

THE DAILY BEE

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA. OFFICE - NO. 12 PEARL STREET.

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city.

H. W. TILTON, Manager. TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 43; Night Editor, No. 23.

MINOR MENTION.

Boston Store, spring dress goods, capes and jackets. Apron sale and supper in Elsiean building, March 22.

The "Little Homes" of the Christian church have arranged for a pleasant entertainment at the tabernacle this evening.

Calanthe assembly, Pythian Sisters, will hold a special meeting at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Hunt, 116 Vine street.

Marie Tempest will appear at Dobany's opera house on Saturday evening, March 31, in "The Fencing Master," De Koven and Britten's opera.

There will be a meeting of the Pilgrim Sisters at Mrs. F. E. Sheppard's, 304 South Ninth street, today at 2:30 p. m. for the transaction of a business meeting.

Special meeting of Buff City Lodge, No. 71, Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, this evening for work in the third degree.

All master Masons cordially invited to attend. The Iowa conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints will be held in Huntington hall, 104 Broadway, today and tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m.

A meeting of the Princes of the Orient will be held Monday evening at the Grand Army hall, and it is expected that twenty candidates for initiation will be introduced to his goathship.

Rev. C. N. Armstrong of Raymond, Neb., will preach at the Second Presbyterian church, as a candidate, Sunday, March 25, at 10:30 a. m. Sunday school concert in the evening at 7 o'clock.

The funeral of John Matthal will occur Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence, 626 East Pierce street. The remains will be taken to Walnut Hill cemetery for interment.

W. A. Richards has received his appointment as special deputy United States marshal for the southern district of Iowa. Mr. Richards served in this capacity under ex-Marshal Miller, and his efficiency that he has been reappointed.

Christian Science. Public services every Sunday afternoon at half past 3 o'clock in Royal Arcanum hall in the Brown building, entrance on Pearl street. Mrs. De Long will speak. The International Sunday school lessons will be studied every Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the parlors of the Royal Arcanum.

A pleasant social was held last evening in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church. About 200 were present. The most enjoyable evening was spent. Among the attractions of the evening were musical selections by Colonel L. W. Tully's orchestra and two declamations by Miss Nellie Pramey, the accomplished little eclectician.

Boston Store Easter Inducements. This week we shall place on sale some special inducements, in various departments, suitable for Easter gifts. Some very choice novelties will be shown, having just received an excellent line of new, choice, desirable and suitable merchandise, carefully selected from the largest stocks in the eastern markets, consisting of the following lines at remarkably low prices.

KID GLOVES. In all the leading makes of America Foster's, from $1.00 to $2.25 a pair. Magnificent Francesco gloves, which we guarantee the original P-Centimeter gloves, best quality, blacks and colors, $1.95 a pair. Ferris' and Alexandria gloves, desirable in a number of different qualities. Don't fail to see our glove stock. All the above makes guaranteed to fit the hand.

SPECIAL NOTICE. Ask to see our $1.50 four-buttoned glove for $1.00, and our $1.00 five-buttoned glove for 50c, and our $1.00 six-buttoned glove for 50c, and our $1.00 seven-buttoned glove for 50c, in all colors.

NEW VEILING. In every imaginable color, also an elegant line of blacks in new effects. Special value is offered in 25c fancy veiling (high colors) at 5c a yd.

SPRING HOSIERY. In ladies', gentlemen's and children's at our usual low prices, consisting of full line of fancy, rods, tans, grays and better value than ever in blacks.

MISCELLANEOUS LIST. Don't overlook corset department. New styles in gents' neckwear. Large assortment new umbrellas. Immense variety jackets and capes. Easter line of garter webs and buckles. Big reductions in Swiss handkerchiefs. See new stock of Abate's gloves, desirable in a number of different qualities. Big run of more ribbons. See stock. New spring stock calico wrappers. N. H.—Saturday we will give away colored Easter eggs to every customer. See show window.

FOTHERINGHAM, WHITEHEAD & CO., Council Bluffs, Ia.

