MEMORIAL DAY MURDERS

Record of Horrors Left by the Ebullition of Devilish Passions of Men.

BRUTAL CRIMES COMMITTED ON A HOLIDAY

Triple Tragedy Arising from a Love Affair in an Alabama Village—Pretty Fifteen-Year-Old Girl Outraged by a Tramp.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 31.—An old grudge growing out of a love affair resulted in a triple tragedy at Village Springs yesterday. In a fit of rage and jealousy Tom Early went into a mine where Washington Bailey was at work and shot him to death; then going to Bailey's house the murderer shot and killed the dead man's wife, with whom he had been in love, and who had rejected him for Bailey. Both murders were cold-blooded and soon officers and citizens were after Early, who fled. The police made a dash at him and he fell, dying an hour later. Both men were miners.

JUDGE LYNCH AFTER A TRAMP.

Broke Into a House and Brutally Assaulted a Girl in Her Parents' Absence.

GREENFIELD, Mass., May 31.—William Seizer, a respectable and widely known resident of East Coleraine, started with his family for Greenfield yesterday morning to visit friends and attend the Memorial day celebration. He left at home a bright and pretty 15-year-old daughter. When the family returned in the evening the daughter was lying unconscious, a severe wound in her throat, cuts and scratches on other portions of her body, and outraged. The girl was at work in the kitchen, when she was startled by the appearance of a tramp, who grabbed a big chopping knife and threatened to kill her. There was a struggle, he grasped her by the throat, choked her and struck her savagely with the knife. She finally got away and ran to her chamber. The brute followed her and succeeded in accomplishing his purpose. The girl fainted and lay on the floor unconscious for some time. When she recovered, in her terror, she jumped from her chamber window to the ground, a distance of fifteen feet, and ran to the house of a neighbor. The neighborhood is aroused and if the tramp is caught he will be lynched.

JACK THE RIPPER AT LARGE.

Terror Created in Chicago and Two Men Dangerously Hurt.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Armed with a dirk knife and acting like a maniac a veritable Jack the Ripper created terror on the North and West sides last night. Two persons became victims of his mania and are now at hospitals, terribly slashed and in a critical condition. They are:

MARTIN PETERSON, stabbed in the back and abdomen; cannot recover.

JOHN TONG, cut on the neck four inches long, cervical vertebrae bared; is in a serious condition.

The fiend with the knife is still at large. The assaults were unprovoked, and it is the opinion of those who witnessed the murderous acts that the man is insane.

Negress Kills Negress.

SELMA, Ala., May 31.—A shocking murder was committed at Orrville, near here. A negress named Pinkie Johnston accused another negress named Kessie of stealing some of her weaving apparel, and a quarrel followed. After beating Kessie into insensibility the Johnston woman procured a razor and cut her victim's throat from ear to ear, nearly severing the head from the body. Excitement is intense among the colored people of this vicinity. The murderess has been safely landed in jail.

Stabbed in a Drunken Row.

ST. LOUIS May 31.—At 1:30 o'clock this morning in a drunken row at the corner of Sixth and Elm streets, Guy Rothschild was stabbed by Fritz Clark. The former shot Clark, killing him instantly. Rothschild, who was not badly wounded, was placed under arrest.

Washerwoman Found Strangled.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Minnie Weidt, 22 years old, a washerwoman, was found dead in her room last night. A knotted handkerchief was around her neck and evidence that she had been strangled to death. The police do not know whether it is suicide or murder.

NOT ENTITLED TO THE REPORT.

South Dakota Public Examiner Can Give No Orders to District Court Clerks.

SIOUX CITY, S. D., May 30.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Judge Jones sustained the demurrer to the indictment against the clerk of the court, Albion Thorne, for refusing to report the business of his office to Public Examiner Meyers. The judge holds that the public examiner has no right to demand a report of clerks of courts. Thorne will be tried next week on another indictment of misappropriation of $1,037 of county funds.

Sioux Falls News Notes.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., May 30.—(Special to The Bee.)—George Miller yesterday pleaded guilty in police court to stealing a horse and buggy from Jacob Kiel's livery stable here last Monday, and was bound over in the sum of $500. In default of sufficient bondsmen he is now in jail.

