Fears that Some New Technicality Will Be Raised to Postpone the Investment of the Funds According to the Ruling.

LINCOLN, May 2 .- (Special to The Bee.) -Governor Crossess stated to The Bee this afternoon that he was highly pleased with the decision of the supreme court in the case brought by himself to test the law requiring the state treasurer to invest the permanent school fund in state warrants.

The decision is in every way satisfactory to myself," said the governor. "Under the decision there can be no possible excuse for the further evasion of the law. although it is likely that other technical objections may be raised. I hope the Board of Educational Lands and Funds will hold a caused to be burned the Dorchester opera meeting Immediately and instruct the treasurer to purchase a large amount of the | surance company, in August, 1892, was the outstanding warrants and thus save the interest for the use of the temporary school fund. As I understand the decision, the board can by resolution direct the treasurer to invest a stated amount in warrants at a stated price. Then when that amount is expended the board may by further resolution direct the treasurer to make another purchase. Of course, the board may instruct the treasurer that in case any warrants are presented that may seem to him to be invalid, he may hold such individual warrants for the inspection of the board, but this, I apprehend, will not occur. As far as I am concerned, the Board of Public Lands and Buildings will take imme

Secretary of State Allen, also a member of the Board of Purchase and Supplies, had not read the full opinion carefully, but stated that he approved its general provisions. He thought the main difficulty in the way of the enforcement of the law was to secure the warrants. Unless the board could authorize the treasurer to pay a premium he did not see how parties holding warrants could be compelled to surrender them and thus lose the premium that they now command. Warrants for less than $100, said the secretary of state, do not command par, and the decision will enable the holders of small warrants to get their money at once. To this extent, at least, he believed the decision of the su-

MAY HAVE A NEW EXCHANGE. The prospects that Lincoln will have a new telephone company are improving. It is stated on good authority that A. D. Kitchen and other well known citizens have interested themselves in the project and that they have been in correspondence with several eastern parties. The fact that the new telephone ordinance refused to give the Nebraska Telephone company an exclusive franchise is freely commented exclusive franchise is freely commented upon in Lincoln. The first ordinance introduced gave that company practically the exclusive right to operate a telephone system in Lincoln. It was defeated largely through the efforts of Councilman George Woods, who prepared and offered the substitute ordinance which was passed Tuesday night. The substitute ordinance hardly meets the ordinance which was passed Tuesday ment.
The substitute ordinance hardly meets the approbation of the Nebraska Telephone com-pany, and it is freely predicted that they will be in no hurry to commence the ex-tensive improvements which they have so long promised in the way of underground wires, a fire proof building and a new switch board.

NEW REPUBLICAN CLUB. The Young Men's Republican club has seen reorganized and rechristianed the "Tartarrax club" in honor of old King Tartar-rax, the original republican who came over on the Mayflower with Hernando Cortez and discovered the city of Lincoln. The new constitution makes a number of radical changes in the old one. The executive com-mittee of seven members gives way to a board of control of fifteen members. Permanent headquarters are provided for and a secretary with a paid salary attached placed in charge. The maximum age of embers remain at 35, an effort to increase reduce membership fees from $2 to $1 was plans for conducting Lincoln Park the coming summer are to make it a first class family resort, where a man can take or send his wife or daughter, knowing they will be protected from harm or insult. I intend removing my family to the park for the summer, and this fact alone would give the lie to the rumors referred to. The fact of my not making the change in the management public was owing to arrangements not yet perfected. At the proper time due announcement will be made of the opening. The company refused to pay the tax and discontinued its business here January 5. There has been no "hello" here until today, when an amicable adjustment of the differences between the town and the company was had, the company agreeing to pay the tax. The issue at the recent town election turned upon this question, and re-suited in the re-election of the old board which passed the taxing ordinance. The board is organized with Mr. Joshua Wilbur as president for the second derm. Rumor predicts a serious clash between the two factions of the Catholic church at the time of the regular services next Sunday morning.

