Ministers Making an Effort to Revive the Chautauqua Assembly. WILL COMBINE WITH THE GRAND ARMY... Old Amphitheater May Be Moved Near to the City or a New One Erected on a More Desirable Site.

Ministers who are engaged in laying plans for a revival of the Chautauqua assembly are making an effort to secure the co-operation of the Grand Army. The state encampment is to be held in this city next June, and there is no room in the city large enough to contain one-half of the crowd that will be in attendance on the meetings.

HIS FALL WAS FATAL. Herbert Fitzhugh Field died from the Effects of an Accident.

Herbert Fitzhugh Field died at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning as the result of an accident, which was mentioned in yesterday's issue of the Bee. The internal injuries, which it was feared he had suffered, made themselves manifest about the middle of the night, and in spite of all the efforts that were made to save him, he passed away, surrounded by the members of his family.

Pierce Will Lead Them All. It is not news to say that S. A. Pierce & Co. have led all competitors in the price and quality of shoes for years.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The following changes in the stations and duties of officers of the quartermaster department are ordered: Captain George Ruhlen, assistant quartermaster, is relieved from duty at El Paso, Tex., in the construction of new Fort Bliss, Tex., and will be transferred to Fort Mifflin, Pa., and will assume charge, under the direction of the quartermaster general, of that construction department.

Greater Crowd Than Ever. All day yesterday our store was crowded with customers. Some came a distance of fifty miles from Council Bluffs to attend this great sale. We pay railroad fares both ways with every purchase of $25 or over. Get a receipt for your railroad tickets; they will pay you to come 100 miles to buy. The Seagrave bankrupt stock was very large, but it's going away fast. Don't miss it. Some still greater bargains than ever today.

Organizing a Musical Club. Steps are being taken to organize a club consisting of the musical people of the city. Some of the young ladies are working up a plan, and there is a prospect that the club will be started very shortly.

Nothing to Report. The Board of Supervisors at their meeting yesterday decided to grant the Hays petition for a new road north of the city. The new road will have the Mynderse Springs road and the springs and wind in a northerly direction until it joins the 'line road' road about a mile away. This, it is said, will open up a very picturesque section of country and prove a great benefit to the people living in the vicinity.
