Old Schedules Will Remain in Force. Employes Share the Burden of Diminished Business Anyway—Full Text of the Court's Decision and Orders.

Labor won a notable victory in the circuit court of the United States yesterday, and the opinion which Judge Henry C. Caldwell pronounced cannot fail to be far-reaching in its effect.

Interest in the wage question wherein the Union Pacific receivers and the road's employes have been opposing parties, reached its height yesterday when Judge Caldwell and Riner assumed their places on the bench in the large court room in the federal building.

As the opinion proceeded the faces of the Union Pacific officials lengthened, while those of the employes grew rosier as they saw the drift of the decision and began to realize what a remarkable victory was in store for them.

When Judge Caldwell left the bench the leading men of both interests shook hands with the fearless jurist.

General Manager Dickinson nodded his approval, at the same time smiling over the anxiety Gantt displayed in having his expenses paid by the receivers of the Union Pacific.

As to the far-reaching character of the opinion the utterance of Attorney George L. Hodges, who represented the receivers, is most timely: "It is the greatest judgment in vindication of the rights of men pronounced by any court since the historic judgment of Lord Mansfield in the Somerset case."

WHAT THE DECISION MEANS.

Freely from its legal verbiage, the opinion continues in force the present rules and regulations governing the road men, except where the different organizations voluntarily agreed to modify the "overriding" features of the present schedules.

How different is the termination of this case with the scenes enacted in this city in the early '80s. At that time a difficulty between the men and the Union Pacific company was the occasion of trying up the business of the road in this city and for several hours not a wheel was turned.

Senators Talk on the Matter of Its Extermination in the Northwest.

AMOUNT OF THE APPROPRIATION ASKED

Two Southern Senators Clash on Constitutional Grounds—Kyle and Other Opponents Favor the Bill—Work Performed in the House.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—In the senate today Mr. Hill of New York gave notice that at 2 o'clock next Monday he would submit a few remarks on the pending tariff bill.

Some amusement was created by the introduction of the following resolution by Mr. George of Mississippi:

Resolved, That in view of the recent drought which has afflicted the people, the low price of agricultural and other products, the indigence of the people and the great value of money, the committee on judiciary be directed to prepare a bill to reduce by 20 per cent all official incomes not protected by the statutes of the United States.

The resolution was referred, in accordance with its terms, while some of the senators indulged in good-natured badinage at the expense of Mr. George, Senator Gray remarking, sotto voce, that it was worse than an income tax.

At the request of Senator Hansbrough of North Dakota the senate took up the bill appropriating $1,000,000 for the destruction of the Russian thistle in Texas.

Mr. Kyle of South Dakota proposed an amendment providing the sum appropriated be divided into three parts, one for the thistle in Texas, one for the thistle in Montana and one for the thistle in Nebraska.

PARISIAN REDS CHUCK A BOMB THROUGH THE WINDOW OF A RESTAURANT

One of the Walters Believed to Be Dying—Many Others Wounded—Police Are Helpless—Several Arrested but No Clues.

PARIS, April 5.—Another bomb explosion occurred here last evening near the Senate chamber about 9 p. m. The bomb was placed in a flower box on the windowsill of the restaurant opposite the Senate chamber.

The opinion is now generally expressed that the police are practically powerless to prevent such affairs. Several persons have been arrested upon suspicion of having been connected with the outrage, but it is known that the police have no clue to the identity of the criminal.

It is now said that there were only three persons dining in the restaurant at the time. The place was completely wrecked, and the damage done to adjoining buildings is also quite serious.

The waiter in the cafe who was wounded by the explosion is believed to be dying, but the other wounded persons, including M. Tailleur, an artist, and a companion were injured by the explosion. A strong force of military and police soon had possession of the restaurant, and the official investigation began.

BERING SEA AWARDS

Passage of the English Bill to Carry Out Its Provisions.

LONDON, April 5.—Replying to Sir George Baden-Powell today in the House of Commons, Mr. Sydney Buxton said the Canadian government generally agreed with that of Great Britain as to the terms of the Bering sea bill, but the Canadian government objected to some of the details of the bill.

Sir Charles Russell moved the second reading of the bill on the Bering sea question, which was adopted by the House of Commons.

Verdict of the Jury Which Has Been Investigating the Trouble.

KANSAS CITY, April 5.—Coroner Langdale and a jury examined witnesses today to fix the responsibility for the death of Mike Callahan, killed in Tuesday's election riots.

Patrolman Winkle testified: "I saw Callahan fall, and after him Fowler. The shot that killed Callahan must have come from the crowd."

"Do you know who was in the wagon?" "I only know that. There were three or four around the wagon."

"By whom were they commissioned?" "By the Westport crowd by crowding the other men Olden and Ralph Lathaw."

Other Fleming of 723 Southwest boulevard was another Olden deputy. He testified that he saw the fight. The evidence was all in favor of the jury.

"Do you know why you were appointed?" "I don't know, except to keep the peace."

"Did you try to stop any one from shooting while the fight was going on?" "No."

"Then you were not doing your sworn duty?" "I was not sworn in to get shot."

"None of the witnesses gave a complete account of the riot, and some of the Deputy deputies who were in the thickest of the fight gave very lame accounts."

Not one of the witnesses admitted that he had taken part in the fight. The evidence was all in favor of the jury.

