8

75c.

98c.

98c.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1894.

ton and lisle thread 1/2 hose, worth 25c to 75c per pair, Saturday evening, 9c, HAYDEN BROS.

Through first and second-class sleepers, and diners.

HARRY P. DEUEL, City Ticket Agent,

500 dozen gents' fast black and fancy cot-ton and lisle thread 1/2 hose, worth 25c to 75c per pair, Saturday evening,

. THREATENED BY CORNISH.

to Lyons, Neb., a few days ago to attend his wife's funeral he said that his friends would probably hear of trouble between him and his wife's relatives, as they had constantly interfered in his domestic affairs, and that after her burial he intended to "go after them" and also the physician who at-threats were such as to cause her to telegraph to Chief Seavey, requesting that she have police protection when she should arrive in Omaha, which was at 12:20 yester-Starkey met her when she stepped, heavily velled, from the train and saw that she had safe conduct to her destination, the home of the treatment that his wife had received after going to the home of her parents there had been such, he believed, as hastened her death, and that his wife's relatives were try-ing to get their hands on some property that was in her name. This he said be would re-sist in the courts, if necessary, and he will doubtless have an opportunity to do so, since Mrs. Coraish, in her will, bequeathed a house and lot in South Omaha to a sister. It is alleged that the trouble between Mrs. Cornish and her husband was not caused by the designs of her relatives, but by the fact that Cornish was too intimate with an Omaha

The officer says that a man answering a description of Cornish got off the train, and, he thinks, took a Sherman avenue motor train going south.

A poor fellow gets when chills and fover slezes him in its tenacious clutch! Why don't every one protect himself against it with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the great antiperiodic? That specific uproots every trace of malaria from the system. It is equally efficacious, too, for rheumatism, kidney trouble, dyspepila, constipation, biliousness and nervous trouble.

The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday: Name and address. Harry Munster, Millard, Neb... Lucy Hagerman, Millard, Neb... G. W. Shockey, Omaha..... Catherine Johnson, Omaha..... Marcus Jungihan, Gretna, Neb. Christena Morrinkel, Gretna, Neb. C. F. Scovil, Chicago, Ill Minnie Hauke, Omaha William C. Bishop, Omaha Coranetta Ewing, Omaha

Minn., ask your druggist first.