William Stuart was bound over in the sum of $200 for breaking into a carload of beer on the Milwaukee tracks here and stealing two kegs. He is also in the county jail.

Luke Croughan says he tried to poison himself, and his brother Owen says that Luke did nothing of the kind. The local papers in mentioning the departure of the invalid wife of Luke to the home of her mother in Rodney, Ia., said that her husband had not properly cared for her, and that he was shiftless, and the police intended to order him out of town. Sunday night Luke went to a neighbor's house and told them that he had taken poison and had come there to die. They at once sent for a doctor, who came and administered an emetic, and yesterday Luke was all right. He claims he took the poison because the newspapers roasted him. His brother Owen says it was a bluff and that Luke did not take poison. A few weeks ago Luke had Owen arrested for selling one of Luke's wagons to buy food for the latter's wife and child.

A meeting of the Sioux Falls and Yankton turnvereins will be held in this city next month. The Yankton turners have chartered a Great Northern train, and will come up here 300 strong to compete for the prizes. A full day will be put in with sports and the evening will be spent in dancing and awarding the prizes won during the day. This district, comprising Sioux Falls and Yankton, will send representatives to the next national turnfest.

The case of the state against Henry Van Nice of Flandreau for adultery, which got into the supreme court on a writ of habeas corpus, involving the validity of the state law on the subject, has been settled. The supreme court holds that the law is good. Van Nice was sentenced by Judge Jones to serve a term of one year in the penitentiary here for adultery with one of Van Nice's Sunday school scholars. A motion for a new trial has been denied him heretofore, and he will now have to take his medicine as prescribed by the court.

The students of the Sioux Falls university will bring replevin proceedings against Yankton college for the possession of the $500 chalcedony slab won by the Sioux Falls university in the recent state oratorical contest. Yankton had the slab in its possession before the contest, and were so very certain of winning the contest they did not bring it to the contest, which is required by the association rules. They have since refused to send it.

Judge Jones yesterday reduced the bail of Dr. A. M. Fisher from $1,000 to $300. A motion was made by the doctor's attorneys to let the prisoner go on his own recognizance, but this was denied. Finally he induced friends to sign his bond for $300 and he was released.

The case of the state against Henry Smith for assault with a deadly weapon on the person of Fred Foster last New Year's was called for trial today. Both the principals in the fracas are young men who went to a dance at Hartford, and getting into a scrap over which should dance with a certain girl, Smith, who was the under man in the fight, took a revolver from his pocket and shot Foster. The wound was at first thought to be fatal, but the victim has now nearly fully recovered.

A Chile Enjoys

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs, and under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

FOR DEFENDING M'GINN.

Attorneys Sue the County for the Full Bill Rendered.

Attorneys Estelle and Mahoney have sued the county for a balance of $200, which they allege is due on account.

Shortly after the arrest of Barney McGinn, on the charge of having murdered Edward McKenna, these gentlemen were appointed to defend. After the case was disposed of they filed a bill with the county clerk, alleging that their services were reasonably worth the sum of $600. The bill was cut to $400 and it is on this balance which was not allowed that suit is brought.

Editor Hitchcock's Trial.

Gilbert M. Hitchcock, against whom there is an indictment in the courts, charging that he published the advertisements of a lottery, contrary to the laws of the state, is the next man up for trial in the criminal section of the district court. Some days ago Hitchcock demurred to the information, alleging that he had committed no crime, for the reason that the publication was made in a state other than the one in which the drawings of the lottery took place. Yesterday Hitchcock withdrew his demurrer and will make the fight squarely upon the issues.

Over a Sale of Stock.

In Judge Blair's court the case of the German American bank against Perry Brothers, stockmen of South Omaha, is on trial. The bank is suing to recover the sum of $1,200 which, it is alleged, is due by reason of the defendants having failed to turn over money which should have been collected on a sight draft, drawn to satisfy a claim due from George Johnson, a stockman from the interior of the state, who shipped a consignment of cattle to the South Omaha market.

District Court Cullings.

In the probate court the estate of Richard Kitchen, deceased, is up for hearing on a motion for a final settlement.

The supreme court has interfered and has prohibited the sale of the Ackerman Bros. & Heintze stock until the proceedings can be reviewed.

