

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Bob Limerick and James Harris Started for the Pen.

CAUGHT ROBBING A FREIGHT CAR

Have Had a Number of Escapes in the Past but This is the First Time They Have Been Caught in a Serious Crime.

If the evidence upon which the police are now working turns out to be as expected, Bob Limerick and James Harris, who have had a number of escapes that narrowly missed sending them both to the penitentiary, seem likely to spend a couple of years in the penitentiary.

Late Tuesday night Bob Limerick and James Harris stole quietly to the place and were making off with the stuff when the watchmen caught Limerick, but Harris escaped and was not arrested until nearly 5 o'clock yesterday morning.

BENEFIT OF BROS.

Dress Goods and Silks-Carpets and Curtains. Thursday we offer 50 pieces of 36 to 40-inch half wool dress goods, neat style, all colors, that we formerly sold at 25c, 25c and 30c, all at one price, to wit, 15c a yard.

Carroll Has Snakes.

Frank Carroll, who is suspected of having stolen some clothing from a Broadway bartender, was brought before Justice Field yesterday afternoon for a preliminary examination on the charge of larceny from a building.

Settle Down.

Now that Kelly's army has come and gone and none much the worse for their visit, let us settle down to business once more and profit by the great lesson they have taught us.

Garnishments Must Stop in Iowa

In a short time, as Iowa has passed a law against them, this is your last chance to collect your accounts before the law goes into force.

Ascension Day.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., May 2.—To All Sir Knights: The following program will be observed by Ivanhoe commandery, No. 17, Knights Templar, on Thursday, May 3.

W. H. JACKSON, Recorder.

At the service at St. Paul's church this morning the following music will be performed by the supplied choir, augmented by Mrs. W. H. Wakefield, Miss. Neilsen and others.

Furnace Work.

Mr. W. J. Lauterwasser, well known to be one of the best furnace men in this section, has engaged with P. C. DeVol. He and John Scott will work together and it goes without saying that whatever they do will be perfectly done.

Charles Lunkley, the well known undertaker, will occupy the building at 228 Broadway after April 20. Various improvements will be made which will give him one of the finest undertaking establishments in the west.

All wool ingrainings from 55c to 75c yard.

COUNCIL BLUFFS CARPET CO.

Everybody knows Davis sells drugs.

Washerwomen use Domestic soap.

Signed Green's Petition.

W. R. Green of Audubon, who has been mentioned already as an active candidate for the district judgeship to take the place occupied by Judge Deemer, has secured the endorsement of almost every member of the Council Bluffs bar.

culated among them and was sent to Governor Jackson yesterday containing, it is said, the names of all but one of the Council Bluffs attorneys. He lived here about six years ago, being a member of the firm of Wright, Baldwin & Haldane, but since moving to Audubon has been a member of the law firm of Nash, Phelps & Green.

Another Change.

It seems to be the will of the people, and to a certain extent human nature, to want changes in various forms, but none more than a change of sales, which has been given by the Boston Store since the beginning of the great syndicate sale, and which has been attended by the ladies in great force.

Now, for the next two days—Wednesday and Thursday—it will be cordons, and as usual, we call your attention to show window display in windows Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4, which represent a few of the many inducements offered in the store.

Fire on Main Street.

The fire department was called out at 3 o'clock yesterday morning by an alarm from the corner of Main street and Eighth avenue. A lamp had exploded in the second floor of the St. Louis hotel, and before the flames could be extinguished they had demolished all the front part of the second story.

A small unoccupied cottage at the corner of Twenty-sixth street and Avenue C caught fire about noon in some unknown way, but the blaze was extinguished with but small damage.

Evans Laundry company, shirts, collars, and cuffs a specialty, 520 Pearl street, Tel. 290. Reasonable rates for family work.

Buy your drugs and paints at Morgan's drug store, 134 and 142 Broadway.

Special prices in millinery at Miss Ragsdale's this week, 10 Pearl street.

The laundries use Domestic soap.

Writing to quit.

Mary Brown wandered into Council Bluffs last March from Lyons. She met Peter Maher of Cuming county, Nebraska, the day of her arrival—Thursday—and on Saturday they were married.

Cole & Cole give a $150 cook book with every New Process stove sold.

Jarvis Wine Co., Council Bluffs, Ia., agent Jarvis 1877 brandy, wines and liquor.

