GENUINE SCHOELPLY SHOE SALE. THE ENTIRE $25,000 BANKRUPT STOCK

AFFIDAVIT.

STATE OF NEBRASKA, | 58 County of Douglas, | John A. Beyans, of lawful age, being first duly sworn, says that for a considerable time last past he has been in the employ of John W. Schoelply, a boot and shoe dealer of Omaha, Neb. That with the exception of a few pairs of misses' shoes, which were levied upon by him under attachment suit and sold by him to satisfy a claim of $135.00, Thomas A. Fry is now in possession of the entire stock of the said John W. Schoolply, by purchase from mortgagees and execution creditors, and further affiant saith not.

JOHN A. BRYANS. Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 3d day of March, 1894. EDWARD G. MCGILTON, Notary Public.

Was sold Friday, March 2, at sheriff's and mortgagee's sale to satisfy the creditors of

J. W. SCHOELPL

I am the only person who has a dollar's worth of this stock, with the exception of $135.00 worth attached by an ex-employe of Mr. Schoelply. Not an other dollar's worth has left the store since the doors were closed. See the affidavit of the custodian of the stock which appears in the upper left hand corner of this advertisement,

This stock in all its elegant entirety will be placed

On Sale Monday Noon, March 5.

SALE MARCH 5.

SCHOELPLY'S OLD STAND.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Schoelply stock was bought at less than 50c on the dollar, and every man, woman and child in Omaha can be fitted out for less money than the same grade of shoes were ever sold at before.

Our time for occupancy of this building is very limited, so we will mark the goods to sell them at prices made below the cost of manufacture.

Note the difference between the prices Schoelply sold shoes for and the prices we will sell them for.

THOMAS A. FRY.

Selling the Schoelply Stock of Shoes.

The fine quality and superior make of the goods handled by J. W. Schoelply was well known in Ofnaha and vicinity, and the way shoe dealers have been howling the past few days shows the fears they have of the way the shoe trade will be affected by the forced sale of this.

MAGNIFICENT STOCK OF LADIES', MEN'S AND CHILDREN'S SHOES. A FEW PRICES AS A STARTER.

To give an idea of the big bargains we will quote a few prices. All other goods same way.

105 pairs misses' shoes, Schoelply sold at $1.50,

OUR PRICE

75c

Sizes 11 to 2. 200 pairs Ludlow ladies' shoes, hand welt and hand turned, with patent leather tip, a beautiful shoe; Schoelply had no trouble in getting $5.00 a pair;

OUR PRICE in this sale

$2.65

175 pairs misses' goat and kid button spring heel, plain and patent tip, Schoelply sold at $1.75 and $2.00,

OUR PRICE

300 pairs ladies' French kid but ton and common sense last, genuine hand sewed, Schoelply sold at $7,00, our price in this sale

Every woman in Omaha should have

150 pairs machine sewed patent tip plain toe button, Schoelply sold at $2.00

OUR PRICE

75c

We will take 75 pair men's shoes that have sold up to $4.00, the sizes of which are broken, and put them in one lot; they will go for

$1.00

THOMAS A. FRY, 1415 Douglas Street.

Remember sale takes place at Schoelply's Old Stand.

Julia Marlowe Arouses the Howling Swells from Their Lethargy.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE PAST SEVEN DAYS

Birthday Parties with Here and There Luncheon or Two Keep Up the Interest in the Circles of Society.

Society has been enjoying a week of restfulness, Julia Marlowe only arousing the gay world from its lethargy, the opera house or Thursday evening and again last night resembling a flower garden in its brilliant coloring, the leaders of the swell set being very largely represented, although Lent is upon us. But Lent has already lost its terrors and this week a few more social entertainments are anticipated than occurred during the past seven days.

Not only is Easter the queen of feasts in the Catholic church, but it is the time when society awakes from its forty days of lethargy and like the butterfly leaves the dingy garment of the grub behind, says the Philadelphia Times, and donning its best clothes sets out to thoroughly enjoy itself.