The baby Ruth Wright Ernest case was on for hearing in the county court again yesterday afternoon, the attorneys for the parents contending that the adoption was illegal for the reason that the county commissioners were without authority to farm the child out to Ernest and his wife.

An unusually large number of persons were in Judge Ferguson's room yesterday, anticipating a decision in the garbage case of Coombes and others against MacDonald and others, brought by the plaintiffs for the purpose of restraining the defendants from interfering in the use of the Jones street dump. The court disappointed the crowd by announcing that the opinion would not be handed down until next Saturday morning.

Before Judge Keysor the case of Jimmie Callygan against the city is having its inning, where the plaintiff is seeking to recover damages in the sum of $3,000, alleging that the defendant failed to care for and protect his property. During the summer of 1893 Callygan occupied one of the Murray shanties at Fourteenth and Jackson streets, but about that time the inspector of buildings condemned the structures and they were torn down. The household effects of the plaintiff were placed upon the sidewalk, from which place he alleges that they were stolen.

The damage case of Charles A. Hoffman against Victor H. Coffman is on trial, where the plaintiff is undertaking the task of convincing a jury that he should recover the sum of $5,000 by reason of having been thrown upon the pavement at the intersection of Fifteenth and Douglas streets, some three years ago. At that time the plaintiff was driving along the street and was run into by a cab from the Palace stables. The children of the defendant were riding in the cab and suit was brought, the plaintiff alleging that the defendant was responsible for all that took place.

NEBRASKA'S MOONSHINERS.

Teeter's Case Still on Trial and Expert Testimony Being Offered.

The "moonshine" case against J. Z. Teeter is still on trial in the federal court. The defense is seeking to prove that the whisky manufacturing apparatus was not used for illicit purposes, but was simply used to make "slop" for hogs.

One of the witnesses yesterday was I. A. Sheridan, the Red Willow county representative in the last legislature, who achieved a gold-headed cane and a disfigured countenance for a few minutes lively work in the corridor of the state house during the last session. He accompanied Deputy United States Marshal Tomlinson when the seizure of the illicit still was made, and he also gave expert testimony as to stills and whisky in general, and the striking points of difference between beer and whisky kegs.

DR. LANYON'S SUCCESSOR.

Commissioners Elect Dr. Blythin for County Physician Till Next Year.

The county commissioners met in regular adjourned session yesterday for the purpose of electing a county physician to succeed Dr. Lanyon, who tendered his resignation at the last meeting of the board. A score or more medical men had been proposed for the place, and while their claims were considered before the committee their names never got before the board as a whole. Yesterday, when the order of business coming under the head of reports of committees was reached, the chairman of the committee on charity offered a resolution, naming Dr. J. W. Blythin. The resolution was adopted by a unanimous vote and the doctor was appointed until the first of next year.

Dr. J. F. Larimer was given a place on the medical staff at the county hospital to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. A. P. Ginn.

The services of Fred Bukley, assistant at the county store, were dispensed with, the change to take effect today.

At an adjourned session of the board held in the afternoon the May pay roll was passed, after which an adjournment until June 9 was ordered.

RESUME OF LOURDES.

Brief Synopsis of the Portion of Zola's Great Story Which Has Been Printed.

CHAPTER I.—The opening scene of "Lourdes," which was commenced in serial form in Sunday's Bee of April 15, is in a car of the "white train," which carries the very sick pilgrims from Paris to Lourdes. Among the pilgrims is Marie de Guersaint, a young woman who for years has been bedridden. She is accompanied by her father and the Abbe Pierre Froment.

CHAPTER II.—The Abbe Pierre was the son of a chemist, who lived at Neuilly. Living next them were M. de Guersaint and his family. Little Marie de Guersaint and Pierre played together, and finally fell in love with each other as they grew up. Marie received an injury which resulted in nearly total paralysis. As she could never be his wife Pierre became a priest.

CHAPTER III.—The suffering in the train is intense when it stops at Poitiers half an hour for lunch.

CHAPTER IV.—As the train starts Sophie Couteau gets in. She tells the story of the cure accorded to her diseased foot by simply dipping it in the water at Lourdes.

