THE OMAHA DAILY BRE: MONDAY, MAY 14, 1894.

CLOTHING THIEVES CAUGHT Detectives Spoil the Sport of Fishermen at Cut-Off Lake. WANTED FOR BURGLARY IN PENNSYLVANIA

Had the Plunder Stored in the Old Arlington Road House-Patrick Manning Confesses to Having Been a Bad Man in His Time.

William Brown and Stuart Appelgate of Easton, Pa., were arrested yesterday for burglary and grand larceny.

On April 26 the tailor shop of Warren W. Show, in Easton, was entered by burglars and eight suits of clothes,, valued at $300. taken, and also a box, in which some cloth had previously been packed. This led to a suspicion that whoever took the goods meant to ship them away, and this theory proved to be the correct one. However, the robbers were clever enough not to ship the goods from Easton, but sent them from the little town of Allentown.

The authorities of Easton went to the various express offices in the city, but could find no trace of the property, and finally concluded to go to Allentown. At the office of the United States Express company they learned that a box had been left there consigned to George Brown, at Omaha, Neb. This gave the officers a clew and they at once wired to the police authorities in this city. The telegram read: "Arrest for grand larceny and burglary William Brown and Stuart Appelgate," and was signed by J. Johnson, town detective. The telegram was received by the Omaha authorities yesterday morning at 9 o'clock and at 3 in the after noon Brown and Appelgate were in jail. The telegram also stated the fact that the goods had been consigned to the United States Express company. Detectives Haze, Hudson, Hayes and Vaughn were detailed to book the matter up. A visit to the express office disclosed the fact that a box had been received there consigned to one George Brown; that it came on May 1. The counter book showed the box had been turned over to the party to whom it was addressed on May 2 and that it had been taken by an A. D. T. wagon.

At the American Distrist Telegraph office a slight clew was obtained as to Brown's residence. While the exact number could not be learned, the officers were told it was somewhere near the Sherman avenue bridge. Romewhere near the Sherman avenue bridge. They finally got the exact location from a groceryman. The house is 3721 Sherman avenue, and here Detective Haze wont to make inquiry. He found that such a man as Brown resided there, but his name was Frank and not George, as the address on the box indicated. He further learned that Frank Brown had a breather who had a but Frank Brown had a brother who but recently came from the east, and another young fellow whose first name was Stuart. Haze said he thought that William Brown, the brother of Frank, was the one he desired to see. He was told then that neither he nor the young man whom they knew by the name of Stuart were at home. It began to look doubtful, but as Haze was certain he had found the right parties he told Hayes and Vaughn to remain at the house and catch them if they returned, and he and Hudson would search for them elsewhere. A little girl was seen going to the house and Haze approached her and she told him that Wil-liam Brown and Stuart had gone fishing up to Cut-Off lake. Haze and Hudson started there and after a weary search for some one with a fishing rod, they finally located two men sitting on the bridge diving board. The detectives approached and asked in a leisurely manner if they were catching many fish. The men looked up and said they had done better in their day, but as they had just come out maybe they could tell more about it later. During this conversation the officers had a good chance to size the men up and after a few moments they were told they were under arrest. They did not seem to be very much surprised; they did not even drop their fish line and seemed to take the matter as a joke. They were shortly vinced to the said to the officers: "Gentlemen, I know what you want, but we are on Iowa soll and you cannot arrest either of us." Haze, for a moment, was slightly taken back, but said "Of course I cannot take you if you will not go, but under arrest you are and I will take you to Council Bluffs. Now you may take your choice; if you see anything to be gained by compelling me to walk you over to the Bluffs in the hot sun or to take you to Nebraska, all well and good, but I will take you somewhere." Brown decided at on go to Nebraska and he was taken back to the house where Vaughn and Hayes were stationed to watch for them. The search warrants were produced and six suits of clothes found. The men were then taken to the police station. The men confessed to the burglary and complimented the police on their capture, saying that they had no more idea they were likely to be arrested than that they were going to have wings. They also told the police where they sold the other suits. Brown is a very handsome fellow, bright, refined and has the appearance of being a gentleman. His relatives, who live in Eas-ton, are very respectable. He says this is not the first robbery he has committed, but it is the first time he was ever arrested Applegate has the appearance of one who was led into the business and it is not thought he is a very hardened criminal. The house where the men were arrested kindly requested an advance of $10 thereou was forthe He returned to Grand Island, the place of his first hog contract adventure. He be his first hog contract adventure. He be-came intoxicated, and made himself so ob-noxious that he was thrown into Jail to sober up. The hog buyer who had been swindled h. I not reported his case to the police, and Manning was simply charged with drunkenness. When he became sober enough to reason, he began to think of the offense he had committed in the very town in which he was then in Jail. He was afraid it would only be a very brief time till his sins would find him out and he would be sent to the penitentiary. On the third day of his confinement he was unusually melancholy, and that night he cut his throat with suicidal intent. He slashed a horrible gash, and nearly died he cut his throat with suicidal intent. He slashed a horrible gash, and nearly died from loss of blood before he was discovered and medical aid summoned. Even then his life was despaired of, and he lay for days in a semi-conscious condition. He at last evinced signs of recovery, and after two months of confinement he was released. He bears the sear on his neck, and it was this that caused his arrest.