Incendiary. WILBER, Neb., May 3:- (Special Telegram to The Bee.)-The preliminary hearing of H. T. Decker, brought from Colorado on a requisition, charged with having burned or house, in order to defraud the Home In most sensational that has ever taken place in a justice court in this county. S. M. Nenard, who was manager of the opera house at the time of the fire, swore that he had himself set the building on fire and that it was done at the instigation of Decker, for which he was to receive, and did receive $100. On cross-examination he swore that in the afternoon of the Sunday the fire took place he had placed shavings, coal oil, etc. under the stage and fixed a candle so that they would ignite on its burning down. In he evening he went to church, and at a late four when all was quiet he went and lit the candle he had fixed and then went to bed.
He says he slept for an hour before he was awakened by the noise in the street. He also swore he had not been promised anything for his evidence by the insurance company, but on a letter being produced, in which he wrote Decker that he had been offered $500 by the company and making threats if his requests for assistance were not complied with, he acknowledged the signature as his. The other witnesses for the state testified as to a conversation over-heard between Decker and Nenard. The defense did not call any witnesses.

Decker was held in $1,000 bail for trial, which he at once gave. Nenard, the principal witness for the state and self-confessed

LONDON, May 3 .- The trial of Ferrari and Polti, the Italian anarchists recently arrested in this city, was commenced today at the Old Bailey before Justica Hawkins. The police took great precautions to prevent the possibility of an anarchist outrage. No one was admitted to the public gallery without having been closely scrutinized and searched. Pamphlet of Sir Joseph McKenna Creates Somewhat of a Sensation.

LONDON, May 3 .- At this morning's session of the International Bimetallic conference at the Mansion house. Sir William H. Houldsworth, who was the delegate of Great Britain at the monetary conference at Brussels, read a paper on the "Effects upon Agriculturists, Manufacturers, Wage Earners, Merchants, Bankers and Investors of the Fall in the General Level of Prices,"

M. Thery, one of the French delegates, warmly urged the establishment of an international bimetallic league. The proposal was cominily supported, and it is general beliaved that it will be carried into effect. A pamphlet upon the silver question has just been published by Sir Joseph McKenna, ex-director of the National Bank of Ireland. The pamphlet is creating a sensation in financial circles and at the bimetallic conference. It is devoted to proving that Lord Liverpool's legislation of 1816 was simply a fraud, the object being to cheat the public out of 4 shillings in each pound, troy weight, of new coin. It is added that Lord Liverpool made that paltry gain not for himself, but for the treasury. Sir Joseph McKenna ac-quits Lord Liverpool of intentional dishonesty, and prefers to attribute the fraud to his stupidity. The silverites claim that when this is understood it will strongly establish public opinion in favor of the re-establishment of bimetallism.

WASHINGTON, May 3 .- Following is a copy of a cablegram sent to the lord mayor of London apropos of the bimetallic confer-ence held in that city. The cablegram was signed by several United States senators: We desire to express our cordial sympa-hy with the movement to promote the estoration of silver or by international greement in behalf of which we under-tand a meeting is being held under your ordship's presidency...

We believe the free coinage of both gold lordship's presidency.

We believe the free collage of both gold and sliver by international agreement, with a fixed ratio, would secure to mankind the blessing of a sufficient volume of metallic money and, which is hardly less important, secure to the world of trade immunity from violent exchange fluctuations.

The document was signed only by sena-tors who voted for the repeal of the Sherman bill, the signers being: John Sher-man, W. B. Allison, D. W. Voorhees, George F. Hoar, Nelson W. Aldrich, David B. The gentlemen are warm friends, but in some points they have not agreed as to the management. Mr. Kohisaat was young and ambitious and desired to control all departments. But not wishing to create friction he proposed to Mr. Nixon terms on which he would buy or sell, and the latter accepted his offer to sell and purchased Mr. Kohl-saat's entire holdings. Mr. Kohlsaat was also repaid for all advances made to the company. It is undertood he received about $400,000. Mr. Nixon said: "There

During his administration Mr. Kohisaat spent money freely, largely increasing the business and circulation of the paper. He has added greatly to the newspaper plant and leaves it bettered by more than $100,000. He sails for Europe with his family next week. It is understood that it was through the aid of personal friends that Mr. Nixon was able to make the purchase. The names of these friends are not known to the public.

Mr. Nixon already owned a large interest in the paper and Mr. Kohisaat had a controlling interest. The men who took Mr. Kohisaat's interest are said to be William Henry Smith, formerly of the Associated press; Delayan Smith, his son; R. S. Peale and two or three others. No authorizative figures are given, though Mr. Kohisaat's price is said to be somewhere between $234,000 and $274,000.

Mr. Nixon had a controlling interest by virtue of trustreship when Mr. Kohisaat bought in nearly three years ago. The royalist papers declare that the admiral comes for the purpose of taking possession of Pearl harbor and that as soon as it is accomplished he will proceed to organize a new government. They even go so far as to say that Admiral Walker will restore the
