us today with infinite tenderness and love for the children of their race, in whom the noblest and most generous of national characters and the national piety towards the immortal dead who built up that character, stronger than ribbed steel and stronger than the bedrock of the world.

SCANNELL SPOKE IN CELTIC

Right Rev. Bishop Richard Scannell of this city delivered the following speech in the Celtic language: A Dhaoiné Gael: na h-Eireann: Bhi thainn mor an la bh'eadh an uir thainn thair no seachad na Gaelic O'Connell, a ceann leighantain d'an chaitheamh mor Washington ag rann hoch rann sibhse Sean Gaelic ag chur suas anns an chaitheamh.

He cautioned his friends to pay no attention to the rabid utterances of this unmerciful movement, lest they start in a panic, and by taking three straight from the Diablers. The teams will be:

ST. JOSEPH, May 9.—(Special Telegram to the Bee.)—The record of the home team remains clear after the game today at Peoria. The record of the home team was 4 to 1 in favor of the Diablers.

CLOSING SPEECHES OF THE SESSION

M. B. Fausler of Loganport, Ind., state delegate to the convention, said: "The association so aptly named complains that the Irish are guilty of absorbing all the offices in the country."

WEXFORD FROM WEXFORD

WEXFORD, May 9.—The next speaker, Judge M. F. Wilhere, of Philadelphia, was the next speaker. He is the national delegate of the order, and when he arose the whole audience stood up as a mark of respect.

Notes of the Convention

J. A. Kilroy of Lincoln made an excellent presiding officer at the open session. James Caspersy is reporting the proceedings of the convention for the Madison, Wis., Democrat.

Notes of the Convention

The city was visited by many people from Council Bluffs and South Omaha, who witnessed the proceedings.

Notes of the Convention

Reference to Phil Sheridan's achievements during the civil war created applause and then the speaker took up the matter of antagonism to all Catholics by a certain secret organization styled the American Protective Association.