Books at Auction. Carload, consisting of the best books, medical, mechanical, miscellaneous, almanacs, bibles, etc. Private sale by day and auction at 7 p. m., 536 Broadway.

We have in stock 1,000 hot-bed sash of our own make. Come and see us or write for prices. Also quantities of Council Bluffs Paint, Oil and Glass Co., Masonic temple building, Council Bluffs.

Freshest Easter egg, newest ice cream, sweetest candy for sale at the Easter festival held in the Congregational church this evening.

Domestic soap breaks hard water. PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Simon Elsiean of Salt Lake City is a Bluffs visitor. Willoughby Dye of Macedonia was a Bluffs visitor yesterday.

Hon. Smith McPherson of Red Oak was in the city yesterday. Miss Clara Phelps leaves next Monday for a two months visit with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Casper have returned from a winter's visit to California. E. C. Gleason has gone to Denver to take a position in a large wholesale house of that city.

H. Logan, editor of the Washington (D.C.) Gazette, was in the city yesterday, visiting H. E. Grimm. W. S. Fox and his mother, Mrs. M. S. Fox of Detroit, Mich., are in the city, guests of their relatives, J. A. Spaulding and family.

Mrs. Samuel Paes, wife of the bookkeeper for McCormick's, arrived in the city yesterday from Tracy, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Paes are living at 719 Fifth avenue.

Henry C. Caldwell, United States circuit judge, arrived in the city last night and is visiting his niece Mrs. P. H. Hill. He will hear the wage dispute in Omaha between the men and officials of the Union Pacific.

Domestic soap outlasts cheap soap. Get prices from Shugart & Ouren, the leading seedsmen of Council Bluffs, Masonic temple.

Lady clairvoyant, for ladies only. Life reading, business and health. 203 Fourth street. Go to Brown's C. O. D. for your Easter eggs. Three dozen for 25c.

Jarvis Wine Co., Council Bluffs, sole agents Jarvis 157 Broadway. Gas cooking stoves for rent and for sale at Gas Co.'s office.

Supper at the Congregational church this evening for 25c. For cobs go to Cox, 10 Main street. Telephone 48.

Straw mattings, all grades. Council Bluffs Carpet Co. See the new art goods at Mrs. Niles'. Everybody knows Davis sells drugs. Washermen use Domestic soap. Jarvis Wine Co., Council Bluffs.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Contemplation Does Not Add Satisfaction to the Mulet Law Prospects.

NEITHER SIDE LIKES THE NEW MEASURE

Liberals Deprecate Its Stringency and Radicals Decried Its Weakness—One Point Where it Hits the City Hard—Some Opinions.

The mulet law, which has just passed both houses of the legislature, seems to be anything but popular in Council Bluffs. It is commonly supposed to have been a sort of compromise between the liberal republicans and the radical prohibitionists. At this end of the line no one knows but somewhere in the state there may be liberal republicans and radical prohibitionists who are satisfied with it, but those of this city are in rising up and calling it cursed. The attempt to compromise on this basis has proved a dismal failure, and everywhere, on the streets and in the public resorts, can be heard the weeping and gnashing of teeth of those who had an idea that perhaps the republicans in the legislature might try to do something that would be an actual relief to the citizens of the thickly populated communities.

Below are given a few interviews with prominent citizens, which go to show the general feeling on the subject: James McCabe—It is the worst form of local option. I should rather have had a local option law which would allow counties to determine for themselves whether or not saloons should be run within their borders.

Judge Walter L. Smith—it is practically the same as local option, requiring a two-thirds majority in cities under 5,000 population to leave the question in the hands of the city council. The relief, if that figure, it will probably be enforced here exactly as the prohibitory law has been enforced.

E. W. Hart—We shan't know there has been any change in the law. I am ashamed of my party for breaking its promise. If it had agreed to hang the brewery, it ought to have hung him, that is, if it could. There is no use having a law that won't be backed up by a police department.