Splendid dinners, weddings, christenings, candle parties and formal juncheons are all left for that glorious springtime when na-ture does her best to keep hearts bright and spirits gay. Easter dinners are particularly delightful, being less heavy than those of midwinter. Generally the furnace fire can be dispensed with and in the freer atmos phere one can enjoy spring lamb and peas crisp lettuce and ripe strawberries in place of the heavy fruit and canned edibles must do duty from November to March. Weddings are celebrated every day in Easter week and the very loveliest devices can be employed to make them more than ordinarily artistic. Spring flowers make most adorable bridesmaid's boquets, and at a time when floral bonnets are so popular real instead of artificial blossoms may be

At christening and candle parties of course the small individual in the cradle is the one great object of interest, and all gifts are se cted with direct reference to its wants and caprices. At Easter these offerings ger erally bear some semblance to an egg therefore there are deep, egg-shaped baskets exquisitely lined with satin and i trimmed, in which the clothes are to laid away or the toilet utensils are to Silver pap spoons with a rabbi or tiny chicken on the handle are appro rinte. Dainty porridge bowls representing broken egg shell are also in demand, and the Easter lily appears on many a gift for used with excellent effect

After One Score Years. The cozy home of Judge Estelle, 2115 South Eleventh street, was filled Friday evening with the relatives and friends of the judge and his estimable wife. The occasion was the their marriage. The interior was prettily arranged, the fragrance of Marechal Niel roses and other flowers making a pleasing addition to the attractiveness of the rooms. The con gratulations were many and hearty showed the esteem in which the judge and his wife are held.

Twenty years ago in the city of Columbus O., Lee Estelle and Miss Belle Bradley were married. After a residence of a few in the east the young couple concluded to seek a home and fortune in the west. They came to Omaha and took up residence where they now live. Talking of early life in Omaha, the judge remarked that standing veranda at that time only six house could be seen. Now the vicinity is decked with the homes of thousands 'We have always judge said last evening: me feeling for our cottage, and while stimes think of moving to some other part of the city, probably more favorable black silk and the judge said looked little older than the bride of twenty years ago. The presents were handsome. They con-sisted principally of exquisitely cut china, hand ornamented. One of the neatest mementoes was the crayon portrait of Mrs. Baker, at whose house the wedding took place twenty years ago. Mrs. Baker is now about 80 years of age and resides at Kansas City.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. E. R

Perfect, Mrs. Elmer, Mrs. Johnson, Pitts-field, Mass.; Mr. Farnam, Mr. and Mrs Van Camp. Mr. and Mrs. McVann, Sioux City, and Miss Vincent.

Delicious refreshments were served. Ex-Students Entertained.

The Omaha Commercial College Literary society gave a public entertainment at the present location of the college, corner Sev enteenth and Douglas streets, last Thursday evening, the following program being ren

Piano Solo J. J. Foye. Selected
Prof. G. F. McPherson.
Recitation. Kentucky Bell
Miss Edna Moore.
Vocal Solo—Heart's Springtime.
Miss Evelyn Holt.
Essay—Reformatories Instead of Penitentiaries .... C. M. Zander. Whistling Solo Mrs. Lyman Searl Recitation Royal Princes

Recitation Miss A. Johnson. Lyman Searl.

Friday evening following the tenth annual reception to ex-students took place, the pres-ent students extending the ex-students a cordial welcome, many coming from a dis-tance to participate in the festivities of the occasion and renew the associations of their

The rooms were very prettily decorated and a general good time was indulged in An impromptu program was rendered, con sisting of speeches, music, etc., interspersed with social conversation and games. At 10:30 the ex-students, headed by the officers of the Literary society, repaired to the large banquet room, where delicious re

The committee of arrangements consisted o A. N. Davis, C. M. Zander, J. R. Howarth Amanda Johnson and Annie Peterson, who leserve due credit for the success of the en tertainment.

The recently organized Young Woman's club of the First Presbyterian church will give their first reception in the church Thursday evening from 8 to 10 p. m. The club has already a large membership Mrs. Cohn will sing, also Mr. Beresford celebration of the twentieth anniversary of The High School Mandolin club will play and it is expected that Minor C. Baldwin will be present and by request will repeat The Storm" on the pipe organ.

Refreshments will be served and a general good time enjoyed. All the members friends of the congregation are cortally invited.

Young Women's Christian Association The new quarters of the Young Women's Christian association are already assuming homelike appearance, although the inrease of space calls for some additional furniture, more pictures, and, as ever, more funds. The Sunday afternoon service at 4 o'clock is to be a dedication of the rooms. Several clergymen are expected to assist, and Mrs. Wilhelm, Miss Neola Ogden and others will furnish the musical portion of the service. Everybody is invited, and it is hoped the attendance will be large. Monday offerings toward the support of the organization will be very gladly received. At 6:30 o'clock supper will be served for members only, and afterward Mrs. Percy Ford will very interesting talk of the "Working Women of Europe," the result of her personal observation during her long res-dence abroad. The new plane is now in the rooms, but there is still need of funds to pay for it although the Stella Stanton entertainment materially lessened the indebtedness. The rooms of the association are 106 and 107 Bee building, and visitors are always welcome. Miss Mamie Taylor is the general secretary, and will always be glad to give information concerning the work of the association. The "noonday rest" serves tea, coffee, cocoa and milk from 11 The Omaha Camera Club.