Domestic soap breaks hard water.

Personal Paragraphs.

Ex-Sheriff James O'Neill of Neola was in the city yesterday.

Mason Wile left yesterday for a trip to Excelsior Springs, Mo.

C. G. Saunders left last evening for a business trip to Kansas City.

Mrs. Frank Pusy leaves Saturday for a summer's visit to New York.

John P. Davis has returned from a visit to the Midwinter fair in San Francisco.

Miss Simon of Des Moines is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. O. H. Simon, on Willow avenue.

For forty years Cook's Extra Dry Imperial Champagne has stood the test for purity and its delicious bouquet.

While you are paying for laundry why not get the best? The Eagle Laundry solicits a trial in this cheaply.

Meyers-Durfee Furniture company, 326-328 Broadway. Bargains in fine furniture.

Get pieces of Shugart & Ouren, leading seedmen, Masonic temple, Council Bluffs.

Domestic soap outlasts cheap soap.

Minor Mention.

Attend Boston trade syndicate sale.

Miss Maud Oliver entertained the Ebony week last evening at her home on Park avenue.

Judge Deemer granted a divorce yesterday to Mrs. Elizabeth Davenport from Taylor Davenport on the ground of desertion.

Mrs. Witter's Sunday school class will give a social Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. Wycoff, 2716 Sixteenth avenue.

Chambers' dancing academy closed its spring season by a party for adults last evening. It was very well attended and a most enjoyable affair.

The levee and embankment this side of the terminal bridge is being widened and strengthened in anticipation of the usual spring rise in the river.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will give a free social in the church parlors this evening. A pleasing literary and musical program has been provided.

Rev. A. J. Turkle, pastor of Kountze Memorial Lutheran church of Omaha, preaches this evening for St. John's English Lutheran church at James' hall, 17 Pearl street.

The social to have been given by L. C. Dale's Sunday school class in the Broadway Methodist church this evening has been postponed one week, owing to a conflict of engagements.

Canton Pottawattamie, No. 6, Independent Order of Old Fellows, will give a reception in the honor of J. T. DeBot of Muscatine, the department commander brigadier general.

Owing to the sand storm the Gaymède wheel was taken to Omaha, which was booked for last night and was postponed until this evening. The round trip over the Terminal bridge is seventeen miles long.

The funeral of Robert Crombie took place yesterday afternoon at the Baptist church, Rev. T. F. Thielstun officiating. A large number of sympathizing friends of the family were present to pay their last tribute of respect to the dead.

It is reported that George Washington Makepeace, a somewhat notorious attorney, who lived here until a few months ago, is in jail at St. Louis for the charge of robbery.

It is preferred by one Marshall, who claims that Makepeace assaulted him and took $10 out of his pocket.

The Council Bluffs Whist club will play the Omaha club next Wednesday night at the latter's rooms in Omaha. Two former games have resulted in victories for the Council Bluffs club. Twenty players will be on each side, and half of the tables will play duplicate whist, while the other half will play the old-fashioned game.

While a game of whist was being put up for the telephone company the corner of Broadway and Pearl streets yesterday morning Ira MacConnell, a brother of S. P. MacConnell, was being badly hurt.

The pole fell upon a huge block of wood which was sent flying through the air and finally struck C. A. Moore's door, bursting the lock off and sending the door flying narrowly missing hitting MacConnell in the head.

George J. Crane, who was circulating a petition for the opening of saloons under the new law, secured 1925 signatures yesterday afternoon, securing 1925 signatures. The majority of the votes cast at the last city election was 1,899, so that he had a margin of twenty-two votes.

The names of the twenty players will be on each side, and half of the tables will play duplicate whist, while the other half will play the old-fashioned game.

On reading that letter Mr. Scott went himself to Glasgow with his son's wife and placed her in the home of her married sister, the wife of Heers, who had been married. He did not leave Scotland until he secured from his daughter-in-law a confession that Throssen had betrayed her while he was at Coblenz. Mr. Scott admits having secured this confession and says that it was made by the girl of her own free will. The family then leaving Hedwig to her fate, returned to this country and young Scott went to Deadwood to study law. After the proper

HURLED ROCKS ONTO THEM

Ancient Mode of Warfare Successfully Adopted in the Southwest.