J. J. Steadman—have not been back from California long enough to make a careful examination of the law, but you can say for me that nothing, no matter what, is better than the prohibitory law we have had.

L. W. Tullys (prohibitionist)—It does not satisfy me. I am in favor of a total prohibition, no such half and half affair as this law is. It will not be enforced in Council Bluffs any better than the prohibitory law has been. The adoption of the resolution to re-submit the prohibitory amendment to the vote of the people will bring on a tremendous fight. If passed the next legislature also. All the forces of the liquor traffic all over the country will be centered upon Iowa.

This is one result of the new law which will be anything but popular to the people of Council Bluffs. At present every saloon pays a "monthly fine" of $50, and every dollar of this goes into the treasury. Thus the city receives more than $40,000 per year of revenue from the saloons. Under the new law half of this sum goes to the county and half to the city, so that the city will receive only $20,000 of revenue. It is true, the city has the right to impose additional taxes on the saloons to any extent it may see fit, but the inevitable result of this will be to decrease the number of saloons and consequently to decrease, in a measure, the revenue of the city.

There is a tendency to concentrate the saloon patronage in a comparatively few saloons, and thus enable the few who are able to obtain liquor in the city to pay the tax on it to fit up their places in better style and to an air of respectability to them, in this way doing the very thing which the prohibitionists all over the state are denouncing so loudly against for the past twenty years or more.

BENNINGSON BROS. Grand Easter Sale—Millinery at Half Price. Buy your Easter hats at half of us today. Prices to suit the times: 500 dozen ladies' untrimmed hats, 12c. 500 dozen wreaths, 25c. 500 dozen Leghorn, untrimmed, 25c. 100 dozen dress straw hats, untrimmed, 42c. 60c and 57c. 100 children's trimmed hats, $1.19. 250 ladies' trimmed hats, $3.00. 100 ladies' trimmed hats, $2.98. 50 dozen jet crowns, 45c. 200 dozen roses (per bunch), 15c. 200 dozen roses and ferns (per bunch), 39c.

In fact everything in proportion, making millinery cheaper than you ever saw it before. BIG CLOAK SALE. New line ladies' and children's capes and jackets just in. See them today. Ladies' capes, beautifully trimmed, at $2.50, $3.00, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.50 each; actual value $4.00 to $10.00.

Easter kid gloves for ladies and children, all new spring shades and black, five hole, at 5c each. Don't forget the Great Bankrupt Sale. Sale begins Monday, March 26. BENNINGSON BROS., Council Bluffs.

BIG BARGAINS. Vavra's New Dry Goods Store, Easter Saturday, March 24. Seamless fast black ladies' hose, heavy texture, worth 18c, for 9c. Men's seamless fast black half hose, above quality for 6c a pair, worth 12c. Children's fine applique collars, worth 6c, for 2 1/2c each.

Men embroidered scooped handkerchiefs, worth 25c, for 12c. Men's common socks, 3c per pair. Fine veiling, black, with crested dot, 5c per yard. Children's trimmed hats, pretty styles, at 8c each. Untrimmed hats, fine grades, 32c each. Fine spray of French muslin at 15c a yard. VAVRA'S NEW DRY GOODS STORE, 142 Broadway, Opposite Ogden House.

No Undertaker Need Apply. If your children are afflicted with diphtheria, Dr. Jeffrey's remedy will save their lives. No physician required. Has stood the test of 25 years. For sale by De Haven, George R. Davis and Morgan & Co., successors to Beardsley. Also 2404 Cummer street, Omaha, or address Dr. Thomas Jeffrey, Council Bluffs, Ia. Price, 5c.

Good News for Wheelmen. M. O. Dixon, the Omaha bicycle man, has opened a branch house in Council Bluffs at 337 Broadway. Call and see the new number.

If any one should ask you what was the strongest bicycle frame in the world, answer immediately "The Light-Nite" because it takes 3,600 pounds to break the frame. Sold by Cole & Cole only.

The Unity Guild will give a musical and dance at Chambers' hall Tuesday evening, March 27. Admission tickets, 25 cents. Gentlemen's dancing ribbons, 25 cents.

