

EDITOR ROSEWATER IN COURT

Brought Up Before Judge Scott on a Charge of Contempt.

ASKS THAT HE BE TRIED BY ANOTHER JUDGE

Motion for a Change of Venue on Account of the Court's Prejudice Overruled by the Court—Sparring for Points—Other Court Matters.

To secure anything but standing room in the criminal division of the district court yesterday morning was one of the impossible things.

The court—No, no, I will hear you after awhile. Mr. Rosewater—These interrogatories would simply be to the point, to ascertain whether or not I have had any connection with the publication.

The court—What are you talking about now? Mr. Rosewater—I am talking of asking the court to do just what is usual in such cases, to note an exception, if your honor please.

The court—Oh, of course. To what? Mr. Rosewater—To this ruling. DELICACY NOT CONSIDERED.

The court—You are certainly. When I get into an opportunity to put it down I will note your exception. It is said here, by the defendant, that it is a common thing to transfer a cause to another court.

The court—Just hold a minute. This is the court room. Just a moment. What have you to say why you should not be punished for contempt? Now I will hear you.

Mr. Rosewater—I have a motion to offer here first, that this cause be transferred for trial before one or more of the other judges of this court on account of the hostility of Judge C. R. Scott, as is fully set forth in the following affidavit.

MOTION FOR CHANGE OF VENUE. "Mr. Rosewater, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the defendant herein. Affiant further says that he is well acquainted with Judge C. R. Scott, and has known him for some years.

Mr. Rosewater—Now, your honor, I renew the motion that interrogatories be submitted in writing, either by the court or by some attorney designated for that purpose, to ascertain what relation or knowledge I have had with regard to the article contained in the newspaper which you refer to.

The court—Has your answer been filed in this case? Mr. Rosewater—There has been; but I had intended to read it to you.

Mr. Rosewater—Well, I am through. The court—Well, you are not. I will give you ample time, sir. (Laughter.) I shall have to take a little time to examine this plea and answer.

Mr. Rosewater—Certainly, sir. At what hour would you like to see me? The court—Half past nine.

Minor Court Matters. In the case of the state against Anton Berneka a motion for a new trial was made and taken under advisement.

John Congdon has sued the city in an action to recover the sum of $2,408. He alleges that the amount is due on account of overhaul in the grating of Woolworth avenue, from Second to Third street.

In the case of the state against Bill Snicker, charged with having shot with intent to kill, the jury returned a verdict finding the defendant guilty of assault.

Peculiar to Itself. So eminently successful has Hood's Sarsaparilla been that many leading citizens from all over the United States furnish testimonials of its value.

Hood's Pills cure nausea sick headache, indigestion, biliousness. Sold by all druggists.

Hayden Bros. See what we are doing in the way of bargain giving. All about it on 5th page.

SMALLPOX PATIENT. Doing Very Well—Steps Taken to Prevent a Spread of the Contagion.

SEVENTEEN NEW DOCTORS

Went Forth from Omaha Medical College Yesterday with Diplomas.

CLOSING EXERCISES LARGELY ATTENDED

In His Address to the Class Chancellor Kerr Tells What the Institution Means for Omaha—Remarks by Members of the Faculty.

At the thirteenth annual commencement of the Omaha Medical college, which was held at the Boyd theater yesterday afternoon, a class of seventeen young men took formal leave of their alma mater and went out to begin their professional life.

The members of the graduating class are: Andrew G. Sandblat, William C. Kenner, Frank W. Johnson, Niss P. Lauritzen, William A. Hostetter, James Bisgard, Fred E. McKeely, Frederick E. Beal, David Williams, John L. Brown, Joseph M. Curtis, George Mogridge, James A. Johnson, Henry A. Stander, F. Martin Mueller, William L. Thiemann and Robert D. Armstrong.

The right of the stage was occupied by the members of the faculty, who were seated behind a table loaded with flowers and an easel containing a composite photograph of the class.

Another selection from the orchestra preceded the remarks of Dr. J. C. Denise, who, as dean of the faculty, briefly called attention to the significance of the occasion.

He said that the Omaha Medical college had been organized in the fall of 1880, and that it was a source of pride to him that he had been one of the incorporators and had ever since been intimately connected with its history.

