

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Dice Shaking in Saloons Must End with the Month.

ONE RESULT OF THE NEW MULCT LAW

Much Speculation as to How the Saloon Men Propose to Comply with the New Order of Affairs and Make Money.

"These fellows who like so well to shake dice for drinks and cigars will have to do all their shaking before the 1st of the month," remarked a prominent saloon keeper last evening.

There has been considerable speculation as to how many of the saloon keepers now in business here will be frightened out by the strictness of the provisions of the new law, but it now looks as though most of them would at least try to qualify themselves for carrying on business legally.

The assessor makes his first round June 1, and the first $100 of the tax must be paid in September. During the next three months, consequently, that will have to be paid by the saloonist will be $2.10 per month to the city clerk, unless the land-lords take precautions against being left in the hole by delinquent tenants and compel the saloon keepers to put up their $300 in advance.

CONVICTS SENT TO JAIL

Judge Riser Gives the Montpelier Train This a Little Jerky.

LEADERS WILL SERVE SEVERAL MONTHS

Members of the Industrial Army in Wyoming Very Much Alarmed at the New Turn Affairs Have Taken in That State.

CHEYENNE, May 23.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Judge Riser of the United States circuit court for the district of Wyoming this afternoon passed sentence upon fifteen members of company H, Portland Industrial army, who were arrested at Cokeville by United States Marshal Rankin and brought to this city for trial.

The judgment of the court was that B. F. Hughes, R. F. Weed and C. O'Brien, who appear to have been among the leaders who urged the men to seize the train at Montpelier, be punished by confinement in the county jail of Laramie county, Wyoming, for a term of five months, and that A. Smith, J. Short, E. P. Devaux, Charles Myers, Peter Schuler, John Bamford, J. Clark, Barney Reed, J. Powell, Fred Brey and J. W. Rowlands be confined for four months.

The prisoners listened to the judgment of the court with marked interest, but when the sentences were finally passed they were greatly crestfallen. They evidently thought they would get off with thirty or sixty days in the county jail. In fact, the court said that it had been shown by clear and positive proof that the men on trial, together with a number of others, took the engine in the possession of the company receivers appointed by the circuit court, from the round house at Montpelier, Idaho, and brought it to this city.