The members of the Omaha Camera club are now beginning to see the good results of such an association. The proprietors of the Elite studio, 1406 Farnam street, have kindly tendered them the use of the rooms for meetings and demonstrations, which is duly appreciated by the club.

Thursday evening the club was again entertained by Prof. John Edgsworth of the Creamer Dry Plate company of St. Louis. Mo., who developed a number of negatives taken by the club. The Creamer company f the ploneer firms in the manufac ture of dry plates. The latest result of their enterprising and untiring inventive genius is the happy idea of the Ischromatic plate for taking photographs in colors. these plates were developed by Prof. Edgsworth with the very best results

Aristo company had an interesting exhibition of the toning of paper prepared by his company.

Mr. Charles Matthews of the Eastman Kodak company also set forth the ad-vantages of the Solio paper, which is one of the best all around papers for both the pro-fessional and the amateur. By using the embined bath, this paper will give excelent results with very little manipulation the tone being both strong and permanent The separate bath is also used, and with even better results. Mr. Matthews also even better results. Mr. Matthews also showed some of the most artistic prints yet made, which were obtained with the platinic bromide paper, which is fast be highly artistic effects, which it is difficult to obtain from any other paper in the market. Mr. Samuel Armstrong of the Seed Dry Plate company discused the properties the Seed plate. This firm is also one of the first in the field with dry plates, and their popularity is well known to both the pro-fessional and the amateur photographer. The Omaha Camera club is to be congratu lated upon securing the services of such skillful and energetic gentlemen for demonstrating the goods used in the various branches of photography. The results of exhibitions of this nature are lasting, and points are raised and questions asked, which much time and patience would with difficulty remove.

Their Second Anniversary. In honor of their second anniversary the members of the "Mu Sigma" society held an informal reception at the home of the president, Mrs. George Thompson, Monday even receiving: Mrs. A. B. Somers, Mrs. H. D. Neely, Mrs. A. Egbert, Mrs. L. Blickensderfer, Mrs. G. M. Ribbel. Music and flow ers, with a short literary program, contrib uted to the enjoyment of the evening.

The following ladies assisted the hostess in

Mrs. Phil Stimmel, as mistress of ceremonies, announced the order of the program, and papers were read by Mrs. Charles Van Tuyi, class review, "Fifteen Hundred Years in Thirty Minutes;" Mrs. Milo Van Horn, "Personal History," and a recitation by Mrs. Gerard Andrews, Tennyson's "Brook Musical numbers were rendered during the vening by Mrs. Ely, Miss Jessie Johns and

Mr. Gerald Somers, which proved a pleasing feature of the entertainment. Of the responses to roll call, which consisted mainly of humorous quotations from English authors

the gem of the evening was Mrs. J. K. Flem-

LENT LOSING ITS HOLD for a residence, we conclude at the last which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to which everybody who is interested in the association is cordially invited. Free will be a general reception, to a supplication of the su included an "anagram pie," much to the amusement of the guests, Mr. H. M. Waring proving himself the best decipherer of the English events, works and authors from which the anagrams were made In the "wee sma' hours" the company dispersed with merry good nights and a hop-that the future held "many happy returns."

Afternoon Musicale. Mrs. William R. Morand entertained number of friends very delightfully Thursday afternoon at her residence, 2906 Dodge street the major portion of the afternoon being given up to a musical program that was splendidly rendered. The house was prettily decorated for the musicale, pink roses and palms pre dominating. After the conclusion of the program delicious refreshments were served. The program was as follows; Poet and Peasant.Mrs. Morand, Miss Nixor Poet and Peasant Mrs. Morand, Miss Nixon

Cavairy Ride Mrs. Morand
Song Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Huntington
Swinging Song Mabel Taibot
Skirt Dance May Haley
Shepherd Boy Isabelle Phoenix
Song Mrs. Huntington
Waltz Ethel Partridge
Seabrough Mabel Wilcox
Old Folks at Home Ada Neville
Song Mrs. Morand
Violin Solo Henry Phoenix