At the time of its inception some had maintained that the venture was premature, but the results have justified the effort. The graduates of the institution were scattered all over the western states and many of them had come to occupy the highest positions in their respective professions.

Continuing, the speaker deplored the lack of interest manifested by the public in an enterprise so much important to humanity. Many people do not even know that there is a medical college in Omaha.

His attention was focused to be called away from that which was being said in their reckless pursuit of the almighty dollar. Notwithstanding this the institution had made marked progress during its thirteen years of existence.

The degrees were conferred by Dr. W. S. Gilie, president of the board of trustees of the college. In addressing the graduates he complimented them on the diligence and perseverance which had characterized their three years of study.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

Went Forth from Omaha Medical College

Yesterday with Diplomas.

CLOSING EXERCISES LARGELY ATTENDED

In His Address to the Class Chancellor Kerr Tells What the Institution Means for Omaha—Remarks by Members of the Faculty.

At the thirteenth annual commencement of the Omaha Medical college, which was held at the Boyd theater yesterday afternoon, a class of seventeen young men took formal leave of their alma mater and went out to begin their professional life.

The members of the graduating class are: Andrew G. Sandblat, William C. Kenner, Frank W. Johnson, Niss P. Lauritzen, William A. Hostetter, James Bisgard, Fred E. McKeely, Frederick E. Beal, David Williams, John L. Brown, Joseph M. Curtis, George Mogridge, James A. Johnson, Henry A. Stander, F. Martin Mueller, William L. Thiemann and Robert D. Armstrong.

The right of the stage was occupied by the members of the faculty, who were seated behind a table loaded with flowers and an easel containing a composite photograph of the class.

Another selection from the orchestra preceded the remarks of Dr. J. C. Denise, who, as dean of the faculty, briefly called attention to the significance of the occasion.

He said that the Omaha Medical college had been organized in the fall of 1880, and that it was a source of pride to him that he had been one of the incorporators and had ever since been intimately connected with its history.

At the time of its inception some had maintained that the venture was premature, but the results have justified the effort. The graduates of the institution were scattered all over the western states and many of them had come to occupy the highest positions in their respective professions.

Continuing, the speaker deplored the lack of interest manifested by the public in an enterprise so much important to humanity. Many people do not even know that there is a medical college in Omaha.

His attention was focused to be called away from that which was being said in their reckless pursuit of the almighty dollar. Notwithstanding this the institution had made marked progress during its thirteen years of existence.

The degrees were conferred by Dr. W. S. Gilie, president of the board of trustees of the college. In addressing the graduates he complimented them on the diligence and perseverance which had characterized their three years of study.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

He said that the graduates were to be congratulated on the fact that they were to be equipped with a diploma which was the result of a course of study which was as rigorous as that of any other medical school in the country.

member of the class started out with one or two motives. One was to acquire gain and the other was to benefit humanity.

He urged them to cultivate the latter, which was the highest aim that could inspire their efforts.

After the chancellor's address the class prizes were awarded. Mr. Frederick E. Beal was the recipient of the first prize, while the second went to W. L. Curtis. Those given honorable mention were James Bisgard, F. Martin Mueller, George Mogridge, Andrew G. Sandblat and Joseph M. Curtis.

Croup and Whooping Cough. "I have three children who are subject to croup, and have found that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure them quicker than anything else I can get.

At W. A. Fleming's, 14th and Douglas, and Courtney & Co.'s, 25th and Davenport streets this week, beautiful, nutritious, and easy to digest, and free from all adulterations.

California Rates Will Be Restored. On April 15. Better go before it's too late. Present rates via the Burlington Route are $20.00 one way, $35.50 round trip.

Going East Today? Your choice of four daily trains on the Chicago & Northwestern railway. Two of these trains, at 4:05 p. m. and 6:30 p. m., are vestibule and limited, arriving in Chicago early next morning.

EXAGGERATED REPORTS. Loss of Live Stock in Wyoming Has Not Been Great. Mr. Charles R. Wooley returned yesterday from a two weeks' trip through northern and eastern Wyoming.

