CHICAGO, March 36.-The cattle market was CHICAGO, March 30.—The cattle market was firm. There was a supply of barely 7,000 head, and with fairly free buying both for local and shipping account sellers did not have long to wait for buyers. Trading began in good season and was active while the supply lasted. Perhaps an exception should be made in the case of old "canning truck." That class was dull and lower. There were a few bunches of good to choice steers that brought from $2.75 to $4.25. Up to the average quality of the receipts was very ordinary, and prices below $3.70 took the bulk.
 Trading in hors today opened slow at 5c off from Thursday's prices. It was hard work to get more than \$4.50 for the prime offerings, and the bulk of the early trading was at from \$4.70 to \$4.85. A little later in the afterboon the demand improved and the market worked firmer, finally closing strong. There were a few late sales at from \$4.85 to \$4.57. From these figures there was trading all along down to from \$4.45 to \$4.50 for poor stuff and from \$2.50 to \$4.55. for culls. The fresh receipts were estimated at 25.00 head, and there were sine hous enough to swell the supply to 30.060. The receipts for the first first for the same time last week and 61.000 more than a year ago. The receipts for the inst fur for the same time last week and 61.000 more than a stranger to. Although the receipts for the last three months, there did not appear to be enough. At all events prices ontinued to advance, showing a gain since last Friday of from \$2.50 to \$4.51 to \$4.51 to \$4.50 to \$4.51 to \$4.50 to \$4.51 to \$4.50 to \$4.51 to \$4.51 to \$4.51 to \$4.50 to \$4.51 to \$4.51 to \$4.50 to \$4.51 to \$4.51 to \$4.50 to \$4.51 to \$4.50 to firm. accent on the second syllable-concur. You see this is a very good way to over-come her desire for a secretary book cabinet. She has long wanted one, and this month sees such a wholesale reduction in prices that she is at last convinced and determined. Why not gratify her by placing the accent on the second sylable? Here is one of the most popular mark-down patterns. It has the square inclosed cabinet top, with spindle sides and full-bowed front. The back is doubled-mir-rored. The top is inclosed by a brass gal-lery. Inside the curved glass door there  $\begin{array}{cccc} {\rm Cattle} & {\rm Hogs} & {\rm Sheep}, \\ {\rm 3.360} & 7,507 & 2.042 \\ {\rm 7.000} & 26,000 & 7,000 \\ {\rm 3.500} & 12,000 & 1,800 \\ {\rm 1.400} & 5.200 & 300 \end{array}$
