Boston Store white goods and linen sale.

Vic Jennings denies the report that he is being supported by the motor company in his race for the mayoralty.

The Republicans of the Fifth and Sixth wards will hold a meeting this evening at Schubert's hall, 2315 West Broadway.

Nathan Bethers, a 12-year-old boy, was arrested last evening, charged with stealing a pair of skates from one of his juvenile friends.

Jack Brown was fined $10 in police court yesterday morning for getting drunk, falling off his horse into the mud and rubbing the skin off his face.

The first part of the American Encyclopedia dictionary can now be obtained by Council Bluffs subscribers by calling at The Bee office, 12 Pearl street.

At the last meeting of Pottawattamie lodge, No. 146, Ancient Order of United Workmen, suitable resolutions were passed upon the death of G. H. Braun.

The Academy of Pictorial Sisters will hold its regular meeting tonight. All members are requested to be present, as business of importance is to be transacted. Mrs. F. Hollis, vice.

John Coyle and Leonard Everett are about to begin proceedings against the city for $6,000 damages on account of the change of a watercourse through their lands in the south part of the city.

Academy No. 1, Pictorial Sisters, will meet in regular session for the initiation of candidates at 8 o'clock sharp. Rehearsal and business meeting at 2:30 p. m.

The populists held another rally last evening at the court house, the superior court room being well filled with voters of all parties. Among the speakers were Messrs. Whitney and Cook, candidates for alderman-at-large and mayor respectively.

Andrew Campbell, a colored man, got into a fight with his wife Thursday evening, and the wife got decidedly the worst of it. She called at the office of the city clerk yesterday and filed an information charging him with assault and battery, and he was arrested last evening.

Mrs. Mary Jane Staveland died yesterday at 2:30 p. m. of pneumonia, at the age of 73 years. The funeral will occur Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the residence, 1013 Avenue C. Rev. Stephen Phelps officiating. The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Candidate Vic Jennings is kept busy these days denying first one report and then another that he will accept the nomination. At this time he is charged with having promised two gentlemen that each of them, in the event of his election, shall be appointed chief of police. He says the Bee to state that never at any time, either before the democratic convention or since, has he made any pledge of this kind.

John Spry desires a slight correction made in the report of his dissatisfaction with the way he was treated by Alderman Jennings with regard to his pay for filling Avenue A. It was no part of his duty to state that he would not have been so put out, but he did not care to pay the bills of another man as well as his own. It caused him and his wife a great deal of trouble, he states that the loss has been made good by the democratic leaders.

M. Fitzgerald, a "vag" who was sent up for ten days, and who was explaining of the way his breakfast was cooked for several days, was put up into a room on the second floor yesterday for a bread and water diet. He had not been there very long when he discovered a large hole in the ceiling and climbed up into it to investigate. He walked along the timbers in the ceiling until he came to another hole, which would have let him down into a room in which several "judy prisoners" were confined had not Deputy Marshal Fowler happened along and climbed him just as he was about to get out of his legs through the hole. He was taken back to his cell in disgrace.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Democratic Candidates Are Reaping the Result of Some Official Actions.

VIC JENNINGS AND THE NICHOLSON CASE

His Part in the Investigation and Whitewash Being Used Against Him—Judge

McGee Also Finding Jordan a

Hard Road to Travel

When Candidate Vic Jennings was not a candidate at all, but merely a common everyday alderman, and Chief Nicholson of the fire department had just been exonerated by the council of all the charges that had been preferred against him, the prophecy was uttered that the things that took place at that time would bob up serenely when the next campaign came along. The next cam-campaign is now here, and the prophecy is now shown to have been an inspired one, for every day Mr. Jennings is compelled to explain something that he has not explained before, and as a consequence he is becoming enwrapped in a network of explanations that seems likely to throttle the wind out of him on Monday next.

There were a great many people, democratic as well as republican, who thought that Nicholson was guilty of all the charges made against him, but the "investigation," as called, that was made by the council, and the plea of whitewashing, and not very clean whitewashing at that, that he was discharged both by the council and the grand jury and finally reinstated in his position as chief. Although but little has been said recently in the daily papers about the Nicholson matter, a great deal is being said by men who have a right to be heard, and the most frank of these are being made by the democratic whipcrackers to prevent votes from being cast in a way that will act as a rebuke to the present democratic council and a warning to future councils that public sentiment will not be trifled with.

Events of the past few days have been of such a nature that the department a prominent feature in the present campaign, so that a few facts with reference to the department may be of interest to some readers. Some two new men were appointed to positions on the department. They were brothers and both had been living at houses of questionable character at the time of the election. One of these men received his appointment the ex-terminator had to go to a house of ill-fame on Pierce street to get his trunk and other belongings. One of these brothers is stationed at the Lower Main street house and the other at the Upper Broadway. Both have had lady friends.

It is claimed that the brother who was appointed to the position at the Upper Broadway had been acquainted with the carrying on at the engine house. A member of the North Main street house also had ladies of colored reputation call upon him at the engine house frequently, but a week or so ago the object of her visits became so apparent that Acting Chief Nicholson gave orders that she should not be allowed about the premises any more.

While there are some first-class men on the department there are others who are thoroughly disreputable and would not have been tolerated on any good fire department in the land as they have here. Several rules of the department have been violated, and the action of the council in whitewashing them is a public disgrace. The brother who was appointed to the position at the Upper

Broadway was openly violated and they have been so many dead letters ever since. The action

BEET SUGAR BOUNTY LOST

Sawyer's Measure to Assist the Industry in Iowa Defeated.

DEMOCRATS AIDED BY THE REPUBLICANS

Legislators Discussed the Constitutionality of the Proposed Act Granting Women the Right to Vote at School and Municipal Elections.

DES MOINES, March 2.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The house took up a special order of the bill introduced by Sawyer providing for a bounty on beet sugar manufactured in this state of 1 cent per pound.

Mr. Sawyer opposed the bill. He thought it would entail a heavy tax on the people, aggregating possibly millions of dollars, without any corresponding benefit, as the price of sugar would still be fixed by the trust.

Punk of Hardin was first inclined to favor the measure, but his mind. He said that the sugar bounty would be the most unpopular feature of the McKinley bill, a remark cheered by democrats. Sawyer retorted the mere name of Sioux City seemed to act like a red rag on the prohibition leader. The bill was finally defeated, yeas 34, nays 59, which included all the democrats and half of the republicans.

The bill appropriating $25,000 to purchase a dam at Rosamond, proposed to open a fish way up the Des Moines river was indefinitely postponed.

The bill conferring on the municipal right to vote at school and municipal elections was referred to the judiciary committee for an opinion as to its constitutionality.

not hesitate to recommend it, especially as I never heard of a case where it did not give perfect satisfaction. They become relaxed, weakened and lose their state of healthy arteries admits a larger current of blood, and, as a consequence, its motion becomes producing humors, gout, neuralgia, dis-