While you are paying for laundry why not get the best? The Eagle laundry solicits a trial and invites comparison. Telephone 157. The paints that took the highest award at the World's fair were the Heath & Milligan paints. Davis, the druggist, sells them.

Best of everything in goods and prices. Myers-Durfee Furniture Co., 325-328 Broadway. Strictly fresh country eggs, three dozen for 25c, at Brown's C. O. D.

The laundries use Domestic soap. Obtained to the Roof. Deputy Marshal Fowler and Detectives Weir and Murphy made a raid at an early hour yesterday morning on a disreputable house on North Main street inhabited by colored people. A big drift of whites and blacks, principally the latter, was captured, among them being Josie Hubert and Lillian Jones, Dan Smith, Ed Burke, Jr., Tex Baker, Wilson Stout and James McGrath of Sioux City. William Richardson, proprietor of the joint, was sick in bed, and his wife was allowed to stay with him on her promise to appear in police court in the morning. When morning came Mrs. Richardson did not, and the deputy marshal went after her. Richardson informed him that she had skipped, and on his making a search he was unable to find her. He returned to the police station, when a colored woman who had been spending a few days in one of the upstairs cells, which commanded a view of the Richardson domicile, raised up to him: "Say, Mistah Fowler, I just seed de old woman shun up de roof when you went down dere. Did you see her? She got her feet on de roof and she was looking at de house. Richardson was again missing. But her husband failed to work, for she was dragged down and made to walk to the city jail, where she is now confined. Josie Hubert and Lillian Jones were fined $9.50 in police court yesterday morning, and all the rest of the cases were continued until today.

THE OUTGROWTH OF A VAST EXPERIENCE.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the "Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute," Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials received from patients and from physicians who have burned in 1892, and he wrote $300, the face of an insurance policy on the place. Omaha National bank against Kimball & Champ and others. The plaintiff asked the court to appoint a receiver for the Manhattan property, alleging that it was now in possession of no one and was going to waste. The receiver of the Kimball & Champ investment company was required to account to the receiver, who may be, for the money coming from this piece of property. W. M. Tollerand against P. M. Sharples and others. This suit is to replevin a cream separator valued at $300.

HE RATHERED THE RECEIVER. Lawrence Kinnehan Brought Before Judge Smith on the Charge of Contempt. A little trouble that took place yesterday between George E. MacMahon, receiver of the Kinnehan stock of boots and shoes, and Mr. Kinnehan, resulted in the arrest of the latter on the charge of contempt of court, but Mr. Kinnehan is not behind the bars, nor does he seem likely to be at present. E. C. Gleason resigned his position as receiver Thursday, and MacMahon was appointed in his place and instructed to make an invoice. He secured the assistance of C. C. Bennett in making the invoice, but the court insisted that the invoice be made by Kinnehan and told that he would not be allowed to make the invoice, as MacMahon had no right to engage him without consulting him.

A few minutes later MacMahon came in and was told the same thing. Kinnehan claimed that the Citizens State bank, which held the mortgage under which the stock had been seized, had been practically running the receiver in order to have the invoice put down to the lowest possible price. MacMahon on his side determined to oust Kinnehan and his family from the building, and demanded that all the keys they had in their possession be turned over to him. Kinnehan and his family live over the store and have to pass through the court house to get to their homes, and they accordingly refused to give up their keys, and quit the premises in the course of which considerable loud language was used on both sides. Finally MacMahon went to the court house and filed an information charging Kinnehan with contempt of court in interfering with the receiver, and Kinnehan was brought before Judge Smith for an examination. Both sides told their story, and Judge Smith heard them, and continued the case indefinitely after cautioning Kinnehan not to repeat the offense.

