Interesting Will Contest Begun in the Lancaster County Court.

FRED RECKLING WAS NOT A FAVORITE

He Alleges that His Father Was Unduly Influenced to Cut Him Off with a Small Slice of the Parental Funds.

LINCOLN, March 16 .- (Special to The Beel-Taking one year with another, the Lancaster county courts are either occupied with damage suits or will contests. Another long and interesting will contest reached the probate court today, and like many others now pending it has its romantic phase. Three years ago Frederick Reckling and his wife parted, after living happily for a long number of years. The old man went to live with his son Fred, while his wife took up her abode with their son William. Then they both thought better of their quarrel and resumed their relations as husband and wife. In order to win back his wife Reckling was compelled to agree to give the property to his wife's favorite, William, to the exclusion of his favorite, Fred. Then the old man made his will, carrying out the agreement, giving the bulk of his property to William, remembering his two daughters and cutting off Fred with $10. Now Fred institutes a contest on the grounds that his father was unduly influenced in making his

ANOTHER DAMAGE SUIT.

J. F. Zediker, who was last week arrested and tried upon the charge of grand larceny at the complaint of D. M. Benner and J. R. Green, and who was acquitted, will try to get even with the two men who caused his arrest by bringing them into the court. He today commenced a suit for personal damages, fixing the amount at $20,000. In his petition Mr. Zediker alleges that the defendants accused him of stealing a restaurant and had him arrested and brought into court. He was subjected to a great deal of mortification and public disgrace, and in addition had to pay $200 to his attorneys. He thinks that $20,000 will make his injured reputation just as good as it ever was.

Suits aggregating $3,500 were commenced against the bankrupt dry goods firm of J. H. Mauritius & Co, today.

H. Mauritius & Co. today. A jury today gave Akins & Little $2,135 damages from the Rock Island for the use of their right of way. This is $5 less than the damages were appraised at, but they appealed from the appraisers' award.

FROM THE POLICE COURT.

John Snyder and Henry Van Tuyd were before the police court this forenoon charged with having plied one Victor Fosburg with Hquor until he became intoxicated and then robbing him of $7 or $8 while he was too drunk to know what he was doing. The affair occurred in a saloon at Ninth and O streets and the proprietor caused the arrest. Fosberg is a commercial traveler. The two defendants took a continuance.

A. F. Newboy is thanking his lucky stars that he is not in the county jail. Eva Houser, a young girl who has been bad and wants to continue to be bad, was this morning taken from the station to the Rescue home by two ladies representing the pew association. The girl was placed in the home last week, but after being supplied with a new outfit of clothing ran away. This morning when brought to the station she was given the alternative of going back to Rescue home or going to the county jail for ninety days for vagrancy. She tearfully protested that she didn't want to reform, that she wanted to go to Omaha and dance and have a good time. But she finally con-sented to remain at the home until respectable employment could be secured for her. LINCOLN IN BRIEF. and Miss Craigen are not angry, but alarmed.

They say it is impossible that Goodwin went off on a spree or that he has turned em-bezzler, because he is a young man of sober habits and of strict honesty. They fear that he has met with foul play. He was to have gone to Fremont Wednes day night to do some advance work for the company, which was to have appeared there last evening, but missed his train and said he would go Thursday morning. He attended the play at the Boyd's in company with Miss Craigen and Mr. Paulding and the last they saw of him was at the conclusion of the performance when they bade him good night.

They chanced to learn Thursday morning from Mr. Winter, Goodwin's room mate at the Murray, that he did not return to the hotel from the opera house. The manager of the house at Fremont was communicated with yesterday morning and it was learned that Goodwin had not gone there, and in-quiry at the railroad office in this city re-

May Land the Pension Paymastership for this State-Dubious Prospects for a United States Attorney Soon-Missouri River Improvement.

Washington this afternoon for Nebraska. He does not soon expect to return to the national capital. His stay of ten days here has been productive of the appointment of seven or eight presidential and ten or twelve fourth-class postmasters for Nebraska, and the precipitation of the appointment of Dr. George L. Miller to the office of surveyor of customs at Omaha. Mr. Castor stated just before leaving that he had no idea when a United States district attorney for Nebraska will be named, or who the man may be when his name does appear. The hitch is at the Department of Justice and the dilemma seems to be similar to that which encircled the selection of the Omaha customs officer. The attorney general has recommended one man, possibly ex-Mayor A. J. Sawyer of Lincoln, and it is understood that Messrs. Morton and Castor have recom-mended another man. Possibly the president will take the matter into his own hands and name a man of his own choice. He certainly will if some one will suggest a good compromise name. Committeeman Castor, as he was taking the train this afternoon, expressed con-fidence in the fruitfulness of his efforts to land the Nebraska-lowa pension agency for his own state. He said the president had In reply to an inquiry that he could see no inclination here at this time to fill any more of the republican land office positions in Nebraska with democrats; that it looked as though the incumbents would serve out their four years, and that where vacancies oc-curred there would be no great haste to fill them. There are five or six republican land officers in the state, whose successors have been strongly urged upon the secretary of the interior by Mr. Castor, and it was con-fidently expected that action would be had weeks ago. This is especially true of he McCook office.

