Kelly's March Relieves a Lot of Pressure on the Timid Railroad Men.

TRAIN SERVICE MAY SOON BE RESTORED

Departure of the Industrials Reassures the Magnates, Who May Now Take Up the Ordinary Run of Business-The Situation.

The fears of the city, county and state officials that yesterday would be a day to be remembered for life proved to be ground-Kelly's departure seems to have knocked the bottom out of all the enthusiasm which was felt in labor circles, and the mob of 10,000 or more people eager to ommit some depredation which it was hoped might tend to bring the railway corporations to a realization of the sympathy felt for the Kellyites failed to materialize. Great preparations had been made by the authorities for the reception of the mob in case it should put in an appearance. The militia in every town in the western half of lows, numbering 1,200 men, had been notified to report for duty at a moment's notice, and every militiaman slept with one ear listening for the call to arms.

One thing that helped Council Bluffs out in its hour of adversity was the fact that the railroads were not yet running their trains egularly, so that any one who felt in-lined to come in and watch for fun could have no assurance as to when he would be able to go back home. The Kansas City road took advantage of the rumors of impending danger and undertook to run an excursion train from Kansas City to Omaha at a rate of $2 for the round trip, but for some reason other it was not at all liberally patron-

The chief of police, sheriff and mayor on this side of the river had sent requests to their colleagues in Omaha that the people of that city should be encouraged to stay at home, and the efforts of the Nebraska officlais to keep them at home, coupled with the fact that there was very little probability of there being any excitement, made these efforts successful.

It was found unnecessary to appoint deputy United States marshais, as had been ex-pected. By request of the local authorities however, the marshal at Omaha appointed deputies and stationed them at the west end of the Union Pacific bridge, in order that any mob that might cross that bridge and head for the transfer depot might be headed off.
The Wabash was the only road leading into the city that maintained its equilibrium throughout the excitement, and kept going right along about its business. While it never missed a passenger or freight train, it did not get its trains through always on time. It seemed to be out of the vortex all the time, but Friday and Saturday its freight engines were stopped at Minneola and the yard engines brought the freight trains in in small sections. During the three days of the tieup, it delivered eighteen cars to local merchants and other roads willing to receive them, and ten cars to the Union Pacific, and had forty cars of coal ready to deliver to the switching crews of other roads, but for forty-eight hours all such favors were declined with thanks. The Burlington people had : number of cars of coal consigned to the water works, and the water works people were clamoring for it, and they offered liberal inducements to the Wabash crews if they would set the cars on the reservoir sidetracks. These offers were also declined. for at the time there were 2,000 Omaha men looking for anything in the shape of an engine, and they were just then marching past the water works.

With the exception of the Rock 1-land and Milwaukee lines, pasenger and freight draffle was generally resumed by the lowa yesterday afternoon. All the other evening trains went out on their schedule time. The North-western was in the best condition to recover breath, and was the first to get a train out. delivity in the yards was resumed very slowly. There seemed to be a timidity noticcable even in the locomotive whistles, and the switch engines moved with a caution that seemed to suggest a fear that there ing stock and run it out to Kelly. morning there will be little else to indicate that troublous times have existed but the immense gorge of freight that will be poured into the yards from all directions.