this that caused his arrest. Manning is about 30 years of age. His parents reside in this city at Twenty-seventh and Center streets.

A Matrimonial Mailucination.

A few days ago the Omaha police were notified that a man who said his name way James Smith and gave this city as his home was wandering about in the vicinity home was wandering about in the vicinity of Glenwood, Ia., in a sadly demented condi-tion. All efforts to get him to leave and come to this city were futile. He said he had a brother-in-law, a Mr. Henningsten, who runs a dairy at Third and Hickory streets, and that he would like to have him go and bring him home. A day or two after this he wandered A day or two after this he wandered into the country about Glenwood and got tangled up in a barb wire fence. Before he in a painful manner. The Glenwood authorities started to take The Glenwood authorities started to take him to Council Bluffs, but he escaped on the way, and it was several hours before he could be located. He was recaptured, but escaped again. He was again captured at the Chautauqua grounds and some of his friends went over after him. Saturday night they started across the bridge, but Smith escaped again, going back to the Bluffs. He was again discovered and Chief Scanlan of Council Bluffs yesterady brought him to this city and placed him in jail.

Mr. Henningston was notified. Smith imagines he is engaged to be mar ried, and when not talking to himself about buying a house and lot or becoming wealthy, he is pounding on the doors for the police to release him in order that he might go and join his intended wife.

Harris' Hard Luck. Fred Harris, a railroader, is lying at the police station with a badly crushed foot. Harris is a Kentuckian and has worked, he says, on most of the railroads of the south. Things became dull there and he was thrown out of employment. He then came west, went to the coast, but he met with reverses there and started east again. Yesterday he was at Gretna, Neb., and being without means attempted to ride the blind baggage to this city. He slipped, and his foot was jammed into a stub switch. He lay on the tracks for an hour and fin-ally dragged himself back to the depot, about this city. HOMESEEKERS' EXCURSIONS SOUTH, Via the Wabash Railroad.

half a mile away. The agent sent him to

On May 8 and 29 the Wabash will sell round trip tickets at one fare to all points in Tennessee (except Memphis), Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana (except New Orleans), Arkansas and Texas. For tickets or descrip-Wabash ticket office, 1502 Farnam street, or write G. N. Clayton, northwestern passenger agent, Omaha, Neb.

Going East Today?

Your choice of four daily trains on the Chicago & Northwestern railway. Two of these trains, at 4:05 p. m. and 6:30 p. m., are vestibuled and limited, arriving in Chicago early next morning. Elite sleepers, dining cars, and the latest reclining chair cars. Call at the city office, 1401 Farnam street.

The Northwestern checks your trunk at your house.

West, There Is wThey

WILL PLOW THE MIGHTY DEEP Navigator Who Will Go Down to the Sea in a Tub.

HIS CRAFT ALMOST READY TO LAUNCH

Faul Boynton to Be Outdone by a Man Who Lives in this City and Who so Far Has Reen Unknown to Fame.

