makes, except, of course, upon appeal or in some proceeding brought to review same. Judge Caldwell was very emphatic in his statement that whatever course might be pursued by the receivers no interference would be permitted from any source with their administration or operation of the railway lines, nor would any one be permitted to interfere with their properties or such employes as might be brought into or remain in the service.

LEFT WITH THE RECEIVERS. "The whole question therefore as to whether or not the present schedules shall go into effect the 1st of March, or the en-tire matter be heard before the circuit judges is for the receivers to determine in the first instance, and then it would all depend on whether or not the United States circuit court for Nebraska would be willing to set aside the order already entered, for the purpose of having the whole question heard by the circuit judges.

"General Cowin was with me in court, and afterwards was with me in conversa-tion with Judge Caldwell, and I think will endorse the above as being a fair and impartial statement of what was done and

"In the matter of the application of the receivers for rehearing of the decision in Colorado concerning the Gulf matters, the circuit judges advised me before I left Louis that they had determined to both sit at Omaha on March 26, for the purpose of hearing the entire Gulf controversy on petitions for rehearing to be filed in Ne-braska, Colorado and Wyoming, in order that the rights of the Union Pacific receivers and the Gulf receiver might be definitely settled and a similar order made in each

"This action was most satisfactory to Gen eral Cowin and myself, and was in exact ac-cordance with our request." Judge Thurston will go to New York next week and will meet the receivers of the Union Pacific, when the wage question will be taken up and some action as to Judge Caldwell's suggestion decided upon. Whether the schedule will be put in effect March 1 is a rather difficult problem to solve, chances being that the receivers will Judge Dundy to vacate the order made in the wage matter, that the employes of the sysem may have a chance to be heard. At present the conditions remain the same as before the presentation of the case to Judges Caldwell and Sanborn, and until Judge Dundy vacates the order things will go on the same as before. GENERAL COWIN TALKS. General John C. Cowin, on his return from St. Louis yesterday, speaking of the pro-ceedings had before Circuit Judges Caldwell and Sanborn in the Union Pacific receiver

"Of course, representing the government I took no part whatever in the questions that came up with respect to labor, and the only matter in which I was acting was with ref erence to certain orders recently made by Judge Hallett in Colorado. In April, 1890 certain traffic contract was entered into etween the Gulf system of railroads, party f the first part, and the Union Pacific sysem, party of the second part, which con-ract was in force at the time the re-reivers were appointed. In the same con-ract the Union Pacific company obligated itif to pay interest on certain mortgage nds of the Gulf company. Judge Hallett orders recently made, has directed that receivers shall continue to operate this affic contract and shall also pay large sums ward liquidation of the interest on Gulf bonds, and there are other matters in Judge Hallett's order affecting the receivership in general, such as requiring the Union Pacific receivers to operate the Julesburg branch, which belongs to the Gulf system and has passed into the hands of the Gulf receivership, and these orders of Judge Hallett are contrary and in nearly lirect conflict with orders made by Judge Dundy and, we think, operate as a wrongful diversion of the energies and funds of the Union Pacific system in behalf of the Julf system; that as the traffic contract, in cluding the payment of the interest referred to, cannot be carried out by the Union Pacific receivers without great loss to their trust estate and, consequently, great damage and impairment to and of the security of the United States, we contend that the receivers not only have a right, but that it reivers not only have a right, but that it is their duty to entirely ignore that con-tract, and the attorney general is acting with the receivers in an effort to have Judge Hallett's orders in this regard modified or vacated. Our application at St. Louis was to have one or both the circuit judges sit and hear this matter, and Circuit Judges Caldwell and Sanborn agreed to hear the case in Omaha on March 26. This is as far as the government is taking any part.

'As to the labor question I only dividual resolve, no court has legal power or right to restrain such action.