Dr. Poulson Dead. Dr. P. William Poulson died Saturday night about midnight at his home, 601 Broadway, very suddenly, of heart disease For several days past he has been considerably excited over the presence of Kelly's army, and the sensational events that have been witnessed in the city. He was in warm sympathy with the working classess, and the excitement was too much for his heart, which has always caused him more or less trouble. Saturday night, after holding conversation with General E. F. Test for some little time, he went home, but almost im mediately after reaching there, while pre-paring for bed, he suddenly dropped upon the paring for bed, he suddenly dropped upon the bed, in what was apparently a fainting fit. His wife was alarmed and ran to a neighbor-ing room, gave the alarm, and a physician was immediately called in. He was too late to be of any service, however, for Dr. Poulson died about five minutes after the attack was first noticed. The funeral will occur Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Paul's church, although the doctor was a firm believer in the doctrine that the dead are always buried too carry in this country and had frequently asked that his body be and had frequently asked that his body be kept without embalming for eight days after death. Dr. Poulson was 59 years of age. He was born in Copenhagen. Denmark, and in 1886 was married in Sacramento, Cal., to Susan A. Staples. He came here from Oakland, Cal., last December, having resided there for eight years previous. He was a member of the Lutheran church. Besides his wife, he leaves two children, Hiram and land, Washington: At first thought it may seem to the national authorities that the simplest way of dealing with these penni-less unemployed persons who are pressing their way across the country to the capi-tol would be to employ some form of 'strict and stern repression.' This is the opinion of the Army and Navy Register, which calls upon you to gather in the regular army to protect yourself, the congress and the na-tional buildings against your unfortunate fellow citizens. The custom is an old one of resorting to a liberal use of bullets to check the rising desire of starving persons for food and work. No republic sending a delegation to represent the unem ployed thousands in New England in these days of calamity. We should be very sorry to have our deputation thrown into prison or slain by the official edict while exercis ing their constitutional liberty to petition The truth is, before tranquility is restored there will have to be a readjustment of the conditions of wealth. You may not realize that the case is grave. When have American citizens been treated in this manner Is there not wealth enough? Let us not be children in this matter any longer. Wealth must be better distributed. This is not the time to prate about senatorial dignity; it is the time for those who make laws to listen to the commands of those who make them lawmakers. CLEVELAND WEARS A WORRIED LOOK

President Preparing to Enforce the Majesty of the Law Against Coxey. WASHINGTON, April 22 .- (Special Telegram to The Bee.)-President Cleveland is said to be greatly disturbed over the proposed visitation of Coxey's army, and he has not only sought advice on the subject from members of his cabinet and others in authority, but today he had a long conference with the chief of police, Major Moore. Acting upon the advice of those whom he had consulted, he has decided to issue a semi-official proclamation, admonishing all persons who contemplate visiting the national capital that they must respect the laws and conduct themselves in a peaceful and respectful manner, or suffer the conse-

The action of the president in this matter oming proclamation. It is understood that in substance it will say that there is no ob-jection to Commonwealers visiting Washington with peaceful intent, and that every right under the constitution will be accorded them while they are here. It will also state that there are laws regulating the assem-blage and parading of organized bodies through the streets of the city, which must respected. Any attempt to disutrb the public peace or incite riotous conduct by word or deed will be promptly dealt with by the local authorities, and, if necessary, by the national government.

The president is supported in this action by the course of at least two of his predecessors in the executive mansion. During Buchanan's administration when the "know nothing" party disbanded some of the rem-nants of the defunct political organization determined to proceed to Washington, with the Intention of forcing congress to adopt certain legislation in conformity with the views entertained by them on political and religious questions. The mob arrived in Washington and proceeded to commit a numper of overt acts against the peace. President Buchanan issued a declaration of warning to them and subsequently ordered out the United States marines and drove the

A more recent instance is given in the inauguration of connection with the inauguration Hayes and Wheeler in 1876, w some of the friends and supp supporters of Tilden threatened to send 100,000 unarmed men to Washington to prevent the inauguration of Hayes and Wheeler, On that occasion President Grant made a statement through the newspapers advising people not to come to Washington, unless they could come in a peaceful, orderly manner, and thereupon he ordered a number of regular troops to be temporarily stationed in Washington for any emergency that might LINCOLN, April 22 .- (Special Telegram to The Bee.)-The committee appointed last night to make arrangements for the organization of a regiment of the Industrial army has been in session the most of the day at Central Labor union hall. The enthusiasm evinced last night shows no signs of abatement, although it is believed that by tomorrow the sober second thought will induce the promoters of the movement to drop the project. It has been decided to invite recruits from all towns in Nebraska, Lincoln to be headquarters for the proposed army. H. A. Duff, E. T. Stewart and L. W. thizers was called for Jefferson square at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, it failed to materialize. A few laboring men and mechanics gathered there, more cut of curiosity than because of any set purpose, but they did not remain long after they became convinced that there was not to be a large assemblage. They drifted from there to Knights of Labor hall, where for an hour or two a couple of dozen men hung around the foot of the of ozen men hing around the foot of the stairs, but that was the extent of the dem-enstration. By 12 o'clock the last of them had disappeared. The positive annouesment by General Kelly through the morning apers that he proposed to start early in he day on his march to the eastward seemed to be accepted by the great majority s settling the matter so far as trains were concerned, and the opinion expressed by the few who did turn out was that from this time on all surplus energy would be directed to raising money and provisions to help the army, instead of calling meetings to organize elzure parties to capture engines or commit other unlawful acts.