Found a Floater. The body of an unknown man was found in the Missouri river near the east shore about a mile and a half north of the water bridge. It had evidently been in the water a long time. Coroner Jennings was notified and after viewing the remains he sent Undertaker Estep out to get them. The only thing found in the dead man's possession was a pocketbook, the leather part of which had almost rotted away. It contained 40 cents. There were no papers or other marks of identification, and it was not likely that it will ever be known who the unfortunate man was. He was gray haired, about three shirts, one of gauze, another of gray woolen material and the third a white shirt.

Next Meeting Here. Chief Scarnan returned last evening from Des Moines, where he has been attending the first meeting of the Chiefs of Police and tonight every body calls it a success. Officials were present, a good thirty considering the fact that this was simply a meeting for the purpose of organizing. Mr. Scarnan is chief president of the association for the ensuing year. The next meeting will be held in this city, beginning December 18, 1894.

Last Day of Service Brings Out a Grist of New Petitions. Yesterday was the last day of service for suits to be begun in the April term of district court, and today will be the day on which petitions can be filed. Yesterday there were a large number of petitions placed on file, and the list will undoubtedly be greatly increased by night. Among those filed yesterday were the following: Francis Landis against the Union Bridge and Terminal Railway company. The plaintiff demands a judgment for $800 for damage to four lots on Eighteenth street in Council Bluffs. Petitioner's cause of action which lies the track of the defendant. He claims the street is obstructed and the noise and chinders have greatly decreased the rental value of the property.

D. H. Huston against the city. He fell on an icy sidewalk last February and sustained a bad fracture of the arm, and claims that the city was negligent in not compelling the owner of the property on Washington avenue and First street to keep his sidewalk clean. He claims to have sustained a loss of $1,500, the rental is $480, and besides those sums he wants $5,000 damages for the season's doctors that hit his nose as he sauntered around in his front yard.

Mary L. Brownell against Julian M. Brownell. The plaintiff and defendant were married in Boonshoro in 1884 and lived together until January, 1891, when Mrs. Brownell claims her husband deserted her, after abusing her in a most cruel manner. She wants a divorce and the custody of her child, Roy.

Lake Manaway Railway company against the Underwriters Mutual fire insurance of Sioux City and the National fire and marine insurance of Council Bluffs. This is a suit on a policy of $1,000 on a locomotive which was burned at Manawa last July.

M. H. Tinley against the Union Pacific Railway company. Plaintiff demands a judgment for $100 for the death of a horse by the cars.

R. E. Flood against the Underwriters Mutual insurance company of Sioux City. The plaintiff's grocery store at 1024 Broadway was burned in 1892, and he wrote $300, the face of an insurance policy on the place. Omaha National bank against Kimball & Champ and others. The plaintiff asked the court to appoint a receiver for the Manhattan property, alleging that it was now in possession of no one and was going to waste. The receiver of the Kimball & Champ investment company was required to account to the receiver, who may be, for the money coming from this piece of property. W. M. Tollerand against P. M. Sharples and others. This suit is to replevin a cream separator valued at $300.

HE RATHERED THE RECEIVER. Lawrence Kinnehan Brought Before Judge Smith on the Charge of Contempt. A little trouble that took place yesterday between George E. MacMahon, receiver of the Kinnehan stock of boots and shoes, and Mr. Kinnehan, resulted in the arrest of the latter on the charge of contempt of court, but Mr. Kinnehan is not behind the bars, nor does he seem likely to be at present. E. C. Gleason resigned his position as receiver Thursday, and MacMahon was appointed in his place and instructed to make an invoice. He secured the assistance of C. C. Bennett in making the invoice, but the court insisted that the invoice be made by Kinnehan and told that he would not be allowed to make the invoice, as MacMahon had no right to engage him without consulting him.

A few minutes later MacMahon came in and was told the same thing. Kinnehan claimed that the Citizens State bank, which held the mortgage under which the stock had been seized, had been practically running the receiver in order to have the invoice put down to the lowest possible price. MacMahon on his side determined to oust Kinnehan and his family from the building, and demanded that all the keys they had in their possession be turned over to him. Kinnehan and his family live over the store and have to pass through the court house to get to their homes, and they accordingly refused to give up their keys, and quit the premises in the course of which considerable loud language was used on both sides. Finally MacMahon went to the court house and filed an information charging Kinnehan with contempt of court in interfering with the receiver, and Kinnehan was brought before Judge Smith for an examination. Both sides told their story, and Judge Smith heard them, and continued the case indefinitely after cautioning Kinnehan not to repeat the offense.