SAINTS IN CONFLATE

Sixty-Fourth Annual Meeting of the Church of Jesus Christ at Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE, April 5.—All day the city has been rapidly filling with visitors and strangers from all parts of the territory and from adjoining states. They came by railroad and all other kinds of conveyances.

The occasion of the gathering is the sixty-fourth annual conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints, which opens in the Great Tabernacle here tomorrow morning.

Several elders who have come on missionary work for two years will be in attendance. A number of minor meetings on church matters have been held during the day.

Robbery on a Street Car. While standing in the rear of a clock in a Farnam street motor about 7 o'clock last evening a man named Davenport was robbed of his pocketbook by a well dressed man who jumped from the rear of the motor about 7 o'clock and ran down Farnam street.

The thief started out with a crowd of people following him. Davenport shouted to a man on the sidewalk that he had been robbed and the thief had to drop his booty in order to prevent pursuit.

After the man dropped the pocketbook and before the bystanders could get the thief he disappeared. He made his escape down an alley.

NEARLY FIFTY KILLED. Bloody Fight Between Indians and Cowboys at Reno, Nev. April 5.—A courier has just arrived from the scene of the battle between the cowboys and the Indians and states that the fight is still in progress, and that twenty-eight Indians and fourteen soldiers and settlers are known to be killed.

Additional news from the seat of the Indian war is undoubtedly forthcoming. The settlers in the southwestern part of the territory are becoming alarmed at the aspect of affairs and in many instances are preparing to flee at a moment's notice.

In Blaine county the settlers anticipating a raid by the Indians, are gathering at the settlements and bringing their families and stock with them. In some towns the people are panic-stricken and reported to be making for the nearest railroad station. There is apprehension that there will be a general outbreak of the several tribes if the troops do not get them corralled soon.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Adjutant General Hughes has received news from the Department of Missouri concerning the report of the killing of an Indian chief and a white man near Vanhook, near Oklahoma, last Sunday in a dispute over a horse. The report, however, states that every tribe is quiet and does not mention the battle which is reported to have occurred between the Indians.

EL RENO, OKL., April 5.—A courier just in from the locality of the Indian trouble reports the fighting still in progress. The soldiers were surrounded practically at 6 o'clock Wednesday fourteen soldiers and citizens had been killed or wounded and twenty-eight of the Indians are known to be killed. The Indians are surrounded at the mouth of the Washita river, but the bushwacking continues, each party shooting at every opportunity.

The sheriffs of G and H counties have organized a posse and gone to the assistance of the settlers. All the soldiers from Fort Reno are now in the field, except three troops of cavalry, one of which is under the command of the sheriff of G county, who sends for ammunition and assistance. His brother here has hastily organized a party and left this morning for the assistance of the settlers.

The fighting has greatly alarmed the people and the most intense excitement prevails. Parties are hastily organizing and going to the assistance of the settlers. The number of soldiers who have been killed.

Hungarians Who Had Been Shot Crawled Away and Then Died Alone.

MANY OF THE RIOTERS LAID IN JAIL

Belief That More Trouble Will Follow—All the Roads Guarded by Armed Deputies—Strikers Preparing to Carry Their Point at Any Cost.

UNION TOWN, Pa., April 5.—The arrest of President E. L. Davis of the local Mine Workers association and his lodgment in jail in connection with the killing of Engineer Paddock, placed the strikers in a state of bewilderment.

President Davis is charged with murder and therefore cannot be released on bail. There is general consternation in the ranks of the strikers and many are in favor of giving up the fight. There are now ninety-six rioters in jail here and these are leaders in the movement.

But from today's developments it does not look as if the strike was ended. The sensation of the morning was the discovery of the bodies of eight murdered Hungarians, found in the woods near Dawson by some boys who were going across the fields to school. The bodies were in an open section of the wood and all had bullet holes through their bodies and were more or less beaten up. Where they came from or by whom they were killed is yet a question.

It is supposed the Hungarians were shot yesterday by the deputies during the attack on the Braddock works and crawled into the woods to die. In the conflict with these deputies were several volleys of shots fired and one Hungarian was killed outright during the attack. The bodies found have been identified as members of the same party that was killed on the Braddock works, as the authorities refuse to care for them.

INCREASED THE FACILITIES. With the recovery of these bodies the facilities of the strike were increased to some extent. The strikers were in a state of mind with many more seriously wounded than was first known. The eight dead strikers were buried yesterday. The funeral of the murdered party after the Paddock murder, at least eleven in all have paid or will pay the highest penalty for that crime with trial by jury.

The arrest of President Davis has had a more demoralizing and dampening effect upon the strikers than the sacrifice of 80 many lives yesterday. Davis was the only striker arrested for the Paddock murder. Davis said he was sorry for yesterday's killing, but the foreign element could not be controlled. He said he was the only striker connected with the killing of Paddock. He will ask for a habeas corpus hearing at once and the probability is that he will be released.

The general feeling among the most intelligent strikers is that they cannot win against such sentiment as has been stirred up against them. They are in a state of mind with many more seriously wounded than was first known. The eight dead strikers were buried yesterday. The funeral of the murdered party after the Paddock murder, at least eleven in all have paid or will pay the highest penalty for that crime with trial by jury.