Ex-Congressman W. H. M. Pusey and United States Marshal Bradley came over from the Bluffs during the for noon and visited the office of United States Marshal White. Mr. Pusey appeared to be the representative of the Iowa roads centering in he Bluffs, and was very much alarmed over the possibility of another crowd of Omaha damage to the property of the railway cor-porations. He had gotten Marshal Bradley to try to head off such a possibility, and this was the object of the call on Mr. White. That official, however, had just left for his ome at Plattsmouth, and the visitors levied nome at Plattsmouth, and the Visitors levied on Deputies Coggeshall and Liddiard. A call was then made on Judge Dundy, and the cause of alarm was stated to him. The Judg-said that he could do nothing except with view to protecting the property of the Union Pacific, which was in the hands of the court, and that if it became necessary he would take steps looking to that end.

Mr. Pussy then telephoned to Marshal
White at Plattsmouth, and then sent a messenger to Mayor Bemis, requesting an imme-diate conference at the Paxton. The mayor omplied with the request, but did not agree that there was any cause for uneasiness. He said that the proposed meeting at Jefferson square had not materialized, and that there was no excitement in the city whatever on account of the Kelly army. He did not be-lieve that there was any occasion for taking any further precautionary steps at this time. and assured the visitors that so far as be could learn their fears of another demonstration from this side of the river were entirely without foundation.

Marshal Bradley coincided with this view.

but said that he had been besought by the people across the river to make a move to prevent any possible trouble, and he had complied with it, as he wanted to do all that he could to allay their fears, even though he considered them groundless, After talking over the matter for some ime the visitors returned to the Bluffs where they said a mass meeting was sched-uled for Bayliss park at 4 o'clock in the

IN COXET'S COLUMN.

Frosty Reception Prepared for the Com onwealers at Frederick, Md. HAGERSTOWN, Md., April 22.-After three days stop in this place, the Coxey co horts are preparing to march on Frederick. There were rumors tonight that Browne would remain encamped here till the return of Coxey from New York, but at a late hour Browne announced positively that the start would be made at 10 o'clock tomorrow. The Commonweal army will march direct down the national pike after leaving Frederick, thereby saving seventeen miles The road by the national pike will throw the burden of entertaining the army on Urban Clarksburg, Middletown and Gaithersburg. Browne tonight, in speaking of the proposed camp in the arsenal grounds, said he had concluded the grounds around the foot of the Washington monument would be more convenient and appropriate, and announced he would telegraph Colonel Red-stone to make a request for the grounds on the secretary of war. Mayor Fleming of Frederick is preparing a frosty reception for the army. He has announced that no public meeting will be allowed unless in a hall, and that there will be no parade the street. Browne says he would like to see the mayor stop a procession of American citizens with the American flag at its head. The Sunday services in Camp Nazareth were attended by a crowd of 150 persons Fifty dollars in all was taken in at the gate Browne doffed his boots and sombrero in honor of his appearance as a minister and put on a suit of store clothes of clerical black. In the afternoon another meeting was held at which Browne lectured on

NEW YORK, April 22.—General Jacob Schler Coxey spent today in the city quietly and unobtrusively. He did not get up very early. When Coxey did leave his bedchamber he made a bee line for the dining room. He ordered chops and dispatched them with gusto. Then he bought the morning papers to see how Carl Browne and the army were getting along. Coxey wandered about the hotel at intervals until the afternoon. Then he took a stroll on Broadway. Few persons who met him on the street knew him to be the Coxey who is about to invade Washington with his army to demand the issue of noninterest bearing bonds for the building of roads and the giving of work to

Considered Calmly.