The guests present were: Mrs. Grossman Mrs. Neville, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Huntington, Mrs. James, Mrs. Phoenix, Mrs. Talbot, Mrs. Partridge, Mrs. Livesey, Mrs. Johnson. The Misses Bennett, Nizon, Talbot, Haley, Wilcox, Partridge, Neville, Phoenix and Henry

A Pretty Kensington. One of the most charming social events of the week was the kensington given on Thursday by Mrs. Fred Engel at her well-appointed home at 4907 North Twenty-fourth street. It was somewhat of a farewell to her sister, Mrs. T. B. McCulloch, who is soon to follow her husband to Chicago, where he is engaged in business. Mrs. Engel was assisted by Mrs. R. B. Wallace and Miss it will long remain as a bright spot of a most the will long remain as a bright spot of a most delightful afternoon. The ladies who par-took of the hospitality were: Mrs. Dr. Thain, Mrs. C. H. Rich, Mrs. M. B. Cope-land, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. C. L. Jaynes, Mrs. Dr. McCague, Mrs. Dr. Wil-liamson, Mrs. G. G. Wallace, Mrs. Judge Mc-Cullech Mrs. William Bated, Mrs. J. R. Cow. Culloch, Mrs. William Baird, Mrs. J. B. Cow gill, Mrs. G. F. Gilmore, Mrs. A. G. Charlton Mrs. James Patton, Mrs. Sara Jenkinson Mrs. D. F. Hutchinson, Mrs. Charles Foster Mrs. Charles Cheney, Mrs. Thomas Me Miss Belle McCulloch, Miss Mame McCul loch, Mrs. A. Louie, Council Bluffs; Mrs. Alphonso Metzger, Council Bluffs; Mrs. Bruce McCulloch, South Omaha. Entertained for Her Son.

Mrs. O. P. Black of 2625 Davenport street gave a party Tuesday evening, February 27, in honor of the 17th hirthday of her son Clarence, who is home from Lincoln on a amusement of the evening, coupled with vocal and instrumental music by Mr. Christ Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown and Mrs. Black. At 11 o'clock a delicious supper was served. Miss Laura Hill assisted Mrs. Black in receiving the guests.

The following were present: Misses Luiu Stark, Mable Crampton, Luiu Stockman, Barbara Smith, Rose Wentz, Victora Smith and Laura Hill, Messys. J. E. Randolph, Frank Peterson, W. E. Whalen, C. T. Butler, Frank Peterson, W. E. Whalen, C. T. Butler, George Stark, Joe Boyle, Ed W. Marnell, J. W. Warren, Bee Worthing, T. A. Edwards, R. W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Stark, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Sillick, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bickford, Arthur Brown, Mr. and R. J. Spanton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hawkenson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Granville, Mrs. E. Stark, Mrs. Flora Whitley and Mrs. W. A. Pinkham.

Auction High Five. Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Sidwell, 2727 South Nineteenth street, entertained the "Oklaioma club" last Thursday evening at auction ligh five, something new in this city.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Al Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cheek, Dr. and Mrs. Glas-gow, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Martin, Laur, Miss Minnie Davidson, Colonel A. L. Scott and Fred Davidson. After eight games of cards refreshments were served, and then for the finale the auction came, which was quite interesting.

Open Door Benefit. Last Friday evening a very enjoyable entertainment was given in the Commercial club rooms for the benefit of the Open Door The object being a very commendable one resulted in a very good attendance. The following excellent program was ren-

In Absence. T. K. Quartet. Buck

Birthday Party. A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lake, Twenty-first and J streets, South Omaha, surprised those worthy people Monday evening of last week by taking posses sion of the house and enjoying a game of high five, the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Lake. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Parkhurst, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cov. Mr. and Mrs. Al Powell, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Sidwell, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. C. Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cheek, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Hopper, Mrs. Lizzie Mitchell and Miss Gertie Parkhurst The ladies' first prize was won by Mrs. Lizzle Mitchell, the gentlemen's prize by Levi Cox. The ladies' consolation prize was aken by Mrs. T. P. Mahoney and the gentlemen's by J. H. Lake.

After luncheon dancing was indulged in. Enjoyable Birthday Party.

A very enjoyable birthday party was given Friday evening of last week in honor of Mr. James Gibson. Miss Hayden, Miss Howe and Miss Metealf received the guests. High five and euchre were played, preceded by an excellent supper, after which dancing was indulged in until the ever sweet song, 'Little Apple Blossoms," sung by Mr. Sam Howe, gave the signal for dispersion.

