NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Good Candidates for Office to Be Voted for Tomorrow.

LIST OF VERY DESIRABLE TIMBER

Strongest Ticket Submitted by the Republicans for some Time—Claims of the Voters Well Explained—Much Interest Manifested in the Result.

Tomorrow is election day. The politicians of both parties have been busy for the past week or two trying with might and main to make votes for themselves and their parties, but within forty-eight hours their harvest time will be over and they will be able to sit down and enjoy the fruits of their industry, whether they come in the shape of pie or mud. The republican party has seldom had a ticket so free from objectionable men. Without a single exception the candidates are clean, honest and straight-forward men, men whom they cannot be the slightest breath of reproach. They are men who have made a success of their own business and can therefore be safely entrusted with the business of the city.

Dr. J. H. Cleaver heads the ticket. He is a resident of Council Bluffs for years, and has built up a large practice in his chosen profession. He stands as high among the citizens at large as among the members of the profession, which is all that need be said. There are few men who have so many close friends and who have had so much success in his uniform courtesy, and above all his undoubted ability. If elected to the office to which he aspires, the people of Council Bluffs may expect an administration that will be economical and conservative, and yet progressive in all its branches.

C. G. Saunders the candidate for superior court judge. Mr. Saunders has been a resident of Council Bluffs since the summer of 1888, and has since that time been engaged in the practice of law. He is in the highest sense a self-made man, and was not scooped in the making. Through his own efforts he paid his way through Drake university and afterwards through the law department of the State university of Iowa, and the discipline he received during that length of his character, and put him in touch with the workingman who is striving to make both ends meet. Since coming here he has won for himself the respect and admiration of his brethren at the bar and all others who know him. If he is elected there is not the slightest doubt that he will administer the affairs of the superior court with impartiality and giving justice to all parties concerned.

James Mortenson, the candidate for alternate clerk of the court. Mr. Mortenson has been a resident of Council Bluffs for several years, and has been connected for some years with the Western Lumber and Supply company. He is a man of the people, who, while he makes a good living, is not without friends of all who have met him, either in a social or business way.

A. S. Hazleton, who aspires to be his own successor in the office of city solicitor, has a natural claim on the office from the fact that he has made one of the best city attorneys the city ever had. The cases in which he was employed have been lost, true, but the lawyer who has never lost a case is usually the lawyer who has never had one. Out of the cases tried by a jury in which the city was defendant, five were won. Out of thirty-six cases tried in all by Mr. Hazleton, nineteen were won, while of the seventeen that were lost seven were suits on city warrants to which there was absolutely no defense. Three cases have been submitted, but not decided. Four have been decided and five dismissed at plaintiff's costs. There has been but one case tried during the last two years in which the city was put to any expense for assisting attorneys. That one was the case of Mitchell Vincent against the city. An attorney was employed by the city a number of years ago, and he was retained after Mr. Hazleton's election because it was thought cheaper to keep him than to let him go with the case and the city charged the city $300 for his services, which covered several years.

J. A. Gorham, the candidate for treasurer, has been a resident of Council Bluffs for years and there is no one who can say anything to his discredit. During the last four years he has been connected with the Council Bluffs Carpet company. He is active, industrious and accommodating, and with Mr. Gorham in the treasurer's office its affairs will be handled in a businesslike manner. The same may be truthfully said of George M. Gould, republican candidate for auditor. He has held the office for one term and has been himself a business man, and in the execution of his duties in a manner that challenges the admiration of all.

Charles Cook, the present city engineer, is a candidate for re-election, and thoroughly deserves the honor. Always on the lookout for the city's interests, his office has been retroactively from his mistakes. In his work of this kind, might cost the city thousands of dollars to repair.

This is the list of republican candidates for the marshal's office, and that is the kind of a heat that Edward Canning carries about on his neck. He has been a railroad man, and has commanded the respect of all who know him. A better man cannot be given a vote for marshal tomorrow.

William Adams is a republican candidate for city commissioner. There is no salary attached to it, but a poor man can make the office cost the city thousands of dollars more than it should. There is no one who is more important one, all voters should carefully consider the claims of a candidate for this position. Adams is a man who has been in the business circles of Council Bluffs, and certainly possesses all the qualifications of an excellent judge of real estate and commercial values, his residence of more than thirty years in the city, and the fact that he has occurred many changes, fitting him thoroughly for this work. Integrity and a businesslike administration are his motto, regardless of rank or condition, will make Lou Dale a good assessor.

The candidates for aldermen are as follows: Ward 1, C. S. Hubbard; Fifth ward, T. A. Brewick. These three gentlemen are well known in the business circles of Council Bluffs. They are not professional office seekers, and the honor of a nomination was given to them, not because they were seeking money, but because they were seeking the honor of a nomination, and if their plans do not succeed they will not be disappointed when he goes to pay his taxes before the close of this month. By electing the republican ticket from start to finish the city will be in a fair way to go back to the days of about a year ago, when the republicans were in power and taxes were lower than they had been for years before.