Found a Floater. The body of an unknown man was found in the Missouri river near the east shore about a mile and a half north of the water bridge. It had evidently been in the water a long time. Coroner Jennings was notified and after viewing the remains he sent Undertaker Estep out to get them. The only thing found in the dead man's possession was a pocketbook, the leather part of which had almost rotted away. It contained 40 cents. There were no papers or other marks of identification, and it was not likely that it will ever be known who the unfortunate man was. He was gray haired, about three shirts, one of gauze, another of gray woolen material and the third a white shirt.

Next Meeting Here. Chief Scarnan returned last evening from Des Moines, where he has been attending the first meeting of the Chiefs of Police and tonight every body calls it a success. Officials were present, a good thirty considering the fact that this was simply a meeting for the purpose of organizing. Mr. Scarnan is chief president of the association for the ensuing year. The next meeting will be held in this city, beginning December 18, 1894.

Last Day of Service Brings Out a Grist of New Petitions. Yesterday was the last day of service for suits to be begun in the April term of district court, and today will be the day on which petitions can be filed. Yesterday there were a large number of petitions placed on file, and the list will undoubtedly be greatly increased by night. Among those filed yesterday were the following: Francis Landis against the Union Bridge and Terminal Railway company. The plaintiff demands a judgment for $800 for damage to four lots on Eighteenth street in Council Bluffs. Petitioner's cause of action which lies the track of the defendant. He claims the street is obstructed and the noise and chinders have greatly decreased the rental value of the property.

D. H. Huston against the city. He fell on an icy sidewalk last February and sustained a bad fracture of the arm, and claims that the city was negligent in not compelling the owner of the property on Washington avenue and First street to keep his sidewalk clean. He claims to have sustained a loss of $1,500, the rental is $480, and besides those sums he wants $5,000 damages for the season's doctors that hit his nose as he sauntered around in his front yard.

Mary L. Brownell against Julian M. Brownell. The plaintiff and defendant were married in Boonshoro in 1884 and lived together until January, 1891, when Mrs. Brownell claims her husband deserted her, after abusing her in a most cruel manner. She wants a divorce and the custody of her child, Roy.

Lake Manaway Railway company against the Underwriters Mutual fire insurance of Sioux City and the National fire and marine insurance of Council Bluffs. This is a suit on a policy of $1,000 on a locomotive which was burned at Manawa last July.

M. H. Tinley against the Union Pacific Railway company. Plaintiff demands a judgment for $100 for the death of a horse by the cars.

R. E. Flood against the Underwriters Mutual insurance company of Sioux City. The plaintiff's grocery store at 1024 Broadway was burned in 1892, and he wrote $300, the face of an insurance policy on the place. Omaha National bank against Kimball & Champ and others. The plaintiff asked the court to appoint a receiver for the Manhattan property, alleging that it was now in possession of no one and was going to waste. The receiver of the Kimball & Champ investment company was required to account to the receiver, who may be, for the money coming from this piece of property. W. M. Tollerand against P. M. Sharples and others. This suit is to replevin a cream separator valued at $300.

HE RATHERED THE RECEIVER. Lawrence Kinnehan Brought Before Judge Smith on the Charge of Contempt. A little trouble that took place yesterday between George E. MacMahon, receiver of the Kinnehan stock of boots and shoes, and Mr. Kinnehan, resulted in the arrest of the latter on the charge of contempt of court, but Mr. Kinnehan is not behind the bars, nor does he seem likely to be at present. E. C. Gleason resigned his position as receiver Thursday, and MacMahon was appointed in his place and instructed to make an invoice. He secured the assistance of C. C. Bennett in making the invoice, but the court insisted that the invoice be made by Kinnehan and told that he would not be allowed to make the invoice, as MacMahon had no right to engage him without consulting him.