Lottie Hayden, Ella Gamble, Edith Howe, Dollie Gamble, Laura Gray, Julia Boles Grace Gorden, Maggie Boles, Lottie Metcalf Brace Barten, Sadie Carter, Mrs. G. T. An f. Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Chighamith, Mr. and Mrs. Lacey, Mr. and Mrs. Ovustny. Measrs Sam Howe, Allie Gorden, Roy Balland, Charles Jones, George Jones, Charles Barten, Social Doings in Lent.

Miss Harriet Hershey of Nebraska City is visiting friends in Omaha. Dandy entertained the Debutantes Cooking Club on Thursday. Mr. Frank Hamilton is out after a sudden out short attack of the grip. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Brink and son left on Tuesday for Hot Springs, S. D. Miss Bessie Yates left for St. Joseph yeserday to be gone several weeks.

Mrs. Brogan returned on Monday evening rom her visit to the Midwinter fair. Mr. J. N. H. Patrick is in Washington, Master Lake Deuel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deuel, is recovering from his late

Mrs. B. F. Weaver was called to Chicago the sudden death of her brother, Mr. H. Harry H. Nye, formerly connected with the Union Pacific in this city, now residing at Fort Worth, Tex., is receiving the Mr. and Mrs. O. Hansen left yesterday for San Francisco to visit the Midwinter fair going by way of Portland. W. A. Fleming of Dubuque, Ia., and Mrs J. C. Watt of Hashua, Ia., are visitnig their sister, Mrs. D. H. Bartlett. Miss Lynn Curtis returned home from De-Moines in time to attend the performance of

"The Love Chase" at Boyd's. Mrs. Francis W. Breed and Miss Florence Breed of Boston are the guests of Mrs Arthur C. Smith, 1203 South Twenty-ninth

Mrs. Harry C. Walker has returned to the city after an absence of three months. She visiting at the home of Mrs. Gust Fries, 4619 Izard street. The last lecture of the Unity club lecture course will be given by Mrs. H. P. Lewis at Unity church Friday evening, March 9. The subject will be "Tennyson." Colonel and Mrs. Pratt entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening, the guests being Mrs. McGee of Chicago, Miss Collins, Miss

Pratt and Mr. John S. Collins. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Maus announce the marriage of their daughter, Daisy Clare, to Mr. Lou Rothan Dennis, March 14, at 8 p. m. Hanscom Park Methodist Episcopal church.

The many friends of Mr. Gabriel DeWitt and family, former residents of Omaha, will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. DeWitt, which occurred at Fort Worth, Tex., on January 28.

Miss Hattie L. Ivins entertained informally Monday evening for Miss Grace Campbell Music and games were the order of the evening, and a very enjoyable time was had by those present. Married, Wednesday evening, February 28, at the residence of the bride's mother in Stanford Circle, Mr. Frederick W. Truax and Miss Mabel C. Richards, both of this city, Rev. T. J. Mackay officiating. Miss Turner, who has made a host friends during her stay with Miss Dandy, returned to her home in Chicago yesterday afternoon, much to the regret of those who vere fortunate enough to have met her. The friends of Mr. George M. Lawrence that they were quietly married Saturday at Unity church by Rev. Mr. Mann. The happy couple have gone east for an extended On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Arthur Smith invited a few young ladies to meet her guest

Miss Breed of Boston. Miss Breed is a ver-handsome and charming girl and quite delighted all who had the pleasure of being The Des Moines Leader announces the marriage last Saturday, at the bride's home on Seventeenth street, of Maude Alice Cressler and John Archie Morris of Omaha. Mr. Morris is a young Iowan running now as

Portland, Ore. They will make Omaha their

Miss Thomas entertained a few friends at eards and music Monday evening in honor of Miss Dell Hale of San Diego. Those present were: Miss Dell Hale, Miss Fawn Bard, Miss Eva Manchester, Miss Mabel Moore Miss May Smith; Mr. Crawford, Mr. Conrad Mr. Dewar, Mr. Jefferies, Mr. R. R. Thomas Mr. C. L. Thomas.

Miss Cora Martin entertained a few friend: at her home in Kountze Place Thursday evening, in honor of Miss Grace Campbell, to her departure for her new hom in Norfolk, Neb. Those present were Misses Grace Campbell, Mollie Reynolds. Hattie Ivins, Lizzie Carnes, Anna Reynolds, Amy Watts, Minnie Fisher, Messrs, Charles Front, Fred Myers, Robert White, Edmond ower, Robert Morrison, O. Allison and J.

