ARGUING BEFORE THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Lots of Interest Shown in the Appeal of the Noted Presbyterian Divine - Started About the Presbytery's Prejudice.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 24 .- The interest in the appeal of Prof. Smith was early manifest this morning and during the devotional services the gallery was unusually full. The only vacant seats at the opening of the general assembly at 9:30 were two reserved for the family of Prof. Smith. They remained vacant until the appeal case was ready and then Mrs. Prof. Smith entered, accompanied by Mrs. Dr. Briggs of New York; Dr. Henry, M. Field, Dr. Rollin A. Sawyer and Prof. Smith's mother and Elder Yereance of New York rose to question of privilege and called attention to an article published in the Evangelist, of which Dr. Field is editor. The matter complained of referred to the election of a moderator last week. He protested against the advertising that was being given to what he declared was "reputed to be a religious newspaper. The judicial committee asked to have its report on the Smith case returned for slight change. This was granted and the proposed change was made affecting the rule for the hearing of members of the assembly. It was provided that the assembly shall be heard upon roll call, three minutes being granted to each member. Dr. Young, ex-molerator, protested against such waste of time. He stated that this rule of last year caused the assembly to lose a whole day and one-half. Despite this objection the rule was adopted.

Notice was read that the hour given to the synod of Ohio had been apportioned as follows: To Rev. A. H. Townsend of Cleve-land, O., seven minutes; to Rev. G. L. Kalb, D.D., of Bellefontaine, ten minutes; Thomas McDougall, Cincinnati, twenty minutes; Rev. M. Powell of Athens, seven minutes; Rev. Arthur C. Ludlow of Cleveland, six minutes, and Thomas McDougall, ten minutes.

DULY OPENED AS A COURT. The assembly was then constituted as a court and the reading of the records in the case proceeded with. The papers contain the report of the synod, the notice of appeal and the appeal of Prof Smith. After reading these papers the assembly decided without opposition to entertain the appeal of Prof. Smith. The reading of the full records was waived except so far as they were to be used in the argument. Prof. Smith stated that he proposed only to argue six of the grounds of appeal, instead of twelve. The argument at the start concerned the existence of prejudice in the members of the presbytery which originally

Prof. Smith sought to show that the ords of the original trial proved that the judiciatory was prejudiced in that it allowed members of the body to sit on the case who had published opinions touching the guilt of the accused. It was further shown that the regular order prescribed for judicial process by the constitution of the church had not been complied with in the preliminary stages before actual trial.

The third point argued had reference to the form in which the charges were cast and here it was argued that those charges were fatally defective in that they did not formulate the doctrine against which offense was alleged. It was expressly said that the doctrine of inspiration mentioned in the charges was one "implied" in the confession of the faith, whereas the constitutional law demanded of the church that the doctrine offended against shall be "fundamental." That which is fundamental will never be left to inference. The doctrine of the inspiration alleged in the charges was con-tended to be one not taught in scripture or in the confession and in fact to be contrary the church. The inerrancy of the original autographs of scripture was claimed to be entirely outside of the doctrine of inspiration and independent of it. It was further shown that the doctrine of inerrancy has a theological origin, not a biblical origin, and that the concern as it stands is no support to the position of the prosecution.

WORK OF THE WASHINGTON SESSION. Prof. Smith then went on to argue that the implications of the charge contained a contradiction of true Presbyterian doctrine. At this point the speaker said: "And, now we have reached the point where we may examine utterances of the last general assembly. I do not mean, of course, that it is the duty of this assembly to reveiw or revise any particular decision of the assembly of 1893 with the idea of setting it aside. The confession of faith says that all synods may err or have erred, and that their decisions must be examined." Prof. Smith went on to show that the Washington assembly evaded the issue raised by the doctrine of the confession, in failing to declare that the scriptures not "are" the word of God but "are" inerrant. To say that the original autographs "were" inerrant, makes it necessary to say that the holy scriptures "were" the word of God. But, on the contrary, the doctrine set forth by the confession was stated to be that the bible is contained in "the 'present'

Hebrew and Greek copies as the 'present' arbiter of 'present' controversies." The next objection had reference to the identity of the two charges upon which he was found guilty and the lack of definiteness in their allegations. At the close of this section of the defense the assembly took a recess.

The stated clerk read the following telegram just received from the general asof the Southern Presbyterlan church; "The blessing of God having rested upon our church in its separate existence and work the general assembly of the Presby-terian church of the United States in session at Nashville, with affectionate fraternal greetings to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States of America in session in Saratoga and wishing it godspeed in every word and work, regards it as unwise to reopen the question of

R. GRAHAM, Moderator "JOSEPH R. WILSON, Stated Clerk." . A proposal to accept the proposals from the northern churches was rejected at Nashville last night by 90 to 68 votes. The committee report recommending the rejection of the proposals of the northern churches was adopted.

HIS ARGUMENT CONCLUDED. At the afternoon session Prof. Smith continued his argument, contending that by its verdict of guilty the presbytery affirmed that he had committed the crime charged, but that the evidence adduced had falled to support the accusation. The appellant maintained that the verdict of guilty im-plied that he denied inspiration in the sense implied or expressed by the scriptures themselves, but since the scriptures and confession contain no definitions he claimed it was not a crime in Presbyterian law to decline to say what the confession does not say or to decline to say that God must make all He does perfect according to our ideas of perfection. It is not an offense

PROF. SMITH MAKES HIS PLEA to affirm the facts which a careful examination discovers in the scriptures themselves.

