MISCELLANEOUS.

Rates, 11/2 word first insertion, ic a word thereafter. Nothing taken for less than 25c. NOTICE—CERTAIN IRRESPONSIBLE PARties, who are hauling the night soil, manure, garbage and other fitth, and who are damping the same in and about the city, to the great danger of the health of its inhabitants and contrary to the ordinances regulating these matters, and who are charging exorbitant prices for their work, have in many instances represented that they are employes of mine.
In order to correct this impression and to prevent further fraud I desire to say that I am operating on a contract with the city, with my own teams, and further that all my wagon boxes and tanks have my name printed on both sides: "A. MacDonald, City Garbage Wagon," All charges for work will be strictly in compillance with my contract, and no overcharge or other irregularities will be permitted by employes of mine. Complaints of any nature should be made to me and they will be given prompt attention.

Complaining Priests Do Not Desire Archbishop Hennessy to Try Bonacum.

NOT IN LINCOLN TO HEAR THE CASE

Dubuque Prelate Declines to Discuss the Case but it is Generally Enderstood that He is Merely Looking Through Nebraska Convents.

LINCOLN, April 18.—(Special to The Bec.)

-It is now believed that the visit of Archbishop Hennessey of Dubuque to Lincoln has no connection with the grievances of the local priests against Bishop Bonacum. Several of the priests who have been active in pushing the charges against Bishop Bonacum claim that they do not believe that the case so suddenly ended at Omaha will be reopened. They also assert that they do not desire any further action on the part of the archbishop, but that they propose to rest their case with no less a personage than Satolli himself. The archbishop himself declines to discuss the reasons for his presence in Lincoln, and it is now believed that he will simply make a formal inspection of the several Catholic schools and convents in the diocese. There have been many charges of mismanagement in connection with some of these institutions. Whether the archbishop intends to investigate these the archossop intends to investigate these charges or not is unknown, but most of the local Catholics seem to believe that he will content himself with a visit of inspection.

PIERCE CITY, Mo., April 16.—To the Editor of The Bee: My attention has been called to an article in The Bee of April 13. The article referred to is headed, "Charges Assainst Panasana", In that article I and Against Bonacum." In that article I find I am referred to by name. Under charge xiv, in specification I. I find these words: "He (Bonacum) gambled with Father Heines (Hynes) at Pierce City, Mo., to whom he still owes a large gambling debt." To this allegation permit me to enter a flat denial. The charge as for as I am constraint. The charge, as far as I am concerned, is utterly false in its every aspect and devoid of the semblance of truth. I know not on whose information the plaintiffs have grounded this charge. I am willing to be-lieve that they considered their informant to be entirely trustworthy, but that in no wise alters the facts in the case. Had either party to this suit notified me that my name was mixed up in the affair, and asked for my testimony, I should have willingly given it, and no one that knows me will doubt that it would have been given without fear and without partiality. Since the plainings have thought proper to give the charges to the public through The Bee, and since they did not think proper to draw a line through my name, I have deemed it but proper and right to enter this, my denial.

St. Patrick's church. A. M. J. HYNES. RECORD OF A YEAR. The annual report of the chief of the Lincoin fire department, filed with the city clerk last evening, presents some very interesting statistics proving the efficiency of the department. During the year the department responded to 126 alarms, requirings the appartment. paratus to travel 1,092 miles. At these fires they unreeled 80,600 feet of hose. Of the 126 fires fourteen were of incondiary origin, ourteen resulted from the explosion of gaso-line stoves, seventeen were started by sparks from passing locomotives, eight by a com-bination of small boy and matches, six from defective stove pipes and four by lamp ex-plosions. Seventeen were of my torious origin. The different number of buildings that caught fire were 114. The total damage inflicted by fire was $32,660 to buildings and