"I was at Sheridan," said Mr. Wooley. "Just after the snow storm which had lasted for seventy hours. It was the heaviest fall of snow that Wyoming has known for fifty years, but it was not very deep.

Reports have been published to the effect that dead cattle were piled up all along the Powder river. There is no truth in that report. I was in that region and saw no dead cattle, although I saw many herds grazing.

How a Chicago Man Was Cured of Rheumatism. Mr. John Hall of 9255 Commercial avenue, Chicago, has been cured of his rheumatism by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

Somebody Has Lied. The prosecution in the case against Will S. Adams, a young man arrested on the charge of attempting to rob a woman in the district, Adams was with Charles Ray when Ray chloroformed a cyprin and attempted to rob her.

When Barrie was scratching his name on one his earliest completed works, his wife exclaimed impatiently: "Oh, put your name larger."

Do not need to use large type to sell this Library Table. At our price it will not be long before the most powerful microscopes will fail to detect one in our store as our supply is limited.

CHAS. SHIVERICK & CO., Temporary Location, 1206-1208 DOUGLAS ST., NEXT TO MILLARD HOTEL.

THE ALOE & PENFOLD CO. 1408 Farnam Street. Retail Druggists and purveyors of Medical Supplies.

Bought by the Bridge Company. The Omaha Bridge and Terminal company took charge of twelve miles of track in East Omaha yesterday.

Sweet breath, sweet stomach, sweet temper? Then use DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

See what we are doing in the way of bargain giving. All about it on 5th page.

California Rates Will Be Restored. On April 15. Better go before it's too late. Present rates via the Burlington Route are $20.00 one way, $35.50 round trip.

THE ALOE & PENFOLD CO. 1408 Farnam St. Opposite Paxton Bldg. NEBRASKA NATIONAL BANK.

U. S. Depository, Omaha, Nebraska. CAPITAL - - - $400,000 SURPLUS - - - $55,500

Well Proved by Time.

Time alone can furnish a true test of the substantial success of any popular movement.

Great financial undertakings are sometimes brilliant at the beginning, and for a short time go on in a sort of pyrotechnical way, which soon dies out.

An example in point is standard life insurance. Half a century ago the first companies were established in this country.

William D. Beckett and Guy R. C. Reed, lawyers, have formed a partnership as Reed & Beckett, and taken offices in the Bee building.

Hayden Bros. See what we are doing in the way of bargain giving. All about it on 5th page.

Dr. Miller in Office. Dr. G. L. Miller, the newly appointed surveyor of customs, took possession of the office yesterday and installed a new office force.

Of all the spring's beloved, O, fair and fickle spring, Not one except Arbutus, Can trust what she will bring.

What Think You of this chilly weather? Of course we should also rejoice over pleasant and warm days—for the sake of seeing flowers bloom, birds sing and nature invigorate, and the sun to coax you to buy your spring suit.

Your purse needs but precious little coaxing when you enter the Nebraska. You who are familiar with our doings, know that it is our constant aim to please the masses, and extraordinary inducements are always ready for popular trade.

This season we climbed a step higher, to the steeple of popularity, by preparing a feast of values. It'll surprise even Bill Jones, who remembers the panic of '58.

We begin with a paltry $4 for a suit that is a good value in the average store at $7, and this way we compare up to the honest, reliable $15 suit which the Nebraska never dreams of charging you a cent above a $10 bill.

Above all, we consider ourselves unapproachable on our particular value of Seven fifty Suits. Here they are: as desirable for dress as serviceable for rough wear; a dozen patterns of the latest spring designs—homespuns, chevot, silk mixed cassimere, Scotch tweed, single-breasted sack, double-breasted, one or four button, soft roll.

You'll favor us to compare one of 'em, if you please, to the best you ever bought at between 12 and 15 dollars.

Nebraska Clothing Co. Spring Catalogues still to be had on application.

CHOCOLAT MENIER. A Common Error CHOCOLATE AND COCOA is by many supposed to be one and the same only that one is a powder (hence more easily cooked) and the other is not.

This is Wrong. TAKE THE Yolk from the egg. TAKE THE OIL from the Olive. What is left?

