SAMOA AGAIN IN A FERMMENT

Reports Brought from the Islands Are Not Very Encouraging.

SEVERE FIGHTING AMONG THE NATIVES. Arbitrary Action of Chief Justice Ide Provokes a Serious Rebellion—Foreigners in the Islands Much Alarmed—Malletton's Loyalty and Cruelty.

(Copyrighted 1894 by the Associated Press.) AUCKLAND, N. Z., March 30.—The steamship Alameda from Samoa islands brings news of a most serious outbreak there which would seem to indicate that the United States, Great Britain and Germany will be called upon to take prompt action.

According to the reports brought here by the Alameda, the outbreak was caused by the action of Henry Ide, the American chief justice, who succeeded Chief Justice Ceder-cranz on September 6, 1892. Chief Justice Ide is charged with having thrown into jail the chiefs of the rival factions in Samoa and with compelling them to work on the roads like convicts of the lowest order.

The natives protested strongly against the kinds of threats, but the chief justice appears to have disregarded the menacing attitude assumed by the Samoans and eventually the latter broke out into armed rebellion.

The followers of the native chiefs disputed the right of the Europeans to interfere in what they classed as purely native affairs, while making no actual opposition to the state of affairs by which the United States, Great Britain and Germany, through Chief Justice Ide, practically maintained a protectorate over Samoa.

Eventually, however, the situation assumed such a serious aspect that the chief justice was compelled to take steps to disarm the natives and the latter made preparations to resist this so-called interference with their rights.

The fighting began by the rebels killing a man in the employ of the government, who was caught near their camp.

The reigning sovereign, King Malletton, seems to have remained thoroughly loyal to the chief justice. For, upon being called upon to do so, he promptly sent a strong force of his Samoan warriors to attack the rebels. Several sharp encounters between King Malletton's warriors and the rebels followed. During the engagement thirty men were killed and about fifty wounded.

Throughout the fighting, up to the time the steamship Alameda left Samoa, the advantage was mostly on the government's side. The rebels being driven from their camp and forced to retreat into the interior of the island, where it was difficult to pursue them.

WAITING FOR A WARSHIP

AMERICANS AT BLUEFIELDS ALARMED. Residents All Armed and Ready as Soon as a Shot is Fired to Kill Off Every Nicaraguan in the Territory at a Moment's Notice.

(Copyrighted 1894 by the Associated Press.) COLON, March 30.—It is reported here that Nicaragua threatens to make a second seizure of the Mosquito reservation.

An American citizen is said to have been shot by order of Acting Governor Rama.

The British war ship Canada is waiting for a reasonable time at Bluefields in anticipation of the arrival of the United States flagship San Francisco with Admiral Benham on board.

The situation of affairs at Bluefields is said to be most critical.

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—Two vessels have arrived here from Bluefields, Nicaragua. United States Consul Seal and Mr. West from the latest advices will leave for Washington today.

Mr. John McCafferty, a wealthy planter of Bluefields, in a letter to the Program after describing the occurrences in Bluefields during the temporary occupation by the British marines, says: "No sooner had the British marines been withdrawn and the vessel steamed away than the very unreliable and incapable Lacayo brought thirty soldiers and several boxes of arms and ammunition from the dukedom of Newcastle, in violation of an agreement entered into by and between Lacayo and the British consul in the presence of Hon. S. C. Braida, United States consul, that Nicaraguan soldiers will neither be brought to Bluefields, nor would Nicaraguans be put on the police force during the absence of the British war ship. The presence of these Nicaraguans on the river steamer created great excitement. In less than ten minutes fully 10,000 citizens, Americans and Creoles, were armed with revolvers. It was a trying moment. Owing, however, to the timely action of the United States consul, Lacayo was again brought to terms, binding himself this time to confine these intruders to his residence quarters. If one shot had been fired there would have been a Nicaraguan left alive in Bluefields inside of thirty minutes thereafter, including Lacayo, who, beyond doubt, deserves the name of a traitor. Negotiations have been perpetuated against the inhabitants of Bluefields and the Mosquito reservation.

A general meeting of the citizens was then convened, when the action of the Americans was endorsed, which was that no assistance should be rendered to Lacayo and that the Americans would remain neutral pending the arrival of a United States war ship, unless it should become necessary to defend their homes and property, when, even then, they would be directed by the United States consul.

"I must add that owing to the perfidiousness of Lacayo and the hypocritical antagonism of the British consul, Hon. S. C. Braida, has been subjected to a most trying ordeal, and more especially as he has received no instructions from either the United States Minister Baker or the department at Washington. However, as Captain Zell, United States vice-consul,

CRUSHED BY TONS OF STEEL

Singular and Terrible Result of an Attempt to Make Needed Repairs.

COLLAPSE OF THE STANDPIPE AT PEORIA. Water Pressure Bursts a Section Aunder and Workmen and School Children Are Hurled Through Space and Several of Them Killed.

PEORIA, March 30.—Boulard street on the west bluff was the scene of a horrible accident today. One of the immense standpipes of the Peoria Water company collapsed with a deafening crash, heard in all portions of the city. The pipe has been leaning for a number of days, and today five men were set to work to repair it.

Without a sign of warning the bottom section burst and the steel structure immediately collapsed.

There were a number of school children playing close by, and many of them, with some of the workmen, were hurled a considerable distance by the force of the water.

Frank Hogan, aged 14, was instantly killed, and several companions sustained injuries which may result fatally.

Three of the water company people were badly hurt, while two others were missed and presumed to be under the wreck.

Two houses were completely wrecked by the force of the water, while a half-dozen others were blown from their foundations and badly damaged. Burns and other small buildings were smashed.

The best obtainable list of casualties footed up five dead and a dozen injured. The accident caused the wildest excitement throughout the city and the place was soon thronged with sightseers. The rescue is being carried on by the police and the ambulance crews and the fire department.

Among the injured are: Warren Anderson, shoulder broken. Frank Caldwell, leg broken in four places and will have to be amputated. Charles Littlefield, internal injuries which may prove fatal. Rollo King, head badly cut. Charles Needham, internal injuries. Bertha Norman, head cut and badly bruised. John Kennedy, internal injuries. Three employees of the Peoria Water company, names cannot be learned, seriously injured.

HEIR TO A BRITISH DUKEDOM'S REPORTED MARRIAGE CONFIDED.

LONDON, March 30.—The Peerage list issued announces that Lord Francis Hope has been married to May Yoh, the American burlesque actress. This appears to settle the question which for months has been discussed in various circles.

Miss Yoh told a friend nearly a year ago that she was married to Lord Francis, but when the report was published it was promptly denied by Lord Francis and his family.

Lord Henry Francis Hope Pelham-Clinton Hope was born February 3, 1866. He is the brother of the duke of Newcastle, who was married in 1889 to Kathleen Florence May, daughter of Major Augustus Henry Candy, and consequently May Yoh's husband. Lacayo was again brought to terms, binding himself this time to confine these intruders to his residence quarters. If
