

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE. PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Bee without Sunday, One Year, $3.00.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. The Omaha Daily Bee, published by The Bee Publishing Company, during the month of April, 1894, was as follows:

George H. Tschick, secretary of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of the Daily Bee, printed and sent to subscribers during the month of April, 1894, was as follows:

Chiefman Wilson will have to have another formal introduction to the tariff bill that bears his name.

Might we suggest to the members of the Board of Health that they attempt to cut their garments according to the cloth.

The proverbial hue with which the town is ordinarily painted will assume a different color during the Hibernian convention.

The visiting Hibernians should make themselves at home in Omaha. The best is none too good for Omaha's guests, nor can Omaha's hospitality be exhausted.

When Senator Aldrich said that there were 200 changes in the tariff bill in contemplation by the democratic senators he did not strike so far out of the way after all.

Statutory exemptions of property from taxation are being abused and in some instances ignored. They were not made to assist tax shirkers in attempts to escape the tax assessor.

Another inquiry into the causes of the industrial depression is proposed. Did any of the numerous inquiries into the causes of the last industrial depression prevent in any degree their operation to produce the recent crisis?

Congressman Bland has not yet succeeded in bringing up another free coinage measure in the house, and if he respects the wishes of his colleagues he will not inflict that subject on them again until the monetary condition of the country shall have materially changed.

The St. Paul Chamber of Commerce has a ready-made solution of the problem of the unemployed in the suggestion that they set to work to cultivate uncultivated government lands.

Can there be any more effective way of shutting out competition in the proposals for electric lighting than limiting the contract to one year? Who will come to Omaha and invest his capital in an electric lighting plant on the assurance of a one year's contract for the public lighting?

The resolutions adopted by the scholars of the Dodge street school thanking the school board and their instructors for the opportunities extended to them to learn the English language and to avail themselves of the public school facilities is gratifying evidence that these schools are duly appreciated by those for whose benefit they have been established.

The new Dutch ministry assumes office with a program for suffrage extension calculated to put Holland abreast of the other European countries that have been broadening the basis of representation in their legislatures.

The eagerness with which the members of Kelly's army applied themselves to the construction of the boats that are to take them down the Des Moines river shows that they are not to be frightened by work, provided that work is in the line of promoting their advance upon their destination.

Haskell arguing that because of a recent recession way up in Minnesota the city of Omaha cannot enter into any contract for a longer time than the tax levy runs, is almost enough to make a horse laugh.

It seems evident that the miners have the advantage if they hold together, and as they appear to fully understand, and as yet there has been no weakening among them anywhere, but, on the contrary, they have been making gains, as the dispatches of yesterday show.

One of the Michigan members of congress has suddenly lost his sense of hearing, a calamity which may compel him to retire from public life.

The anti-option bill has been reported to the house of representatives from the committee on agriculture, and it will be called up for consideration when an opportunity offers.

THE COMPROMISE TARIFF BILL.

There is more protection in the compromise tariff bill than there was in the bill that passed the house or in the revised measure first reported to the senate.

It is understood that forty-three democratic senators, a sufficient number to pass it, have approved this amended bill and will give it their support.

It is highly probable that the democratic members of the house ways and means committee will object to such a reflection as this compromise bill makes upon their intelligence and judgment.

The result of the conference of coal mine operators and miners to be held in Cleveland May 15 is awaited with general interest.

The grand aim of our common schools is to bring together children of all classes and races in order to impress upon their minds the principles of citizenship.

These are the facts. During eighteen years of protection the country was untroubled by depression. When it was known that protection was to cease prosperity ceased.

REVISED TARIFF BILL DENOUNCED AS AN ILLEGITIMATE BANTLING.

Senator Morrill thinks if the Democrats will only listen to Republican speeches they will learn something in time.

SENATOR GRAY DOES NOT RELISH IT

Senator Gray does not relish it. He would prefer to yield to him, he said. But Mr. Gray was not to be put off.

WASHINGTON, MAY 8.

There was a promise of an electrical display in the senate when that body met today. The republicans were active and disposed to ask some embarrassing questions concerning the "compromise amendments" offered to the tariff bill yesterday.

Mr. Quay demanded the presence of a quorum before the Journal was read. Some routine business intervened.

The credentials of Senator-elect Gear of Iowa were presented by Mr. Allison. Mr. Hoar questioned the form of the certificate.

A certificate of the speaker of the Iowa house and the president of the Iowa senate was not sufficient, Mr. Wilson, whom Mr. Gear is to succeed, stated that the certificate was in the form usually employed in Iowa.

Mr. Allison suggested the certificate lie on the table. There was plenty of time, he said, between now and March 4 next to examine it.

At 11:30 Mr. Harris, in charge of the tariff bill, abruptly moved to proceed with the consideration of that bill.

The resolution offered by Mr. Allen yesterday looking to the appointment of a special committee to investigate the alleged police clubbing on the steps of the capitol on the occasion of the Coxy demonstration went over until tomorrow.

When the tariff bill was laid before the senate Mr. Hoar took the floor.

After asserting that the people meant that the senate should respond only to their deliberate will, Mr. Hoar asked the people to be asked to enact into law a program that the people have got over.

The hasty action and the excitement of the fall of 1892 which the American people more readily expected to consider of that bill.
