TEXAS RAILROAD COMMISSION CASE.

One of the many important decisions handed down by the United States supreme court just previous to its adjournment...

The progress of the south in material development is gratifying to the people of the north, and the continued advance of that section is hoped for.

As to the particular schedule of maximum rates which had been established by the Texas commission, the supreme court leaves the question in force.

THE POLITICAL POTPOURRI.

Red Cloud Chief: Jack MacCall of Dawson county becomes stronger each day as a candidate for governor.

That was a wise determination on the part of the young German emperor to have an official announcement made of the fact that he has undertaken a successful operation for an inconsequential tumor.

The democratic party has had its trial and has failed. It has been placed in complete financial straits, and it has demonstrated its incapacity to carry out its pledges.

It is beyond the ability of any member of the loquacious state to understand why a newspaper correspondent or anybody else should be made to talk when given half a chance.

There is no denying the serious financial straits of the government. Notwithstanding the fact that the treasury is empty, the government is still borrowing for use in meeting current expenses.

The statement that the marriage and birth rates have increased in Wyoming since the adoption of the elective franchise is the strongest argument in favor of equal suffrage.

Claus Spreckels is going to Europe, and says that he has retired from active life and is not interested in sugar.

The United States would profit by the example of the nations in the matter of cabinet crises.

The effect of work of Spanish bulls in recent exhibitions has not exhausted the stock of American admiration.

It would be a relief to the south if General Sherman's ghost were to appear and pull the clerical cave after him.

Claus Spreckels is going to Europe, and says that he has retired from active life and is not interested in sugar.

"I'd give anything to go to the races," exclaimed his better half, looking after the agent shall be determined by ordinance.

The St. Paul Globe explains that the matrimonial misfortunes of Sig. Perugini are traceable to his hot Italian blood, and that who has been characterized by Italy.

A New York genius possessing brains and cash proposes building an island some miles off the coast and erecting thereon a huge island for the accommodation of the exclusive set.

RYAN'S SILVER SIDESHOW.

Pierce County Call: It behooves populists to keep in the middle of the road. Don't tramp on the grass!

Nebraska City Press: Hon. Jim Boyd is probably on hand a few weeks hence, when the democracy of Nebraska, reorganized on a silver basis, shall call for a leader.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Chicago Tribune: In his speech at the dedication of the Soldiers Home at Richmond last Wednesday, General Rosser said: "We will live to see the Yankee army march through the south and pull down our monuments."

Washington Star: The mine owners of the Cour d'Alene region are advertising for 4,000 miners to work at wages of $2 and $3 per day.

New York Sun: It appears to us, and we believe it will appear to most persons of ordinary common sense, that Mr. Gray's investigating committee, so called, will find Mr. Carter's duty to perform.

Chicago Tribune: There appears to be signs of structural weakness in the democratic party south.

Chicago Tribune: Efforts to end the coal miners' strike in Kentucky are being hindered by the refusal of one of the largest coal companies to participate in the conference.