Kansas City Journal: We regret to see the spirit manifested in a portion of the press and by public officials toward the 'Commonweal" movement in many respects. course many unusual and things occur, and the popular sense of the humorous or grotesque must have expression. But there are some grave features to these things that may, by unwise action, re-sult in a tragedy people little dream of. The most daring of men is the sincere and honest fanatic. Here are some facts: The Coxey con-tingent of a general movement extending from ocean to ocean is nearing the capital of the nation. This body of several hun-dred has marched from the interior of Ohio without a crime being perpetrated or a dep redation committed—and fed by the charity and bounty of the people voluntarily con-

In Iowa, when a sympathetic people seized a locomotive and made up a train to take Kelly's company away from their cold and exposed condition, they refused to ride in a train thus secured and resolved to go afoot. Now, these men may be foolish, may be cranks and all that, but they are not criminals. They evidently are serious in what they are about, But there is another fact that saberminded people will take note of—the popular sympathy: Coxey's followers and all others have been fed, housed and provided for by the sympathy of people well-to-do and able to do it. These men and the e who feed them are all citizens and coual before the law-and, as shown, respecters of the the law—and, as shown, respecters of the law and the rights of property.

Then there is another feature: Read carefully the report from Council Bluffs and Omaha in yesterday's Journal. In Omaha alone 2,500 men, with the American flag over them, were in line to show their sympathy with those crusaders, because they thought they had been unfairly dealt with. The fact is significant and pregnant both.

And now the moral: These people are out of work, out of money and out of food, beof work, out of money and out of food, be-cause, as they believe, from the consequences of legislation past and proposed by congress They have petitioned in vain, as they think and in desperation have resolved to carry their petitions in their persons to the cap-ital. They are doing so orderly, and with respect to persons, property and the public respect to persons, property and the planta-peace. These facts account for the popular sympathy and the food and shelter given them. If they were marauders the same public that feeds them would hunt them down. If our public authorities, municipal, corporate, state or national, are wise and just, they will not turn this popular sympathy into demonstrations like those as Omaha and Council Bluffs. To Avoid the Industrials.

FREMONT, April 22.-(Special The Bee.)-For the past twenty-four hours the Union Pacific road has transferred at this point all eastern bound passengers and valuable through freight to the Northwestern road, evidently on account of the disorder at Council Bluffs. Colonel Galvin's Army Stranded.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

He Offered the Best Security He Had and She Accepted.

"Talk about romantic marriages," ejaculated a well posted rounder to the Washlugton Star. "There goes a couple up Fifteenth street who came together in the most remarkable way you ever heard of, and who are enjoying a great deal of happiness, too. Don't mention any names and I'll tell you the story.
"Some time ago the man, who was in the real estate business, advertised for a sum of money, repayment of which would be guar-anteed by unquestionable security. The advertisement met the eye of a young and buxom widow, who had several thousand dollars which she wanted to invest, and she visited the advertiser's office she was doubtiess favorably impressed with his appearance and had an opportunity to study him perhaps, because there were several callers before her. At last he was disengaged, and stating her mission the inquired what security would be given for 'Madame,' said the agent, 'I am a man of ups and downs in the world; now successful and then unfortunate. Sometimes I am on my way to the executive mansion, and at others my path leads in the direction of the workhouse. But such as I am, I offer myself security for the loan I have advertised Marriage, madame, marriage, is the ecurity I offer you." "Naturally, the widow was flustrated and hortly withdrew, stammering out, with violent blushing, that she would consider the proposition. That her consideration must have been favorable goes without saying, because they were married in less than two weeks afterward, and they are just as happy to all appearances, as if their courtship had been two years long." A. W. RICKMAY, GEO. P. SANFORD.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children." Da. G. C. Oscoon, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their level ones, by foreing opium morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Ancnen, M. D.,

111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y. "Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess the the merits of Castoria has wor we to look with favor upon it."