Mr. Willie White was pleasantly surprised at his home Friday evening in honor of his eighteenth birthday. Dancing, cards and several comic songs by Prof. J. Reynolds pleased the guests, while refreshments were pleased the guests, white corresponding served at midnight. Those present were: Messrs, Emau Gardneir, Fred Hall. Theodore White, Richard McCullough, Rannie Sallander, Richard Crawford, George Zweifel, Millio F. White, Prof. J. Reynolds, H. S. MacDonald, G. L. Hollo: Misses May Gambol, Ruth Marie MacDonald, Ella Gambol, Mattie Barderill, May Stockham, Gertio Adal druggists.

lev entertained at dinner. Those who are fortunate enough to enjoy the hospitality of this charming home know how delightful such small dinners given here always are. The guests on this occasion were: Mrs. J. N. H. Patrick, Miss Collins, Miss Wakeley, Miss Emily Wakeley and Messrs. Robert W. Patrick, John Patrick and William C.

A surprise party was given at the home of S. Kalish, 848 South Nineteenth street. last Tuesday evening, in honor of the 21st birthday of his son. Among those present were: R. Kalish and family, Mr. and Mrs. Levy and family, Mr. and Mrs. . Morris. M. Bennett of New York and the members of the Fellowship club of this city. After partaking of supper, Mr. Morris delighted the company with a selection of comic songs.

Thursday, Miss Thomas' afternoon at home is the occasion of quite a large and con-genial circle of friends making her a visit. At her last at home Thursday Mrs. Humphrey and Miss Thomas entertained the callers and the charming Washingtonian presided at the tea table in a delightful manner. Among these present were Missea Dandy, Turner, Cushing, Wakeley, Barnard, Doane; Messrs. Wilson, Penn, Holmes, Dr. McElderey.

Thursday night, the occasion of Miss Marlowe's first appearance, the audience was a flattering one both in size and quality. The boxes were all filled. The lower ones were occupied by Miss Dewey, Miss Stuart, Mr. Turner and Mr. Clifford Smith; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrs. Breed and Miss Breed of Boston and Mr. John Patrick: Mr. and Mrs Cady, Miss Brown, Miss Cady and Mr. Morsman; Mr. and Mrs. Henry McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Remington, Miss Silloway and Mr. Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Kuenne entertained the Crescent High Five club at their residence, 509 South Seventeenth street. Tuesday evenand Mr. G. Dake, after which a dainty luncheon was served. The members of the club are Mr. and Mrs. R. Rosenzweig, Mr and Mrs. G. Kuenne, Mr. and Mrs. G. Mit-3. Dake, Mr. Urian and Miss Alma Urian. Mr. and Mrs. G. Mittaur carried home the consolation prizes. Goldie, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

James Houston, 3236 Miami street, celebrated her fifth birthday Saturday, February 24. The guests were her little cousins, Elsie Itudder, Willie Robinson, Alex Robinson, Dick Robinson and James Robinson. little schoolmates present were: Maggle and Barney McNell, Hattle and Gerard Mos, Alma Monroe, Nora Trotter, Ella Boone and Mandy Brown. The little tot received many protty and useful presents from her relatives and numerous friends. At Mrs. M. Hellman's residence her sister, Mrs. Charles Wise, gave a delightful after-noon "coffee" on Wednesday afternoon. There were fourteen ladies present and each brought her fancy work and made it a very delightful informal gathering. During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. Hellman, Mrs. A. Heller, Mrs. S. Oberfelder, Mrs. I. Oberfelder, Mrs. Rau, Mrs. L. Heller, Mrs. B. Newman, Mrs. Adler, Mrs. Goldsmith, Mrs. Heller, Mrs. Mendelssohu, Mrs. Rehfeld,

Miss Nash entertained the Cooking club very delightfully Thursday afternoon. The table on this occasion was a thing of beauty, if being elaborately decorated in pink and white. Down the center of the festal board was a long basket filled with pink and white primroses, suggesting most appropriately the return of spring. At each place was a dainty card with primroses painted in water colors on them and the name of each guest. The table was bare and with numerous elaborate follies, silver and cut glass was remakably

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

Mrs. E. M. Letts of this place had been troubled with rheamathm in the arm so badly that she could not use her arm at all. One-half of a 50 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm effected a cure. E. J. Neaves, druggist, Waverly, N. Y. This is an article