

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

Published every morning. Terms of subscription: Daily, One Year, $3.00; Daily, Six Months, $1.75; Daily, Three Months, $1.00; Daily, One Month, $0.35; Single Copy, 5 Cents.

Advertising rates: First insertion, 10 cents per line; second and subsequent insertions, 5 cents per line.

Subscription list: George B. Trenchard, Secretary of the Bee Publishing Company, 1214 First Street, Omaha, Neb.

It is a long time to wait for the Omaha postmaster, according to the democratic idea.

The universal prayer: May the Pollard-Breckinridge breach of promise suit be brought to a speedy termination.

The free silverites think that they have now hit upon the silver coinage bill that will meet the president's approval.

An application to place a pie company in the hands of a receiver is pending in Chicago.

The Omaha city council has reached San Francisco, and yet no news of earthquake or volcanic eruption.

The question is, how far will the maximum freight rate case now pending in the federal court be permitted to figure in the coming state campaign?

The railroad crooks organs of the state are lavish in praise of Governor Crouse, now that they consider him out of the race for governor.

Granting a new trial solely in order to appease an outraged public opinion caps the climax in the record of the judge who prides himself in fearlessly doing his duty without regard to what the people may say or think about him.

A local correspondent appeals to retail dealers to patronize Nebraska factories.

What right has any judge to consume time and money belonging to the people in giving a defendant a second trial for no other reason than to convert a "false impression" that may have gone abroad that the first trial was not a fair and impartial one?

Ex-Speaker Reed naturally objects to having his speeches disseminated and given to the public piecemeal for the purpose of reading into them a meaning just the opposite to what the context warrants.

Lord Rosebery's new ministry at last reports was not progressing so smoothly along the road to popularity as the prospects indicated when he first assumed the premiership.

Senator Murphy of New York frankly expresses himself to the effect that he does not expect the tariff to come to a vote in the senate until next November.

Section 15, page 464, compiled ordinances, defines the principal streets of this city where wooden sidewalks are prohibited.

All those beautiful sermons preached in the daily press to help to the public view the ignoble character and base ingratitude of the paid professional spy may transpire to have been founded upon a false report that the Irish informer, Le Caron, had recently died.

As to Taylor, he has figured somewhat prominently as a leader of colored democrats and claims to have induced a great many to withdraw from the republican party.

People who have occasion to traverse the business portion of the city have been wondering for some time whether the owners of the Farm Street theater might constitute a privilege in the city.

RAILROADS PLOTTING IN IOWA.

Ever since Iowa's first railway legislation went into effect the railroads subject to its regulations have exhausted all resources at their command to evade every provision that has in any way been distasteful to them.

Had the railroad members of any of the recent Iowa legislatures been in the majority they would not have hesitated for a moment to remove from the statute book all semblance of restrictive railway legislation.

Everything now depends upon the personnel of the code commission. The choice of the state senate fell upon the author of the compilation of statutes in general use throughout the state.

The strike in the coke region of Pennsylvania has already had most deplorable results, and there seems reason to apprehend that worse may follow.

The work of re-planting in the public parks has been begun under the direction of the park commission, and manifold good results may be expected from the policy.

Chicago Record (Ind.): The trend of public sentiment in political matters, as shown by today's action, is from favoring the democratic party.

Chicago Tribune (rep.): The landslide continues. Astonishing as were the democratic defeats in the state elections of last fall, they are thrown into the shade by the result of local elections this spring.

Philadelphia Record: "I've never had the courage to get married." "Have you?" "What's your business?" "Oh, I'm a lion tamer."

Chicago Tribune: "Walter," said Uncle Allen Sparks blantly in the union of ham and eggs there should be some disparity in the matter of age.

Chicago Record: "Walter," said Uncle Allen Sparks blantly in the union of ham and eggs there should be some disparity in the matter of age.

DISCOVERY AND PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT THAT CLEVELAND IS "A MAN OF DESTINY."

From all accounts this "claim" has led to very warm personal relations between Mr. Cleveland and Taylor. The office of recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia was formerly quite lucrative, paying in fees upwards of $10,000 a year.

The Board of Health now proposes to take its turn in declaring certain buildings to have become nuisances dangerous to life and to the safety of the community and to order their summary abatement.

Omaha has too recently indulged in a costly experiment with the question of public nuisances to be anxious to stand the expense of other similar experiences.

The strike in the coke region of Pennsylvania has already had most deplorable results, and there seems reason to apprehend that worse may follow.

The work of re-planting in the public parks has been begun under the direction of the park commission, and manifold good results may be expected from the policy.

Chicago Record (Ind.): The trend of public sentiment in political matters, as shown by today's action, is from favoring the democratic party.

Chicago Tribune (rep.): The landslide continues. Astonishing as were the democratic defeats in the state elections of last fall, they are thrown into the shade by the result of local elections this spring.

Philadelphia Record: "I've never had the courage to get married." "Have you?" "What's your business?" "Oh, I'm a lion tamer."

Chicago Tribune: "Walter," said Uncle Allen Sparks blantly in the union of ham and eggs there should be some disparity in the matter of age.

Chicago Record: "Walter," said Uncle Allen Sparks blantly in the union of ham and eggs there should be some disparity in the matter of age.

AS TO THE GOVERNORSHIP.

