First Dead Horse of the Kelly Campaign Shows Up.

ARGUES OVER

Some Anxiety About the Existence of a Deficit-Some Hard Rubs on the Governor - Some Councilmanie Talk.

The first dead horse of the Kelly campaign bobbed up yesterday afternoon with a bill in his hand, and a meeting of the city council was held in the hope that the citizens' committee might induce the city not to let the bill go to protest.

Mayor Cleaver stated that the object of the meeting was to hear the report of the committee appointed at the citizens meeting to raise funds for the assistance of Kelly's army. There was a slight deficit on hand, and he had called the council together at the request of the committee in order that some action might be taken to enable this deficit to evaporate. A resolution was then read by the clerk providing for the appropriation of $150 to pay the rest. of the cost of keeping the army while it was here. Alderman Nicholson moved to adopt the resolution, but Alderman Rishton opposed it. The latter said that Governor Jackson took the matter out of the hands of the city the first evening he was here, telling the audience that the state would pay all expenses, for it was an affair in which the entire state was interested. Alderman Keller took the same ground and also thought the city had no right to make such

An appropriation.

Frank Trimble, in behalf of the committee, said that the governor merely agreed to pay the expense of keeping the militia here to protect the city. Judge McGee, another member of the committee, made a speech in behalf of the resolution. "There were two reasons," he said, "why the people had been sometimes in the land. an appropriation. ple had been so generous in feeding Kelly's army. One was sympathy and the other dread of the consequences if they should be allowed to go hungry. It was a question of whether we should feed them or fight

He thought the city would do right to put in a little cash to prevent harm being done, and if this should be done no voice would ever be raised in condemnation of the act, while, on the other hand, the commit-tee would have to pay it all personally.

After several adverse remarks had been made by the members of the council a vote was taken, and the resolution was unanimously voted down. Previous to the taking of the vote, however, Judge McGee offered to withdraw the resolution with the consent of the other two members of the committee. But they refused to consent. After the vote had been taken Judge Mcsuggested that a subscription list be circulated at once among the councilmen to give them a chance to do personally what they did not feel like doing as a council. To this several of the aldermen violently

'We have been ignored by the governor right from the start," said Keller; "we were not even allowed to be in the room where the consultation was held on the first night of his visit. If this bill is to be paid let the governor pay it."

Trimble and Wickham were opposed to asking the councilmen for a subscription,

"for fear," as one of them expressed it, "that they would want to pay it all them-selves." But before any very serious at-tempt could be made by the committee in that direction the meeting adjourned, and the aldermen wafted themselves out of the way of any lurking subscription list with a great deal of alacrity.

Henry Sabin, state superintendent of schools, who has been in the city for several days past, paid a visit to the schools yesterday afternoon, together with a number of the superintendents of county schools. Late in the afternoon the teachers assembled in one of the rooms at the Bloomer school and there listened to a few remarks from the visitors. Those made by Mr. Sabin were especially interesting to the teachers, partly from the fact that he never says very much, and what he does say he generally means. His remarks were highly commendatory of the present condition in which he finds the achools. "From what I have seen," he said,
"I learn that you are modern in all your ideas and methods of teaching. The pupils cannot help receiving the greatest amount of good possible when their instruction is carried on on the lines you are pursuing. I notice with a great deal of pleasure that the rare quality of originality is cultivated among the teachers, that there are no iron-clad rules which tie each instructor down to the methods that some one else has found most successful, but each one is al-lowed a great deal of latitude in using the methods which he or she has personally found best. One of the most encouraging things I have heard is that meetings of the teachers are held every two weeks for the purpose of talking over pedagogic matters in general. The fact that these meetings are entirely voluntary on your part, and that they are so largely attended, speaks well for your earnestness in your profession." Charged with Perjury. John Dunn, a horse trader living in the southern part of the city, is under arrest on the charge of perjury, preferred by P. Gunnoude, who keeps a store on South Main street. Gunnoude sued Charles Dunn some little time ago for a grocery bill, but John Dunn, the defendant's father, came into court and swore that he had taken a mortgage on all of his son's property, so that when a judgment was secured and an execution issued there was nothing to levy upon. Gunnoude claims to have found that while Dunn's mortgage appears of record it was a "fake" mortgage, and was merely put there for the purpose of defrauding him. He swore out an information charging Dunn with perjury, and the case is set for hearing before Justice Fox on Tuesday, May 1.

Council Bluffs Shippers Denounce the Officials and Press of Omaha.

ALL ON ACCOUNT OF THE KELLY MATTER

Conspiracy Charged to Ruin the Good Name of the Hawkeye City-Lied About by Hypocrites Jackson and Hazen Commended.