A few minutes later MacMahon came in and was told the same thing. Kinnehan claimed that the Citizens State bank, which held the mortgage under which the stock had been seized, had been practically running the receiver in order to have the invoice put down to the lowest possible price. MacMahon on his side determined to oust Kinnehan and his family from the building, and demanded that all the keys they had in their possession be turned over to him. Kinnehan and his family live over the store and have to pass through the court house to get to their homes, and they accordingly refused to give up their keys, and quit the premises in the course of which considerable loud language was used on both sides. Finally MacMahon went to the court house and filed an information charging Kinnehan with contempt of court in interfering with the receiver, and Kinnehan was brought before Judge Smith for an examination. Both sides told their story, and Judge Smith heard them, and continued the case indefinitely after cautioning Kinnehan not to repeat the offense.

Found a Floater. The body of an unknown man was found in the Missouri river near the east shore about a mile and a half north of the water bridge. It had evidently been in the water a long time. Coroner Jennings was notified and after viewing the remains he sent Undertaker Estep out to get them. The only thing found in the dead man's possession was a pocketbook, the leather part of which had almost rotted away. It contained 40 cents. There were no papers or other marks of identification, and it was not likely that it will ever be known who the unfortunate man was. He was gray haired, about three shirts, one of gauze, another of gray woolen material and the third a white shirt.

Next Meeting Here. Chief Scarnan returned last evening from Des Moines, where he has been attending the first meeting of the Chiefs of Police and tonight every body calls it a success. Officials were present, a good thirty considering the fact that this was simply a meeting for the purpose of organizing. Mr. Scarnan is chief president of the association for the ensuing year. The next meeting will be held in this city, beginning December 18, 1894.

Last Day of Service Brings Out a Grist of New Petitions. Yesterday was the last day of service for suits to be begun in the April term of district court, and today will be the day on which petitions can be filed. Yesterday there were a large number of petitions placed on file, and the list will undoubtedly be greatly increased by night. Among those filed yesterday were the following: Francis Landis against the Union Bridge and Terminal Railway company. The plaintiff demands a judgment for $800 for damage to four lots on Eighteenth street in Council Bluffs. Petitioner's cause of action which lies the track of the defendant. He claims the street is obstructed and the noise and chinders have greatly decreased the rental value of the property.

D. H. Huston against the city. He fell on an icy sidewalk last February and sustained a bad fracture of the arm, and claims that the city was negligent in not compelling the owner of the property on Washington avenue and First street to keep his sidewalk clean. He claims to have sustained a loss of $1,500, the rental is $480, and besides those sums he wants $5,000 damages for the season's doctors that hit his nose as he sauntered around in his front yard.

Mary L. Brownell against Julian M. Brownell. The plaintiff and defendant were married in Boonshoro in 1884 and lived together until January, 1891, when Mrs. Brownell claims her husband deserted her, after abusing her in a most cruel manner. She wants a divorce and the custody of her child, Roy.

Lake Manaway Railway company against the Underwriters Mutual fire insurance of Sioux City and the National fire and marine insurance of Council Bluffs. This is a suit on a policy of $1,000 on a locomotive which was burned at Manawa last July.

M. H. Tinley against the Union Pacific Railway company. Plaintiff demands a judgment for $100 for the death of a horse by the cars.

R. E. Flood against the Underwriters Mutual insurance company of Sioux City. The plaintiff's grocery store at 1024 Broadway was burned in 1892, and he wrote $300, the face of an insurance policy on the place. Omaha National bank against Kimball & Champ and others. The plaintiff asked the court to appoint a receiver for the Manhattan property, alleging that it was now in possession of no one and was going to waste. The receiver of the Kimball & Champ investment company was required to account to the receiver, who may be, for the money coming from this piece of property. W. M. Tollerand against P. M. Sharples and others. This suit is to replevin a cream separator valued at $300.