To construct a boat according to preconeived ideas, which were gained only by observation and experience in sailing on the northern lakes, is a task at present engaging the attention of an Omaha man of means. Not being fortified for the undertaking by either a term of apprenticeship in a boat yards with a professional carpenter, nor other similar artisans, which might be considered necessary qualifications for designing and constructing a craft that is intended to withstand the squalls upon the ocean, yet a careful examination of the gentleman's handiwork, now nearing completion, must incline skeptics even to the opinion that the hand of a master builder has been at work upon its construction, so faultless does it appear. The head and the hand of the genius who thus planned and executed is that of Mr. G. F. Shephard, residing on North Twentleth street. He has been a resident of Omaha for the last fifteen years, a few intervals when barring business, that of a rancher his dealer in cattle, demanded and his presence elsewhere. Until last April a year ago he was interested in a ranch near Norfolk, Madison county. At that time he disposed of his property there, and since then has been more or less actively planning for a cruise on the big lakes and along the eastern coast on the Atlantic, to satisfy his longing for adventure and for sport, in which he takes the greatest delight. His aim was and is to circumnavigate, first such bodies of water as Lakes Michigan, Superior, Erie, drift into the St. Lawrence river, and finally exit through the gulf of like name into the Atlantic. Hunting and fishing will be his chief aim all this time. Once on the ocean he will hunt down the festive sword fish and the shark. By sinking harpoons deep down into the flesh of sca monsters he will compel them to whirl his yacht along at a pace excelled only by the iron horse. When no such exciting sport is offered horse, when no such exciting sport is observed he will allow himself to aimlessly drift along, while his thoughts are bent upon un-raveling the unsolved mysteries of the deep. While not expressly built for the pur-pose, the captain says that this idea has been uppermost in his mind during the construc-tion of the yacht. It is said to possess suftion of the yacht. It is said to possess suf-ficient strength and its shape an adequate guaranty to prevent its occupant or occu-pants from finding a grave in the un-fathomed depths which the storm-lashed waves of the mighty Atlantic might other-wise threaten. This course of spending the summer, Captain Shephard informed the re-porter, was suggested to him by the dullness of the times. Being in a measure out of business and feeling loth to re-engage in business, and feeling loth to re-engage in new transactions, he had resolved to carry his plan into execution. The idea of constructing his own craft had not occurred to him until after his visit to different shiphim unth after his visit to unterly such building establishments. Here he encoun-tered difficulty in getting builders to construct his yacht according to his plans. His determination had been to build the yacht with a view to easy draught build the yacht with a view to easy draught and strength primarily and to equip her with a gasoline engine, as an additional power to propel. In these ideas he had met with opposition and so finally he had reached the conclusion to be the builder of his own

UNLIKE ANY OTHER. The vessel to which Mr. Shephard is to entrust himself on a long voyage is unlike the one used by the noted Captain Andrews n his transatlantic trips. The owner, in drawing a comparison between the Nautilius and this yacht, said that the former had

THESE ARE AIR TIGHT.

mainmast is hinged and can be easily low ered, as well as the topmast. The yach

Her size is twenty feet in length, with a width of six feet six inches. She is es-timated to have a carrying capacity of six tons weight or over, but on this trip she will probably not be burdened with more than two tons. All her brass work was cast in this city. Captain Shephard, the owner, is personally a very pleasant gentleman to

In another month he expected to add the finishing touches, and then he would be ready to sail. He had not yet determined of Mexico. Nantucket island was his ob-jective point at present. Mr. Shephard is daily receiving many visits from people who have heard of his daring undertaking.

Perfect health is seldom found, for impure blood is so general. Hood's Sarsaparilla really does purify the blood and reatores

Another Republican Club.

The Young Men's Republican club of Doug-coming summer.

free board.

boat, which for safety would be unsurpassed.

men of good moral character between the ages of 18 and 40 years. A constitution and by-laws were adopted. AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA A constitution and by-laws were adopted. Then followed the election of officers: H. H. Boyles was elected president; Charles Winters, vice president; R. H. Jenness, secretary, and M. G. MacLeod, treasurer. The club will meet the first and third Tuesdays of each month. Question of the City's Rank Still Causing

OPINIONS ON THE PROPOSED TEST CASE of The Bee: I have received a copy of The Disgruntled Base Ball Players Get Mixed Bee of April 3, in which appears a review Up in a Manner that Caused a Rlot of "A New History of Omaha," published Call for the Police-Magic by Munsell & Co. In this article it is stated that "the first fifteen chapters of this work, most of which proceeded from his pen, are of thrilling interest," etc., the pen referred The property owners and taxpayers of to being that of the late Judge Savage. South Omaha are about equally divided of endorsing the action of the Taxpayers league in forcing the issue of testing the class of the city into the courts just at this time The subject has been agitated more or less for the last six months, but after a general discussion it was concluded to drop the matter until after the legislature met next winter.

The course pursued by the present administration, however, did not sult the majority of the Taxpayers league and a movement was put in motion to at once check any expenditure of money by the council until this matter of the class of the city could be settled. It has been erroneously printed that up to the time the present ad ministration took hold salaries were paid in accordance with the laws governing cities of the second class. Practically the same policy has been followed by this adminis-Viz White tration in regard to salaries as was adhered to by the former one.

