Another Milk Case. Several days ago Peter Nelson and H. E. Eimburg were arrested by Inspector Hurst for violating the milk ordinance. When their cases were called in police court yesterday the milkmen wanted to settle by paying for the license. This was agreed to by Nelson, but Eimburg, while Nelson repaired to the Board of Health rooms to get the required document, in a short time returned and told the court that the board had no license blanks and therefore could not issue a license. In order to allow the board time to get some printing done both cases were continued ten days.

Balloon ascension, Courtland beach tonight. Hydrophobia from the Bite of a Rat. GUTHRIE, Okl., June 1.—Ten days ago Melville Glover, justice of the peace and a prominent farmer living southwest of here, was bitten by a rat in his wheat bin. The bite scarcely drew blood. In two days he was taken sick and is now a raving maniac. The doctors pronounce it hydrophobia. The excitement has driven his wife crazy, and it takes all the men of the neighborhood to care for them.

Complaint of Elevator Conductors. The elevator conductors held a meeting Thursday night in room 601, New York and in the presence of the board of health a petition for membership was received. Complaint was made that a few of the proprietors were now employing boys to run elevators, which is contrary to law, and the Central Labor union will be asked to enforce the law wherever it is being violated.
