and will in all probability have to be disposed of before the case of the employes can be taken up. This will give the men and their attorneys a week in which to prepare for the hearing. From now on the case will be watched with even more interest in the railroad world than ever before, for it marks an entirely new departure in settling diffi

CONSULTING THEIR ATTORNEYS. The afternoon developed very little that was new, and nothing that was startling in the railroad situation. The men put in the time quietly caucusing among themselves and in the evening held a joint meeting of all the representatives at the hall in the Patterson block. George L. Hodges of Denver, one of the attorneys for the men, ar-rived in the afternoon, and he and Judge Gantt were present at the conference. The situation was thoroughly gone over and the plans of the men when the case is called in court will be fully matured and they will be ready for the fray. In conversation with Judge Gantt last evening that gentleman stated that he did not know when the case would be called up, but it was generally understood that it would be next on the docket after the Denver & Gulf case. Mr. Gantt stated that he understood that case was not likely to occupy more than one day in the hearing, and in this event the case of the employes would be called up early in the week. The men will be represented by Judge Gantt and George L. Hodges, who have been in the case from the start, and T. W. Harper of Terre Haute, Ind., who is the special counsel of the firemen. They are now all on the ground and are actively engaged with the men in preparing for the trial.

WILL ABIDE BY COURT'S FINDING. In regard to the strike story, Mr. Vroman said that it was all pure frabrication, that nothing was said at the meeting concerning strike or any language used that was intended to convey that idea or anything that could be distorted into that meaning. The men themselves had taken the case into the courts. They were not forced there, but vent there for redress from choice, and they had no reason as yet, at least, to regret that choice. The fallure of the conference to accomplish results could not be the cause of any disappointment from the men, sy that result had been a foregone conclusion from the stand Mr. Clark had taken in re-gard to the limitations placed upon the scope of the conference. If anything was needed to confirm this opinion of the men it was not lacking in the position the officers of the road took at the very first session of the hearing in sticking to the terms of the Dundy order almost absolutely. The hearing had been commenced after Mr. Clark sent the men his letter at the outset for the sole reason that the court had ordered them to come before Mr. Clark for that purpose, and having placed their cause in the hands of the court they did not wish to put themselves in the attitude of disobeying its mandates at the very outset. They had invoked the law and by the law they would stand or fall. They had every confidence that Judges Caldwell and Sampson would treat the case fairly and do justice to all parties

One of the Members of the Western Explains the Attitude of the Assocsation Toward the Transmissouri Trouble -In Caldwell's Hands.

CHICAGO, March 23 .- (Special Telegram to The Bee.)-Western lines have all taken sides with the Atchison or the Northwestern in the controversy over rates. An official of one of them gave the following statement of the case today:

"At today's meeting it was the general feeling that inasmuch as the Santa Fo company had reduced the rates from Chicago to California destinations, and from the Missouri river to California destinations, and vice versa, without conference with or consent of their competitors, but on account of some local difficulty with the Southern Pacific line, over which their competitors had not the slightest control, that it was only proper for the Santa Fe company, now that we were advised that they had settled these difficulties amicably, to state on what date they would be willing to put back the rates to the figures from which they had reduced them, and with this in view a resolution asking the Santa Fe to do this was put through and the chairman called upon the Santa Fe company. The representatives of the Santa Fe company, in view of the telegram received from Mr. Lomax, to further discuss or consider the California

LOMAX POSITION LOGICAL "The position taken by Mr. Lomax and the position taken by the Western Passenger association is perfectly consistent. When rates are restored to normal figures they must be restored on a given date from all parts of the country. You will readily appreciate the necessity of this. Take for example the situation at Chicago. We cannot maintain the normal rate of $72.50 on Fort Wayne through Chicago is $37.50. This is not even good nonsense. It is contrary to the interstate commerce law, to general usage, and it would facilitate a large sized scalp on the Chicago market. The same conditions apply to the Missouri river. The a higher rate from Missouri river than rates of like class from points this side of the Missouri river and applied through the Mis-

LEFT WITH THE CHAIRMAN. Today's meeting of western lines accomplished absolutely nothing toward an increase in passenger rates. On the other hand the situation was left in a more unfavorable state than ever for the contemplated advance. The Atchison was no: represented at the meeting it having learned the Northwestern would not hold itself responsible for eastbound rate made in connection with the Union Pacific although it assumed all responsibility for the westbound rates. The Atchison refuses any advance until it learns just which lines are responsible for the maintenance of rates and secures definite agreement that the advance rates will not be manipulated. The whole matter was put in the hands of Chairman Caldwell, who will confer with the

Nearly all the wood for cars is secured in Oregon and Texas, and the haul to Cheyenne would be less than to Omana. If the change is made, 500 more men will be employed at once in the shops here.

SOME PORTRAITS OF GRANT.

Interesting Details About Illustrations in the "Century War Book." Especially interesting among the illustrations of the "Century War Book" are those which deal with the uniforms and faces of famous old regular army people.