Much Discussion.

City Gossip.

"You will see when the Taxpayers league has filed its papers in the case," said a man who has held contracts in South "Indian Wars") he never saw a line. The twenty-five chapters I undertook t furnish I either wrote or procured to be written by those whose names are attached Omaha, "that other parties are interested n the defense besides the city officials thereto-probably six in number-and I also There are thousands and thousands of dol-lars worth of bonds outstanding, and the wrote several chapters not included in the contract. In addition, I was to propose a men who hold these bonds will jump in there and make a fight for their rights name index and topical index and to revise there and make a light for their rights that will surprise the men who have taken a hand in this matter. I held several thousand dollars worth of South Omaha bonds myself for a while, but I sold them, not because I was afraid I would not get my money, but I simply wanted to cash them. I don't even live in South Omaha, but have contracted there a great deal and It is to be regretted that the task of pre not undertaken at an earlier date, as thereby more assistance could have been rendered by Judge Savage, whose death occurred in No-vember, 1890, after an illness which had rendered work of any kind a burden to him but have contracted there a great deal, and I am pretty well satisfied that the proposifor a year preceding. I have not seen the book, have had no opportunity to revise the I am pretty wen satisfied that the proposi-tion to have the place declared a city of the second class can never be made to stick. While I held the bonds I employed an at-torney to look up the case and his advice proofs and do not know by whom or in what manner the stirring events of the past three years in Omaha have been detailed. It will be four years next month since Judge Savage ceased his work upon the book, and to me was that the bonds were good and that I would not lose by holding them." three years ago this month I turned over to the publishers his manuscript and my Ex-City Attorney Van Dusen gave the old council advice on the legality of their acts repeatedly and always held that the city own, since which date I have been a resident of California. It is usual for works of this character to be severely criticised, and was working under the head of a city of the first class. It is not unlikely that Mr. Van first class. it is not to be supposed that this case will prove an exception, hence it is but just to Dusen will be retained in defending the action brought by the Taxpayers league. the reputation of Judge Savage (whose mem-ory will always be dear to me), as well as

Ball Players Turn Pugillsts.

The Cudahy "Rex" base ball team and to my own, that the facts with regard, to this latest history of Omaha should be stated. JOHN T. BELL. the local ball nine, which is known as the Lone Stars, played a game at Twenty-sixth and B streets yesterday afternoon which was not witnessed by a very large crowd but which was intensely exciting after the screenth inning. The Cudahy Rex boys were defeated by a score of 10 to 8. S. Hunter was coaching for the Stars. He made a crack or two about the "Rex" team that riled the hows and in here time than Results of the St. Louis Convention Highly Chief of Police Seavey has returned from St. Louis, where he has been attending the that riled the boys and in less time than it takes to tell it there was war. Jack Ford, Mickey Corkner, Dan Condon and Kirby were all in the fight, and it seems that the Hunter brothers of the Star first annual convention of the National "The Chiefs of Police Union of America and Ritoly were bealth in rothers of the Star team got the worst of the meles. A reporter for The Bee saw the Hunter brothers and both were badly used up about the face and head. Their eyes were dark-ened, their faces pealed, their ears bleed-ing and S. Hunter said one of the men had bitten a piece out of his arm the size of a silver dollar. Hunter's version of the scrap was that he was only "kildling" the other fellows when they became angry. He claims to have apologized to the other men after the first words passed, but that his apology was not accepted and the "Rex" gang seemed bound to fight after they saw they were beaten at base ball. None of the "Rex" nine could be found by the reporter. is an assured success, and I am proud of that fact, as I was the originator of the association," said the chief at the Drexel last night. "We had in attendance at the St. Louis convention seventy-three chiefs of police, representing nearly every state and territory in the United States. Many heads of departments in the middle and eastern states who had promised to attend were kept at home by this Coxey movement else we should have had fully 200 members

What do you Wish for,

in the way of easy work? You can have it, if you'll use Pearline. With anything you can think of, that water doesn't hurt, the easiest way to wash it or to clean it is to take Pearline. You can't do any harm, by doing away with that wearing rub, rub, rub. Besides, with almost everything, there are special reasons why you should use Pearline. For instance: There's no shrink to flannels, if they're properly washed with it.