At a meeting of the wholesalers and shippers of Council Bluffs, about forty houses being represented, held yesterday, it was decided to make the following statement of facts concerning the recent demonstrations that have occurred in the cities of Omaha and Council Bluffs since the 15th first. "On that morning about 1,200 men, known as Kelly's army, entered the city of Omaha

on a train of Union Pacific cars from the west. On their arrival they were met by a large concourse of citizens of Omaha, who furnished them a quantity of food sufficient for about twenty-four hours. They were at the same time met by a large police force of the city of Omaha, with orders to prevent any of the men on the train from getting out of the cars. As soon as the food could be loaded Kelly's army was hurriedly could be loaded Kelly's army was hurriedly steamed across the river into Iowa. Not-withstanding the ostentatious pretenses of merit and generosity on the part of the authorities of Omaha, they sent these men on across the river, evidently for the pur-pose of escaping the consequences of caring for them themselves. for them themselves, and for the further purpose of putting them as a burden upon our city. Three or four days afterwards when these men began to run short of food, although they had been liberally helped by the city of Council Bluffs, they began to murmur at their condition and agitate the question of going back to Omaha, where they felt, in view of the hypocritical pre-tenses made there, that they would be among their friends. The authori-ties of that city and seme of its people made a contribution for provisions in order that Kelly's men might be induced to remain on this side of the river. We are credibly informed that at the same time the authorities of Omaha organized their police force in such a way as to pre-vent the return of Kelly's army, or any considerable portion of it, to that city. During all this time certain newspapers of Omaha, the Omaha authorities and many of their the Omaha authorities and many of their people were parading before the world their generosity toward these men, notwithstanding the fact that they had refused to let a man of Kelly's army set foot on their soil. Certain newspapers of the city of Omaha, although informed of the true facts, pursued a course of systematic and deliberate followed and reals falls and sendalous as falsehoods and made false and scandalous as-sertions and charges of misconduct and mistreatment of Kelly's men on the part of the people of Council Bluffs and those who were trying to preserve order on this side of the river, in order to excite hostility against the authorities of our city, county and state and discredit the good name of our people before the world in contrast with the hypo-critical generosity of the authorities of Omaha, which they so ostentatiously pa-

"It was the fact, known to these newspapers, that no interference was offered by any citizen or official to the free movement of Kelly; that every effort was made to procure him transportation of the railroads, even to the extent of offering to pay even to the extent of offering to pay them for it, and that free transportation for him and his army to the mouth of the Missouri river was in fact procured and tendered him. This offer was refused, we are informed, under the advice of Edward Rosewater, editor of the Omaha Bee; and that newspaper, although informed of these facts, would make no publication of these kindly and generous efforts to extricate all the parties concerned from their dilemma. While the authorities of our county and state were making every effort to preserve order, protect property and enable Mr. Kelly to move freely and peaceably across the state, thousands of unrasy men in the city of Omaha, agitated into hostility and incited thereto by certain newspapers of that city, congregated upon the streets thereof and formed conspiracies operly and public y, wi h the full knowledge of the authorities of that city, to come across to our state with the avowed purpose of setting our laws at de-flance and overriding our authorities in their efforts to preserve order. In pursuance of this conspiracy, thousands of men from Omaha did come across, many of them armed with deadly weapons, and raraded the streets of our city, overawing and intimidating our committing breaches of our peace and setting our laws at defiance; refusing to disperse when lawfully warned and commanded to do so by the sheriff of this county, forcibly and violently pushing their way by that officer, violently taking posses-sion of our streets in their unlawful and insurrectionary purposes. "The violation of our territory, which was, in fact, an invasion by a hostile force, occurred on two different days with the full knowledge of the authorities of the city of Omaha after the lowa National Guards had been sent home, and yet no means whatever were taken on that side of the river to prethis violence and unlawful demonstration, but the course of the mayor of the city of Omaha in his public acts and utterances indicated his sympathy with these exhibi-tions of mob violence. In this connection we wish to express our appreciation of and confidence in the law-abiding citizens of our neighboring city, who, we believe, are largely n the majority, and who took no part in this invasion and who as deeply abhor this cowardly and unlawful position taken by their city authorities as we do.

DENUNCIATORY RESOLUTIONS. Be it therefore resolved, First, that we denounce the hypocrisy of those people and the authorities of Omaha who thus united in the false pretense of charity and generosity, with a view of obtaining an unjust credit before the counry, and discrediting the good people of our city and state. "Second, that the conspiracies formed and he mob violence exhibited in the manner aforesaid were revolutionary, dangerous to the peace, good order, property, liberty and lives of our citizens, and an invasion by a hostile armed force of the terirtory of a neighboring friendly state.

"Third, we denounce the course of certain newspapers of Omaha as filled with false statements of facts, the suppression of the truth, the deliberate intention to create a false impression against the people and authorities of the state of Iowa; and as inciting the citizens of Omaha to hatred, hos-tility and violence toward our people, the violation of our territory, the defiance of our laws, the disturbance of our peace, the destruction of our property and a menace to the lives of our citizens: "Fourth, that we call upon the governor of our state to take notice of the foregoing facts and consider the probable comequences of this outrage upon our deritory and peo-ple, and to take such steps as may be re-quired to protect the peace, property, lives and liberties of our critishs, and to prevent any further violation of our territory and any further violation of our territory and insult to the dignity of our laws.

"Fifth, that we entrewely commend the wise, vigorous and humane course of Governor Jackson and Sheriff Hazen in their efforts to preserve order and maintain the authority of the laws." The meritorious action of these patriotic and loyal officials stands out in noble contrast to the brutal, cowardly, revolutionary and unpatriotic conduct of the Omaha authorities, newspapers duct of the Omaha authorities, newspapers and mob, and entitles these worthy public servants to the thanks and support of the country. Also we earnestly commend the action of Governor Crounse of Nebraska as has been represented to us in his efforts to prevent a recurrence of the invasion.

"Sixth, that should any more bodies of men, similar to the one known as Keliy's army, attempt to enter or invade our state. that our sheriff be called upon to prevent such entry or invasion, and, if necessary, to call out sufficient force to enable him to maintain our laws. "WILLIAM GRONEWEG, President. "E. H. MERRIAM, Secretary."
