

FUNDS FOR COXEY'S ARMY

Letters and Cash Received from Friends of the Proposed Movement.

PROGRESS REPORTED FROM MANY PLACES

Objections in the Way of the Army Using the Capitol Grounds at Washington

—Towns Along the Line of March Preparing.

MARSHALL, O., March 23.—J. S. Coxey this morning received in cash and checks the sum of $1,411 to be devoted to furthering the common weal.

Robert C. Gwynn of Chicago writes: "For several weeks I have been giving your proposed march much thought. I have also interested many other prominent real estate men. As a result, we have decided to contribute $1,000 to them, if you may be so kind to accept it."

Received at El Paso. EL PASO, Tex., March 23.—The first division of the industrial army, a motley crew, arrived here by special freight train last night. They were marched to the city hall yard, where they were housed and fed on beef, beans, potatoes and bread. After eating they bivouacked for the night. They started east again today.

Ready to Protect Property. AUSTIN, Tex., March 23.—Adjutant General Mabrey has no information of the arrival of a detachment of Coxey's army on the western frontier as expected last night. He has a company of rangers there, if necessary, should the Coxey soldiers appear.

Throwing Men on the Idle List. LOWELL, Mass., March 23.—Owing to the depression in the hosiery business the Pickering hosiery mills will close indefinitely tomorrow or early next week. When running full force about 300 persons are employed.

Settled in Favor of the Union. CHICAGO, March 23.—The long fight between Kahn, Schoenbrun & Co., and the United Garment Workers of America has been amicably settled in favor of the union.

Northwest Reporter Reviews the White-washing Decision of the Supreme Court. A recent number of the Northwest Reporter contains the following opinion by the Nebraska supreme court:

State vs George H. Hastings, John C. Allen and Augustus R. Humphrey, No. 6090. Opinion filed January 1, 1894. Maxwell, chief justice, dissenting to order overruling motion for rehearing. During this time Higgins' face was slightly flushed with the intense excitement of the occasion, but in his wonderful nerve and a frankness that almost created a doubt as to the justice of his sentence.

Expect Their Demands to be Conceded—Seven Thousand of Them Out in Patterson. NEW YORK, March 23.—The silk weavers are confident that the makers will concede all their demands, and their leaders encourage them in this belief.

Some of Coxey's History. LOUISVILLE, March 23.—A special to the Times from Newcastle, Ky., says: J. S. Coxey, 63 years of age, has been employed, who proposes walking to Washington and making demands of congress, owned a farm in this vicinity a few years ago.

Recruits from St. Joseph. ST. JOSEPH, March 23.—Twenty-two troops slept at the police station, a greater number than have stayed there any night during the winter.

Did Not Send a Check. CINCINNATI, March 23.—If all the recruits of General Coxey's common weal army are like those represented by the check of George B. Cox of this city they will be valuable.

Recessions to the Strikers' Forces. CHICAGO, March 23.—Last night 600 men employed in the brass works department of the Crane Bros. company joined the other 400 strikers.

Strike Incoming General. CHICAGO, March 23.—The brickmakers employed by Wahl Bros., Wercker & Prussing, and the Abrah Brick company, whose yards are at Blue Island, have joined the DUN'S REVIEW OF THE WEEK. Prices Still Continue to Show a Slight Downward Tendency. BUSINESS, HOWEVER, GROWS IN VOLUME. Many Mills Starting Up, but with a Reduced Number of Hands—Features of the Week in Trade—The Business Failures.

NEW YORK, March 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: It is perplexing to be obliged to report that business grows larger in volume and at the same time not more profitable. Uncertainty which is the dominant feature of the week, in the judgment of many commercial bodies, has urged the president to veto the seigniorage bill.

NEW ORLEANS, March 23.—The conditions of the market here are somewhat better than elsewhere. The English are in practical control of the entire reservation. Last night the steamship William G. Blake came to anchor near the Cleopatra. The vessel is expected to remain in port until she has cleared the harbor.

OMAHA, March 19.—To the Editor of the Bee: In your issue of the 18th inst. I find a letter from Mr. Ashburn on tuberculosis in cows. He is correct in stating that it does not exist (in the same degree) west as in the east, but I believe it is only a question of time until the germs are distributed and then we will have our cattle affected just as much as the cows in the East.