Score 9 to 0

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE-Pearline is never peddled, if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest-send it back. 405 JAMES PYLE, New York. 405

That phenomenal buyer of ours pitched a game for the Nebraska the other day and won it hands down. "T was a pitch and a drop, and a white wash for a team of picked professional buyers of the country. Heap yellow metal done the coaching, and we scored 9 lines of suits without a putout. There was grumbling and cries of foul-as usual-but the umpire said fair play, bought the wine, and we finished the game with a home run, and here they are:

1st	INNINC-A line of all wool dark cassimere suits, dirt cheap at $13.50	$7.50
2nd	INNINC-A load of all wool cheviot suits of dark gray mixture, worth not less than $13.00.	7.50
3rd	INNINC-A lot of all wool cassimere suits-a neat blue invisible stripe-at least, a $13.00 ar- ticle	7.50
4th	INNING-A double-breasted brown check. all wool and honest value at $13.50	7.50
5th	INNING—A eart-load of all wool mixed cheviot suits, light colors, cheap at $13.00	7.50
6th	INNING-A lot of single-breasted blue-checked sults of all wool tweed-can't touch 'em for less than $13.00	7.50
7th	INNINC A double-breasted light mottled cheviot suit, retails everywhere at $13 to $15	7.50
Sth	INNING-A load of suits, strictly all wool, light blue foreign design of Scotch cloth, worth $14.	7.50
9th	INNINC-A lovely pin-checked cheviot double- breasted suit, well worth $13.50	7.50

Now is Yours Chance for a Game-Whitewash Us.

Elaborately Trimmed and Perfect Fitters.

In the contract signed by Judge Savage and myself December 4, 1888, by which we agreed to furnish Munsell & Co. with manuscrift for a history of Omaha, Judge Savage undertook to supply eight chapters, while I assumed the task of preparing twenty-five. The topics chosen by him were as follows: "Early Discoveries," "Indian Occupation and Indian Wars," "Advent of the White Men," "French and American Occupation," "Early Settlements," "Politi-cal History " Darks and Bar" cal History," Bench and Bar," and "Librar-ies." As a matter of fact, owing to his failing health, the chapter on "Bench and was written by Judge Ambrose, upon "Libraries" by Miss Jessie Allan, Bar Omaha's efficient city librarian; those upon "Early Settlement and Political History" by myself, and I also aided in preparing the chapter upon "Indian Occupation and Indian Wars," so that Judge Savage actually furnished but three complete chapters, "Early Discoveries," "Advent of the Men," and "French and American Occupa-tion." Of the remainder of the manuscript (with the exception of the chapter on the proofs.

paring the manuscript for this history

WORK OF POLICE CHIEFS.

Pleasing to the President.

Chiefs of Police Association of America.

what was at one time the Old Arlington road house and years ago it was run by Dan Allen, who is now dead.

THRIFTY IN A SMALL WAY.

Pat Manning Found Gullible People Very Plentiful in Nebraska.

Detectives Hayes and Hudson made neat capture yesterday when they arrested Patrick Manning, and, if the story of Manning himself is to be believed, he is guilty of almost every crime in the criminal calendar except murder. The detectives were walking down Jackson street when they met a very peculiar looking man. He had an ugly scar about five inches in length upon his neck, and as he acted rather sus-piciously they plied him with questions and concluded to lock him up.

About three months ago the police re-ceived a communication from the authorities at Greeley Center, Neb., asking for the arrest of Patrick Manning for disposing of mortgaged property. Nothing was heard of Manning until yesterday, and shortly after his arrest he was taken to the office of the chief detective and closely questioned. He said he was the man wanted, and also added that he had about come to the conclusion to not evade the law longer and would tell everything. He said he was willing to suffer for his crimes and volunteered the in formation that they were numerous. He began by detailing the case at Greeley Center. He said that while in that place he purchased a team of horses for $170, paying down $30, and giving a mortgage for the balance, $140. He then went to Spaulding, a few miles from Greeley Center, and sold the team to William Dunning, without however, lifting the mortgage for $140, and it is this offense for which he is wanted. At Greeley Center he also bought some cattle, paying part cash and giving a mortgage for $350 to Banker Love of that place. He went to Spring Creek, where he disposed of the cattle to Hank Hill, receiving $15 a head. This was the last heard of him around Greeley Center. He went to Genoa, and while there forged a check for $7. He gave the name of John Lewis, and dorsed the check with that signature. He got the money on the check, although it was discovered to be a forgery fifteen minutes after he left the bank, but he escaped. Manning chose Grand Island for his next field. In that city, however, he went by his proper name. He went to a hog buyer there and represented himself as a hog and cattle raiser, and made a contract to sell about fifty hogs, and swindled the buyer out of $10 advanced on the contract. Manning then went to Cedar Rapids and again represented himself as a stock raiser, and desired to make a contract to furnish about fifty hogs. He went to one buyer and made a contract with him to furnish the hogs, and, like in Grand Island, he had the forse hough to secure a cash deposit on the contract of $15. The same hour he went to another buyer in the same town and ne-minated with him also to sell him some bogs. The contract was made, and he

Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, New Mexico, Wyoming, Idaho and Montana. Our second 1894 homeseekers' excursion will leave our Missouri river terminals for all points in above states on May 29. One fare for the round trip. For additional information call on or address H. P. Deuel, C. T. A., 1302 Farnam street, or E. L. Lomax, G. P. and T. A., Omaha, Neb.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

C. H. Imhoff of Lincoln is in the city. M. V. Dorward of Wahoo is in the city. J. E. Ong of Geneva, Neb., is in the city, S. C. Bradley of Des Moines is in the

W. H. Wesack of Adair, Ia., is in the city.

James Steven of Shelton is at the Mil-ard. T. R. French came up from Lincoln last

G. I. Free of Boone, Neb., is at the Mer chants

S. A. Risley of Bennington is at the Mercer

W. H. Chrisman of Mapleton, Ia., is in the city. W. F. Conwell of Neligh was in Omaha yesterday.

Nona Griffith of Sioux City was in Omaha vesterday

J. W. Fowler of Rapid City, S. D., is at the Paxton.

Mrs. L. Moore of Colorado Springs is at the Millard. C. W. Swan of Sioux City was in Omaha

over Sunday

W. A. Steele of Des Moines is registered at the Mercer.

Ralph Platt of Grand Island was in the city yeşterday. George W. Jenner came down from Sidey yesterday.

Miss Helen Lamont of Washington, D. C., s at the Millard.

Mrs. J. N. Tisdale of Salt Lake is stopping at the Paxton. P. J. North and wife of Earling, Ia., were city yesterday. , of Council Bluffs, is

E. B. Bowman, jr., stopping at the Millard. T. H. Spearman and wife of McCook were at the Paxton yesterday. A. P. Brink arrived in the city from Hot Springs, S. D., last night. Dr. A. G. Allen and wife of Deadwood were in the city yesterday. Mrs. H. Rowan and Mrs. George W. Hale of Ord are at the Arcade A. B. Jackson of the United States army was in the city yesterday.

D. L. and B. M. Cromer and William Lewis were in the city last night. James L. Paul, a prominent attorney from Chadron, Neb., was in the city yesterday. J. W. Tinkel and wife and Stella Tinkel of Missouri Valley, Ia., are at the Murray.

C. W. Greeble, F. L. Young and Paul Bize of Julian arrived in the city last*night. W. H. Farwell and son and A. Bruen of Oakland, Ia., arrived in the city last night. J. D. Wherry, manager of the Calhoun

Opera company, was at the Dellone yester-W. T. Scott of Kearney and E. G. Taylor of Ashton are Nebraskans registered at the Merchants J. G. Rockafellow of Grand Island and A.

positively what route he would take from here. He might go down the Missouri to the mouth of the Illinois river, and then up the mouth of the linnois river, and then up to the lakes, through the gulf of St. Law-rence and into the ocean, or if circum-stances forced him to alter his plans, ha would continue down into the Mississippi and reach the Atlantic by way of the Gulf Langer, postmaster at West Point, are at the Arcade

H. F. Flint and daughter, M. H. Noble, and R. H. Hardle of Giffen, Neb., arrived in the city last night and are registered at the Merchants.