"I see much is said in the papers about Judge Caldwell sending Judge Thurston home, etc. Now I know personally that Judge Caldwell refused to judgere with the order of Judge Dundy and that his suggestion as to a course to be jurised. gestion as to a course to be pursued, so as to have a uniform procedure in all juris-dictions, was perfectly satisfactory to Judge for myself, and I have always said and am

Western Passenger Rates in a Fair Way to Be Demoralized. CHICAGO, Feb. 16.-Unless Chair

Caldwell of the Western Passenger as tion, who is now in the east, comes home and mends his fences he will have a pile of trouble on his hands. General Passenger Agent Lomax of the Union Pacific arrived in Chicago today and was in conference with the agents of the lines in the Western Passenger association which are the inti-mate connections of the Union Pacific. It is said that the Union Pacific is preparing meet the rates recently put into effect by the Canadian Pacific, and is seeking the support of its connections before so doing. The lines on which it is relying for support will do nothing unless the Union Pacific will give them the same divisions as it now gives to the Northwestern under the special contract existing between those two tems. The meeting today did not arrive at any definite results and the conference reduce its rates via Ogden.

There is every probability that through transcontinental rates will be out within a few days. The Southern Pacific has notified the Atchison that after March it wil accept no tickets to San Francisco reading over the Atchison from Los Angeles. This threat, if carried out, will result in further demoralization of the transcontinental traf-fic, as the Atchison may decide to take from its through rate from Chicago and Missouri river points the $15 local rate between Los Angeles and San Francisco, thus making to San Francisco the same rate as now prevails to Los Angeles. The Southern Pacific to meet this would be compelled to redem its rate via Ogden.

SATISFIES CHICAGO UNIONS.

Judge Caldwell's Opinion Endorsed by the Labor Leaders Generally.

Yesterday's Chicago Tribune says: Local labor leaders were much elated over Judge Caldwell's ruling in the Union Pacific railroad case, which was published in a St. Louis dispatch in the Tribune. The order to give the employes sixty days' notice, the labor men say, is a great victory for them. If such a rule were adopted by all employers, union men think, strikes could be almost

O. E. Woodbury, president of the United Carpenters council, said: "The decision is perfectly fair and just. It is only right that orkmen should be notified in advance that their wages are to be ent, no matter whether the employer be a receiver appointed by a Sourt or any private firm or corporation." Secretary McCormick of the United Carenters council said that if employes were penters council said that it employes were consulted before their wages were reduced and given a sixty days' notice it would prevent 90 per cent of the strikes in this country. "Labor has always recognized." he said, "that where the question of wages is concerned strikes can be prevented by a conference between employer and employe."
"What we want," said Robert Whimsett of Carpenters council No. 162, "is a few more men like Judge Caldwell. All I can say in reference to his decision is that it is thoroughly American."

B. H. Payne will assume the duties of assistant general passenger and ticket agent of the Union Pacific March 1. For some time past it has been known in St. Louis that Mr. Payne had been tendered the posi-tion, but until the wishes of General Passenger Agent Townsend of the Missouri Pacific could be ascertained Mr. Payne too tender of the place under advisement. Howard Payne has been connected with the Missouri Pacific for several years and is regarded in passenger circles as a very care ful passenger man. He will probably hav jurisdiction over rate matters and will be expected to attend minor meetings. Mr. C. Mackenzie, the chief clerk, will be continued in his position and will be the active man, as

WENT BEFORE THE MAYOR

Mr. Simeral Seeks to Show Why Specht Should Be Impeached.

CHARGES BACKED WITH AFFIDAVITS

City Attorney Connell Declares that the Evidence Against the Councilman is Not Strong Enough to Warrant

Mayor Bemis listened yesterday afternoon to a formal presentation of the charges against Councilman Specht by E. W. Sim-the Action Contemplated.

Affidavits were presented, signed by George E. Specht, R. S. Berlin, John Erck and E. W. Simeral.