YAQUIS MASSACRE MEXICAN SOLDIERS

General Torres Led by the Wily Indians Into a Veritable Valley of Death and Nearly Half His Army Killed or Wounded.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., May 2.—News is received here that the Yaqui Indians were the victors in a battle with the Mexican soldiers. Once again the wily Indians have ambushed the forces sent against them.

A day or two ago a statement was published that two companies of Mexican troops stationed at Ensenada had been ordered to Guaymas, Sonora, on the Gulf of California for immediate duty. At the time it was thought to be an ordinary and unimportant transfer of soldiers, but the report which now comes indirectly from the Mexican officers at Ensenada gives that movement a most sensational aspect.

President Diaz selected General Torres for this work because of his experience and supposed ability to accomplish the desired purpose. But, like the other commanders who have tried it, according to the report, Torres met the Yaquis and was defeated. The report says a force composed of soldiers taken from different regiments, accompanied by a party of national militia in command of a lieutenant colonel, lately arrived from the north, were sent in pursuit of the Yaquis in the Sierra de Bacatec.

On the afternoon of the fifth day of the march the trail led the pursuers into a long, deep, narrow defile in the Sierra de Bacatec. The walls of the canyon were almost precipitous, rising to a height in places of over 2,000 feet and covered with brush. The command was halted and the skirmishers pushed forward to uncover any possible ambush. The skirmish line climbed the walls and beat the brush as far as possible without result, and then a line clearly defined in the sand in the bottom ordered them forward.

Higher and higher rose the war cries of the well-armed Yaquis, who now began firing volley after volley directly at the struggling mass below, where all was confusion. The men dashed through the broken column, trampling on the dead and wounded soldiers, and others under the pitiless hail of bullets still unhurt sought the bushes and rocks above and watched with cocked rifles for some sign of their bloodthirsty foes. In such confusion it was impossible for the commands of officers to be heard, but finally the Yaquis founded a wounded bugler with yet life enough to sound a call.

In a few moments, although still in range of those deadly rocks and rifles, those of the wounded began to move with assistance were started back down the canon, while those who were able to offer any resistance fled after volley after volley into the bushes on the cliffs and had the satisfaction of seeing a half-dozen Yaqui leaders and veterans in hiding place and come whirling down through 1,000 feet of space.

As rapidly as possible the survivors of this awful onslaught fled for the open ground, where their fate had not dared to follow, and after a brief rest over which they had marched so cheerfully the day before.

The number of killed cannot be accurately stated, but it is estimated that 500 men were killed and 200 were wounded. An additional force of 200 militia has been organized at Hermosillo and the campaign against his party of reds will be pushed vigorously.

Torres himself and a small party of soldiers retreated to Guaymas where, according to one version which has reached Ensenada, he has been placed under arrest because of his failure. This is not generally believed. At any rate, all the Mexican troops of Lower California and Sonora are being mobilized and another campaign is being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

It is said that Don Jacob Corda, a young doctor, after the encounter in the canon, left a place called La Mesa, with a small escort to attend the wounded and to bring the place called Arenas fell into the hands of the Yaquis. According to report he was slain in a most cruel manner, the savages tearing his feet and making him walk. They finally lanced him.

The Sierra de Bacatec is ten days journey from Guaymas and is one of the most important of the strongholds of the Yaquis. It is said that only 100 or 200 Yaquis were in the rebellion. Further details from Guaymas are expected as they are to Mexico who the Apaches are to Arizona—only if anything they are more cruel. They are magnificent specimens of manhood, few being under six feet and have almost unlimited powers of endurance.

They have been entirely subdued, but they struggle in a desperate and unrelenting manner, and are now being organized against the Yaquis, but whether General Torres is to lead it or not remains to be seen.

CLAIR WILL GET HIS MONEY

His Fight with the Street Railway Company Settled by Agreement Yesterday.

STOPPING OF CARS WILL BE PAID FOR

Each Side Makes a Few Concessions and Judge Ambrose Discourses Upon the Rights and Duties of Corporations and Officials.

The street railway case that had been the attraction in Judge Ambrose's court for two days was disposed of yesterday by an amicable settlement between the attorneys, the defendants consenting to an injunction as prayed for by the plaintiff and agreeing to pay $20.95 as damages resulting from the tie-up of the cars last Friday afternoon, the plaintiff agreeing on the other hand to satisfy the judgment in favor of Matthew W. Clair, recently affirmed by the supreme court.