CHAPTER V.—The abbe reads aloud a book giving the history of Bernadette, and describes the eighteen times she saw the visions in the grotto. Lourdes is reached in the early morning. As the train rolls into the station an unknown man dies.

SECOND DAY.

CHAPTER I.—A vivid picture is given of the confusion when the invalids are landed and conveyed to the hospital.

CHAPTER II.—The hospital is greatly overcrowded. At 8 a. m. the procession to the grotto starts. Father Massais asks the vast congregation to pray for a great miracle, as the body of the man who died in the train is to be immersed in the pool in hopes that life will be restored.

CHAPTER III.—The abbe meets his old friend, Dr. Chassaigne. The crowd forces the abbe to the pools. The dead man is brought in and immersed. No miracle occurs. On going out the abbe finds that Marie has been bathed without effect.

CHAPTER IV.—Dr. Chassaigne accompanies the abbe to the Bureau of Crtifications. Eliza Rouquet, whose face was made hideous by a lupus, declares the sore is steadily drying up. La Grivotte, who had been in the last stages of consumption, comes rushing in, shouting, "I am cured!"

CHAPTER V.—In the evening the abbe visits Marie at the hospital. She is very much depressed because she was not cured, and is losing her faith in the church. He reads to the invalids, continuing the story of Bernadette, telling how persecutions followed upon the first miracles, how the grotto was closed by soldiers and believers forbidden to get the water, until finally faith in the miracles became so great that the church and the government took cognizance of it and the grotto was made free. Six years after the apparitions the first religious ceremony was held at the grotto, and a marble statue of the Lady of Lourdes erected. Five years after that the beautiful basilica had been built, and the first mass was held in it. The abbe's recitation cheers up the invalids and restores Marie's faith. All the occupants of the ward partake of the holy communion, and the lights are put out.

JOBBERS' EXCURSIONS.

Omaha Wholesalers Will Get Acquainted with Their Country Customers.

Commissioner Utt and Secretary Drexel of the Commercial club are making arrangements for the wholesale jobbers excursion in the early part of July to the towns along the B. & M. railroad and its branches to the Black Hills country. They expect to fill a train of at least four sleepers and a couple of other coaches, and will be gone several days. They will visit Chadron, Sheridan, Deadwood, Hot Springs, S. D., and will stop at all the intervening places. The party is to be composed of representative men from each of the wholesale firms represented in the Commercial club, and the excursion is for the purpose of bringing the jobbers into social contact with their customers and to also advertise Omaha as a commercial center. Before returning the party will make a visit to Yellowstone park.

The Commercial club also expects to arrange a similar excursion through the western part of Iowa and the western and southern part of Nebraska. After these excursions arrangements may be made to run excursions to Omaha for the benefit of retail dealers who may want to visit the city and look over its resources for a day or two while the yare on a goods purchasing expedition.

Two Suspects Jailed.

Two tough looking citizens were arrested by Officers Ryan and Tom Hayes at an early hour yesterday afternoon and taken to the central station, where they gave their names as James Russell and Jerry Sullivan, which the police believe are fictitious. On searching their clothes quite a number of articles were found, one of the men having a gold watch, on the inside of the case being inscribed "De Motte Watson Smith, From Mother, Feb'y 11, 1894." A small pin with pearl settings was also discovered. Both men had small pieces of candies concealed about their clothes, while one of the suspects had a small steel saw carefully hidden away in the lining of his hat. They were charged with being suspicious characters, and locked up in separate cells.

CARDINE

(HAMMOND.)

The Extract of the Heart of the Ox.

Prepared according to the formula of

DR. WM. A. HAMMODD,

In his laboratory at

WASHINGTON, D. C.

"In the case of a prominent physician of Indiana, the heart beat was feeble and irregular, and there was a constant vertigo while walking, or even while in a standing position. In this case the relief was equally prompt. He remained under my care only three days, being summoned home by telegram by sickness in his family, after making arrangements to procure a sufficiency of Cardine for home use, and I advised him to continue it for at least a month. He arrived home before the Cardine reached him, and feeling the need of it, he at once telegraphed for it to be sent to him as soon as possible. He informed me that the effect upon him was so decided that, whereas, formerly he was loath to walk even a few steps for fear of being overpowered by dizziness, a single injection enabled him to walk as much as he pleased for four or five hours afterwards."