J. W. Stark of Keokuk, Ia., is at the Merchants. He says that Kelly and his army will soon reach that city, but the council have passed an ordinance prevent-ing the army from stopping within the city limits imite John B. O'Higgins, who has been in th city during the past week securing material on the an extensive illustrated article Ancient Order of Hibernians, which will soon appear in Donahue's Magazine, has las county met in the Patterson block Saturabout completed his work and will leave for home in a few days. He also represented day night and perfected its organization. It was decided to admit to membership young the Boston Pilot during the convention.

present. Five high police officials in Canada had written me that they would be there, but something happened at the eleventh hour and they could not come. Hugh McKinnon of Hamilton, Ont., was the been of inferior size, affording no room for the navigator to assume a standing position only representative of the Canadian police He had therefore been compelled to finish department his journeys while in a reclining position. The Sapolio was likewise of smaller dimen-

In speaking about his re-election as presi-dent of the association Mr. Seavey said that he did not want the place and had so stated sions. While at the World's fair he had been enabled to inspect this last mentioned from the start, as he thought that it would be better if some eastern chief were made vessel and had conversed with Captain Andrews upon what was considered his perilous voyages. Mr. Shephard thinks that for extended trips and president in order to work up more interest in the association in New England and the middle Atlantic states. The members of the that for extended trips and insuring comfort his yacht has much to recommend it. He points with pride and satisfaction to his habitation, which shall offer him shelter during the biggest part of convention didn't look at it in that light, and re-elected Mr. Seavey by a unanimous v "We were royally entertained," said the chief, "by the city and county officials. Some $2,600 had been appropriated for our enter-This pleasure yacht, when completed, will tainment, and I guess every cent of it was spent. Every afternoon we were taken to places of interest. We were shown through present a neat appearance with her many bright, brass rails and fixtures. Her pro-pelling power will be furnished by sails, five the big breweries, the parks, art galleries, and given a ride on a river steamboat. Ben number, with the two-horse power gasoline engine as an auxiliary power. These engines are yet comparatively new for use sides all of this we were tendered a ban-on craft, but Mr. Shephard witnessed an experiment of their practicability in Chicago and is convinced that they are all that can When asked something about the good acomplished, the chief said: "We have awakened an interest in the organization, which now stands on a sound basis. A resobe desired for this purpose. The position of the sails can be compared to the rigging lution was passed deprecating the fact that many good, true police officers in cities of the second class were removed by a change of of a cutter. The boat has a draw of eigh-teen inches of water and about the same of the political complexion of the mayor or council. We thought that if a man was an efficient marshal or chief he should be kept There are five different watertight comin office and not changed every time there was an election. The tramp law was talked partments, including the cabin. Two of these contain tanks capable of holding 400 Two of over and an effort will be made to have the different states adopt a uniform criminal code. Members from the smaller cities gallons of gasoline for engine use and cooking purposes. On top of these tanks is room for clothing and provisions, which are plainly stated that they came there to learn something from the men who control the to be carried in rubber bags. Aft of these compartments is the cabin, with its roof elevated enough to allow police forces of the larger citles. Every-thing in connection with a police department was talked over, rules and regulations exa six-foot man to stand upright. Berths, which when closed will serve for seats, are affixed to the sides of the interior. Sev-eral windows in the front, on the sides and to the rear will admit light and fresh air. was taked over, these and regulations ex-changed, and also ideas given about arms, equipments and drills. Every little point was gone over thoroughly and we adjourned all feeling better for the meeting." The association will meet in Washington,

The glass in these is of exceptional strength The steering wheel is also in the cabin D. C., next year. In the stern of the boat is more water-tigh space. The rudder is of brass to prevent corroding. Sixteen inches is the size of the Will be of value to the world by illustrating screw propeller. The deck is also to be watertight, and for this purpose an extra covering of canvas will be added. The masts are of unusual height for a small boat, being thirty feet above the deck. The the improvements in the mechanical arts and eminent physicians will tell you that the progress in medicinal agents has been of equal importance, and as a strengthen-ing laxative that Syrup of Figs is far in advance of all others. yacht ered, as well as the topmast. The yacht might be denominated a centerboard sloop, with spoon bow, which is modeled some-what after the Valkyrie. She is supposed to ride the crest of the waves, instead of forcing her way through them. In building, she was intended for deep water sailing. Her size is twenty foet in length, with a

World's Columbian Exposition

Training Ship for San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13 .- In an interview Secretary Herbert announces that it is the intention of the government to establish a naval training station at this port. At a navai training station at this port. At present but three training ships are in serv-ice, the Saratogn at Philadelphia, the St. Mary's at New York, the Enterprise at Boa-ton. The school to be established here, it is understood, will be in the place of the one at New York and it is the intention to utilize the old Pensacola, which is lying at Mare Island, out of commission:

You Hon't Have To

personally a very pleasant gentleman to meet. He is courteous, and of pleasing countenance, with a good deal of determina-tion depicted upon his face. Answering "questions yesterday he stated that he imbibed his love for the water when he lived in Chicago. It had then afforded him great pleasure to sail over the lake and whenever opportunity had offered he had done so. He had started his yacht last November and built her with his own hands. In another month he expected to add the Go 2,000 miles to reach the land of the prune. The irrigated lands of Idaho along the line of the Union Pacific system are capable of producing the class of fruit seen in the idaho similait at the World's fair. Why! by stopping in Idaho you'll save enough on your fare and freight to make enough on your fare and freight to make the first payment on your farm. Investigate

Advertising matter sent on application, Address, E. L. LOMAX, G. P. & T. A., Omaha, Neb.