Y. M. C. A. LEADERS IN SESSION.

General Secretaries from All Over the Country Meet at Cedar Rapids.

CEAR RAPIDS, Ia., May 2.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The twenty-fourth annual conference of the Association of General Secretaries of the Young Men's Christian Association of North America opened this afternoon with some 100 delegates from all over the country and Canada, including several international secretaries. Others are expected to continue to arrive until the number is swelled to 200. William McCulloch of Toronto, secretary of the executive committee, presided at the opening and introduced John J. Mott of Indianapolis, who will preside at this session. After the opening exercises the committee of Mr. Taggart of the international committee held a conference with the state and provincial secretaries to consider the ways and means of a more thorough co-operation between the state and provincial committees and the various state committees.

Supreme Council of the A. P. A. Meets.

DES MOINES, May 2.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The supreme council of the American Protective Association began a meeting here today with 220 delegates present, and many more added before the day was over. The only business transacted at the morning session was the appointment of a committee on credentials, with G. C. Baker of California, chairman. An evening session was held with addresses by ex-Governor Gossard of California, Rev. Alan Fassett of Ohio, Prof. Walter Sims of Washington, D. C., and later short addresses by prominent members of the association.

Booming Owls.

DES MOINES, May 2.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Over 100 citizens of Owlin, Ia., are in Des Moines today. The delegates are in Des Moines for the purpose of the effort to secure for that town the permanent location of the machine shops of the from wall to wall department. A syndicate has purchased 3,000 acres of land, divided it into lots and is trying to sell them.

Ramsay's Case with the Jury.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., May 2.—The arguments were completed and the instructions of the court delivered in the Ramsay case today. This afternoon the case was in the hands of the jury.

FLOCK OUTPUT FOR THE WEEK.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 2.—The Northwest Miller says: The flock made another big week, ending 29,308 birds of four, against 182,896 during the previous week, and 124,615 for the corresponding week in 1893. Four less mills, representing 12,000 barrels, were sold during the week, partly owing to the railroad strike. There is no improvement in the flour trade. Orders for flour are being received at 20c per barrel, against 17c, and freight rates facilitate transactions. Direct flour shipments were 25,500 barrels, against 18,700 barrels for the previous week.

Belmont Canal Company's Improvements.

SIDNEY, Neb., May 2.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The Belmont Canal company is making great improvements here. Seventy-five houses are now occupied and fifty more are located here today. Sixteen carloads of lumber have been ordered from Omaha dealers. Two ditch machines are in the field, with three surveying forces staking out the track of land, running ditches and superintending construction. General Manager G. J. Hunt is ably assisted by Lawrence, Scott and Coffey, surveyors. One of the greatest enterprises in Cheyenne county, and Omaha capital is heavily backing it. This will soon be one of the foremost counties in the state in the way of agriculture and stock raising. Efforts will be made to have the government donate Fort Sidney to this city. It has already been noted as a pretentious post in the Department of the Platte.

Little Pills for Great Ills: DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Small pills, safe pills, little pills.

Simple ailments neglected may grow deadly. A handy remedy is

Beecham's Pills

(Worth a Box) in all cases where Liver and Stomach trouble is suspected.

DOCTOR SEARLES & SEARLES, SPECIALISTS

Chronic Nervous Private & Special Diseases. WE CURE

Treatment by Mail Consultation Free. We cure Catarrh, All Diseases of the Nose, Throat, Glands, Stomach, Liver, Blood, Skin and Digestive Disorders, Female Weaknesses, Lost Manhood, and ALL PRIVATE DISEASES.

Call on Dr. Searles & Searles, 118 South 13th St., Omaha, Neb.

Dr. Searles and Searles, 118 South 13th St., Omaha, Neb.

Dr. Searles and Searles, 118 South 13th St., Omaha, Neb.

Dr. Searles and Searles, 118 South 13th St., Omaha, Neb.

Dr. Searles and Searles, 118 South 13th St., Omaha, Neb.

Dr. Searles and Searles, 118 South 13th St., Omaha, Neb.

Dr. Searles and Searles, 118 South 13th St., Omaha, Neb.

Dr. Searles and Searles, 118 South 13th St., Omaha, Neb.