The first named deposed that the councilman proposed to him in the fall of 1891 to form a company for street lighting, agreeing to see that the company secured a contract from the city and to advance such means as might be necessary, but he would have to keep his own connection with the matter dark because of his position as a member of the city council. Afflant further deposed that his councilmanic uncle had backed him in the Metropolitan Street Lighting company; had endorsed numerous notes, aggregating $3,500, for the purchase of the plant of the Sun Vapor Lighting company; had drawn $800 as his share of the profits of the business; and had furnished a large number of lights and supplies used by the company. He further charged that the councilman had solicited other parties to sign notes for the company, and that the Sixth ward repre-sentative had some of the stock of the company in his possession, although it was made out in the name of another party as a blind. The affidavit of Berlin was to the effect that he had been approached by both the Spechts, who had induced him to sign notes of stock to indemnify him. These shares he had transferred to one Mitchell, a relative of his, as he did not want to figure openly in the matter. Erck deposed that he had been told by Specht that he owned some of the stock, and would raise some money on it to discharge an obligation for which Erck was held. Simeral swore that Specht made a similar statement to him relative to the settlement of a for the purchase of the plant, and that he had been given twenty-two and a half shares

Simeral introduced copies of the checks by which Specht had been paid at various times the sums of $500, $200 and $100 by George Specht, the originals being in the possession of the mayor. City Attorney Connell conducted the examination as the representative of the mayor in the matter, and before taking up the other side of the case asked Mr. Simeral whether he did not think that the fact that the stat-ute of limitations had run, so far as a criminal prosecution was concerned, would not be a bar against impeachment. The latter replied that he did not think that impeachment was ever outlawed as long as the party re-mained in office.

SPECHT'S STATEMENT. Specht was then asked to make his statement. He said that he was visiting his family in Waterloo, 12., where they had been for several mouths, and when he returned he found that the Metropolitan Street Lighting company had secured the contract for gasoline lighting. He denied the charge of his nephew that he had gone there to avoid voting on the matter in the council. He said that George Specht had been putting in his time with George J. Sternsdorff at the legislature, and had told him that Sternsdorff was going to get the necessary money from Oxnard to run the business; that Sternsderff did go to Des Moines, Norfolk and Grand Island looking for Oxnard, but was unable to find him and did not get the money; that on Sternsdorff's failure to raise the cash the twentytwo and a half shares of stock that had been issued to him were turned in, and these were the shares that were turned over to family history, setting forth what he had done for his nephew and the latter's father, advancing large sums of money from time to time until they were indebted to him to the extent of several thousand dollars. He admitted signing a note for $1,500 in favor of the Omaha National bank for a loan, which with $700 secured from Mr. Dean of the Baum Iron company made up the $2,000 which George Spechi took to Canton, O., to buy the plant of the Sun Vapor company the remaining $2.000 of the purchase price being provided for by the four notes which Berlin was induced to sign. Specht said he did do all in his power to assist his nephew in the matter in the way of helping him to raise the necessary money, but said it was solely due to his desire to help his relative and not from any personal interest in the business, as he never had any such interest. He said he had never held any of the stock, but he had furnished lamps for the company. He maintained that he had furnished them for lighting contractors in several other cities. It was for this that he received all the money that had ever been paid him. During the course of his remarks the couneilman became considerably excited and exchanged some lively personalities with Simeral, during which criminations and recriminations were hurled around with the most reckless abandon. "Dirty coward," "blackmailers," "llars," "bought-up wit-nesses" and several kindred appellations were pitched across the table until the mayor intimated that he would be unable to decide the matter on evidence of that kind. Mr. Connell said that he would like to introduce some threatening letters that George Specht had sent both to the councilman and to bimself.

An informal talk closed the hearing. Simeral admitted that he was not wasting any love on Specht, but said that he was not influenced in his present action by his personal feelings. He was satisfied that the evidence was sufficient to show that the councilman was not the kind of representa-tive the city ought to have, and his motives in presenting the matter were of the best. The city atterney said he thought the evidence insufficient on which to base im-peachment, as it was wholly circumstantial and there was so much animus on both sides The mayor took the matter under advisement, and Thomas Swobe, who appeared as the custodian of Mr. Berlin's affidavit, pocketed the document and went home. One word describes it, "perfection," We re-fer to De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, cures
