Result of the Caucus of the Democratic Senators on the Wilson Bill.

WILL BE ALTERED BY THE COMMITTEE

Advocates of a Duty on Iron Ore, Wool and Sugar Disappointed.

ARGUMENTS MADE FOR CONCESSIONS

One Vote Sufficient to Settle the Question of Making Any.

IT WILL BE NOW LEFT TO THE SENATE

Some of the Members of the Conference, it is Thought, Will Not Abide by the Decision of the Caucus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The democratic special caucus on the tariff bill is over and both sides are claiming to have made progress.

Immediately after the adjournment of the caucus Senators Gorman, Brice, Hill, Smith, Murphy, Camden and one or two others who have been known to be very much opposed to the bill of the finance committee, held a consultation, and their attitude was in direct contrast with the members of the finance committee.

Senator Brice said tonight that the result could not be considered in the light of defeat for those who were instrumental in bringing about the caucus.

It is claimed that those who brought about the caucus were not in a position to instruct the caucus as to the course to be pursued.

WATCHING THE SENATE DEMOCRATS.

Their Proposed Action on the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Members of the ways and means committee of the house are watching with the keenest interest the action of the senatorial caucus on the tariff bill.

The ways and means committee room in the bill of the finance committee, held a consultation, and their attitude was in direct contrast with the members of the finance committee.

Representative McMillin of the committee said: "The public sentiment of the country is so great for tariff reform that no man or party can start in the way of it."

Representative Breckinridge of Arkansas, who has been closely allied with Mr. Wilson in framing the tariff bill, and who was of late being conferred with the senate finance committee as to the changes proposed, said:

Senator Frye speaks upon the Hawaiian Question—Other Business.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The senate held a two hours session today, the whole of which was given to a speech by Senator Frye in opposition to President Cleveland's Hawaiian policy.

HIGH NAMES MENTIONED IN CONNECTION

Several Dignitaries of France Are Temporarily at Least in Disgrace, and One Very Accomplished Diplomat is Summarily Dismissed.

PARIS, Feb. 28.—A sensation has been caused in this city and elsewhere by the appearance of an article in the Figaro, in which the czar of Russia, Princess Maria d'Orleans, wife of Prince Waldemar of Denmark, Count de Henchamps, a captain in the French army and French military attaché at Copenhagen, and General Bonissas, secretary general and chief of the military household of President Carnot, play conspicuous roles.

Some idea of the gravity of the revelations may be gathered from the fact that Premier Casimir-Perier today submitted to President Carnot for his signature an order removing Count d'Amoy, ex-minister to Copenhagen, from the diplomatic service, owing to his connection with the affair.

This is not the first time the name of Princess Marie d'Orleans has been connected with court intrigues. The princess is said to be a remarkably clever and attractive lady. She is a daughter of the duke of Chartres, was born January 14, 1865, and was married to Prince Waldemar, who is a captain in the Danish navy, at the Chateau d'Eu on October 2, 1885.

She is said to be the power of intrigue which the princess is said to possess may be gathered from the fact that ex-Minister d'Amoy does not scruple to describe her as the "conscious conqueror" of Prince Bonissas's downfall.

The crown of Norway has been dangled before the eyes of Princess Marie d'Orleans by Frenchmen of influence and Frenchmen of war have danced at her beck.