HE RATHERED THE RECEIVER. Lawrence Kinnehan Brought Before Judge Smith on the Charge of Contempt. A little trouble that took place yesterday between George E. MacMahon, receiver of the Kinnehan stock of boots and shoes, and Mr. Kinnehan, resulted in the arrest of the latter on the charge of contempt of court, but Mr. Kinnehan is not behind the bars, nor does he seem likely to be at present. E. C. Gleason resigned his position as receiver Thursday, and MacMahon was appointed in his place and instructed to make an invoice. He secured the assistance of C. C. Bennett in making the invoice, but the court insisted that the invoice be made by Kinnehan and told that he would not be allowed to make the invoice, as MacMahon had no right to engage him without consulting him.

A few minutes later MacMahon came in and was told the same thing. Kinnehan claimed that the Citizens State bank, which held the mortgage under which the stock had been seized, had been practically running the receiver in order to have the invoice put down to the lowest possible price. MacMahon on his side determined to oust Kinnehan and his family from the building, and demanded that all the keys they had in their possession be turned over to him. Kinnehan and his family live over the store and have to pass through the court house to get to their homes, and they accordingly refused to give up their keys, and quit the premises in the course of which considerable loud language was used on both sides. Finally MacMahon went to the court house and filed an information charging Kinnehan with contempt of court in interfering with the receiver, and Kinnehan was brought before Judge Smith for an examination. Both sides told their story, and Judge Smith heard them, and continued the case indefinitely after cautioning Kinnehan not to repeat the offense.

Found a Floater. The body of an unknown man was found in the Missouri river near the east shore about a mile and a half north of the water bridge. It had evidently been in the water a long time. Coroner Jennings was notified and after viewing the remains he sent Undertaker Estep out to get them. The only thing found in the dead man's possession was a pocketbook, the leather part of which had almost rotted away. It contained 40 cents. There were no papers or other marks of identification, and it was not likely that it will ever be known who the unfortunate man was. He was gray haired, about three shirts, one of gauze, another of gray woolen material and the third a white shirt.

Next Meeting Here. Chief Scarnan returned last evening from Des Moines, where he has been attending the first meeting of the Chiefs of Police and tonight every body calls it a success. Officials were present, a good thirty considering the fact that this was simply a meeting for the purpose of organizing. Mr. Scarnan is chief president of the association for the ensuing year. The next meeting will be held in this city, beginning December 18, 1894.

Last Day of Service Brings Out a Grist of New Petitions. Yesterday was the last day of service for suits to be begun in the April term of district court, and today will be the day on which petitions can be filed. Yesterday there were a large number of petitions placed on file, and the list will undoubtedly be greatly increased by night. Among those filed yesterday were the following: Francis Landis against the Union Bridge and Terminal Railway company. The plaintiff demands a judgment for $800 for damage to four lots on Eighteenth street in Council Bluffs. Petitioner's cause of action which lies the track of the defendant. He claims the street is obstructed and the noise and chinders have greatly decreased the rental value of the property.

D. H. Huston against the city. He fell on an icy sidewalk last February and sustained a bad fracture of the arm, and claims that the city was negligent in not compelling the owner of the property on Washington avenue and First street to keep his sidewalk clean. He claims to have sustained a loss of $1,500, the rental is $480, and besides those sums he wants $5,000 damages for the season's doctors that hit his nose as he sauntered around in his front yard.

Mary L. Brownell against Julian M. Brownell. The plaintiff and defendant were married in Boonshoro in 1884 and lived together until January, 1891, when Mrs. Brownell claims her husband deserted her, after abusing her in a most cruel manner. She wants a divorce and the custody of her child, Roy.

Lake Manaway Railway company against the Underwriters Mutual fire insurance of Sioux City and the National fire and marine insurance of Council Bluffs. This is a suit on a policy of $1,000 on a locomotive which was burned at Manawa last July.

M. H. Tinley against the Union Pacific Railway company. Plaintiff demands a judgment for $100 for the death of a horse