The sugar schedule went down like a homoeopathic pill.

Hasall's Judiciary committee is like Aaron's serpent, that swallowed all the other snakes.

The Grand Army of the Republic is still being industriously worked by rival politicians this year.

A few resignations from the police force might possibly save some members the humiliation and disgrace of dismissal.

The gold reserve is again declining, but no apprehension seems to be felt.

The country is becoming used to the novelty of being hard up.

Only two democratic senators in favor of free sugar? What becomes of all those rosy promises which were held aloft during the last presidential campaign?

The new cruiser Minneapolis cannot be expected to arouse much enthusiasm in St. Paul.

Uncle Sam will have to build a twin screw sister to the Minneapolis in order to restore the wounded municipal pride of St. Paul to its original condition.

An overwhelming republican majority in the new Oregon legislature insures the retirement of Penneyer to private life.

At least for a while, Oregon is not yet ready to be represented in the senate by a man who is so assiduous in the cultivation of notoriety.

The latest South American revolution is dated from Chili.

These South American republics should form a league and fight their revolutions according to a prearranged schedule.

By this means popular interest would be increased and the gate receipts might pay the expenses.

Those members of the Sugar trust who contributed so lavishly to the democratic campaign fund in 1892 are no doubt quite well satisfied with the returns on their money.

If this investment yields such speedy profits they will not neglect the next opportunity that offers equal advantages.

Seventy-five Commonwealths were captured at Ellis, Kan., and hauled back to Denver by the United States marshals, only to be discharged.

This means that there were seventy-five fees in the deal for the marshal and seventy-five full fares in it for the railroad.

How much longer will this farce continue?

The street sweeping inspector made himself offensive to the street sweeping contractor, and that made him offensive to Hasall, and Hasall, as the head and front of bogus retrocession, decided that the services of the inspector were no longer required.

The summary hearing is notice to all other inspectors that they must not offend the contractors. Keep off the grass.

If anybody really tried to bribe Senators Kyle and Hinton to vote in favor of the demands of the Sugar trust in the proposed tariff, he must now realize the error of his ways.

Both those senators put themselves on record in support of the amended sugar schedule. It would have been the height of foolishness to pay senators for votes which were already assured to the trust.

"General" Scheffer and the other "generals" of the Industrial army that was apprehended in Idaho for seizing a Union Pacific train have been sentenced to six months imprisonment, while the ordinary members of the rank and file got off with only thirty days.

This is one of the privileges and immunities that attaches to these sugar-made titles. The same offense is much more reprehensible in a general than in a high private.

In view of the decision of the supreme court in the case in which Auditor Moore declined to pay to the treasurer of Scotts Bluff county something like $7,500 that had been donated to that county, the next legislature will be a little chary of making donations to frontier counties.

The decision hinges upon a technicality of the finest character, and the larger majority of people of Nebraska will express the views of Chief Justice Norval expressed in a dissenting opinion.

When it comes to retrocession and economy, commend us to the city council. The mayor very properly vetoed the item in the appropriation bill for the pay of an engineer in the library building on the ground that the building did not require heating during the summer season, and therefore the appointment of an engineer was premature.

The retrocessors of the council promptly overruled the veto and saddled the engineer upon the pay roll for the balance of the season, although the library building is not occupied, and will not require the services of an engineer for at least four months to come.

There is no engine in the building, no elevator to run, no dynamo to operate, and no steam or power required for any purpose.

But the council is for retrocession with a big B.

BAR OUT THE INTERMEDIARIES.

The "new industry" of refunding county bonds held by the state in trust for the permanent school fund at the expense of that fund, which was recently exposed in The Bee, has fortunately not yet secured a very firm foothold in our midst, and can be throttled in its infancy if only energetic and decisive measures are adopted.

The plan of operation of these bond brokers, as previously outlined, is simply this: The interested brokers ascertain what counties have outstanding bonds already payable. The whole issue, or at least a large portion of it, is held by the state, which must reinvest the sum received from the payment of those bonds and which is limited in its reinvestment to the securities designated in the constitution.

MAXWELL ON THE MAXIMUM RATE CASE.

The interview with Judge Samuel Maxwell on the maximum freight rate injunction proceedings brings out a few points in connection with the conduct of that case which show what an imposition has been practiced upon the people of this state.

THE OHIO REPUBLICANS.

The voters of Ohio elect this year only three state officers and a member of the supreme court, but, judging from the enthusiasm manifested at the republican state convention, that party is just as full of zeal and quite as earnest and harmonious as it was last year, when it re-elected Governor McKinley by the largest majority, with a single exception, ever given a candidate for governor of that state.

everywhere will occur in it, but in advocating such a policy as will, by discriminating legislation or otherwise, most speedily restore to silver its rightful place as a money metal.

The Ohio republicans have made a mistake. What they mean by discriminating legislation is that this country shall adopt a policy designed to force the countries of Europe, and particularly Great Britain, to a larger recognition of silver in their currency systems.

TIME TO CALL A HALT.

The pernicious interference of S. L. Wiley with the city council has reached a stage that calls for action on the part of taxpayers generally.

THE OLD GRAVEL TRAIN RACKET.

The Burlington is in high disfavor in Ashland at present. Friday the people of that city were called upon to vote on a proposition to send the gravel train to the High school, and as all loyal Ashlanders are strongly in favor of good education, they voted accordingly.

NEBRASKA AND NEBRASKANS.

The question of irrigation is being agitated in Dawson county. Chapman is a grist mill if the crops turn out well this year.

Girl number one I loved upon One balmy summer eve, And begged of her a single kiss Before I took my leave.

GLAND MARCH OF CANDIDATES.

Kearney Journal: MacColl's boom marches steadily on, and all indications point to his successful nomination.

MINNESOTA'S TALK OF WOE.

Buffalo Express: Whether Tynan is working for a revolution or a mere social reformation, he is a bungling artisan.

RETRIBUTION.

Chicago Post: P. J. Tynan, the Number One of the Phoenix park conspiracy, is reported to have printed a book on that affair.

HURRAHS FOR HILL.

Kansas City Star: Senator Hill is receiving his reward. A republican club in Brooklyn has just tendered him a vote of thanks and confidence.

NEBRASKA AND NEBRASKANS.

The Burlington is in high disfavor in Ashland at present. Friday the people of that city were called upon to vote on a proposition to send the gravel train to the High school, and as all loyal Ashlanders are strongly in favor of good education, they voted accordingly.

THE GREAT ACCOMPLISHMENT.

She doesn't sing, she doesn't play, She doesn't paint, she doesn't clay, She doesn't work in modeling clay, And never hammers brass.

Is he a Missionary?

No, HE IS NOT—He's just a funny little man put in there to attract the missionary's attention to the fact that we are holding a special sale of $18 to $20 suits for $10—Elegant goods—a tailor would charge $35.