A Residue So with COCOA. in comparison COCOA is Skimmed Milk. CHOCOLATE, Pure Cream.

Drink Chocolate Menier. Your grocer is bound to get it for you

Did you see me at the Fair? Weak-Man CURE YOURSELF IN FIFTEEN DAYS. I will send FREE to any man the prescription of a new and powerful medicine for weak organs, and sure cure for all weaknesses in young or old men.

THE ALOE & PENFOLD CO. 1408 Farnam St. Opposite Paxton Bldg. NEBRASKA NATIONAL BANK.

U. S. Depository, Omaha, Nebraska. CAPITAL - - - $400,000 SURPLUS - - - $55,500

THE THIRD PARTY

We may live without politics, parties, and polls; We may live without taxes, and live without tolls; We may live without voting, when radicals cope, But civilized man cannot live without Soap.

Next to the foolishness of trying to live without Soap, is the great unwisdom of living without which is acknowledged to be far better than any other kind.

SANTA CLAUS SOAP

Sold everywhere by enterprising grocers.

Made only by N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., Chicago.

Of all the spring's beloved, O, fair and fickle spring, Not one except Arbutus, Can trust what she will bring.

What Think You of this chilly weather? Of course we should also rejoice over pleasant and warm days—for the sake of seeing flowers bloom, birds sing and nature invigorate, and the sun to coax you to buy your spring suit.

Your purse needs but precious little coaxing when you enter the Nebraska. You who are familiar with our doings, know that it is our constant aim to please the masses, and extraordinary inducements are always ready for popular trade.

This season we climbed a step higher, to the steeple of popularity, by preparing a feast of values. It'll surprise even Bill Jones, who remembers the panic of '58.

We begin with a paltry $4 for a suit that is a good value in the average store at $7, and this way we compare up to the honest, reliable $15 suit which the Nebraska never dreams of charging you a cent above a $10 bill.

Above all, we consider ourselves unapproachable on our particular value of Seven fifty Suits. Here they are: as desirable for dress as serviceable for rough wear; a dozen patterns of the latest spring designs—homespuns, chevot, silk mixed cassimere, Scotch tweed, single-breasted sack, double-breasted, one or four button, soft roll.

You'll favor us to compare one of 'em, if you please, to the best you ever bought at between 12 and 15 dollars.

Nebraska Clothing Co. Spring Catalogues still to be had on application.

CHOCOLAT MENIER. A Common Error CHOCOLATE AND COCOA is by many supposed to be one and the same only that one is a powder (hence more easily cooked) and the other is not.

This is Wrong. TAKE THE Yolk from the egg. TAKE THE OIL from the Olive. What is left?

A Residue So with COCOA. in comparison COCOA is Skimmed Milk. CHOCOLATE, Pure Cream.

Drink Chocolate Menier. Your grocer is bound to get it for you

Did you see me at the Fair? Weak-Man CURE YOURSELF IN FIFTEEN DAYS. I will send FREE to any man the prescription of a new and powerful medicine for weak organs, and sure cure for all weaknesses in young or old men.

THE ALOE & PENFOLD CO. 1408 Farnam St. Opposite Paxton Bldg. NEBRASKA NATIONAL BANK.

U. S. Depository, Omaha, Nebraska. CAPITAL - - - $400,000 SURPLUS - - - $55,500

U. S. Depository, Omaha, Nebraska. CAPITAL - - - $400,000 SURPLUS - - - $55,500

U. S. Depository, Omaha, Nebraska. CAPITAL - - - $400,000 SURPLUS - - - $55,500

U. S. Depository, Omaha, Nebraska. CAPITAL - - - $400,000 SURPLUS - - - $55,500

Advertisement for Baking Powder, featuring the text 'Awarded Highest Honors World's Fair' and 'The only Pure Cream of Tartar Powder—No Ammonia; No Alum. Used in Millions of Homes—40 Years the Standard'.

Advertisement for Mercantile Cigarettes, featuring the text 'THE MERCANTILE IS THE FAVORITE TEN CENT CIGAR' and 'For sale by all First Class Dealers. Manufactured by the F. R. RICE MERCANTILE CIGAR CO., Factory No. 304, St. Louis, Mo.'