Dose, Five Drops. Price (2 drahms), $2.50.

Where local druggists are not supplied with the Hammond Animal Extracts they will be mailed together with all existing literature on the subject, on receipt of price, by Inexpensive Beauty.

It is hard to pick a single flaw in this Hall Stand. It has every virtue of style, workmanship and equipment. It has not one of the minor defects, some of which are nearly always present in an inexpensive pattern.

In general appearance it is easily recognizable as a new pattern of this year. The proportions are admirable, the framing is unusually heavy, and the outlines are as graceful as one could desire.

The seat is deep and low to the floor; the lid lifts, and there is a large storage chest for overshoes, gloves, etc. The mirror is nearly two feet in diameter, and French beveled plate.

The umbrella Rack is of brass, with a rustless bowl; the hooks are of antique pattern, with branching arms, the top and cross framing are superbly quartered and hand-carved.

For an inexpensive Hall Stand it would be hard to surpass this in a years search..

A STUPENDOUS SUIT VALUE HERDED UP FOR DECORATION WEEK.

'Tis patriotic and noble to celebrate Decoration Day.

Let those who sacrificed life for future peace, find a corner in the hearts of every true American. Let us worship their memory. Let us keep their graves green; because they were heroes—because they fought for us, and paid for it with every drop of blood.

Speaking about heroes made by fighting, we ought to be some sort of heroes ourselves. We fought our battle with those manufacturers east ever since early spring to secure what we are offering you this week and we got there—you bet.

Nebraska Clothing Co

As pure wool as the pelt of a lamb, as pretty as painted, and as durable as the Rock of Ages lay Eight Hundred Suits of six different patterns, some pin checked, some plain, some invisible plaid, some black and white mixed—brown—gray—black—blue—terra cotta and other shades—well trimmed—stylish made—all this at but a pauper price—Four Dollars and Seventy-Five Cents a suit. Six and a Half is what we used to get for 'em. If you think you can get a better one at Ten Dollars, we'll simply say: "God Bless you," buy elsewhere, we deserve none of your confidence if we cannot tell the truth. They're worth Ten Dollaas a Suit—you depend upon it.

G. A. R. Suits—are $5 and $7, with a guarantee of strictly fast colors.

A TEN DOLLAR SUIT $4.75

A truly magnificent memorial of the civil war, the enormous intrinsic worth of which will become more and more apparent as the years roll on.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

General Wolseley, of the British army, in his recent criticism of the war, declares that the Century Co. has "done a great service to the soldiers of all armies by the publication of these records."
—Chicago Advance.

THE CENTURY WAR BOOK

To estimate their value the historical student has only to think how eagerly such a series by Napoleon and his marshals and the generals who opposed him would be seized on if they could be discovered to-day.
—San Francisco Evening Post.

Histories have been written, and will be written, of the great internal conflict which darkened the land and drew the eyes of the world. But the reader of those histories will turn to these memorials of "Battles and Leaders" to verify and to vivify the impressions made by historians.—Boston Watchman.

DON'T BE LED ASTRAY!

No other (alleged) War Book was written by the officers of the Union and the Confederate armies and navies.

A magnificent contribution to the literature of recent American history.—Boston Transcript.

The Century is the ONLY War Book so written.

No other (alleged) War Book is as comprehensive or as complete.

In a literary sense it has no superior; in its own field it has no equal.—Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier.

The Century War Book is the ONLY complete history of the war.

No other (alleged) War Book is at all authoritative or of any historical value.

The most interesting and valuable series of war papers yet issued.—San Francisco Evening Post.

In contradistinction the Century War Book IS.

THIS IS THE WAY TO GET IT:

Valor has never received a greater tribute at the hands of art and literature than that paid to the battles and leaders of the great civil war in the United States in the remarkable work recently issued by the Century Co.—Bangor (Me.) Whig and Courier.

The intelligent reader, with this book for his guide, may form a much fairer opinion of the war, its leaders and its battles, than those who fought in its fields or who lived through the troublous times, reading the news day by day.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.
