

IT IS TOO HEAVY A LOAD

Union Pacific Fin's the Oregon Railway and Navigation Bonds Burdenome.

DECEMBER INTEREST MAY BE DEFAULTED

Additional Litigation Likely to Grow Out of the Report of the Representatives of the Foreign Bondholders—A Peculiar Situation.

So heavy are the obligations entailed by the Oregon Railway and Navigation company's lease that the receivers of the Union Pacific have about concluded to default the interest on the consolidated 5 and 6s due December 1, 1893, for the purpose of forcing foreclosure proceedings.

As far back as December The Bee told its readers of the general unrest prevalent in financial circles regarding the Oregon Railway and Navigation company's affairs, and the probable dismemberment of the Union Pacific company, but as usual the news was regarded as premature, and general denials were forthcoming.

Color, however, was given later to the exclusive story of The Bee when Messrs. Daugherty and Cook, representing the foreign bondholders, came to Omaha to secure all the information possible regarding the conduct of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company's property by the Union Pacific, and then, to satisfy themselves of the value of the property, made an extensive tour over the entire route of the company's property.