UNITED STATES COURT FEES. Legislation to Be Emicted Looking to the Rectifying of Cortain Abuses.

WASHINGTON, March 16 .- For a number of years it has been the desire of the house judiciary committee to secure legislation reducing expenses and reforming the methods of the administration of justice in the United States courts. With that object in view investigations have been conducted, with the result that serious abuses have been found to exist in several of them. Efforts to remedy these abuses have not to any extent proved very effective. During the present congress the house has passed a bill to change in some respects the methods now in vogic in some of the courts, but it has not yet been acted on in the senate. It has been deter-mined, therefore, by those interested in securing the needed legislation to have the propositions added as amendments to the sundry civil bill now pending in the house. These amendments have been prepared by Representative Wolverton of Pennsylvania, at the instance of the judiciary committee and by agreement they will be offered to the sundry civil bill today

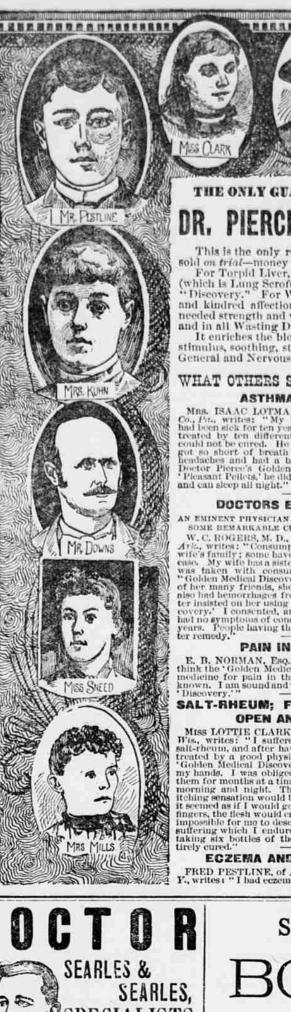

All the amendments have the approval of the Department of Justice. They provide substantially as follows: United States marshals are prohibited from charging more than the actual traveling exponses for pris-oners and guards, instead of 10 cents per mile, as now allowed by law. No fees are to be paid to marshals for executing any warrant from a United States commissioner unless the same shall have been executed within fifty days after issue. perso. whor holds an office or employment under the government shall receive compensation for discharging the duties of any other office or employment. CONSUMPTION.

The funeral of Dr. G. H. Peebles took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock. The doctor died yesterday evening after a long illness. He has been a resident of Nebraska for fifteen years, six of which he has lived in Lincoln. Receiver Hayden is responsible for the statement that it may be necessary to in-vestigate further before the 5 per cent dividend recently declared by the comptroller dividend recently declared by the comptroller of the currency for the Capital National creditors is finally paid off. If no further question is raised the disbursement of about $30,000 will be commenced immediately. Two young girls who declined to give their names stopped a runaway horse on G street this afternoon. The horse was attached to a delivery wagon in which were three or four small boys. The horse ran away and the girls, witnessing the affair, ran across the street, while one of them sprang at the horse's head, grasping the bits and hanging on until the frightened animal came to standstill. The girls were apparently about 15 years old, and ran away as soon as tha sual crowd gathered. The prohibition city convention will be held tomorrow afternoon, making the fourth city convention for the spring campaign. A citizen's ticket is also talked of, but it will hardly materialize.

John Currle will run as an independent candidate for councilman in the First ward, having secured the necessary number a signatures to the petition required by law.

The convention nominated a full ticket, although a number of the nominations were endorsements of those made by the republicans. D. M. Mc-Elhinney was thus named for mayor and W. L. Yetter for clerk, W. L. Alport and Prof. W. H. Meyers were endorsed for members of the Board of Education. The other nominees are: Councilmen-C. E. Apgar, First ward; F. M. Coover, Second; Samuel Alexander, Third, and Ed Monroe, Fourth, Bennett Cloyd, Board of Education and John Powers, city clerk. The convention might have been more harmonious in one or two instances, especially when the nomination of City Treasurer was being considered. Rev J. W. S. Dean of the Methodist church Hastings' Parkhurst, made a charge that W. L. Yetter was a license man and that this statement had been made him by P. L.