Those who recall the well known painting by Emmanuel Leutze, which pictures a scene in the Mexican war, of which General-ther Lieutenant-U. S. Grant was the hero, will be somewhat disappointed at a reproduction of a photograph of that time. It shows Lieutenant Grant in the ill-fitting and absurdly boylsh appearing clothes peculiar to

A single row of brass eagle buttons runs from neck to waist of a tight-chested, bell-skirted frock coht. A broad light stripe runs down the side of the trousers leg.

A small likeness copied from one worn by Mrs. Grant on a wristlet is also given in the same work. The original was made shortly before Grant's resignation from the army prior to the civil war and represents blue prior to the civil war and represents blue prior to the civil war, and represents him as a smooth but stern-faced young captain. A third portrait of General Grant is from a photograph taken in 1861. Grant was then a brigadier, and had begun to be talked about. He sits with both hands clasping his sword, which rests across his lap. On his head is one of the large, ungainly, soft slouch hats then fashionable in army circles. One side of the brim is caught up to the crown by a rosette. The beard is long and heavy and the face wears an air of settled

There are several other portraits of the old commander in the work, and old soldiers who served under him express unbounded to serve the served these vivid slippses satisfaction in studying these vivid glimpse: of their dead leader. Arrested for Forgery.

WICHITA, March 23.—Constable Green has arrested a prominent farmer named John A. Hatfield, the cashier of a Sedgwick City bank, George L. Anderson, and a warrant is out for Thomas Hazzard, now in the east, on a charge of forgery and causing to be forged promissory notes for large sums, in all half a dozen or more forgeries, and the sum runs up into the thousands. Most of the property subject to this forgery is said to be located in Barry county, Missouri. The notes were acknowledged before a notary named McGrow at Cheney, this county. The people who purchased these notes are J. W. Ramsey of the firm of Thompson & Bland. The arrest has created a sensation, and the trial will be watched with interest.

It is Now Thought that the Merritts Will Retain Control of the Mesaba Mines. MINNEAPOLIS, March 23 .- A special to the Journal from Duluth says that the fact that the injunction suit of the Merritts against the American Steel Barge company was not heard in New York yesterday, neither of the parties appearing, is explained here by the assertion that negotiations are in progress for a seltlement of the difficulty latest deal involves the formation of a syndicate which is to satisfy the obligation of the Merritts to the Rockefeller people and thus redeem a majority of the stock in the Mesaba Consolidated mines, now held by Rockefeller as collateral. In order to do this, however, the stock turned over by Charles W. Wetmore to the barge company which the Merritts claim he held in trus only, must be returned to them. The syndi-ca'e which is to redeem the Merritts stock and again give them control of the Mesaba property is to take a long time mortgage as security, consolidated stock being placed in scrow with friendly parties to secure the

HE WILL NOT MEET JACKSON IN JUNE

Says the Time is Too Short Now for Hin to Train-He is Going to England to Visit the Queen.

DAYTON, O., March 23 .- (Special Telegram to The Bee.)-Pugilist James J. Corbett was tendered an enthusiastic reception here today. When his train arrived from Pittsburg the depot was thronged with a vociferous crowd of admirers. Corbett was questioned regarding Bob Fitzsimmons' anxlety to meet him, "Gentleman Jim" considers the lanky pugilist is working a clear case of bluff, but will accommodate him if it ts shown he means business.

Corbett is certain that his fight with Peter Jackson cannot occur in June, as he would require three months for training after a suitable purse had been offered and contracts signed. Stories have been cir culated that Corbett will evade Jackson given the opportunity. On this point the champion was rather satirical. He expects to sail for England April 12, and will be accompanied by his father and mother. The champion is assured that he will be granted an interview with the queen, ar conor never heretofore tendered a pugilist Lacrosse this Season.

Among outdoor sports the coming season lacrosse will be a prominent feature. Last year Omaha had the crack team of the state, and this year will be strengthened by the addition of several very swift players.

They are going at it in earnest, and will bring this popular and lively game more prominently before the public than ever before. The several games played in this city have not received the patronage due them but the boys have not become discouraged and Friday evening, March 30, at 7:30, will meet at Young Men's Christian association hall for organization and election of officers for the season's work. All lovers of the game are requested to be present and render the boys what assistance they can in bringing lacrosse more prominently before the public. It is bound to become popular. The Omahas are going into it this year with the determination of closing this season's work the same as last, by winning the state championship. is within; its manifestations without, Hence, to cure the disease the cause must -be removed, and in no other way can a cure ever be effected. Warner's SAFE ture is established on just this principle. It really 95 PER CENT. of all diseases art e from deranged Kidneys and Laver, and it suffice at once at the root of the difficulty. The elements of which it is composed act directly upon these great organs, both as a food and restorer, and by placing them in a healthy condition, drive disease and pain from the system.

For the innumerable troubles caused by unhealthy Kidneys, Laver and Urinary Organs; for the distressing Disorders of Women; for all Nervous Affections, and physical derangements generally, this great remedy has no equal. Its past record is a gastrantee of continued performance. H. H. WARNER & CO.