$66,264 to contents, SOMETHING OF A SCENE. The people who gathered at the B. & M. depot this forenoon to watch the 11.59 train come in from Omaha were treated to a lively little domestic comedy in which Mr. and Mrs. James Miner and a second man, whose name is not reported, but who is an engineer in one of the Lincoln hotels, were the principal actors. Mrs. Miner has been living apart from her husband for some time on account of her alleged relations with the engineer in question. Recently, however. reconciliation was effected, and last Saturday the husband and wife commenced their secnd honeymoon. They lived together but three days, and yesterday she left him. Miner threatened to kill himself and him wife, who evidently did not want him to die on her hands, and appealed to the police for assistance to prevent her husband from carrying out his threats. The policemen declined to interfere. Today Miner appealed to the police to prevent his wife from going to Beatrice, but again the officers declined to interfere. A lively scene ensued, in which good many exciting words were spilled out no blood shed. After getting aboard the cars Mrs. Miner again disembarked, and all three parties are endeavoring to arrange matters this afternoon. ARRESTED A PRINTER. Rollin Mallory, a printer, employed on the Daily Call of this city, was arrested late last night on the charge of unfaithfulness, his wife being the complainant. Mallery has long been infatuated with a woman named Alice Lindstrom and the two have lived as man and wife in rooms in the Hall-Lansing block. Mrs. Mallery has been compelled to support herself and her child by working for the family of G. B. Trayers, while Mallory has spent all his wages upon the Lindstrom woman. The two were arrested by the police while occupying the same quarters the other night. LINCOLN IN BRIEF. William Clarke, the man who denounced dinself as a murderer to his wife, is still in fail, although the police authorities eccived no reply to their inquiry, it is believed that Clarke's story is a fake. Two men named Cossart and Way engaged a a scrap at a saloon on Ninth street this forenoon, and as a result both are nursing black eyes in the city jail. The school board is in almost continuous session discussing the plans for the new school building. It is possible that one of the bids will be accepted tonight.

The remains of John A. Van Denberg, a prominent citizen and business man of this city, who died yesterday, were taken to Grand Rapids, Mich., for interment today, The next series of balt games to be played Lincoln are booked for next Monday and Tuesday. The Sloux City team will furnish

H. C. West Acquirted.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., April 18 - (Special to The Bee.)-The West murder case that has occupied the time of the jury for the past week was concluded yesterday by the jury bringing in a verdict of acquittal. This is the case where H. C. West of Custer county shot and killed his brother-in-law, James Hardy Milholland, on Saturday evening, November 12, 1893. There had been some trouble between the men. Milholland was a victors and county character, and conwas a victous and rough character, and gen erally went armed. He had several times threatened that he would "do West up." On the fatal Sunday evening, as West was on his way home from Cezad, Milhelland assaulted him and West shot him. The jury was out about fifteen hours. All but two of them were for acquittal from the first

George Taylor and Roten of Callaway, who were under arrest for stealing hegs, were found guilty.

Dissatisfied with the Settlement ST. PAUL, Neb., April 18 .- (Special to The Bee.)-The county commissioners yesterday decided to grant the defaulting ex-county treasurer, S. W. Gumaer, sixty days additional time to make up his shortage. The remaining shortage is $18,700. Gumner has assigned some notes he holds and transferred some real estate in trut for the county, the value of which, however, is very oubtful, and there is now considerable disatisfaction with the action of the commisloners, as many believe that Gumaer has had sufficient time to arrange matters, and having failed to make good the large shortage, action should now be commenced against him and his bondsmen for recovery of the shortage.

Much Litigation at Rushvill RUSHVILLE, Neb., April 18 .- (Special Telegram to The Bee.)-Judge Kinkaid convened district court Tuesday morning. The docket shows 298 civil cases and thirteen criminal cases for trial. Samuel Chamberlain, for murder, was arraigned this morning, and a jury impan-nelled during the day. His son, Henry, will be tried for the same offense later. These men committed an assault on a farmer named Hare last fall which resulted in his death December 9, 1893. The case against John McAlister for sell-