Awarded Highest Honors World's Fair. DPRICE'S Geam Baking

The only Pure Cream of Tartar Powder .-- No Ammonia; No Alum. ed in Millions of Homes-40 Years the Standard

Word was sent to the police that a riot was going on out at the ball grounds, but when police arrived the players had skipped Sunday base ball was given a black eye in South Omaha by this conduct and the police will see to it that no more such dis graceful proceedings takes place within the city limits. Funeral of Robert J. Saxe. The funeral services over the remain of the late R. J. Saxe were conducted from the Methodist church in this city yesterday afternoon. The attendance was large. Rev. C. N. Dawson conducted the services Rev. C. N. Dawson conducted the services and was assisted by Rev. J. Haynes and Rev. John Dale of Omaha. The remains were laid to rest in Prospect Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were: W. R. Bennett, P. O'Brien, H. E. Hogle, L. C. Gibson, Dr. Chaducht, and D. MacLing, The descent

"Rex" nine could be found by the reporter.

Chadwick and D. McFalin. The deceased was an old and highly respected citizen and the family has the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Magic City Gossip.

A circus is billed for South Omaha next Tuesday. St. Agnes church has been repapered and repainted. Labor Commissioner Erion spent Sunday

n the city with his family. Several fishing parties from Omaha passed

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Jaycox gave a tally-ho party to a party of friends Saturday evenwhere she went as a delegate to the P. E. O. society.

nance repeating the occupation tax ordi-nance will come up for passage.

Schank & Miller of Axtell, Neb., think that Morris and O'Connor, the men sent up from here for ten days as suspicious charac-

The South Omaha Turnverein has arranged to give a party in Bauer's ball on the even-ing of May 26. The committee on arrange-ments will meet today to decide on the de-tails. It has been decided to have a big parade on the day of the party and a large turnout is anticipated. When the turners reorganized a few months ago there were only a dozen members. Since that time The South Omaha Turnverein has arranged through the city yesterday. Prof. A. A. Monroe and wife are happy over the arrival of a new son at their home. Mrs. J. B. Watkins is home from Lincoln Goodman Drug Company. The city council meets tonight. The ordi-

| this celebration a success.

The Young Men's institute will hold a business meeting next Tuesday night, when a full attendance of members is desired.

Garrett Wall, chief of police at Swift's packing house, has been enjoying a three weeks' vacation and will return to work this morning. Mr. Wall is a faithful employe and has a large circle of friends in both Omaha and this city.

from here for ten days as suspicious charac-ters, are the men who robbed their store. In fact, a lot of the stolen stuff was found on the prisoners. Chief Brennan has writ-ten the gentlemen the facts.

J. J. O'Brien says that instead of being re strained from entering and interfering with O'Neill's barn he has been restrained by the district court from entering a barn which he has paid the rent on and holds a lease for and in which is stabled all of his horses and other livery property. He will not and other livery property. He will not bother the place, he says, until the courts have decided who is right.

only a dozen members. Since that time the number has been increased to ninety-five. Nothing will be left undone to make household each has its to the place not exceed-ing a height of four to five feet from the floor, and above the book mantle there is then a proper reservation for pictures. These Low Library Cases have heretofore but been only obtainable on private order, but since the Worki's Fair the artistic taste of the country has advanced, and with the fol-ler appreciation has come the knowledge of how these matters are ordered in well-computed houses.

La mil

51

-

regulated houses. We now have these Low Cases in both two-section and three section size at VERY Low COST. We have them with full glass Low COST, we have that the picture, or in a combination of Cabinet and Case, the center section being wide and protected by a curtain, while the side wings have glass doors, and are, in effect, small book closets. Lowest prices in Omaha.

Chas, Shiverick & Co. FURNITURE of Every Description. Temporary Location. 1206-1208 DOUDLAS ST. MILLARD HOTEL BLOCK

BEST LINE