Kearney Hub: When Jack MacCall says the word it will be easy to name the next governor of Nebraska.

The convict parole law passed by the last legislature seems to be working admirably. Eight convicts are leading industrious lives under the personal supervision of the warden.

The undiminished demand for farm lands is one of the favorable features of the year in Nebraska. It is a noticeable fact that the demand is for improved lands.

The work of re-planting in the public parks has been begun under the direction of the park commission, and manifold good results may be expected from the policy.

Chicago Record (Ind.): The trend of public sentiment in political matters, as shown by today's action, is from favoring the democratic party.

Chicago Tribune (rep.): The landslide continues. Astonishing as were the democratic defeats in the state elections of last fall, they are thrown into the shade by the result of local elections this spring.

Philadelphia Record: "I've never had the courage to get married." "Have you?" "What's your business?" "Oh, I'm a lion tamer."

Chicago Tribune: "Walter," said Uncle Allen Sparks blantly in the union of ham and eggs there should be some disparity in the matter of age.

Chicago Record: "Walter," said Uncle Allen Sparks blantly in the union of ham and eggs there should be some disparity in the matter of age.

PLAUDITS OF THE PRESS.

Approval of Judge Caldwell's Decision Nearly Unanimous.

LIVELY DISCUSSION OF PRINCIPLES Generally Regarded as a Triumph for Organized Labor—Contrasted with the Rulings of Judge Jenkins—Sound, Sensible and Timely.

The far-reaching importance of Judge Caldwell's decision in the Union Pacific wage case is shown by the extended comments thereon by the metropolitan press.

St. Paul Pioneer Press: The decision of Judge Caldwell in the case of the Union Pacific employees, and that of Judge Jenkins on a motion to modify the famous restraining order which he issued against the employees of the Northern Pacific, may be set aside by side and studied with great interest.

Wayne Herald: Governor Crouse has decided positively that he will not seek a re-election, and has stated in a letter to Lieutenant Governor Thomas J. Majors.

Indianapolis News (mag.): Some Rhode Island democrats ought in all decency to arise and propose to make the election unanimous.

Chicago Record (Ind.): The trend of public sentiment in political matters, as shown by today's action, is from favoring the democratic party.

Chicago Tribune (rep.): The landslide continues. Astonishing as were the democratic defeats in the state elections of last fall, they are thrown into the shade by the result of local elections this spring.

Philadelphia Record: "I've never had the courage to get married." "Have you?" "What's your business?" "Oh, I'm a lion tamer."

CONFLICTING DECISIONS.

St. Paul Pioneer Press: The decision of Judge Caldwell in the case of the Union Pacific employees, and that of Judge Jenkins on a motion to modify the famous restraining order which he issued against the employees of the Northern Pacific, may be set aside by side and studied with great interest.

Wayne Herald: Governor Crouse has decided positively that he will not seek a re-election, and has stated in a letter to Lieutenant Governor Thomas J. Majors.

Indianapolis News (mag.): Some Rhode Island democrats ought in all decency to arise and propose to make the election unanimous.

Chicago Record (Ind.): The trend of public sentiment in political matters, as shown by today's action, is from favoring the democratic party.

Chicago Tribune (rep.): The landslide continues. Astonishing as were the democratic defeats in the state elections of last fall, they are thrown into the shade by the result of local elections this spring.

Philadelphia Record: "I've never had the courage to get married." "Have you?" "What's your business?" "Oh, I'm a lion tamer."

Chicago Tribune: "Walter," said Uncle Allen Sparks blantly in the union of ham and eggs there should be some disparity in the matter of age.

Chicago Record: "Walter," said Uncle Allen Sparks blantly in the union of ham and eggs there should be some disparity in the matter of age.

Philadelphia Record: "I've never had the courage to get married." "Have you?" "What's your business?" "Oh, I'm a lion tamer."

THE COMING MAN.

THE COMING MAN—is the man who clothes himself in a befitting manner—that is, his clothes fit him—clothes that are made up in the latest styles.

THE COMING MAN—is the man who clothes himself in a befitting manner—that is, his clothes fit him—clothes that are made up in the latest styles.

THE COMING MAN—is the man who clothes himself in a befitting manner—that is, his clothes fit him—clothes that are made up in the latest styles.

THE COMING MAN—is the man who clothes himself in a befitting manner—that is, his clothes fit him—clothes that are made up in the latest styles.

THE COMING MAN—is the man who clothes himself in a befitting manner—that is, his clothes fit him—clothes that are made up in the latest styles.

THE COMING MAN—is the man who clothes himself in a befitting manner—that is, his clothes fit him—clothes that are made up in the latest styles.

THE COMING MAN—is the man who clothes himself in a befitting manner—that is, his clothes fit him—clothes that are made up in the latest styles.

THE COMING MAN—is the man who clothes himself in a befitting manner—that is, his clothes fit him—clothes that are made up in the latest styles.

THE COMING MAN—is the man who clothes himself in a befitting manner—that is, his clothes fit him—clothes that are made up in the latest styles.

THE COMING MAN—is the man who clothes himself in a befitting manner—that is, his clothes fit him—clothes that are made up in the latest styles.

BROWNING, KING & CO. THE COMING MAN—S. W. Cor. 15th and Douglas Sts.