The argument was concluded by the claim that it cannot be a crime to assert that God's work is more effectually done by His permitting some human error to show itself in His instruments. This fact has always been recognized in the office of the preache and why not elsewhere? The whole argu ment was briefly summarized, and an appeal made for careful consideration and enlight-enment of the Holy Spirit. The argument of the afterneon was closed by quotations by professors connected with the new school branch of the church to show their accord with the prosecution.

The evening session was taken up by Mr McKibben's arguments. He read extensively from Prof. Smith's book on inspiration, from letters and other records, and was frequently nterrupted with cries of "Go on," further," etc.

Report of Committee on Narrative Shows a Steady Growth.

NASHVILLE, May 24.—The general as embly of the Southern Presbyterian church, upon assembling today, received the report of the committee on narrative. The report says that there seems to be a steady growth in the churches. Last year the average addition to each church was something over seven. Judging from the number given in the narrative the average for the present year will exceed that of last year. Taken altogether the report is of a very encouraging nature. The vote on the organic union matter taken yesterday was corrected and found to be-ayes, 67; nays, 91.

A formal protest was offered by Dr. Elwang and others against the action of the assembly yesterday in refusing to appoint a committee on organic union. The protest will be allowed to go on the minutes, but will be answered by a committee to be appointed for that purpose.

The report of the committee on licensure was then taken up and Dr. Converse still held the floor in favor of the majority report when the assembly adjourned. a steady growth in the churches. Last

DETERMINED TO RIDE EAST

But Western Industrials Seem Resolved to Leave Receivers' Roads Alone.

PLANS OF THE DENVER COMMONWEALERS

Will Attempt to Capture a Train Either on the Burtington or the Rock Island-Tired of Fighting Federal Courts - Other Armles,

Seven hundred Commonwealers were quarfered in Denver yesterday, and were furnished breakfast yesterday morning by the citizens of the Colorado capital. In this fact there is little significance, as there are armies of the Commonweal strung along from ocean to ocean, but these men state that they propose going east by the Burlington, and therein is the chief significance of the movement.

Throughout all the troubles the Union Pacific has had with roving bands of Industrialists the Burlington officials have complacently sat back in their mahogany chairs and laughed over the stressful condition of affairs on their rival road, but the summary manner the United States courts have of dealing with train stealers has changed things very materially on the Burlington.

The Commonwealers have seemingly

The Commonwealers have seemingly learned that the United States courts, hav-ing jurisdiction over receivership roads, will stand little foolishness on their part, and the 'Wealers now propose to abandon railways under the direction of the courts for roads not in the hands of receivers. This action on the part of the Occidentalists brings the Burlington and Rock Island into the game at a most unfortunate period. General Manager Holdrege received a telegram yesterday that the 700 men in Denver would undoubtedly seek to capture a train on the Burlington and asking for instructions. The telegram also stated that the sheriff of Arapahoe county, at the re-quest of local Burlington people, had taken the matter of protection in hand and had sworn in a large force of deputies to guard the Burlington yards against invasion by the army, which is made up of men who are determined to get east. At Rock Island headquarters it was as-certained that Under Sheriff Malone of Lincoln county, Colorado, had gone to Limon with commissions as special deputy sheriffs for all employes of the Rock Island running through Lincoln county. Their employes are to be armed with repeating rifles and will be empowered to resist the Denver Com-monwealers should they endeavor to capture a train, as is now feared by railroad In addition to these 700 men at Denver, it is confidently asserted that quite as many more are headed for Denver from different points in the west, the intention being to avoid receivership roads for roads not so situated, on the ground that if they are arrested they may be able to demand jury

The crowd of Commonwealers which tried to capture a freight train at Beckwith, Wyo., on the Union Pacific Wednesday, but who were foiled by the action of the train crew in detaching the locomotive and caboose from the train, walked to Fossil, Wyo., where they camped. This crowd of weary walkers is made up of some twenty-five men from Pocatello who were released from custody several days ago. It is also asserted at Union Pac fic headquarters that there is an additional contingent of fifty just behind the Pocatello body waiting for a favorable opportunity to join the advance

Armies Organizing in Nebraska.

HEBRON, Neb., May 24 .- (Special to The Bee.)-The Industrial army movement has taken root in this county. Saturday they are to meet at Glicad, where they will be organized under the leadership of General Young. The army will differ from the Kelleyites in so far that they will be armed, so they may hunt their meats.

Another band of Commonwealers is reported to be organizing at Hubbell, this county, under the command of the defeated candidate for county treasurer on the populist ticket last fall, J. S. Lichtenwalter

One of Kelly's Captains Arrested. QUINCY, Ill., May 24.-Captain Evans of Kelly's army has been indicted by the grand jury here for stealing a watch at a meeting Monday night. He is under $1,000 bail and Attorney Badgey, who travels with the army in the capacity of legal adviser, is looking after his case. Ten Commonwealers were rrested for being drunk and disorderly The army is quiet in the camp across th river. Kelly left today for Hannibal, where he camped tonight on Pearl island.

Sanders Wants to Join Kelly.

KANSAS CITY, May 24.—General Sanders, of train stealing fame, arrived in Kansas City this evening, and, upon invitation, addressed the members of the labor unions. He said he would leave Leavenworth for Kansas City as soon as released from custody and would then proceed to St. Louis and Cairo, where he would join Kelly's army and go to Washington via Pittsburg and the
